OIL PAINTING.—We are requested to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of G. B. Burke & Co., who sell this evening a fine collection of oil paintings.

THANKS.—We have received from Adams' Express, by the hands of our attentive friend, H. Borden, Esq., late eastern and western exchanges for which we return our thanks.

☞ The remainder of the machinery of Messrs. Dwight & Gill's cotton screwing establishment was brought to the city by the R. R. W. this Wednesday.

☞ The patrons of the New Memphis Theatre, all of whom are the admirers of Mr. Winsley, will be pleased to learn that that gentleman has secured a regular engagement as a comedian at the theatre every Wednesday evening.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In this tribunal yesterday, W. E. Reed was convicted of the charge of maliciously shooting a man named McMahon, and his punishment assessed at a fine and imprisonment in the county jail. Sentence will be passed upon him this morning.

☞ Among the many worthy candidates for the office of constable in the Fourth civil district at the coming election, there is none more worthy than our young friend M. J. P. McCullough. Our acquaintance with him has been an intimate one and of long duration, and we entertain the highest opinion of his moral certitude and business capabilities.

☞ Among the strangers at present in the city, who are happy to greet our old friends, is Mr. Gaius of the West Tennessee Whig. We need cheerfully offer him the hand of our sanctum, during his stay in the city, and would recommend his paper to our business men as one of the best advertising mediums to be found in West Tennessee.

RECORDER'S COURT—LOCK-UP DELIVERY.—There were twenty-five delinquents before the Recorder yesterday, seven of whom were sentenced to the chain gang. Before an attempt was made to remove the delinquents to the calaboose, no less than four of them escaped from the lock-up by deliberately walking out through the outer doors.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Joseph Baird, of Tennessee, Tipton county, for a club of twenty-two new subscribers to the WEEKLY APPEAL. Mr. Baird is one of our oldest subscribers, an intelligent Democratic planter, and a long-time, staunch friend of the APPEAL. For this, as well as similar favors received at the same hands heretofore, we tender our sincere thanks.

TO THE LADIES.—Two magnificent rosewood pianos have been shipped by the manufacturers to Marcusard, Dupree & Co. They will be sold at manufacturer's prices, thirty per cent less than the cost of like instruments in this city. The manufacturers give a written guaranty with the pianos. The same gentlemen have also Barry's sewing machines at $40. Call at No. 8 Monroe street. These sewing machines have been fully tried, and are equal to any in use.

DEATH IN THE CALABOOSE.—A man named William Gardner died every whether in the city calaboose Wednesday night, under such circumstances as to warrant the belief that his death was caused by the rupture of a blood-vessel. The deceased was confined on a charge of vagrancy, and it is a melancholy fact that his wife was incarcerated with him at the time of his death on a charge of drunkenness. The unfortunate man was buried yesterday, and the unhappy woman was released from prison.

ARREST OF A COUNTERFEITER.—The movements of a man named A. E. Taylor, who made application at several of our banking houses on Wednesday for change for a note of money in bills on the Canal Bank at New Orleans, received suspicion, and upon examination the notes were ascertained to be counterfeits. The broker who made the examination handed Taylor over to Officer Gibbs, who placed him in jail. About two hundred dollars in good money was found on Taylor's person. The affair occurred in Illinois.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—In spite of the bad weather, there was a fair attendance at the new theatre last evening. The audience saw the new play of the Hidden Hand, as dramatized by Mr. Sam'l Rose, the popular comedian. In the arrangement of the piece Mr. Rose has proven himself an artist of no ordinary skill, and his rendition of the character of "Wool," which is the only character in which we have seen him, gives promise of his excellent quality as an actor. Like choice wine, Mrs. Kate Denin seems to have improved by the addition of a year or two since we last saw her, and we hope the same plaudits accorded her on the occasion of "old heads" and snapped the tendrils of "young hearts" when we first met her. The bill for this evening is unusually attractive, embracing The Hidden Hand, for the last time, and The Trial Paper.

THE ORPHANS' DONATION PARTY.—There are many philanthropists who, while unwilling to send their only children to Boneychaola Spa, or any other place beyond the civilized world, profess to have a genuine pleasure in aiding those who are in real distress. Of all who have a claim upon the sympathies of the fatherless and motherless—the orphan—left to the mercy of the world, that "cold tempest to the shorn lamb," stands undoubtedly first. The donation party, now holding at our Orphans' Home, affords all, ladies and gentlemen, and their sons and daughters, a chance of bestowing genuine charity on genuine objects. Come, then, philanthropists, Christians, come, and give freely, liberally, largely, to the orphan—hold not back your hand! give full measure, running over!

FIENDISH OUTRAGE.—Two lawless men entered the residence of a widow lady named Ada Jane Parker, who lives in North Memphis, Wednesday night, and acted toward her in the most heathen manner. Her cries attracted the attention of officers Harris and Ward, who entered the house and cowed the miscreants. The villains did not come unhurt, with their exploits, however, and afterwards they came near being at the bottom. Mrs. Parker was dragged two or three times during the assault upon the house, and the windows and doors were broken. Of course, Harris and Ward then pounced the ruffians and secured them in the leading one, a man named A. H. Fagan, the same individual that attempted to cut officer Haynie a shortness when white that officer was endeavoring to make an arrest. Fagan was let on bail for the murder yesterday and fined twenty-5 dollars. The case was subsequently brought to the attention of the grand jury, who found an indictment against Fagan for assaulting Adaline Parker and Officer Haynie. Fagan is now in jail awaiting trial.

Southern Authors.

Barry Gray, a New York correspondent of the Columbia (S. C.) Courant, gives a laudatory account of the contemporary female writer, of the South, a bevy of whom have recently formed the attraction of our hotel society during the present fall. And first of Miss Evans, of Mobile, the author of "Beulah:"

I ventured, one pleasant afternoon in September, to enter the St. Nicholas, where the author of "Beulah" was staying. Miss Evans conveys well—better, indeed, than the generality of women. In good south, her conversation often reminded me of that of her heroine—Beulah, who, I judged, was, in some particulars, modelled after her own proper self—which will account for the naturalness and truthfulness of the character as portrayed. Miss Evans possesses a most interesting countenance characterized by thoughtfulness and repose. Her carriage is dignified and graceful, and her manners cordial and unaffected. Like Beulah, Miss Evans, if I mistake not, has large, expressive gray eyes, full of a brave, glad, hopeful light.

Quite differ it from Miss Evans, in many respects, is another southern authoress and belle—Sarah Anning, lively, coquettish Lizzie Petit, of Virginia—a petted child of fashion, though, singularly enough, unspoiled by the praise and fame lavished upon her. She has given to the literary world two delightful volumes—"Light and Darkness," a story of fashionable life, and "Household Mysteries," a romance of the Southern home—besides another one, entitled "Stars of the Crown," ready for the press. Miss Petit's first book, as you may perhaps now be aware, was written when the author was only 15, and, at the work of one so thus youthful, certainly evinced much real genius. Lizzie is a brunette, with the brilliant complexion, sparkling dark eyes and glossy hair, emblematic of many of your southern belles; and, like my own little southern maid—for an account of whom see past Home Journals—she delights to pass and orangeflowers. But Lizzie, not satisfied with being an authoress, is even now on the point of carrying out a long-cherished design, that of appearing upon the stage—and one for which inclination, natural talent and study have, to a certain extent, prepared her.

The Illinois came up yesterday for St. Louis, and discharged 1,000 sacks salt and 630 keg powder for our merchants.

Our old friend Shack will give all needful information to passengers.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—The fine, light draught steamer Moses McLellan, Capt. T. M. Irwin, will leave as above at four o'clock this afternoon, connecting at Louisville with the splendid line of mail steamers of the "old reliable" Little Miami railroad at Cincinnati for the North and East. She has the very best accommodations, and courteous and efficient officers, Messrs. Shirley and Taylor being the clerks, and Col. C. C. Green having charge of the post-office department.

DALY'S
AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

[From the New Orleans Picayune.]

THE purity of this Whisky is certified to by the leading analytical chemists of America, such as Dr. Chilton, the noted New York chemist. A friend of ours who undertakes such things, tells us that this "Aromatic" is a great favorite with him, as he is reliable, and can safely recommend this Valley Whisky to those in need of a good article.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.
[From the Crescent.]
Not a particle of strychnine in it—the best we have tasted for many a day.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.
[From the N. O. True Delta.]
Though not the oldest, it is, we may say, and we are informed by those who are, that the "Aromatic Valley Whisky," of very purity of "Old Monongahela" was manufactured by Wm. H. Daly, is unequaled for purity and flavor by any in the market.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.
[From the Mobile Daily Advertiser.]
It is pronounced by good judges to be free from all deleterious or foreign substances, and unequaled in flavor and purity. We can speak from experience, which experience on mechanism as influence upon those who use it, where they are accustomed to it. The medical fraternity are generally intended for whisky are an imposition and a curse.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.
[From the Mobile Daily Chronicle.]
It is a pleasant, wholesome stimulant, peculiarly adapted to the wants of invalids who need a pure tonic without some of the alcoholic principle.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.
[From the Galveston Bra.]
We have no hesitation in pronouncing it equal, if not superior, to any we have ever drank.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.
[From the Memphis Daily Enquirer.]
It has been pronounced by the highest scientific and medical authority to be a pure and wholesome stimulant, entirely free from deleterious or injurious ingredients. We can recommend it with perfect confidence to the consumer as a wholesome article for medicinal purposes. "Daly's Valley Whisky" is superior to this, Cordial, French Brandy, Port and Madeira Wines, and indeed all other varieties of spirits which are sold in this market, but one of them can be found in a pure state. We feel confident physicians would have the ruddiness to prescribe Port Wine or French Brandy for a patient which is so frequently to all the world that they are not to be had, except by some compounds in the Mississippi Valley.

It would recommend it as suitable for medicinal and potable purposes.
State Assayer, Boston.

It is without any deleterious admixture.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,
Or Protected Solution of Protoxide of Iron Combined.

THIS well known remedy has been used very extensively and with great success for the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

Or Impaired and Imperfect Digestion, AND THE CONSEQUENT DETERIORATION OF THE BLOOD,

And for the cure of the following FORMS OF DISEASE, Most of which originate in DYSPEPSIA.

Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Neuralgia and Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Headache, Languor and Depression of Spirits, Carbuncles and Boils, Piles, Scurvy, Affections of the Skin, Consumptive Tendencies, Bronchitis, Diseases Peculiar to Females, and all Complaints accompanied by General Debility, and requiring a Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

NOTE.—The failure of from as a remedy for Dyspepsia, a bad state of the blood, and the numerous diseases caused thereby, has arisen from the want of such a preparation as this, which is free from all mineral substances, is Protoxide, and assimilates at once with the blood. This want of a good Iron Medicine has been felt for years, and the PERUVIAN SYRUP supplies, containing, as it does, Iron in the only form in which it is possible for it to enter the circulation. For this reason the Peruvian Syrup often succeeds in effecting a cure when other preparations of Iron and other medicines have been found to be of no avail. For sale wholesale and retail by

THE KNIFE IS NOT USED BY GLIDDON IN HIS RADICAL CURE OF RUPTURE.—After numb trouble and some very successful experiments, I am now prepared to cure this dangerous complaint in about six weeks.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

When desired, planters and others having ruptured negroes can leave them in my hands to be properly treated, boarded and lodged at an expense of 75 cents a day for about six weeks. Not being desirous of keeping a boarding house hospital, I only claim sufficient to cover probable cost of their necessary keep. Of course I give my constant personal attention, depending for remuneration on the claims for cure, the fee for which will be made known on my personal examination of the case. A pamphlet sent, if desired, explanatory of the operation.

Apply at my Surgical Depot, south side of Court Square Memphis, where I still manufacture and adjust Gliddon's Patent Trusses for the neighborhood in this new cure.
