SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.
Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally constipated, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of itching, urticaria, or something which might be due to a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied with the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons Traveling or Living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious Attacks, Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will purify the blood, and is a most refreshing beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or are oppressed at night, take a dose and you will be relieved.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For whatever the ailment may be a thoroughly safe, purgative, alterative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE.
And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

A Governor's Testimony.
J. G. SHERMAN, Governor of Ala. Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga. says: "Have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further trial."

"The only thing that never fails to relieve." I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent Simmons' Liver Regulator has. I sent from Mississippi to Georgia for it, and would send further for such a medicine, and would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve.

F. M. JAMES, Mississippi, Minn.
Dr. T. W. Mason says: "From actual experience in the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator in my practice I have been and am satisfied to use and practice it as a purgative medicine."

The Stephens City Star.

For the Star.]
Ground-Hog.
Mr. Editor:—"Senix's" communication has had one good effect, at least—that of calling the "Ground Hog" from his hiding-place. You may now look for good weather. He seems to cherish a fellow-feeling for his friend Wiggins, the false prophet, to whom he refers in the "buncome" style. He admits all the facts stated by "Senix," but complains bitterly that after having shared their hospitality he should go away to hold their public school building up to ridicule. This does "Senix" injustice; he is not insensible to kindness, appreciates genuine hospitality, and knows something of the instincts of a gentleman; but is that a reason why a man should shut his eyes to such wanton destruction of public property, in which every man who pays his taxes should feel an interest? No, sir; I am opposed to "hush money." I am no government official. Hospitality is a good thing, but cannot atone for the neglect of our public interests. Truth is no slander; "it shines by its own light;" nothing can suffer from it but error. The short article written by "Senix" was simply to inquire into the cause of such abuse to a good building, asking who was responsible, and censuring no one; but it seems his "swinish majesty" is unwilling to have anything published that would seem to reflect in anywise on his own particular locality. In his characteristic manner he assumes the position of a critic, without one qualification for the office. It is not wise even in a Ground Hog to indulge the conceit that "the sun rises in his mouth and sets in his feet." He treats an opponent whose arguments he cannot refute as did the Jews our Saviour in the palace of the High Priest, who spat in his face and buffeted him and smote him with the palms of his hands. The facts and arguments I have presented stand abused, but unanswered. "Senix" is also charged with the crime of bringing to light the fact that all this destruction of property was the work of half-civilized boys. Some one has said, "Civilization is the first lesson taught in school." Likely the higher branches are taught then. G. H. also intimates that all school buildings are in a similar condition. Dear me! It has never been my misfortune to see such before. If "Senix" were to make such a declaration to the world as truth, he would willingly take the wholesome advice given by Ground Hog—retire with Alexander and weep, but from a very different cause. Come and see me, or write. SENIX.

Difficult as it may seem and will be to accomplish, there must be some improvement made in the character of men drawn as jurors. Where the discrimination can be made will require grave thought, but experience has taught judicial officers that all men are not fit for jurors. Of what avail is the able argument of learned counsel in the presence of stupidity, and what does the lucid and logical charge of a judge amount to if his listeners lack the necessary intelligence to comprehend the nature of the gravamen?—Reform the jury system! It's a work that will demand the deepest wisdom, but the time has come to do it. It is the material from which jurors are selected that must be watched.

If you want to go to glory on the prancing steed of heroism, just be a rowdy and a criminal, and get killed, or kill somebody and get hung, and you will find yourself glorified and given a most magnificent funeral pageant. Witness the way a murderer is buried; the way prize fighter Elliott was hustled into the grave. We suppose there is no law to prevent such displays, and all that a patient public can do is to bear the infliction, not only of the thing being done, but heralded broadcast on the wings of the press. But papers, dear reader, remember, are very apt to print that which pleases you most to read.

Did any of our readers ever think how many steps the farmer takes in a year? Take the planting of a single field of corn—a five-acre field. To break it up would require walking some forty miles; harrowing it, ten miles; furrowing it, twenty miles; planting, eleven miles, if with a planter, and if dropped by hand and then covered, twenty miles. Thus it will be seen that it takes about one hundred miles of travel to put in a five-acre field of corn, to say nothing of cultivating and harvesting, and the going to and from the field while planting.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is a certain remedy for removing dandruff, making the scalp white and clean, and restoring gray hair to its youthful color. It imparts a fine gloss and freshness to the hair, and is highly recommended by physicians, clergymen and scientists as a preparation accomplishing wonderful results.

A Puzzled Dutchman.

A Wisconsin paper has the following good story: One that does not believe in immersion for baptism was holding a protracted meeting, and preached on the subject of baptism.—In the course of his remarks he said, some believe it necessary to go down into the water and come up out of it in order to be baptized. But this he claimed to be a fallacy, for the preposition "into" of the Scriptures should be rendered differently, for it does not mean into at all times. "Moses," he said, "we are told, went up into the mountain, and the Saviour was taken up into a high mountain, &c. Now we do not suppose that either of them went into a mountain, but unto it.—So with going down into the water; it means going down close by or near to the water, and being baptized in the ordinary way, by sprinkling or pouring."

He carried his idea out fully, and in due season and style closed his discourse, when an invitation was given for any one so disposed to arise and express his thoughts. Quite a number of his brethren arose and said they were glad they had been present on this occasion; they were well pleased with the sound sermon they had just heard, and felt their souls greatly blessed. Finally, a corpulent gentleman of Teutonic extraction, a stranger to all, arose and broke a silence that was almost painful, as follows:

"Mister Breacher, I ish so glad I vash here to-night, for I has had explained to my mind some dings dat I never could belief before. Oh, I ish so glad dat into does not mean into at all, but shust close by or near to, for I can belief many dings dat I could not belief before. We reat, Mr. Breacher, dat Daniel was cast into de ten of lions, and come out alive! Now I neffer could belief dat, for de vild beasts would shust eat him up; but now it is very clear to my mind. He vas shust close by or near to, and did not get into de den at all. Oh, I ish so glad I vas here to-night!

"Again we reat dat de Hebrew children vas cast into de fiery furnace, and dat always looked like a pig story too, for dey would have been burnt up; but it ish all plain to my mind now; for they were shust cast close by or near to the fiery furnish. Oh, I vas so glad I vas here to-night!

"And den, Mister Breacher, it is said dat Jonah was cast into de sea and taken into de whale's pelly. Now I never could belief dat. It always seemed to me to be a pig fish story, but it ish all plain to my mind now. He vas not taken into de whale's pelly at all, but shust shamp onto his pack and rode ashore. Oh, I vas so glad I vas here to-night!

"And now, Mr. Preacher, if you vill shust explain two more passages of Scripture I shall be, Oh, so happy dat I vas here to-night! One of dem is vere it says de vicked shall be cast into a lake dat purms mit fire and primstone always. Oh, Mr. Preacher, shall I be cast into that lake if I am vicked? or shust close by or near to, shust near enough to be comfortable? Oh, I hopes you tell me I shall be cast only shust by a good way off, and I will be so glad I vas here to-night!

The other passage is that which says, blessed are they who do these commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and enter in thro' the gates of the city, and not shust close by or near to, shust near enough to see vat I have lost—and I shall be so glad I vas here to-night!"

"Young woman, in the name of your womanhood, your influence, and all you hold sacred, abandon the fearful habit of using slang: it will surely prevent your reaching that exalted position in life which, with this exception, you might attain. The educated and refined men expect a woman to be pure in words as well as in acts; and if you lower their standard of womanhood by this pernicious habit, what can you reasonably expect of them?—In view of all this, let us pause on the brink of the precipice and view the dark abyss of social degradation into which we are rapidly falling. For whenever our speech is corrupt our minds soon become so. It is a true saying that 'the waves of conversation roll and shape our thoughts as the surf rolls and shapes the pebbles on the shore.'"

When we read of W. K. Vanderbilt giving a ball that cost him $100,000, we cannot help wondering how many poor people within a mile of his palatial residence went to bed that night hungry. But we also remember that after falling asleep they had dreams as peaceful as though they were money-lords able to spend millions.—The Vanderbilts and others of their stripe are having a good time here, at the expense of their less fortunate brother man, but they are only heaping fuel on the fire of that eternal hell which will undoubtedly be theirs ere long.

A great many people are suffering with colds and rheumatism.
