Local Matters.

Friday Morning.....January 27, 1860.

☞ Fresh fish, wild geese and other game at J. T. Halsey & Bro's, 25 Madison street.

AT THE WOODSIDE.—Mr. R. B. Parsley's little daughter has arrived in the city, and may be found by her friends at the Woodside House.

DUELLY FINED.—Henry Morton was fined twenty dollars yesterday, upon two charges, by the recorder—for threatening to take the life of a neighbor and for resisting the police.

☞ By special request, Bishop Otey will repeat the two sermons recently delivered on the "Duty of Christians in the present state of the Nation," at Grace Church on Sunday, the 29th inst., 11 A. M., and 7 P. M.

POLICE MATTERS.—Major East had so far recovered from his late indisposition, as to enable him to preside in the recorder's court yesterday morning. There were nineteen cases before him, and thirteen additions were made to the chain-gang.

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE MUSIC.—The entertainment at the new theater this evening will be for the benefit of Mr. Collins, on which occasion he will appear for the last time but one. The programme will embrace The Irish Genius, The Wrong Passenger and The Happy Man.

THANKS.—Mr. C. A. Gibson, of Watson, Miss., has our thanks for a club of nine subscribers to the Weekly Appeal at that office. Our mailing clerk is beginning to complain seriously of late on account of the great increase of job labors. We advise him never to weary in a good cause.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED.—Mr. A. J. Kendall, the young man who was arrested a day or two since on the charge of larceny committed in Cincinnati, was released from custody yesterday by order of the attorney-general, it appearing that the accused was in no way identified with the real thief.

CONTINUED INDEFINITELY.—Sulser and Pellinger (not Pemberton, as announced), charged with stealing some guns and other articles from the steamer E. M. Syland, were again brought before Esquire Hill for examination yesterday, but in the absence of testimony the investigation was continued indefinitely.

CHANGE OF TIME.—A very material change in the arrival and departure of trains on the Memphis and Charleston railroad will take place on Monday, the 29th January. On and after that date the passenger trains will leave the depot of the city at 6 o'clock, A. M., and at 6 o'clock, P. M., and will arrive at half-past 8 o'clock A. M.

ANOTHER ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—An attempt was made by two thieves Wednesday evening to rob the boarding house kept by Mrs. Price, on Avery street. The burglars effected an entrance into the hall, but their movements were observed by a lady whose presence surprised them, and they made their escape.

PIANOS AT WHOLESALE PRICES.—Let no one in want of a piano fail to improve this opportunity of securing one of Steinway's ones at B. Whitmiles & Co's, 192 Main street, which are being closed out at wholesale prices, for one hundred dollars each less than the same quality of instrument can be bought elsewhere in Memphis.

HEARING ANSWER.—Joseph Hughes, the man who was arrested on a State warrant on the charge of assaulting John Brenner with a hatchet at the new building at the corner of Main and Washington streets, was examined before Esquire Horne yesterday, and required to give bail in the sum of $500 to answer in the criminal court.

THE PAULDING CLARION.—The Paulding (Miss.) Clarion has been enlarged the volume enough page. It was already a very large paper. It is now one of the largest and best conducted papers, not only in the South, but in the Union, and is conducted with great ability by Mr. Adams. The large advertising patronage of the Clarion has rendered its enlargement necessary.

☞ G. W. RENDICK.—We are informed that Reddick, who made the deadly assault upon Capt. Jas. Lee, on board the steamer Kate Frisbee, recently, at Vicksburg, has had an examination before a court of magistrates in Vicksburg, and that he has been held for final trial. He is said to be slowly recovering from the wounds he received in the affray with Capt. Lee.

ADAMS' EXPRESS COMPANY.—We are under continued obligations to this company—whose rapidly spreading branches in this city are rapidly extending, owing to the promptness, and principle that characterize their business operations—for eastern, western, and south en exchanges, to Morris, Borden & O'Pyne, the gentlemanly employees of the company, our thanks are due for daily courtesies.

READ THIS.—You met us the other day and told us you wanted to buy some clothing and shirts, drawers, etc. Now is the time for you to buy them, and the place of all others is at the new store on Jefferson street, next door to the Planters' Bank; you can here get anything you want at less than New York cost; we know you can, and the very best of goods at that; you can see them and judge by how we sell you, or you will soon forget it.

LADIES' FAIR.—The Fair at Odd Fellows' Hall last evening, for the benefit of the Third Presbyterian church, was highly successful and was a pleasant entertainment. As evidence of its pecuniary success, we were informed that one gentleman, Capt. John Trezevant, made a donation of sixty dollars to the fund for the construction of the new church—an act quite in keeping with his character for generosity. There will be another entertainment of the same character this evening.

PROFESSORS LOCKE.—This world-renowned magician will commence a series of entertainments at Odd Fellows' Hall Monday evening. A St. Louis exchange says: The feats of legerdemain are wonderful, while the appearance of "Spiritly"—certainly the most stupid piece ever exhibited on any stage—keeps his audiences in a constant roar. The Professor has spared no expense in obtaining the most costly and beautiful paraphernalia with which to exhibit the conjurations, and certainly imparts a great glow to all who witness them.

HANDSOME ESTABLISHMENT.—We passed by one day last week the new and splendid business emporium of Messrs. Walker & Roche, in the City Building, No. 190 Main street, which for convenience, extent, and business advantages, is without a superior in the city. There are five stories, the lowest is a basement which is well lighted and furnished, and is devoted to the wholesale dry goods business. The ground floor is handsomely fitted up with every necessary for carrying on an extensive retail trade. It is lighted at night by seven magnificent chandeliers. The second story is large and a small round, and is inclosed by large sheets of glass. In the rear is a handsome fitted up office and dressing room. The store above is devoted to wholesale clothing, immense piles of which rise nearly to the ceiling. The next story is a repository of hosts and shoes. Above this is a story crowded with the vast array of trunks and valises. A glance over this establishment will give the stranger a lively idea of the vast business of which Memphis is the metropolis, and of the great scale on which Messrs. Walker carry on their operations. They are connected with the clothing manufacturing establishment of the Walkers in Philadelphia, well known for the gigantic business they carry on with every part of the States, both Atlantic and Pacific.

HOSSIER AFFAIR.—The Indiana State Journal gives an account of a horrible affair said to have occurred in DeKalb county, of that State. The facts of the case are about these: An old couple who had lived unpleasantly for years, at last came to a final rupture a sparkling morning about some trifling matter. At the commencement of the quarrel their son "Jakey" was present, but he being used to such proceedings and conceiving nothing serious, went off to his work. At night when he returned, both were absent. Upon going out to search for them he met his mother coming in, who said that "the old man would bother them no more, but Jakey must say nothing about it." The neighbors hearing of it, made search for the missing man, and after some time found him in the well, terribly mangled. The old woman was immediately arrested and sent to jail, where she still persists in counsel, suicide. She cut a gash in her abdomen from which the intestines protruded; these she cut off and threw in the stove. Of course the wound was mortal, and ere this the worthless woman is no more.

PUBLIC MEETING AT MOSCOW.—On Wednesday, the 18th inst., the citizens of Moscow held a public meeting and requested two individuals, tailors by trade, and supposed by Abolitionists, to leave on that day. They had been sojourning in Moscow about three months, and, during that time, had made themselves too thick with the slaves, purloining stolen chickens and other things from them. The state of things did not suit the citizens of Moscow, and therefore, they met in public meeting, as stated above, and passed resolutions presenting to the Abolition tailors the alternative of either leaving of subscribing to a code of law with the proper penalties, affixed to the feathers of the stolen chickens they had purchased from the slaves. Their "goose" at D. Marsh and Mr. Zeller, Other Northern communities are advised not to let the "goose" a "local habitation" in their midst. The tailors thought that "Moscow was the better part of valor," and fled in obedience to the mandates of the citizens of Moscow.—Somerville Democrat.

NEGRO SHOT.—Last evening Miss Dunnipart directed a colored servant at the Gift House to engage a carriage for her to proceed to the theater. He did as directed. One Jim Clark, a notorious rowdy and driver of quite too common a vehicle, was informed that the boy did not take his hack, and cursed the boy, who replied, and they clinched. During the melee, the cowardly hackman, finding the boy too much for him, shot him through the thigh, leaped upon his box and drove furiously down town. Officers Antle and McGuire, however, soon arrested him and lodged him in jail.—Lou. Dem.

DUELLY FINED.—Henry Morton was fined twenty dollars yesterday, upon two charges, by the recorder—for threatening to take the life of a neighbor and for resisting the police.

☞ By special request, Bishop Otey will repeat the two sermons recently delivered on the "Duty of Christians in the present state of the Nation," at Grace Church on Sunday, the 29th inst., 11 A. M., and 7 P. M.

Port of Memphis.

River and Steamboat Matters.

Contrary to our expectation, the river declines slowly at this point. Seventy-five feet show one inch during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock last evening, at which time the river was four feet 7 inches below the Mississippi is falling between St. Louis and Cairo with a fair water in the channel. The weather was mild yesterday, and the sun shone prettily. There was an appearance of rain in the morning, but there was a great deal of sunshine in the afternoon.

TELEGRAPHIC.—The Orio at Louisville was falling last evening, with seven feet three inches in the canal.

ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.—Of the packets port to the South from Memphis, the Southerner to go Louisville, the Platte Valley from St. Louis, and the Francis Ellen, 2 from White river, arrived, all having cleared ashes. The St. Francis brought three bales cotton, and the South Bend two bales. The Mary Patterson for White river, the Ben Wade for the Arkansas, the Platte Valley for St. Louis, the Messenger for Cincinnati, and the Wave for the Pocket Deer, departed, all heavily freighted, with good passenger lists. The Mary Patterson had income from Memphis, and the Ben Wade from the White river. The Messenger took one hundred bales of cotton and 1,000 kegs. The remaining arrivals and departures embraced the Independent and Madison for Cincinnati, the Red River from Nashville for New Orleans, the Minnie from Cincinnati for New Orleans, and the Ben Hadley from New Orleans for Louisville. The Ben Hadley brought by the mails and passengers of the Vicksburg packet Hindman, which failed to land her yesterday, and took out a wheel by St. Antoine.

INTEREST.—The receipts of cotton by river yesterday embraced two bales. But 862 bales were shipped, which number was taken by the Messenger for Cincinnati.....The Memphis and Vicksburg did a good Wednesday's work up. A Red Fork packet, the Hindman, by which accident she lost her starboard wheel. The John Raine came down a short time after the accident occurred, and took off her mails and passengers, at about three last evening. The Hindman is coming down on one wheel, and will be in port this morning.....The arrangement has been consummated whereby either the Ben Lewis or J. W. Jones will supply the place of the Hindman in the Memphis and Vicksburg mail line, leaving this port on Saturdays and returning on Tuesdays with the line of St. Louis packets.....The Interchange and Belvidere, for White river, were still in yesterday.....We are informed that Capt. Jno. Blair Thomas, of the Southern, left for his home yesterday morning.....The officers of the Independent remained yesterday that a break had occurred in the levee below Fort Pickering. The break was but trifling, however, and no water had been allowed to flow through it. The Independent took a cargo on the river on Monday trip, above Hurricane Island, by which accident several feet of her chimney were knocked down, and the appearance of the boat was otherwise injured. Her running arrangements have been made and in the hand embarrassed, and she will leave for Louisville to-day in all the time as ever.....We are indebted to Capt. Henry W. Smith, the popular clerk, for papers and other favors.....The Jessie Wade, a new boat for the Memphis and New Orleans trade, will leave Louisville in a few days for New Orleans.

Boats Leaving To-day.

For Louisville.—The splendid low-pressure steamer Boatbuilder, Capt. Jno. Pickett, will leave for Louisville this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The elegance of her accommodations and the popularity of her officers are well known to the public. Capt. Pickett is a gentleman of the old school, and will do his best to make his passengers comfortable. Freight or passage apply on board, or to

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The popular packet C. H. W. Wolfe, Capt. Jno. Woods, is the regular mail and passenger packet for New Orleans today. We commend her to the attention of our friends. Maggie L. Hayes and McWhirter are the clerks.....The splendid steamer Platte Valley, Capt. Jno. Pickett, will leave for Napoleon and White river with a good freight and fine list of passengers. This is an old, well known packet, with her old accommodating clerk, Mr. Jas. Fritz in charge.

$25 Reward.

WAS stolen from my house on Thursday last, the 1st day of December, 1859, a bay horse Black Horse with a white star in his forehead—his forefoot has been cut, thinks it was cut to make a mark—mane and tail cut. Part of his tail has been pulled against the shafts until the hair is all gone, he is 5 years old, carriage and saddle mules. I will pay the above reward for the horse. Any information as to his whereabouts, will be thankfully received and liberally rewarded.

"NICE FITTING BOOTS."—I am not at liberty to give testimonials in praise of the article which expends to my establishment, but I feel warranted in assuring the "lovers of artistic bootmaking, by whom an easy fit, graceful shape and elegant finish is considered one of the greatest luxuries of life"—that the Lucinda Tie at least has competent a workman as "Jay Tenin," and would respectfully solicit the patronage of my old friends.

SEWING MACHINE—STITCH CLAIM.

THE STITCH formed among those intended in sewing machines as the "Grover & Baker" stitch, was patented by W. C. Baker, of Worcester, Mass., February 23, 1858, upon several claims.

"FIRST—What I claim as my invention, and desire to have secured to me by letters patent, is the making of the double lock stitch, substantially as described, when the cloth, by means of two needles, combined and operating substantially as described, is fed forward."

"SECOND—I claim the combination of a needle, or needles, two pieces of cloth, and a hook or hooks, substantially as described, for producing the double lock stitch, substantially as described, consisting of a single stitch, formed in three thread passes only, and in the after, or subsequent, passes, formed at a tangential of double loops, from the first."

SEWING MACHINE PATENTS APPEARING.

JUNE 21, 1858, patent issued to W. O. Grover and W. C. Baker, known and called the Grover Baker patent, under which having done different stitches—up, down, forward and back. Said by late decisions of the Supreme Court of New York and Connecticut, as well as the decisions in other jurisdictions, to be a valid patent, and the claims of the patent, when properly construed, to be valid, and entitled to a liberal construction, so as to secure to the patentee the exclusive right to the use of the invention, and to protect him in the enjoyment of the profits and advantages of his invention.

The law will generally be enforced against all persons implicated in the whole infringement, but we have no objection to make an exception in favor of those who are ignorant of the law.

We will have all that the people want no longer to be injured, the matter is now in the hands of competent and able gentlemen, who are determined to put a stop to the shameless infringement upon the rights of others, and to protect the people from being imposed upon by the sale of machines which have no right to be made, manufactured or sold, and which are not equal in point of merit, usefulness, durability, and economy, to the machines which have been made and sold by the parties who are the owners of the patent, and who are the only parties who have the right to make, manufacture, or sell, machines in which the double lock stitch is used.
