Local Matters.

Sunday Morning,.....October 16, 1859.

☞ There was a false alarm of fire about 11 o'clock last night.

LATE PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. A. Boston, of the Adams express company, for late papers.

☞ Rev. Mr. Besser will preach for Dr. Grundy, in the Second Presbyterian Church, this morning, at 11 o'clock.

☞ There will be religious services to-day at Davidson Chapel, at 10½ o'clock, Rev. W. H. Owen, pastor.

☞ Mr. Harry Stucky, of the well-known house of Thos. H. Hunt & Co., Louisville, is at the Gayoso House.

THE LOUISVILLE RACES.—The sport over the Woodlawn Course, at Louisville, closed yesterday. An account of the closing course may be found in our telegraphic column.

CRIMINAL COURT.—This tribunal was engaged yesterday in the consideration of the misdemeanor cases, which, although of a trifling character, yet the civil justice docket will be taken up to-morrow.

☞ There will be services at the Christian Church, corner of Linden and St. Patrick streets, this morning at 10½ o'clock, and at 7½ to-night, Rev. Dr. W. J. Barkley, pastor.

EXAMINATION POSTPONED.—A. Cotton, who has been in custody some two weeks on the charge of stealing a horse from Judge Harris, and another from Col. Tom, was brought before Squire Hooper yesterday for examination, and the case will be continued until Tuesday next.

CORRECTION.—There was a curious typographical error in a notice which we gave of a specimen of "Yellow Corn" on exhibition at Fowlkes' Hall in the Fair Grounds. The name of the fair and skillful lady whose hands wrought the beautiful picture was printed—Mrs. M. L. Lewis. It should have been Mrs. M. E. Sims.

THE DEPOT FOR FAMILY SUPPLIES.—The enterprising firm of Mason, Cartwright & Co., on Front Row, has already won an enviable reputation as the headquarters for family supplies. They are the sole agents in this city for the sale of the celebrated Kentucky whisky of that name, and their stock of cheese, fresh butter and lager beer is never out in this city.

MILWAUKIE LAGER BEER.—Mr. Steinkuhl, of the Tennessee Saloon, on Adams street, has received a supply of this premium lager beer, which is worthy of a recommendation. There is so much of this article now in market that it is difficult and tempting, that it is a decided advantage to know where a pure article can be obtained. The Milwaukie premium beer is pure beyond question.

DROWNED.—As the Crescent City was leaving the lower wharf-boat, Friday night, three men, deck passengers, fell overboard, two of whom were drowned. The names of the unfortunate men, one of whom left a wife and child in Louisville, cannot be known. A dockhand on the John C. Fremont also fell overboard about the same time, in the same locality, but was rescued.

IVORYTYPES! IVORYTYPES!! CLARK & RENFROSTON'S GALLERY.—The greatest improvement ever presented, having all the softness and brilliancy of solar pictures, in full relief. Very miniatures, and at prices to suit the times. Call and see, unless DISLT at Clark & Renfroston's commodious skylight gallery. Also, photographs, ambrotypes and ambrotypes.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were five additions to the chain gang from the recorder's court yesterday. Thomas Robinson, convicted of the charge of permitting negroes to gamble on his premises and of furnishing them liquor, was sent to the chain gang in default of a fine of $50, for a period of 60 days. Geo. W. Fryer, charged with selling without license, was fined $50.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—We announced yesterday that A. M. Bradley, who had been convicted upon a charge of misdemeanor, in attempting to make a double sale of a negro, had been sentenced to the county jail for a period of sixty days, and to pay a fine of $50. The State was granted an arrest of judgment in the case yesterday in Judge McKiernan, and an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. In the meantime Bradley gave collateral security for his appearance, and was released on bail.

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF THE MARKET ORDINANCE.—Mr. J. G. Hanley, dealer in vegetables, was arrested before the recorder yesterday on the charge of violating the market ordinance, the specification being that he had sold articles of merchandise beyond the limit prescribed by the ordinance. The accused proved that he had sold the articles during market hours, and the recorder decided that it was no infringement upon the ordinance to dispose of merchandise after market hours, that had been offered within the legal time. Mr. Hanley was therefore discharged.

DEATH OF A SUICIDE.—We have already announced the fact that A. W. Cline, of Mt. Pleasant, Miss., had attempted to destroy his life in this city by taking strychnine, in Court Square, Friday morning. Immediately after his discovery in Court Square the unfortunate man was taken into a saloon, and was removed to Mr. Eldridge's office, on Court street, and after his removal his symptoms proved the belief that he would eventually recover. He lingered however, in great suffering until yesterday afternoon, when he died the death of a suicide. The only motive man was induced to commit the rash act, he said, though the conviction of the intelligent man's wife, who resides in this city.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—There was another large crowd gathered at the theater last evening. Miss Cosmia appeared in the character of "Parthenia", in the play of Ingomar—a play that always proves attractive, and a character that challenges the sympathies of an audience. As the unsophisticated girl, Miss Cosmia was really charming, and we felt as we sat on the cushions that we would gladly do anything for her. Mr. Stewart appeared to very great advantage. The character of "Ingomar" is not less difficult than delicate, and Mr. Grass was quite the refined barbarian. Miss Cosmia has been engaged for the coming week—an announcement which will gladden all our playgoers, as she has won amazingly upon their affections—and will appear to-morrow evening in the favorite play of Love, the entertainment to commence with the amusing farce of the First Night of the Debutante.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.—An election was held at the various precincts in the city yesterday to poll the votes of the qualified voters of Memphis upon the proposition to extend the Memphis and Charleston railroad through the city to the Center Landing. The following table will exhibit the result:

Wards.	For Extension.	Against Extension.
First Ward,	118	1
Second Ward,	52	91
Third Ward,	153	202
Fourth Ward,	128	234
Fifth Ward,	27	108
Sixth Ward,	1	181
Seventh Ward,	14	181
Eighth Ward,	59	27
	552	952
For extension,	552
Majority against extension,		400
Total Vote,		1,504

A Democrat who was in our sanctum later, the popular expression was decidedly against the extension.

SHELBY COUNTY FAIR.

Ref ore we register anything else of to-day's proceedings, we must chronicle the high compliment paid to the press by the President of the Association, John Pope, Esq., in the invitation he extended the entire representatives to take dinner at his best. A practical exemplification of the kindly and general good feeling characteristic of the fair was manifested on the occasion. No political preference were known, but the good feeling, personal kindness and generosity of Col. Pope was clearly exhibited on the occasion. For our own part, we accept the compliments of the President, in which other officers of the Society kindly participated, rather as due to the intention of the gentleman of the press than to their performance. We know that we have done well to the admirable society, and to what they had fallen short of what was due to it, all were filled with regret.

Several premiums and lots to were given which delivered round, but our limits compel brevity. We must be content with a mere mention of the last day of the fair, reserve our warm allusions to Col. John Pope, the president of the society, to Gen. L. Heiman, Esq., M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., James T. Leath, Esq., and Wm. Henry Lee, Esq., officers of the society, for numerous and unwearying favors.

The attendance was very good yesterday, especially in the afternoon. The show was good; in fact, we scarcely ever saw a better exhibition.

Col. Bailey, the old pioneer of whom we have already spoken, exhibited a degree of generosity in his treatment of the society that merits admiration and imitation.

The lady of Col. Coleman, of the telegraph office, exhibited some admirable grapes. One portion took the first, and the other the second prize, and no prize during the fair was better merited.

The prize offered by Mayor Bendt for a boys' foot-race was decidedly one of the most interesting things of the fair. The eagerness and ambition of "Young America" was admirably manifested on the occasion, and the spectators and personal interest shown by the spectators were very great. Twelve young gentlemen started in the contest. Master Allen Newsome (the late Tax Collector's son) won the prize, which Mayor Bendt instantly and never in the gratuitous manner, which, we understand, consistently, by an addition for expects from his friends, buying a handsome silver watch. We hope when he grow to be will never fail to have the ambition, and the generosity of Mayor Bendt, and we will be to-morrow in the Shelby County Fair foot-race. The competitors were H. Peters, Eugene Moore, T. Conant, Tom Cox, H. Hockey, H. Foster, C. Jackson, J. Pitman, H. Harvey, I. Newsome and S. Greer. T. Conant came of second best.

The premium of $150 for trotting horses was awarded to Dr. J. W. Lotwitch's entry. Time 2:38. It is proper to remark that the trotting, which is a bad one, is considerably over a mile in length.

NAPOLEON MORGAN.—It was announced yesterday that this celebrated horse would contend for the prize at the fair grounds in this city for trotting stallions, and many were attracted to the grounds in anticipation of the sport. It is proper that we should state in explanation of his non-appearance in the ring, that he is a trained horse. Dr. Lotwitch's entry was awarded the premium.

EDITORS APPEAL: Will the Lessee of Odd Fellows Hall be good enough to inform an inquirer whether the Negroes have held a fair this week at Odd Fellows Hall. If so I think Exeter Hall has some chance the Mississippi than we used to do in the books.

ARRIVED YESTERDAY.

John Rains	N. Orleans	Platte Valley	St. Louis
Nebraska	N. Orleans	Mt. Vernon	St. Louis
Wm Penn	N. O.	Steph Decatur	Cincinnati
Alonzo Child	N. Orleans	J. C. Fremont	Cincinnati
Crescent City	St. Louis	Mary McLellan	Louisville
H. Chouteau	St. Louis

DEPARTURES YESTERDAY.

Crescent City	N. Orleans	John Rains	Louisville
Imperial	N. Orleans	Miss McLellan	Louisville
St. Walsh	N. Orleans	Daniel Boone	Vicksburg
Steph Decatur	N. Orleans	J. C. Fremont	Cincinnati
New Uncle Sam	St. Louis	Alonzo Child	Cincinnati
Platte Valley	St. Louis	Gen. Pike	White River
H. Chouteau	St. Louis

The river continues to decline at this point, having fallen about one inch during the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock last evening. The weather was cloudy and very pleasant. There was much activity at the landing.

The Ohio is falling, with about six feet six inches water in the channel of the lower river.

The shipments of cotton during the week ending last evening amounted to 9,000 bales, of which 6,750 were taken by the Liverpool, 1,840 for the Ohio river, and 450 for St. Louis.

The aggregate number of bales of cotton shipped for various points yesterday was 1,361. Of this number, the Imperial took 1,192 for New Orleans, the Platte Valley 164 for St. Louis, and the B. M. Rosser 25 bales for St. Louis.

We learned last night by telegraph that the river at Cincinnati was falling with a depth of water in the channel, and falling at Louisville with 2 feet 9 inches in the canal.

Since our last the arrivals of transient boats have embrace the New Uncle Sam and John Rains, from New Orleans; the Crescent City and Edward Walsh, from St. Louis, and the Stephen Decatur and J. C. Fremont, from Cincinnati.

Of the regular packets, the Nebraska and Cincinnati, from New Orleans; the Platte Valley, from St. Louis, and the Mount McLellan, from Louisville, arrived, all with fine trips.

The Platte Valley and B. M. Rosser departed for St. Louis, the Imperial for New Orleans, the Daniel Boone for Vicksburg, and the Miss McLellan for Louisville. The Platte Valley and McLellan had light trips, but all the boats that went below had a large number of passengers and full freight lists.

Capt. L. A. Wolfe will have command of the Imperial during the present trip, but will be in charge of the office hereafter, until the completion of his boat for the Memphis and Arkansas River trade. Capt. Wolfen is a humane man of the old school, and we will always be gratified to greet him in any trade in connection with this port; albeit we feem him in his power capacity when in command.

We are indebted to Mr. W. Halliday, of the Nebraska, to J. H. McMahan, of the New Uncle Sam; to Captain Pulsard, of the John Rains, and to J. L. Woolfolk, of the Mount McLellan, for papers and other favors.

Capt. T. M. Erwin is again in command of the Mount McLellan. After the present trip, Mr. Woolfolk will take charge of the clerk's office of the new steamer Atlantic, and Lieu. Shirley will assume the clerkship of the McLellan.

No less than four persons fell overboard from boats in the vicinity of the lower wharf-boat Friday night, three from the Crescent City and one from the J. C. Fremont, two of whom, deck passengers, from the Crescent City, were drowned.

The Crescent City, which came down Friday night, had five hundred deck passengers.

Jack Elder informs us that he has found the yawl which the Illinois lost a few days ago, in the vicinity of the foot of President's Island, and that it has been left at Dunn's Point.

Capt. John D. Adams has determined not to extend the trips of the Arkansas river small boats to this port.

Owing to an unusually heavy freight business, the Senator Whipple did not arrive yesterday.

Pete Myers (Colored), of the steamer Nebraska, Capt. Irwin, will leave for New Orleans at the usual hour to-morrow afternoon. She is a favorite passenger packet, with fine accommodations. Ed. W. Halliday is the clerk.

Pete St. Louis.—The splendid steamer J. H. Dickey, Capt. J. H. Marshall, will leave for St. Louis at the usual hour to-morrow evening. She is the favorite of the men, and with every convenience for passengers, and careful, attentive officers M. K. McDonald has charge of the clerk's office.
