Local Matters.

Friday Morning,!!!!!!October 14, 1859.

STATE PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. Boston, of the Adams Express Company, for New Orleans papers of the 12th, delivered last evening.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were but five cases before the Recorder yesterday, three of which were sent up the chain gang.

COMPLETED.—The new bridge over the Tennessee river, at Decatur, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, which was blown down about two months ago, will be completed by Tuesday next.

Arrival of Vessels at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 13.—The ships Vandalia from New York, Charles Davenport and Rockaway from Boston, and the bark William Henry from Baltimore, arrived at this port to-day.

COLORED FUN.—The African members of the First Methodist Church of the city, are holding a fair at Odd Fellows' Hall at present, having given two entertainments of the kind—on Wednesday evening and another last evening. The fair closed last evening.

PUNISHMENT OF A WIFE-WHIPPER.—Michael Cullen, of whose conjugal propensities we have spoken heretofore, was sentenced to the chain gang yesterday by the Recorder for the last period of one hundred and three days, for cruelty to his wife.

NEW APPARATUS.—The gallant Pioneer hook and ladder fire company have just received a full set of new ladders, etc., manufactured expressly for them in New York, under the direction of Mr. A. C. Woodruff.

SALE OF DELINQUENT TAXABLES.—Tax-Collector Bowen requests us to call attention to the public sale of property returned delinquent for non-payment of taxes, which will come on the 27th inst. These interested should profit by this announcement.

OLD MEMPHIS THEATRE.—There was no entertainment at the old Memphis Theater last evening. The talented German theatrical company, however, by whom the theater has been engaged, will appear in a favorite piece this evening.

GOOD PICKING.—Mr. D. S. She Ston, superintendent of the plantation of Mr. A. Thompson, of Deadmans, Mississippi, writes to us that on the 10th inst., one hand picked out 811 pounds of cotton, and on the 11th, the same hand picked out 877. This is the best picking we have heard of this season.

L. F. BLACKWELL & CO.—We understand that these young gentlemen have located in the town of Searcy, Arkansas, for the purpose of selling dry goods, with their untiring energy and good judgment in the selection of merchandise, we predict that they will meet with great success. So mote it be.

☞ The attention of the public is invited to the advertisement of the Goodrich Fire Insurance Company, of which George W. L. Cook is agent in this city. It has a cash capital of $125,000, and its board of directors is composed of substantial and reliable men.

☞ Fagin's Four Ace Flour of St. Louis, and for which our friend A. H. Hale is agent in Memphis, took the premium on Wednesday, offered for the best flour made out of white wheat. We regard it as the best flour in our market. It makes beautiful white bread, and has more nutriment in it than any flour we have ever tasted.

A NUISANCE.—We observed with great regret yesterday that a number of low gamblers had taken possession of the locality immediately in the vicinity of the main entrance to the fair grounds, and that they were pursuing their pernicious games greatly to the annoyance of visitors. We trust the authorities will take measures to assert a similar state of things to-day.

SPEEDY JUSTICE.—A. M. Headley, on account of whose arrest on the charge of stealing a negro and attempting to elude the vigilance of the law, was tried in the Criminal Court yesterday on the latter charge and sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for a period of two months, and to pay a fine of $50. In all probability a requisition from the governor of Louisiana will be in readiness for his arrest.

AN ACT OF JUSTICE.—We made the announcement some time since that Chas. T. Johnson had been arrested at the complaint of Col. Coleman, of the Telegraph office, for obtaining a sum of money under false pretenses. In Mr. Johnson has been honorably acquitted of the charge we then it is a simple act of justice to state that he (Johnson) has made to us an expression from Col. C. as to his presence. We publish a card elsewhere from Col. Coleman, in relation to the matter.

☞ Among the beautiful things on exhibition in the Floral Hall at the Fair Grounds is a picture of Reuben, presenting the most of many colors to Jacob, worked in Berlin worsted by Mrs. M. L. Lewis of the vicinity of Memphis. The artistic embroidery and shading surpass any work of that kind that we have ever seen. Of course Mrs. Lewis will take the premium, there being no competition, and the work itself is unsurpassed competition in the specialty of embroidery.

BURNETT HENDRIX & WALLACE.—We (naturally) entertain considerable curiosity to see the interior of the hard of this firm, recently established in our city. With Mr. Hendrix we have an acquaintance of some years' standing, and know him to be an enterprising, prompt, reliable, active business man whom we can recommend as worthy of the public patronage. The firm here are represented as gentlemen of capacity, business experience and means, and we venture to predict for the house a prosperous career. So mote it be.

THE QUESTION OF EXTENSION.—There was a meeting of citizens at the Exchange Building last evening, for the purpose of discussing the right of way to the Memphis and Charleston railroad to extend the road through the city to the landing. The meeting was addressed by Colo. Tabb, Payne and Kortrecht in favor of the enterprise, and by Alderman Dunglison and Perkins in opposition thereto. The meeting adjourned to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall this evening, to consider the same subject. The election to take the sense of the people upon the question, will be held at the usual voting places in the city to-morrow.

COLD WATER ASSOCIATION.—This body, composed of Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, Dispersed through Buffalo, Panola, Marshall and Marshall counties, Miss., and one in Shelby county, Tenn., will meet to-day, at Mount Pisgah church, seven miles from this city, near White's station, on the M. & T. R. R., this morning at 10 o'clock. Much important business will come up for consideration, and many eminent ministers are expected to be present. The M. & T. R. R. will run an extra train on Sunday, to the nearest station to the church, (Whitely) to enable citizens to attend morning and evening services.

RESULT OF RECKLESSNESS.—We heard of another terrible accident yesterday, which was the direct result of careless driving. The driver of back number twelve, it is said, was driving his horses up Main street at a furious rate yesterday, heedless of all objects in his path, and when he arrived at the intersection of Main and Madison streets, collided with two little boys in the thoroughfare, one of which, a son of Mrs. W. J. Whitsitt, was knocked down by the horses, both wheels of the vehicle passing over the little fellow, inflicting injuries from which he may never recover. The other youth was not slightly injured. The driver afterward became conscious of his criminal recklessness, and, leaving his horses and vehicle in the street, fled to avoid an arrest.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—There was a large collection at the Concert last night to witness the representation of Romeo and Juliet. We were decidedly better pleased with Miss Cushia last evening than in any character in which we have seen her, Mrs. Coleman Pope was charming as the "queen of the fairies," Mr. Pope, and the other members of the company met the decided approbation of the audience. The entertainment this evening will be for the benefit of Miss Cushia, on which occasion she will appear both in Fanny and the Lady Chaworth—undertaking calculated to test the greatest genius and power.

CLIFTON.—The display of horses at the fair yesterday was highly gratifying, both as to the number and merits of the stock. Among others we recognized the good and gallant Lem of Mr. Hay's Clifton, a blood descendant of Grey Eagle, and himself a noble representative of that noble line of horses. Clifton was not entered for horses, but simply by request for exhibition, having earned his laurels before in many rings in which the contest for blue ribbons was sweeter than it was yesterday. His noble form and vigorous frame, well tempered by exercise with dreams of Job's war-horse, as the poet has attired gallantbrave as, apparently conscious of his own physical beauty and of the universal admiration in which he was held.

LYNCH LAW AT MOUND CITY, ILL.—Passengers who arrived by the train over the Memphis and Ohio railroad yesterday morning have furnished us the following account of a summary and the subsequent execution of the murderer, at Mound City, Ill. It appears that on Saturday evening a desperate fellow named John Vaughan, in company with one of the employees at Goodyear's foundry, became very much intoxicated and raised considerable disturbance. Late in the night they got in company with a man named John K. Charles. In a short time, however, a difficulty arose between Charles and the foundry man, and the two became engaged in a fight, during which the former came off victor, dealing his antagonist some severe blows with his fist. Vaughan, who died by, seeing his friend getting the worst of the affray, drew a pistol and deliberately shot Charles through the heart, killing him instantly. He then crossed over into Kentucky and fled, but was pursued to Bottley by Capt. Perrett and a large number of persons, and though armed with a gun which he possessed at the offering, she surrendered without the same number of visitors, and taken back to Mound City and lodged in jail. Late during night by a large crowd of people gathered around the jail, and, notwithstanding with a battering ram, effected an entrance, and taking Vaughan out informed him that he had not too much time in which to make his peace with God, as they intended hanging him. He tries and entreaties on being informed of his fate are represented as heart-rending in the extreme. But supplications were of little avail, and he was strung up with little more ceremony than he was given by his victim, and his body left hanging to the limb of the tree till Monday morning, when it was cut down by some of his friends and removed. The fate of Vaughan is horrible, but the federal cities which he had committed seemed to afford an excuse, almost, for the indulgence of the passions of the excited populace.

This is a most useful as well as entertaining work, which we would recommend to all who wish to have their entertainments done up secundum artem.

PARTIES AND THEIR PRINCIPLES; A Manual of political conclusions, exhibiting the origin, growth and character of national parties, with an appendix containing general and statistical political information. By Arthur Holmes. New York: D. Appleton & Co., 346 and 348 Broadway, 1859. Memphis: For sale by Clarke and Yates, Union Building.

This is a hand book for the politician and statesman, without any party bias, and is a useful work to place in every library in the land.

Four Years Aboard the Whale Ship. Embracing cruises on the Pacific, Atlantic, Indian, and Arctic oceans, by William H. Whitmer, Jr. Philadelphia: J. P. Lippincott & Co.

The work before us treatises very fully and very satisfactorily of matters with which the general reader is not familiar, but in reference to which there has always been an eagerness for information. The volume in question embraces four hundred pages, elegantly printed and bound. For sale by Messrs. W. R. Strange & Co., under Odd Fellows' Hall.

☞ The Spartanburg (S. C.) Express and the Anderson Gazette are both out for the nomination of Hon. Jas. L. Orr for the Presidency.

SHELBY COUNTY FAIR.

THIRD DAY.

Yesterday was a very busy day on the fair, and the crowd was at least doubled from the preceding day. The attendance of ladies was large, and would have been still larger but for some appearance of rain, which fortunately proved false. To-day promises to be a great large crowd. This will be the last day of the fair. The judges to the lady working the best cotton dress, of her own make, will be awarded. There will be a masquerade in the evening, surpassing anything of the kind heretofore seen in Memphis. The young gentlemen who are pouring in the exhibition are paying unusual attention to their costumes. There will be nothing but gratification on the fair grounds to-day.

The department of agricultural implements had yesterday assumed proportions which resulted it in admiring notice, which notice was not withheld. A novel horse hay rake, Ramsey's reaper, the workmanship of a school boy, several novel stoves, some specimens of portable steam, lever and other power, and various other articles of curiosity and merit will be found by the visitor to-day to be of great interest.

Floral Hall exhibited many new attractions. Articles of surpassing beauty in knitting, crewel, crochet and other fanciful work was admirable from every one. It is quite a pleasure to hear the ladies' admiring exclamations over mysteries of embroidery and beauty which the wearers of bifurcated extremities have to be contented with admiring, though can never understand.

We are reminded by a fair correspondent that we have failed to render the just meed of praise to a superb specimen of flowers produced by the artists and artificers of Mrs. Wade B. Mills, who took the premium. It excited universal attention from its novel and graceful arrangement. It fully merited the premium awarded to it. So many and such lovely bouquets were exhibited that it was a true piece to hear of the praise on the occasion. The judges must have experienced no ordinary difficulty in deciding and claim as great and often as lively praised.

The same correspondent calls our attention to the vase of paper flowers, the production of that distinguished amateur artist, Mrs. Friedell. It surpasses anything of the kind we have ever seen, and many persons were interested upon the lovely petals and natural looking stamens, by those who found it difficult to convince themselves that art had so closely imitated the gift of nature, and that the roses, carnations, etc., were not grown in the garden. In this department Mrs. Friedell is certainly without a rival.

The printers yesterday seized the "matter" in one portion of our Floral Hall report, in a manner more satisfactory to the reader than agreeable to the writer. Cakes, crackers and bread were covered with a curtain intended for oil paintings. The transposition of a single line made all the mischief.

The beautiful robes of Mrs. Jesse M. Tate, which we mentioned yesterday, took the premium, as it was bound to do, for it was an exquisite specimen of ladies' work. Among those specimens, we must not omit to name a fine quilt of no ordinary merit, made by Mrs. T. W. Wilson, of this State, who is now over ninety years old.

The public will please to notice that to-day there will be an exhibition of gentlemen's equestrianship, $5 entrance, when a splendid silver pitcher will be awarded to the best rider.

Mr. Sartin, a pupil of Rarey, with "Rarey-fy" a wild horse to-day.

The judges made an error on Tuesday in the name of the taker of the premium for buffery, it was awarded to Mrs. George Dixon, the second book to Mrs. Mary L. Person's

The notice on exhibition was not equal on the average to expectations. We much regret that it is not the premium ought to have brought out a larger and excellent competition. The orders of Mrs. M. M. Burton, of Holly Springs, Mississippi, was of the celebrated Rankin silk kind, and was a very fine specimen—specimen in superior was never seen here. The ladies in from the were admirers for their neat appearance. Five bales with domestic for an under inclosure, rope the, were handsomely packed.

In the course of the afternoon, Judge Brown addressed the assembled multitude in his usual moving, earnest, and poetic strains upon the subject of the Mount Vernon Association and the nobleness of the work of securing the home and last resting place of Washington to the possession of a proud and grateful country. The consequence of the appeal was a liberal contribution to the fund—we scarcely need say that the ladies were the principal donors.

Among the most gratifying incidents we have personally experienced during the fair, is the generous hospitality extended to the press and many others, by the President, Col. Pope, and his kind and hospitable lady. The friendly interest the latter lady evinced manifest, and various other farm productions which no hand of his place has touched, are among the very best and most praiseworthy of the articles exhibited at the fair. They take no formal premium, but we answer for them the entire to Col. Pope's text claiming them among the first of premium deserving objects.

DEPARTURES YESTERDAY.

Chancellor.....Louisville | Sou. Lewis.....St. Louis
Victoria.....Vicksburg | Prima Donna.....Cincinnati
St. Francis X. T. R. P. R.

The river was about as at dead yesterday at this point. The weather was pleasant, with indications of rain, but no rain. The streets and landing have become quite dusty again. There was considerable activity at the landing.

The Olio is expecting at Louisville with four feet four inches water in the canal Wednesday.

The telegraph last night reported the river falling at St. Louis, with 8½ feet thereon in Cairo.

Some of the tributaries to the Mississippi are rising, among which is the Illinois, which has become navigable since the steamers.

The Victoria arrived from Vicksburg at an early hour yesterday morning, with an excellent trip of freight, including one hundred and fifty-seven bales cotton, and 1100 sacks of cotton seed. She departed again for Vicksburg last evening with a large number of passengers and a good freight list.

As is her wont, the Sam Lewis, from St. Louis, arrived yesterday morning with a full passenger list and a good freight. She left again for St. Louis last evening with freight, including about six hundred bales cotton for the East. We are indebted to her officers for papers and other favors.

The Sam Kirkman departed for Pittsburg last evening, taking about 200 bales cotton.

The Prima, one of the new line boats to Pittsburg, arrived yesterday, and will leave again for Pittsburg at four o'clock this afternoon. She is in command of Capt. Devinney, with Captain J. H. Lightner in the office, both popular and efficient officers. We are pleased with her general appearance, and welcome her among our local packets. She will take a cargo of cotton, if it should offer in time, for the participants in regard to which apply to Moore, Morton, Priest & Co., at the new warehouse.

The Fairchild, W. W. Forrest arrived at our landing yesterday, with a load of fine stock for the coast and 600 bales of cotton for this port. She is under command of Captain W. B. Barker, and is destined for the Omaha river.

The Chancellor, for Louisville, and the Prima Donna, for Cincinnati, passed up yesterday. The Prima Donna discharged a large consignment of cotton and a number of cabinets at this port.

Mr. Alex. Waddell of the Daniel Boone, and Mr. Jas. A. Parker, of the Female Whipple, were both in the city yesterday.

Captain R. Eugene Rowan, clerk of one of the Arkansas river mail boats en future, arrived from Napoleon Tuesday.

The splendid steamer Belfast, Captain Wray, is the regular mail and passenger packet for New Orleans at the usual hour this afternoon, affording an excellent opportunity for a pleasant trip for travelers going south.

St. Francis No. 2 disembarked the St. Francis River trade yesterday. She opened the season with a light trip, having but few passengers and little freight.

The B. M. Rowan, the new Memphis and Nashville packet, was due last evening. She will, in all probability, leave for Nashville and way places to-day.

Freights are said to be scarce at Cairo, and prices have declined fully 10 ⅌ cent within the past week.

The new Texas river and New Orleans packet J. W. Sharpe, will arrive from Louisville this morning. The Chandler, another new boat, left Louisville for New Orleans Thursday, and is, therefore, due here.

The Mary Cook, recently built and run in the Ohio river, has been raised, and is at Cincinnati undergoing repairs.

CHANCERY SALE

IN

FORT PICKERING.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Chancery Court at Memphis, rendered May Term, 1859, in the cause of Barrett G. Bailey and others, vs. The Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company and others, Robert McKenney, administrator of Michael Leonard, deceased, vs. The LaFayette and Memphis Railroad Company and others, and Peter Leonard vs. The LaFayette and Memphis Railroad Company and others, I will on Thursday, October 27th, 1859,

On the premises, in the town of Fort Pickering, proceed to sell to the highest bidder, the

VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND,

Upon which the town of Fort Pickering is situated, containing about

Two Hundred and Eight Acres,

(except such portions thereof, as have been sold and conveyed by the Memphis and Delaware Railroad Company, prior to the 5th of October, 1853.) Said tract of Land is bounded as follows, to wit: Beginning on the bank of the Mississippi river at the south-west corner of John Overton's 101 acre tract, thence south 80 degrees west, twenty-nine hundred and ninety-two feet to the intersection of the Mississippi river 190 poles to the north-west corner of a 640 acre tract, allotted to Aaron Fisher, thence south with the north boundary line of said 640 acre tract, 264 poles to the center of Bayou Gayoso, thence down the meandering of said Bayou Gayoso to a point near where the south boundary line of said 640 acre tract crosses the center of said Bayou, thence west with the said boundary line about 100 poles to the beginning.

The whole of said tract of land has been laid off and subdivided into blocks and town lots of various sizes, with all necessary streets and alleys, and will be sold separately to suit purchasers, as number 64 and laid down on the plan of the same, made by Thomas Sevier, C. E., now a map of the city of Memphis and Fort Pickering.)

Arrival of the Steamship City of Manchester.

One Day Later from Europe.

NEW YORK, October 13—The steamship City of Manchester, of the Liverpool, New York and Philadelphia line, passed Sandy Hook at 2 o'clock. She sailed from Liverpool on Thursday, the 29th ult., and consequently brings one day later advices than those received yesterday by the steamship Indiana, which sailed from Liverpool on the 30th inst.

The steamship Fulton, which sailed from New York for Galway on the 29th ult., has arrived at her destination.

The Canadian North Action, which sailed from Quebec for Liverpool on the 30th ult., has arrived at that port.

The London Times, in a second article on the occupation of the Island of San Juan, by American troops, says: "The seizure of the Island of San Juan originated in the assumption that Mr. Buchanan had no means to execute the act." It concludes by saying, "It is time to put a stop to such notions."

A telegraphic dispatch from Zurich announces the arrival of Prince Napoleon at that place on Wednesday, 11 28th, where separate conferences immediately took place between the French and Sardinian and French and Austrian Plenipotentiaries.

The French and English expedition to China is in active preparation, and is expected to leave about the middle of November.

MODENA.—The Dictator of Modena has ordered thirty thousand Minnie rifles for his troops.

PARMA.—The King of Naples has gone on a visit to the Pope.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune states that the British government has sent a peremptory message to Lord Lyons to demand an explanation in regard to the occupation of the Island of San Juan by Gen. Harney. On the contrary, Lord Lyons claims the Island of San Juan as British territory, and has submitted a proposition for the settlement of the dispute. Gen. Cass replies that he positively declines to Paradise even a shadow of British title to the island.

This form of the affair is considered as being very serious. The Government feel the position, that peace or war depends on the tenacity of England to her pretensions.

An extraordinary session of the Cabinet was held today to deliberate on the San Juan affair. Nothing has transpired. Gen. Cass was absent on account of Physical indisposition.

It is believed that the troops, which were sent in to act in Brownsville, had been withdrawn because of the indeterminate of the place, and the supposition that they would not be needed.

The Secretary of State advises the Treasury Department that Spain having admitted vessels of the United States in the same footing with national vessels, as regards tonnage duties, the United States, a corresponding privilege will be extended to Spanish vessels, excepting from Cuba to Porto Rico, which are provided for by the act of July, 1832, and June, 1834.
