Local Matters.

Sunday Morning, December 4, 1859.

☞ The Union prayer meeting will be held at 9 o'clock this afternoon in the First Baptist Church.

SPIRITUALISM.—Dr. L. K. Coonley will lecture on the above subject at Odd Fellows' Hall to-day at 11 a. M., and 7½ P. M.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were but six cases before the Recorder yesterday, two of whom were sent to the chain-gang.

☞ The Rev. Dr. Humphrey, from Kentucky, will preach at the First Presbyterian Church, on Poplar street, this morning (Sunday) at 10½ o'clock.

COMMON LAW COURT.—All the cases set for trial in this tribunal during the past week, were disposed of. The docket for the ensuing week will be found elsewhere in our columns.

FOR RENT.—A gentleman and wife, wishing board, may obtain a large, pleasant room, by applying immediately at the northwest corner of Main and Real streets.

ARRIVAL OF COAL.—A large amount of coal was received from the mines above at this city yesterday, including a heavy tow brought by the steamer Shingler.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Davis having returned to the city after an absence of two weeks, will preach in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, this morning at 11 o'clock.

☞ It will be seen from his advertisement that M. Simon has removed to 190 Main street, opposite the City Building, where he is prepared to wait upon his customers.

MORE LIGHT.—If you want a light that is cheap and excellent, call on Mr. Ed. Anderson from Newton's Co., Mississippi, between Main and Second. They are the very best.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—Mr. R. G. Adams has recently disposed of his interest in the Grand Junction Quid Nunc, to his late partner, Mr. D. P. Dailey, who has assumed the entire control of the paper.

OYSTERS AND WEATHER.—Now is the time for oysters to all their glory, fat and sassy are the best accompaniments. The good orders are Farmelo Bohlmann's, at his depot on Main-st., next door to Spaldi's saloon.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.—The body of a man was found floating in the river at the foot of Beal street yesterday, upon which an inquest was held by Squire Waldron. No clue was obtained as to the identity or the cause of the death of the deceased.

SUNDAY REGULATIONS AT THE POSTOFFICE.—Our worthy Postmaster, Col. Carroll, has issued an order whereby the office will be open for the receipt of letters from 9 to 10 o'clock on Sunday, and also after hours on that day. The regulation will take effect to-day.

LARGE NUMBER OF PRESENTMENTS.—There were five hundred and fifty presentments by the grand jury of the parties who were presented for gaming and infractions of the liquor law. The grand jury was then discharged for the term.

ACCIDENT TO THE CITY RECORDER.—We regret to learn that the worthy Recorder Friday evening, Walter Bell, our worthy city recorder, slipped and fell on Jefferson street, and was badly injured by the accident that he was unable to attend to his official duties yesterday. Squire Roberts officiated in his place.

COTTON BETWEEN MEMPHIS AND NEW YORK.—The Charleston railroad seems to be a determined rival to our railroad to New York. See their advertisement in another column, in which they undertake to contract for the shipment of cotton from Memphis to New York via Charleston, at fifty dollars per bale.

THE BUCKLEYS.—This great troupe will arrive in this city on Tuesday, and commence a series of entertainments at Odd Fellows' Hall the same evening. Their exhibitions are of a novel character, as they are all educated negroes, and while they confer the honors of the music of the very best opera, their burlesques are inimitable.

THE VARIETY STORE.—We ask attention to the advertisement of our friends, Messrs. Strasser & Link, on Main street, between Madison and Monroe, who keep constantly supplied with everything in their line of business, and what is much more to the purchasers as cheap, but is safely all who call upon them that they are prepared to supply almost every want that the imagination can desire.

THE SNOW.—The earth in this region was covered yesterday with snow to the depth of about three inches, and sleighing was quite tolerable on some localities. Indeed, a party of gentlemen from Memphis, the luxury of a sleigh ride, so rare in this latitude, and their elegant turn out, with the accompaniment of bells, was expected as an object of interest to the city. We hear travels had not current them as far as the Richmond or Mason and Shaw's line.

☞ In consequence of the inclemency of the weather, the ladies did not have a chance to secure articles of that beautiful China ware that has been selling at auction from day to day for several days past, at Mercantile Depot & Co's. The owners of the ware are determined to sell out regardless of price, and on Monday another opportunity will be offered to them to buy bargains. The sale, therefore, on Monday, will be the last, and we advise all to attend. Monday sale at ten o'clock, and sale at night at seven o'clock.

THE NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—Mrs. Farren and her charming daughter Miss Fanny, concluded a fortnight's engagement at the new theater last evening and we regret that owing to the exceedingly disagreeable weather the attendance last evening was meager. Miss J. M. Stewart, one of our home talents, on Saturday will commence an engagement at the new theater to morrow evening, and will make her first appearance in the popular drama of Adrienne the Actress. The entertainment will conclude with Beauty and the Beast.

A LEGAL GAME OF DRAW.—It is the rarest thing that his honor Judge McKinney, of our criminal court, indulges in a bit of pleasantry while on the bench, but a recent departure from his usually staid and dignified custom merits mention. On Friday our young friend Col. Pitmey, in the super pursuit of his client's interests, as he thought, made a point propriety of court as to entitle the law of the judge, who directed Mr. Johnson, the clerk, to enter a fine of five dollars against the attorney for contempt. Mr. P., although himself the clerk, responded that other than to draw upon him for the amount. "Very well," remarked his honor, "I'll fine you in the draw." Mr. Pitmey, I'll raise you a fine," and the clerk was instructed to enter five dollars more against the offending attorney.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Much of the time of this tribunal during last past three days has been spent in the effort to obtain a jury in the case of R. A. Dobbins, who was charged with fraudulently obtaining a note from J. H. Anderson. The jury was empanneled yesterday, but Anderson did not appear to prosecute, and a nolle prosequi was entered in the case by the attorney-general.

John Gunn was convicted of the charge of larceny yesterday, and his punishment assessed at twelve years in the penitentiary.

It is anticipated that the business of the present criminal term will be disposed of by Wednesday next, at which time the criminal will adjourn.

DARING ROBBERY.—A daring robbery was committed in this city Friday, by two men named John Gates and James Owen, both of whom are well known to us, and have taken some water the sum of the last for crimes committed in this city. It seems that Gates and Owen induced a gentleman named Weaver, who lives in Panola county, Miss., who came to the city with a crop produce for sale, to accompany them to the suburbs, in the meantime giving him several drinks of liquor. When the party reached the vicinity of the railroad depot, on Adams street, Gates stopped the countryman to accommodate, during which, Owen rifled him to the ground, whereupon the two thieves rifled Weaver's pocket of the sum of $37. Weaver however, soon recovered from the blow, gave the alarm, and pursued the arrest of Gates. As will be seen from the proceedings of the Criminal Court yesterday, Gates was convicted, tried, and sent to the penitentiary for the term of twelve years. Owen is still at large.

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS DAVENPORT.—All who have ever witnessed or read of the exquisite performances of Miss J. M. Davenport, will retain that the management of the new theater have done a good and popular thing in engaging that excellent lady and most accomplished actress, for a brief series of representations, commencing with the deeply interesting play from the French, of Adrienne, the Actress, on Monday evening, December 5th. Her former, and only visit to Memphis, was attended with the most complete success. The Washington National Intelligencer, speaking of a recent engagement at the capital, says:

We are pleased to learn that Miss J. M. Davenport, the accomplished actress, commences an engagement in this city on Monday evening next. This lady's merits were been a few nights with our metropolitan audiences, who have shown their appreciation of her accomplishments as an actress and worth as a woman by a full attendance whenever she appeared on the Washington stage. We think we have seldom had so large an audience as Mr. D. is one of the most finished and popular actresses now upon the stage without the slightest pretension. The last time she gave an engagement in Philadelphia, where she played for weeks to houses that were nightly crowded.

☞ If Dr. P. M. Dickinson will consent to the use of his name for Clerk of the Common Law and Criminal Courts of the county of Memphis, at the ensuing election. He will be warmly supported by his

MILLER AND YOUNKIN'S.—There is no grocery establishment in the city that has grown so rapidly in public favor as that of Messrs. Miller & Younkin, on Second street, near Jefferson. The secret of their success is that they are enterprising, and keep pace with the growing wants of their customers. Their articles are all fresh, and they sell them at the cheapest living rate. Our friends outside Memphis may obtain all their supplies in the grocery line from them, without being subjected to the annoyance of going forward on town.

The Pioneer (California) Argus learns that Honey Lake has literally dried up. Susan river, a respectable stream, and as full as usual at this season of the year, fails now to reach the basin of the lake, sinking into the earth far above it. Immense quantities of fish have been destroyed by the event, and now lie decaying on the deserted bed. It is remarkable that a lake, twenty miles wide and forty miles long, should disappear so suddenly.

A difficulty, editorial, has arisen between M. Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial, and G. P. Buell of the Cincinnati Times, which threatens to conclude in a duel.

The river was about stationary at this point yesterday, with the prospect of a decline. Weather cloudy and cold. Business was quite dull, and our businessmen about entirely suspended, and as a consequence, there was little doing at the landing.

The weather during the past forty-eight hours has been very bad on steamboatmen, as they have not been able to run at night, and have thereby been greatly delayed.

White river is falling, with plenty of water at all points for the purposes of navigation.

The receipts of cotton for river during the week ending last evening amounted 1,697 bales.

The shipments of cotton for all points from this port included 13,199 bales, of which 9,477 bales were taken for New Orleans, and 3,722 bales for the Ohio river. There were no shipments during the week to St. Louis.

The Bremner, from New Orleans, the Bell South, from the Arkansas river, and the Mose McLellan, from Louisville, all due yesterday morning, had not arrived at a late hour last night.

Capt. A. H. Bunker's magnificent steamer Glendale will arrive from Cincinnati this evening. Capt. L. G. Jenkins and Mr. Ben. M. Hurtelloe, two accomplished officers, are the clerks.

The Parkersburg has been sold at New Orleans to Samuel Atkins for $12,000. She was taken to Mobile.

Capt. Carver and the owners of the Kate French have purchased the steamer Highflyer, and will go in her to the Louisville and Henderson trade.

The John Tomkins, after discharging her cargo of cotton at Cincinnati, from this place, has laid up at Jeffersonville for a while. In a few days she starts for the Wabash.

The Bellpoint, which left out with an accident in the Ohio river, passed down last evening, having been repaired.

The new ordinance regulating wharfage, went into effect on the 1st inst., and the wharfmaster is now stationed to collect wharfage in accordance with it. It will be seen that the rates have been materially increased. The following are the rates:

All transient steamboats for the space of six hours or less, from and after the landing of the vessel, of the further of one hundred tons and under, shall pay.....$3.00
From 100 to 200 tons.....4.00
From 200 to 300 tons.....4.50
From 300 to 400 tons.....5.00
From 400 to 500 tons.....7.50
From 500 to 700 tons.....9.00
From 700 to 800 tons.....10.00
From 800 to 900 tons.....12.00
From 900 to 1,000 tons.....14.00
From 1,000 and upwards.....15.00

ANY transient steamboat remaining over six hours, shall be charged seven cents per ton as packets.

We are indebted to Mr. D. S. Greer, the accomplished freight clerk of the Gen. Pike, for favors.

The Gen. Pike, on her trip down from Cincinnati Wednesday, was valued at $15,000, and insured in Pittsburg for $10,000. Shelving built, and we believe partially owned by Capt. Gen. P. Sloan, of Brownsville, Penn.

NEW RULES FOR STEAMBOAT PILOTS.—Among other amendments adopted by the board of supervising inspectors, at their recent session in New Orleans, were the following amendments to the rules governing pilots on the western rivers: From and after the first day of January, 1860, it shall be unlawful to navigate passenger steamboats in the night time, on rivers flowing into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, unless such steamer is provided with a red light in front, and attached to the forward chimney, from six to ten feet below the top, and a white light attached the same way to the starboard chimney.

It shall be unlawful for any passenger steamer to pass down through any of the inland chutes which, in not the shortest water channel of the river, between Cincinnati, St. Louis and New Orleans, excepting the chutes of Islands Nos. 34, 35, 94 and 110, or Bird Island; provided, however, that if a boat has business in any chute, such as landing passengers or freight or wood, she may pass down such chute, if deemed safe by the pilot so to do, by order the following precautions, viz: When about entering the head of such chute, the pilot shall make, with the steam whistle, the signal for blind chute, and when such boat is down in the chute, any three hundred yards below the head of the island, the pilot shall make the same signal again. If there should be a steamboat at the same time ascending the chute, and which, hearing of the signals of each descending boat, it will be the duty of the pilot of such ascending boat to answer in like manner; and on boats meeting, pilots are to observe the proper precautions, as prescribed in Rule 24, for the government of pilots on meeting rivers.

☞ FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendid steamer Ingomar, Capt. J. D. Clarke, will be the regular mail and passenger packet for New Orleans to-morrow afternoon, leaving promptly at the usual hour. She has elegant accommodations and attractive offers.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The fine steamer J. H. Dickey, Capt. Marshall, will arrive this evening and depart for St. Louis at the usual hour, immediately afterwards. She is an immense favorite with the traveling public, and her officers are courteous and attentive.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The popular steamer General Pike, Capt. Silas Jones, having been detained, will leave for White and Little Red rivers at her usual hour to-morrow afternoon. Capt. Jones is the pleasant in the trade, and his boat is the most elegant craft that ever wooed into White river. Capt. Pete Fleming is the clerk.

RICHARDSON'S

IRISH LINENS,

DAMASKS, DIAPERS, ETC.,

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the genuine article, should see that the stamp of the manufacturer is on each piece with the name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWEDEN as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the goods.

This article is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior Linen are now being offered for sale as the same, and sealed with the name of Richardson, by Irish linen merchants on the continent, and their infinite silks on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine goods, will be compelled to abandon a business rendered so precarious by spurious imposition with goods of a worthless character.
