The Pride of Our City.

The twenty-fourth annual convention of the State Firemen's Association, which met in Duluth June 9, 10 and 11 was very largely attended by the firemen, there being delegations from every town of any importance in the state.

The visitors were entertained in excellent manner. An excursion on the Christopher Columbus, opera and dancing party at the Pavilion, picnic at Fond du Lac and

The city of Duluth has every reason to feel proud of the "fire laddies" who risk life and limb for others.

The department is second to none, and the Labor World takes pleasure in producing on this page a cut of Headquarters Fire House, apparatus and the "gallant men."

Public ownership of the railroads would be popular ownership. The enemy dare not submit the question to a referendum vote.

ment is a member of the union, and are represented in the Trades Assembly by three delegates. There are many who are pushing the reform movement wherever possible, and have evolved into first class "agitators."

The boys spend a great deal of their spare time reading and discussing problems which are agitating the minds of the people today, and are very far advanced upon all questions.

The annual election of officers of Typographical Union No. 136 was held Sunday, June 7, and the result was as follows: President, R. P. Coburn; vice president, J. S. Martin; secretary and treasurer, Fred Lounsberry; recording secretary, William Ferguson; sergeant at arms, William Moran; auditing committee, Ernest L. Oberg, J. Blackwood and W. W. Huntley. Thomas Lyons, James McDowell and George C. Findley were elected delegates for one year to the Federated Trades Assembly.
