Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, November 19, '59.

☞ Thanks to Mr. Borden, of the Adams Express Company, for late papers.

☞ Our neighbor of the Enquirer, Col. Jno. Clemons, has been admitted to practice in the courts of this city.

☞ There were thirteen cases before the recorder yesterday, and four delinquents overspent in the drain easy.

CROSS CITY NEWSPAPER.—We understood that W. E. Gibson, Esq., desires returning to the Cross City, intending to purchase one-half of that establishment.

☞ An extensive billiard saloon will be opened in the new building at the corner of Second and Jefferson streets.

WARNING TO DRAYMEN.—James Nash, a drayman, was fined five dollars by Recorder East yesterday, for making an exorbitant charge as a drayman.

SPAN OF HORSES.—A span of splendid iron gray, well matched horses, will be sold at 10 o'clock this morning, at the corner of Madison and Main streets. They are quiet and in good training. See the advertisement.

CORRECTION.—In a notice a few days since of Our Orleans cotton, we stated that the cotton grown on the plantation of Mr. J. C. Bruce. It was sent to our friend S. D. Nelson, Esq., and was grown on the plantation of Michael A. Wilkinson, Bolivar county, Mississippi.

PROPERLY PUNISHED.—A troublesome free negro named Mat. Button, entered a private residence in South Memphis Thursday night, and was very familiar toward the inmates. A gentleman who properly chastised the offender, and Mat was arraigned before the recorder yesterday and fined the sum of twenty dollars.

THE SUNDAY APPEAL.—The SUNDAY APPEAL, which is now regarded as the great advertising medium of the city, will contain, in addition to the latter list, a vast amount of miscellaneous reading, preparatory expressly for Sunday entertainments. Those who wish to advertise in the Sunday edition should send in their favors at an early hour to-day.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In this tribunal yesterday, Wm. R. Boyd, for the committal of an assault upon C. C. McMahan, was sentenced to five months' imprisonment in the county jail, and to pay a fine of $7.50.

In the case of Alex. Daley, charged with larceny, the jury failed to agree, but were sent out again to make up a verdict.

COMMON LAW COURT.—The case of Mrs. Jane Pittman against the Memphis and Ohio railroad for damages to the amount of $20,000 for killing of her son, Mr. Pittman's son, in October, 1858, was argued in this tribunal yesterday, and will be decided to-day. Attorney-General Sale and Messrs. Tarpley, Sale and Bathish appeared for the plaintiff, and Colonels Anderson and Payne for the defendant.

NEWSPAPER COMBINATION.—A transaction was effected yesterday between the proprietors of one evening cotemporaries, the Argus and Ledger, whereby the two were merged into one, retaining the title of the Argus. The joint establishment will be run by the job printing business, and we take pleasure in commending him to public patronage, as he has one of the most complete job offices in the South.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—The entertainment at the new theater last evening was the benefit of Mr. Samuel Sym and Mrs. Kate Denvin. The attendance was very fair, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The Hidden Hand and the Irish Tiger were presented. In consideration of the reception given the above pieces last evening, they will be presented again to-night.

THE DEATH OF PARTRIDGE.—It cannot be that we are to be deprived of Partridge as our city advances in point of wealth and population. We are now, however, in the midst of the season in which private parties generally do most almost, and yet there is a remarkable dearth of phenomena—what of that character. The prospect of a fashionable party just now would be a great relief to a score of young ladies and gentlemen, who are this city "starve of stars."

EXCITEMENT AT GERMANTOWN.—We learned yesterday that great excitement prevailed in Germantown and vicinity, owing to the discovery of a plot concerted by the slaves of that place, in imitation of a plan to that neighborhood. Two or three arrests of parties had been made, and the authorities were in possession of others connected with the conspiracy. Germantown is situated on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, fifteen miles east from this city.

CHARLESTON RAILROAD.—The following is a statement of the receipts, etc., of the Charleston railroad for the month of October last:

Passengers	$20,594.07
Freight	30,602.22
Express, etc	1,252.87
Mails	4,697.91
	$57,147.07
Expenses	26,653.26
Net receipts	$30,493.81

SUCCESS.—Among the many new houses in the city, we think it will be difficult to find one which has met with the success which has crowned the efforts of our friends, Reynolds & Mathews, under the Verandah. It should not, however, be surprising when we take into consideration the class of clothing and furnishing goods they have on hand. An exclusively fine clothing house has long been needed in Memphis, and this house can truly fill the need. They have every facility for obtaining the finest goods and at low rates, and consequently offer to the trade fine goods at very low prices.

STOVES IN HOUSES.—Mr. A. B. Jewell, the chief of the fire department, wishes us to call attention to the following city ordinance, which he assures us will be enforced on and after this date. Our readers will no many instances save themselves a summons to attend the recorder's court, and perhaps a heavy fine by attending strictly to the provisions of the ordinance:

Nor person shall use a stove in any house in the city which, or the pipe of which, shall be within two feet of any wood work, without protecting said wood work with non-ignitable material, so as to prevent the same from taking fire; and when stove pipes pass through the wood work or roof of a building there shall be a space of not less than six inches between the pipe and the wood; and the pipe shall be kept from contact with the wood work by some safe material, and shall project four feet from the roof or wood work. The penalty is not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

THE KILLING OF MR. POINDEXTER.—We received last night, by telegraph, the following additional particulars of the killing of Mr. Poindexter by Mr. Hall in Nashville, yesterday morning:

Mr. Poindexter called twice this morning at the Press office to see Mr. Hall, but Mr. H. had not come down to the office, it being early. Mr. Poindexter called a third time, Mr. Hall, in the meantime, having been informed that Mr. Poindexter was coming from the street to the Press office. Mr. Hall then stepped out with a double-barrel shot gun and waited. Mr. Poindexter not to come near. Mr. P. advanced, however, drawing and cocking his pistol. When he was within about twenty-five yards of Mr. Hall, Mr. H. fired. Ten buckshot took effect in Mr. Poindexter's head. Mr. Hall then fired another barrel. The cause of the difficulty was a political quarrel. Mr. Hall was arrested, but was released without bond till Monday morning, at which time an examination will take place.

DEPARTURES YESTERDAY.

Cora Anderson	St. Louis.	Sun Lewis	St. Louis.
Tigress	N. Orleans.	City of Mem	St. Louis.
M. R. W. Hill	Nashville.	Newsboy	N. Orleans.
Admiral	W. river.

The river was about stationary at this point yesterday, the recent heavy rains having had no effect upon it as yet. The sky was generally cloudy all day, and the wind changed round and was blowing from the west, rendering the afternoon and night unusually cold even for the season.

There is now but thirty inches water in the Arkansas river. None of the boats now attempt to go above Pine Bluff, and they feel hesitation in that point, even, very difficult and hazardous.

The complaint of cotton to the river yesterday, embraced the following shipments during the same period, in detail: 2 278 bales, of which 1,775 were taken for New Orleans and 503 for St. Louis and the east.

The arrivals yesterday of regular packets embraced the Dove from the Hiwassee, the South Bend from the Arkansas river, and the Sun Lewis from St. Louis. The Dove was not much injured by the late accident, and will be fully repaired in time to leave to-day. She brought 115 bales cotton for our merchants. The South Bend did not do further up the Arkansas than Pine Bluff. She returned with a fair trip, including 18 bales cotton. The Sun Lewis brought a large number of passengers and had a good freight list. She departed for St. Louis at a late hour last night, taking 300 bales cotton.

The R. J. Lockland and T. C. Tutbell were due from St. Louis last evening, and both will make out a cargo at this point.

The Victoria has about 1000 bales cotton engaged for New Orleans.

The Lady Walton was due from the Arkansas river last evening.

The R. R. W. Hill, for New Orleans, the Admiral for White river, and the Sun Lewis for St. Louis, departed yesterday. The Admiral had been detained more than the previous day.

The Acacia Cottage, from Cincinnati, and the Moses McLellan, from Louisville, arrived at a late hour last evening. The Cottage had a long transfer, and both boats had a large number of passengers.

The Tigress, from New Orleans, and the Wm. Campbell, from St. Louis, arrived yesterday and will remain over at this port until to-day.

The Hiwassee, which passed down yesterday, discharged forty-five bales of cotton at this port.

The Cora Anderson, Planet, and the City of Memphis, passed up since our last report. Capt. Bullmore, late of the W. W. Morrison, has charge of the Cora Anderson, being the sole owner. He says he is working now for "Molly and the children."

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Wednesday, says that owing to the recent rise in the Ohio river, the abutments of the bridge now in course of erection, at that place, are, and the entire structure fell with a tremendous crash, carrying ten yet unnamed persons into eternity. They were warned of their danger, but they heeded not, and rushed out on the bridge until their doom was sealed. The casualty occurred on Monday morning.

The steamer Hickman left Cincinnati for this port on Thursday.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The elegant steamer T. C. Tutbell, Capt. McFall, will leave for New Orleans positively at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Passengers will find her and her officers all that could be desired. Messrs. Phillips & Morris are the agents.

FOR THE ARKANSAS RIVER.—The fine light draught steamer South Bend, Capt. Haines, will leave for all points on the Arkansas river at the usual hour for a regular packet. She takes the mail, and, therefore, makes her trips with regularity. Capt. Larry Harnsel is her agent.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—The popular steamer Moses McLellan, Capt. Krouk, will leave for Louisville at 4 o'clock this afternoon. She is a splendid passenger packet, having unexpanded accommodations and efficient officers. Messrs. Shirley and Taylor have charge of the clerk's office, and passengers will find a pleasant companion in our old friend Col. C. C. Green, of the press.

FOR VICKSBURG.—The fast steamer Daniel Boone, Capt. Hicks, in the regular mail and passenger packet for Vicksburg to-day, and will be ready promptly at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She is the old favorite on the line, having more connections than any other packet on the Mississippi. Her leading connection is with Capt. Coley's splendid White river mail boats at Napoleon. For further information, inquire of her accomplished clerks, Messrs. Wynne and Waddell.

FOR CINCINNATI.—The fine little packet Acacia Cottage, Capt. Donnelson, will leave as above at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She is of very light draught, and has superior accommodations.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The splendid steamer Gem, Capt. Jones, is the regular packet for White river to-day, and will leave at 4 o'clock P. M. She is the old favorite in the trade, and those who seek comfort should register on her. Capt. Fleming is the clerk.

The neat and substantial steamer Tigress, Capt. Hopkins, will also leave for New Orleans this morning, at 10 o'clock. She is in every respects a desirable passenger boat.

The Victoria, Capt. Hanks, is coming for New Orleans, and will depart as above this afternoon. When we secure the transient public that they will find their interests promoted by patronizing the Victoria, we shall have "some fun," we need say nothing more, unless we might add that Martin will have charge of the steam.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The elegant steamer Platte Valley, Capt. Postal, will leave for Cairo and St. Louis at 4 o'clock this afternoon. She will take the mail, and of course will make all her connections promptly. She has fine accommodations for passengers and popular officers, including our friend Patterson.

Street Rencounter in Nashville—G. G. Poindexter, Editor of the Union and American, Instantly Killed.

NASHVILLE, November 18.—A street rencounter took place this morning between Allen A. Hall, editor of the Nashville News, and G. G. Poindexter, editor of the Union and American, in which the latter was instantly killed, receiving a ball of buckshot in his breast from a shotgun in the hands of the former. Mr. Poindexter did not fire his weapon. The difficulty originated in an editorial quarrel.

We are unable to receive our usual night reports on account of a temporary disarrangement of the wires between Nashville and Louisville.—REPORTER.

DALY'S
AROMATIC VALLEY
WHISKY.

[From the New Orleans Picayune.]

THE purity of this Whisky is certified to by the leading chemists and medical men of the city, and by the most New York chemist. A friend of ours was undecidedly opposed to whisky in any form, but after a great "Aromatic," and as he is reliable, we can safely recommend this Valley Whisky to those in need of a good article.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

[From the Orleans Delta.]

Not a particle of impurities in it—the best we have tasted for many a day.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

[From the N. O. True Delta.]

There's no humbug about it, we may say, and we are induced by those who are, that the "Aromatic Valley Whisky" (the only "Valley" of "Gold Aromatics," manufactured by Wm. H. Daly, is unequaled for purity and flavor by any in the market.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

It is pronounced by our leading Dispensary Druggists, to be free from all deleterious ingredients, and therefore, and because it should take the place of all poisonous adulterates, which exercise so unwholesome an influence upon those who use it, should be universally adopted, at all. The medicinal beverages that are generally intended for whisky are an imposition and a fraud.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

It is a pleasant, wholesome stimulant, peculiarly adapted to the wants of those who need a pure malt whisky and much of the alcoholic principle.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

[From the Galveston Ros.]

We have to pronounce this whisky unsurpassed in equal, if not superior, to any we have ever drank.

DALY'S AROMATIC VALLEY WHISKY.

[From the Memphis Daily Enquirer.]

It has been pronounced by the highest scientific and medical men of the city, to be a pure article, and to be free from deleterious adulterants. We can recommend it to our friends and patrons as a good, wholesome and reliable stimulant for medicinal purposes. "Daly's Valley Whisky" is superior to Old Cove, Old Cove, French Brandy, Port and Madeira Wines, and indeed all other varieties of spirits which are sold in this market, but one of them can be found in any other. It is a wholesome physician would have the cashiers to prescribe Port Wine or Brandy, we would prescribe Daly's Valley, and all the world that they are not to be had, except by his agents or compounds in the Mississippi Valley.

It would recommend it as suitable for medicinal and potable purposes. CHAS. A. LEE,
State Assayer, Boston.

"It is without any deleterious adjuncts.
JAS. B. CHILSON, M. D., New York.

Entirely free from adulterating ingredients, so free it can be used for the sick. JAS. J. MAPES, New York.

☞ Consumers can depend upon neither a pure article when they buy the Valley Whisky, nor it is sold by the bottle and case only.
