Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, December 17, 1859.

MR. JAS. ANDERSON.—This popular actor will commence an engagement at the new Memphis theater Monday evening.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were sixteen delinquents before the Recorder yesterday, six of whom were sent to the chaingang.

PROFESSIONAL.—Dr. W. T. Bailey, of this city, will leave for the interior of Georgia today, and will be absent about two weeks.

MURDER AT PANOLA, MISS.—A negro man belonging to Mrs. Dickens, near Panola, Mississippi, murdered his wife last Sunday night. The murderer was arrested and lodged in jail.

THE DUCKLEY SERENADES.—This popular troupe closed a series of eight entertainments at Odd Fellow's Hall in this city last evening. They will appear Monday evening at St. Louis.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.—John Martin was arraigned before Squire Hill yesterday on the charge of stealing a carpet-bag containing clothing, from Milton Singleton, and was committed for final trial.

A VERY SUPERIOR WINE.—Our friends Messrs. Day & Pinoliff have for sale, just received by direct importation, a splendid article of champagne. The brand is Mar Sutane, which is known to be in high repute.

COMMITTED.—Mr. France McAnally was examined before Esquire Horne yesterday on the charge of stealing a quantity of wearing apparel from W. J. Hass, and committed to jail for trial in default of five hundred dollars bond.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—We are indebted to our young friend Kelsey, of the lower wharfboat, for a St. Louis paper of Thursday. Mr. Kelsey has made arrangements whereby he will receive New Orleans, Louisville, St. Louis and Cincinnati papers by express each day.

☞ Col. Simeon Oliver, Senator from De Soto county, in the Mississippi Legislature, passed through our city yesterday. He informed us that the Legislature had taken a recess from the 15th inst., until the 16th of January next, and that so far very little legislation of a general character had been matured.

HARSH AGAINST A POLICEMAN.—Officer Ji Boyts, of the city police, was arraigned before Esq. Horne yesterday, on the charge of obtaining possession of a negro under false and fraudulent pretences. In the absence of important testimony, the examination was continued until Tuesday, the 27th inst.

THE OLD FOLKS.—This company will give their first entertainment in this city at Odd Fellows' Hall this evening. The troupe is composed of no less than twenty ladies and gentlemen, who will appear in the costumes of a century ago, and who will sing the song of our ancestors. The novelty of the entertainment alone will be sufficient to attract at least one immense audience.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The greatest American actress, Miss J. M. Davenport, will make her last appearance in this city at the new theater this evening, in the character of "Dot" in the play of the Cricket on the Hearth; the entertainment to conclude with Beauty and the Beast. Those who would receive a last impression of the great action of the leading star in our theatrical firmament should be present this evening.

☞ It appears to be the general opinion that this will be a remarkable cold winter, and therefor it is certainly very advisable for all to provide themselves with warm clothing. To all we would say that in order to combine taste and neatness with comfort, they should invest in one of Sproule & McCown's overcoats. They have a great variety of overcoats, buckscoats, velvet, plush, and silk vests, etc., which we must say are very attractive, and will not fail to suit all who examine them.

ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED.—A gentleman, whose name we did not learn, fell overboard from the steamer E. M. Ryland Thursday evening, as that boat was leaving the landing, and was drowned. The deceased left a family on board, who, with him, were emigrating to a new home in Arkansas. The cries of the distressed family after the sad accident occurred were most pitiable. The engines of the boat were stopped at the time, and every reasonable effort was made to rescue the drowning man, but he sank to rise no more in life.

EXCUSE AND CAPTURE OF COOK AND COPPIE.—There is an amount of incident connected with the lives of some individuals beyond that which their horoscope portends, or else we must believe that the planets do sometimes become terribly mixed. It seems that the detestable Cook could not relinquish his infamous life without one last, though desperate effort to escape. The telegraph announces that he and the prisoner Coppie effected an escape from the prison, night before last, but were subsequently captured and with the rest of the prisoners expiated their crimes on the scaffold at one o'clock yesterday.

☞ A convention of railroad and steamboat passenger agents was held here on Thursday, the proceedings of which we have already published. We understand that the object of this association is to cause the passenger agency business to be recognized as an honorable and legitimate calling, purging the business of all those who have heretofore brought discredit upon it, and giving to the railroad stockholders and steamboat proprietors, a guaranty for the character and faithful performance of duties, of all members of the association who may be employed by steamboat or railroad routes. If the objects of this association, as they have been reported to us, and are set forth in the resolutions of the association, are faithfully carried out, as we have every reason to believe that they will be, we have no hesitation in saying that the southern passenger agent, association will prove beneficial, not only to the railroad and steamboat interest, but also to traders and shippers. We extend to the members of the association our congratulations, and trust that they may succeed, so far as they carry out their purpose as announced.

PARTICULARS OF THE LOSS OF THE DANIEL BOONE.—A letter was received in this city yesterday from one of the officers of the sunken steamer Daniel Boone, which contains some additional particulars of the disaster to that boat at Goodrich's landing, Tuesday night. The boat struck a stump about eleven o'clock at night, and, breaking in two, sunk in about twenty minutes after the accident occurred. She settled down on the stump which she encountered, the water reaching the hurricane roof on the larboard side, the lower deck aft being out of water. The letter before us confirms the report that the boat and cargo are lost. No lives were lost, the passengers and baggage all having been safely landed, and her mails, books, papers, etc., having been secured. The crew at once commenced the work of wrecking her, in which labor they were greatly assisted by the officers and crew of the steamer A. J. Lacey, which boat came down alongside when the accident The Pacific, bound down, passed along about the same time, and took aboard such passengers as wished to return South. The crew of the Boone remained aboard the boat to await the arrival of the Ingomar, which will bring them up to this city this morning.

CRIMINAL COURT—BUSINESS OF THE TERM. The fall term of our criminal court adjourned yesterday, informally. The following list embraces the convictions during the term: J. H. Greenwood, obtaining goods under false pretences, five years to the penitentiary—appealed; J. R. Hutchisson, counterfeiting, five years—new trial granted; John Conners, larceny, five years—appealed; H. Savage, larceny, three years; Mike Handley, larceny, three years; M. Dougherty, larceny, three months jail; Jesse D. Little, larceny, four years; Frank Rooney, larceny, one year; Patrick Fitzpatrick, larceny, four months jail; John Watts, larceny, two years; J. D. Leach, larceny, two years; Wm. Smith, larceny, six years; W. E. Boyd, malicious shooting, five months jail; J. H. Smith, robbery, seven years; James Powers, robbery, four years; John, alias of Wm. Elder, murder—convicted and new trial granted; Robert Thompson, larceny, five years; J. Casey, robbery, three years; Andy Jones, robbery, three years—appealed; Dennis Carney, larceny, two months jail; S. R. Haymas, breach of trust, three years—appealed; John Glass, garreting, twelve years. Such of the above criminals as have obtained their final sentence to the penitentiary will leave this city for Nashville to-day, under the escort of R. L. Smith, Esq., the sheriff, and a strong posse. During the past term of the court there have been no less than seventy-five indictments returned by the grand jury, together with five hundred and forty-eight presentments, over one thousand cases having been disposed of. We have been greatly indebted during the term to our young friend, Mr. John Creighton, the efficient assistant clerk of the court, for reportorial favors.

THE COINCIDENCE.—It seems that the day on which the national Democratic convention is called to meet at Charleston, is the birthday of both Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Douglas the former having been born April 23, 1791, and the latter April 23, 1813. The coincidence is rather remarkable, and may be made more so by the action of the convention. In all human probability Mr. Douglas will be the nominee of the Democratic party to succeed Mr. Buchanan; and also that the day will give political limit to another Democratic President.

Convention of Passenger Agents.

At a called meeting of the Southern Passenger Agent Association, held at Memphis, Friday morning, December 16, 1859, the following proceedings were had:

On motion of Mr. S. P. Dunham, the convention proceeded to the election of an Executive Committee.

On ballot, James Maguire, of New Orleans, J. P. Hubach, of Memphis, and S. P. Dunham, of New Orleans, were elected on the committee, James Maguire and S. R. Hall being members ex officio. Mr. S. P. Hubach, of Memphis, was elected chairman of the Executive Committee.

On motion of S. R. Hall, of Cairo, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association be tendered to the proprietors of the Worsham House for the hospitalities extended to them, and for an excellent dinner provided for the members of the Association.

A resolution was adopted, tendering the thanks of the Association to Messrs. J. J. Smith & Co., of the lower wharf-boat, for the elegant repast furnished to the members of the Association.

The convention then adjourned to meet at Memphis, June 15, 1860.

JAMES P. MAGUIRE, Pres't.
S. R. HALL, Sec'y.

NEW ORLEANS SCHOOL AGENCY
And Teachers' Association,
Directed by Prof. F. RICHARD, 99 Gravier street, corner St. Charles.

TO Principals, Parents, Guardians and Private Families:—This is the much desired with agency was formed, and we are already in possession of hundred applications of qualification from the most distinguished southern seminaries, and we can supply teachers to suit the most fastidious. We are able to procure without delay, Rhetoric, Classic, Mathematical, French, Latin, Music, Governesses and Tutors, of both sexes, to serve in school or private family in or out of town. Let every one state the salary he can offer and we will be faithfully required, and we will furnish them at our responsibility, with the very highest and legitimate order, purging the business of all those who have heretofore brought discredit upon it, and giving to the railroad stockholders and steamboat proprietors, a guaranty for the character and faithful performance of duties, of all members of the association who may be employed by steamboat or railroad routes. If the objects of this association, as they have been reported to us, and are set forth in the resolutions of the association, are faithfully carried out, as we have every reason to believe that they will be, we have no hesitation in saying that the southern passenger agent, association will prove beneficial, not only to the railroad and steamboat interest, but also to traders and shippers. The river was rising at this point yesterday at the rate of 4 inches in twenty-four hours. The weather yesterday was cold, cloudy and damp, with a light fall of rain just descending.

The officers of the H. M. Ryland, from White river yesterday, report that stream falling above, but rising near the mouth.

We learn by telegraph last night that the river at Louisville was falling with eight and a half feet water in the canal and six feet on the falls.

The shipment of cotton yesterday embraced 4,308 bales, of which 3,300 were taken on for New Orleans and 908 bales for Ohio river.

The steamer Admiral arrived from White river yesterday with a due trip, both of passengers and freight, including 168 bales of cotton.

The Warsaw river is falling again, our last gauge showed feet during the twenty-four hours ending Tuesday last.

The H. R. W. Hill was the only regular packet departure yesterday. She had a large number of passengers and a full trip of freight, but owing about 3,300 bales cotton. The Hill awaited the arrival of the railroad train last night.

The little steamer Martin Walt left for the headwaters of the Big Red river last evening—full of deer hunting and Pittsburg manufactures.

The J. G. Chess did not leave for Napoleon last evening, but awaited the result of negotiations, whereby she will in all probability take the place of the Victoria in the Memphis and Vicksburg mail line.

The steamer Cheshire remained over yesterday receiving cotton, 300 bales of which were taken aboard. She will leave for New Orleans this evening.

The W. H. Langley, who is in charge of the Deputy U. S. Marshal, is still permitted to obstruct the steamboat landing.

Of the transient fleet, the Prima Donna and Jesse K. Bell, from New Orleans for Cincinnati; the A. T. Lacey, Pioneer and Alma, from New Orleans for St. Louis, passed up; and the Pontoon, from Louisville for New Orleans, passed down. The Lacey discharged 1500 bags of salt for our merchant. The Pontoon had a large number of passengers and was heavily freighted. She also received an addition of about thirty passengers here.

We are pained to announce the death of Mr. Wash. Martin, the late river reporter of the Cincinnati Enquirer. The sad event occurred at Newport, Ky., on Wednesday last.

We are indebted to Mr. Henry C. Lanhoun, of the Pertons, for late Louisville papers.

The John Gault, in going through the pipes of the new railroad trestle at Clarksville, on Monday night last, had about sixty feet of her guards torn away, causing a considerable delay in the boat and no little expenditure to have her put to repair.

An enclosed fall overboard from the steamer E. M. Ryland, as that boat was leaving the city landing Tuesday, and was drowned.

The steamer Ingomar will arrive from New Orleans this morning, and will bring the crew, some of the passengers, the mails, etc., of the sunken steamer Daniel Boone.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendid steamer Cheshire, Capt. Silver, will leave for New Orleans at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She has elegant accommodations for passengers and careful, attentive officers. Our old friend Capt. McKnight is the clerk.

☞ For Vicksburg.—The fine steamer Victoria, Captain Hooks, having been substantially repaired, is the regular mail and passenger packet for Vicksburg this afternoon at 4 o'clock. She is the decided favorite of the fleet, having received the patronage of the mail for years. Capt. M. M. Temple is the clerk, with a worthy assistant in the person of our gay young friend Page.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—The splendid low-pressure steamer Cheshire, Capt. Gaslin, will leave for Louisville at 4 o'clock this afternoon. She is fast, substantial and elegant in point of accommodations, having attentive and popular officers. Travelers will find our old friend Col. Green on board, a most agreeable companion.

☞ FOR ARKANSAS RIVER.—The elegant steamer Red river, Capt. Hains, is the regular packet for New Orleans this afternoon, affording an excellent opportunity for passengers and shippers to avail themselves of a safe and substantial craft.

ESCAPE AND CAPTURE OF COOK AND COPPIE

EXECUTION OF ALL THE PRISONERS.

CHARLESTOWN, December 16.—Two of the Harper's Ferry prisoners, Cook and Coppie, escaped from jail last night. They were first seen by the sentinels and retaken. They were captured this afternoon a few minutes before one o'clock. About two hours after the execution of the negroes, Green and Copeland, took place. Everything passed off quietly.

Additional Intelligence per Steamship Nova Scotian and Bremen.

NEW YORK, December 16.—The following is in addition to the summary of the news per the steamships Nova Scotian and Bremen:

PARIS.—The British Government has received official advices from Cutcutta, which contradict the rumor of the death of the rebel, Nana Sahib. At the latest accounts he was engaged in leaving Oude, and at the head of 6000 men was threatening Lucknow.

The French Government has just completed a battery at Hendaye, which commands the entrenchments in Spain.

The Bank of Barcelona has offered to the Spanish Government an advance of 8,000,000 reals, without interest, if the Government will remove the new capital Morocco.

Advices from Madrid state that a force of over 4000 Moors attacked the redoubt before Ceuta three times on the 29th ult. At the third attack they were repulsed and completely routed.

An extraordinary corps d'armee at the latest accounts were crossing the Straits of Gibraltar, and several fresh regiments had disembarked at Ceuta.

PRUSSIA.—General Herman is to succeed General Bonin in the Prussian cabinet as Minister of War. The effective force of the Prussian army is to be again reduced.

AUSTRIA.—The Austrian Government still remains firm in her determination to the terms of France and Sardinia upon which the preliminaries of the general European Congress shall be based.

CENTRAL ITALY.—The Milan Gazette announces that the Assemblies of the States of Central Italy are to be convoked. The people of Italy are clamorous for the return of Gerbaldi.

COCHIN CHINA.—Later advices received from Cochin China state that the missionaries have been ill treated by the inhabitants.

THE BELGIAN LOAN.—Belgium has accepted the loan from the Rothschilds, for the purpose of completing the fortifications of Antwerp.

It is stated that the General European Congress will probably assemble at Paris toward the end of December.

ENGLAND.—The Queen has prorogued Parliament to the 24th of January.

ROME.—It is announced that Cardinal Antonelli is to resume the Status of the Church in the General Congress.

LIVERPOOL, December 1.—The steamship North American arrived out on the 1st inst., from Portland. The steamship Queen of the West got back to this port.

The French squadron has not either bombarded Tangiers or Beatrah, as previously reported. A French steamer merely dismantled a small fort on the coast of Morocco, which had fired on her.

Later advices from Constantinople state that a great storm had prevailed on the Euxine sea, during which eighty vessels were lost.

PARIS.—The Opinion Nationale, published at Paris, has received a final warning, in consequence of an article on the temporal power of the Pope.

Count Walewski has assured Prince Metternich, the Austrian Minister, that France will continue to favor the spontaneous recall by the people of the Grand Duke of central Italy.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP AMERICA.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Destruction of two Forts by the French Fleet.

NEW YORK, December 16.—The British and North American royal mail steamship America arrived at Halifax with the news of the 1st instant. She sailed from Liverpool on Saturday afternoon, the 24 inst., and consequently brings two days later advices than those received per the steamships Canada, Persia and Roman yesterday evening. The following summary of her advices was sent by the house express from Halifax to Nashville, N. B.:

The intelligence by this arrival is generally of an unimportant character.

The approaching general European Congress is attracting much attention throughout England. The London Times urges Lord Palmerston to represent England. It is rumored that the first sitting of the Congress will take place in Paris, on Christmas.

The French fleet has destroyed two forts at the mouth of the river Tetuan in Morocco, for firing at a French vessel. After the devastation of these forts the fleet resumed its neutral position.

Thirty-Sixth Congress—First Session

WASHINGTON, December 16.—HOUSE.—A resolution was introduced by Wm. R. Niblack, Democrat of Indiana, to empower the clerk to preserve order until the election of a Speaker, which was adopted. Mileage L. Boskum of South Carolina, made a speech in which he said that he and his colleagues were there in favor of disunion if Seward should be elected President. Sherrard Clemens of Virginia, complained of the delay in electing a Speaker, and said if he became physically disabled his friends would have to do without his vote. At the close of his remarks two ballots were taken which resulted as follows: 5th ballot—Sherman, 96; Boock, 88; Gilmer, 36; scattering 3. Mr. Gilmer withdrew after this ballot. 6th ballot—Sherman, 111; Boock, 83; Bocock, 25; scattering 3.

Wm. R. Sims, of Kentucky, said Brown's force has been followed by a crusade against the rights of the Southern people. The South charged the Republican party with raising up Brown. He told them that at the signing of the Constitution northern men sold slaves to the South, and now, after enjoying the property they thus acquired, denounce the South for retaining slaves. He said unless the South could secure to them the rights of northern people, the South would meet them at the center's mouth. He said he doubted the sincerity of the Republican regrets for the Harper's Ferry affair. He charged the Republicans to be aware of the dangers hanging over the country.

☞ It is a positive fact that the process employed by Marshall & Matthews in dyeing and scouring gents' suits, vests and pants at every description renders every spot of grease, paint, varnish tar, together with all other blemishes and impurities to which such garments are liable. They warrant the spots not to reappear. Give them a call. Their office is on Main street between Gayoso and Beal.

CURES FOR RHEUMATISM.—No one need suffer longer from this painful and afflicting disease, no matter how severe the case, how badly crippled, or of how long standing. We are again in receipt of a supply of the celebrated Rheumatic Liniment, which has already cured more than twenty thousand persons, comprising cases of every form of the disease: cast off crutches of those had not been able to walk without two canes. At the cost of his remarks two ballots were taken which resulted as follows: 5th ballot—Sherman, 96; Boock, 88; Gilmer, 36; scattering 3. Mr. Gilmer withdrew after this ballot. 6th ballot—Sherman, 111; Boock, 83; Bocock, 25; scattering 3.

Wm. R. Sims, of Kentucky, said Brown's force has been followed by a crusade against the rights of the Southern people. The South charged the Republican party with raising up Brown. He told them that at the signing of the Constitution northern men sold slaves to the South, and now, after enjoying the property they thus acquired, denounce the South for retaining slaves. He said unless the South could secure to them the rights of northern people, the South would meet them at the center's mouth. He said he doubted the sincerity of the Republican regrets for the Harper's Ferry affair. He charged the Republicans to be aware of the dangers hanging over the country.
