THE CONTEMPLATED PLAN OF JOHN BROWN'S OPERATIONS.

Among the papers of Mr. John Brown, found upon the Kennedy farm near Harpers Ferry, were maps of each of the United States, Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Texas, and Kansas, in the hand of Brown's letter-writer, Kagi, with the exception of Kansas, in the hand of Brown himself. These maps were evidently intended for use in the Chase County, District of Columbia, Kansas, and Kagi's letter of the 30th ult. to Brown, in the Kansas
