Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, February 1, 1860.

LATE PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. Ed. Worsham, the popular news agent on the upper wharfboat, for late papers.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were eleven delinquents before the recorder yesterday, six of whom were sent to the chain-gang.

☞ There was no meeting of the board of mayor and aldermen last evening, which was announced in the papers of yesterday.

DISCHARGED.—Sabert and Pettinger, the two men charged with the larceny of some guns and other articles, were discharged from custody by Esquire Horne yesterday, the material witnesses of their guilt failing to appear.

WIFE-WHIPPER PUNISHED.—Pat McDonald, a notorious wife-whipper, was sent to the chain-gang by the recorder yesterday for the period of fifty-three days for cruelly treating his wife.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—Geo. W. Reddick, of this city, who was arrested in Vicksburg a few weeks ago on the charge of assaulting Capt. Jas. Lee, of the steamer Kate Frisbee, has been admitted to bail.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Joseph Williams, ex-Chief Justice of Iowa, and at present Supreme Judge of Kansas, arrived in this city last evening. The Judge is an able jurist and a good companion. He is en route for Charleston.

THE VOTE FOR SPEAKER YESTERDAY.—The following is the result of the ballot for Speaker yesterday, as will be seen by our telegraphic reports: Pennington, 116; McClernand, 91; Gilmer, 5; Millson, 6; scattering, 15. Total vote, 233; necessary to a choice, 117.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—Attention is invited to the sale mentioned in our advertising columns, of an eligibly located and valuable lot, by our friend Dr. Creighton. It will be a good bargain, if purchased at any reasonable price.

JAIL STATISTICS.—There are at present one hundred and forty-eight persons confined in the city prison, seventy-two of whom are confined for felonies, while sixty-one are attached to the chain-gang, and fifteen are fugitive slaves.

☞ Clothing for tall, short, big, small, rich and poor, manufactures for cold, warm, hot, dry or wet weather, for everybody and his friend, at Tickner, Robbins & Co's, next door to the Planter's bank, on Jefferson street, and it will all be sold mighty cheap. They want to see you there.

THE NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—Mr. Barry Sullivan appeared last evening as Richelieu, and his rendition of the character gave universal satisfaction. The performance to-night is Macbeth. Admirers of the legitimate drama will flock to the new theater this evening. To conclude with A Day Well Spent.

SALE POSTPONED.—Owing to the rainy weather, the great piano sale at R. Whitfield's & Co's has been postponed until Thursday morning, February 2d, at 11 o'clock precisely. Don't forget the day, time and place, as this sale will positively take place, rain or shine, and great bargains may be expected.

PROF. JACOBS.—This renowned magician continues to excite the wonder and admiration of fashionable audiences at Odd Fellows' Hall. He has demonstrated to the satisfaction of all who have visited him that he is the greatest magician of the age, many of his illusions seeming to be supernatural. The Professor will give another entertainment this evening.

LARGE COLLECTIONS.—Mr. Bowen, our worthy city tax collector, informs us that he has collected during the month of January the sum of $40,000, which is a larger amount of city taxes than has ever been collected before in this city, within a single month. The result speaks well for the promptness of tax payers and for the efficiency of Mr. Bowen as a collector.

GEO. V. RUTHERFORD, ESQ.—This gentleman, long connected with Messrs. Spalding & Rogers, has returned to his first love. He has resigned the local and "critical" department upon the Cincinnati Enquirer, and accepted the position of business manager of Spalding & Rogers' circus. As showman, editor, or genial companion, Rutherford may have his equal, but no superior. He arrived in this city by railroad last evening, en route for his headquarters in New Orleans.

ARREST OF SUSPECTED FELONS.—A man who gave his name as Joseph Andrews, was arrested yesterday on the act of picking a gentleman's pocket at the post office. Subsequently Andrews admitted that a man named Andrew Myers was an accomplice, and the police arrested him also. A search was then instituted by the police, who found implements for playing the Mexican "ball game," and counterfeit check on various Memphis banks in Myers' trunk.

RECEIPTS OF COTTON BY RAILROAD.—Mr. Richards, the popular auditor of the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad, informs us that the receipts of cotton by that road for the month of January aggregated 7,223 bales, which, added to the 43,677 bales received to the 1st January, shows the total receipts of cotton by that road during the season to be 50,900 bales. This statement exhibits a gratifying increase in the receipts over the same road to a corresponding period last year.

☞ Hark! methinks I hear the cold wind blow and the snow fly; and I listen, and hear the cry! They come! they come! and we look, and lo! by Adams Express just from the great manufactory, we see box after box of new goods for Tucker, Sheppard & Co., next door to the Planters' Bank, on Jefferson street, and now all who want clothing, shirts, drawers and shawls, blankets, or any other goods in this line for this cold weather, hasten to the spot and see if you don't get more for five dollars than you ever got before.

POST OFFICE ON FRONT ROW.—Our active and efficient postmaster, determined not to be outdone in his efforts to accommodate the public, has already effected arrangements for the prompt delivery of the mails in this city. It was only a day or two since that the post office was in ashes; already he has secured suitable rooms in the Park Building, on Front Row, No. 94, and fitted up 1040 boxes for private use, and from 400 to 500 for general delivery. In truth his private arrangements, although hastily gotten up, are hardly inferior so far as convenience is concerned, to those which much recently challenged the admiration of the press and the people of Memphis. Memphis is called a fast city. It cannot be denied that she also boasts of a fast postmaster.

MEMPHIS HOSPITAL.—We learn from reliable authority that the number of patients under treatment in this establishment have averaged during the last six months one hundred. Twenty years ago, when the average number of patients was not more than about half a dozen, the State of Tennessee appropriated for its aid $15,000 (the present appropriation.) If half a dozen patients called for the above amount, which has been year after year freely granted, it is not unreasonable that our sagacious and humane legislators will see the necessity of increasing the amount of the charity, so as to conform to the existing and pressing wants of the hospital. If we are correctly informed, a bill is now before the legislature, asking an appropriation of $10,000, instead of the old sum of $5,000. Every consideration of reason, justice and humanity requires that it should immediately become a law, so that the suffering and destitute thrown upon our mercy should be suitably cared for. We especially call the attention of the Shelby delegation to this measure of charity and humanity.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—The sixty-seventh instalment is due this Association to-day, payable to the treasurer in bankable funds at J. E. Chadwick's office.

The Funds will positively be loaned at the same place to-morrow at half-past seven o'clock.

J. E. CHADWICK, Secretary.

A SCATTERED FAMILY.—Two of Mr. De Quincy's daughters, the eldest and youngest, were with him at the time of his death in Edinburg on the 8th ult. His second daughter, the wife of Col. Baird Smith, is in India with her husband; one of his sons is also in India, a cap ain in the army; the other, a physician, is in Brazil. The eldest daughter is the wife of Mr. Robert Craig, formerly of Edinburg, now a farmer in Ireland, whence she was called to her father's death-bed. The youngest is unmarried.

☞ Among desirable articles, we may name as foremost the neat, a useful, cheap, easy of application, and of general and universal application to the repair of furniture, crockery, and all work and other serviceable and ornamental purposes. The prime qualities of a good glue are immediate readiness for use at all times and reliability as a hold-fast. And this is the article which Mr. H. C. Spalding has been so fortunate as to introduce. In convenient bottles with a handy brush; Spalding's Prepared Glue requires no day's preparatory softening in water, no heating for use, and no trifling delays to secure its junction and cohesion—being held in solution chemically, and capable of being applied instantly, and to every variety of work and requirement. Spalding's Glue, then, may safely be set down for a true 2 hands fast, and will by Hollywood breathings all pains of the country. We have given it a trial, and found it quick as hunger in taking hold, firm as friendship.

Port of Memphis.

River and Steamboat Matters.

STEAMERS LEAVING THIS DAY.

For Cincinnati, ... Silver Moon—John Barber.
For New Orleans, ... Arlington—Spottswood.
For Louisville, ... Pocahontas—Lyons.

THE RIVER declined about 3 feet during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock last evening. There was a heavy fall of rain from 10 o'clock Monday night until past yesterday, when the rain varied to a snow and sleet, with the ground covered last evening to the depth of three or four inches. The bad weather almost serious to steport outdoor transactions, and business was the very dull all the day.

TELEGRAPHIC.—The river at Louisville last evening was falling with six feet three inches on the falls. It was snowing briskly, the thermometer indicating 41° above zero.....The Mississippi river at St. Louis was stationary with seven feet water to the channel to Cairo. The weather is very cold. The advices from above state that the ice is forming rapidly.

ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.—There were no arrivals of regular packets yesterday. The Kate Frisbee, for Vicksburg, the R. M. Bristol, for White river, the St. Francis, for Napoleon, the Florida river, and the E. H. Parker, for the Arkansas river, departed, all with light trips of freight. The Frisbee, however, had a large number of passengers. The Atlantic, from Louisville for New Orleans, passed down yesterday morning with a nice trip of freight, though but few passengers. The Cora Anderson from St. Louis, also passed down, and the Northern Light, L. M. Kennett, and Champion, for St. Louis, passed up. The Sam of Ark. left for Rankin river with a light trip of merchandise.

INCIDENTS.—There were no receipts of cotton by river yesterday, and no shipments. We learn from the report of Mr. Wolfe, our efficient wharfmaster, that the receipts of cotton by river for the month of January ending last evening, aggregated 5,766 bales. The shipments of cotton during the same period were as follows:

To New Orleans	1,[illegible]
To St. Louis	2,[illegible]
To Louisville	[illegible]
Total shipments for January	3,[illegible]

The steamer J. H. Lucas has been chartered by the Memphis and Vicksburg packet company to take the place of the Highflyer. She will leave Thursday next for Vicksburg under command of Capt. Shepherd.....Capt. D. D. Armstrong, the late popular clerk of the steamer Southerner, will leave for Louisville to-day, to perfect arrangements for embarking in a mercantile business in this city.....The steamer Edward J. Gay, Capt. Burt master, having been detained on account of the weather, will not leave for New Orleans until to-morrow evening. The Admiral, Capt. Baird, has also been detained from Vicksburg under command of Capt. Shepherd.....Capt. D. Armstrong, the late popular clerk of the steamer Southerner, will leave for Louisville to-day, to perfect arrangements for embarking in a mercantile business in this city.....The steamer Edward J. Gay, Capt. Burt master, having been detained on account of the weather, will not leave for New Orleans until to-morrow evening. The Admiral, Capt. Baird, has also been detained from Vicksburg under command of Capt. Shepherd.....The Cincinnati Commercial, alluding to the recent skirmishes of 1 Dragoon action to Cincinnati from this port by the Silver Moon, says: "This is, with one exception, the largest cargo of cotton ever brought to this port. Some years since the Memphis packet Ben Franklin came in with 2,000. The great boat that entered the Cincinnati and Memphis trade, as a regular packet, was the Isaac Shelby. This was about fourteen years ago. She was a fortunate boat for the Kentucky river trade, but is not growing successful, she was made the founder of the new extensive trade between Memphis and this city. She was commanded by Capt. Wm. Walker. The first packet of the present express line was the Palmetto, Capt. W. C. Mann, who has since retired from the river. She was a single engine boat, and carried but little freight. After this, the Memphis was built. This followed the Chickasaw, Bryson, Memphis No. 2, Charleston, Richmond, Gladiator, Rowena, Kate May, and last year the splendid Silver Moon was built. The first shipment of cotton to New York, from Memphis, by river, was made in 1838, when 20 bales were brought to this city by the packets. The average receipts per week now amount to upward of 1,000 bales. The boats now engaged in this trade are first class, finished in the best style, with all the modern improvements. Cincinnati can be justly proud of these boats and their persevering commanders. During the low water season, the Hickman and Kate May are run in this trade. At other seasons they are engaged in the Arkansas river.....The Kentucky will arrive from Louisville this evening, and leave for Louisville at the usual hour to-morrow.....The Jennie Whipple and Lady Walton were due from Arkansas river last evening, but had not arrived at a late last night.

Boats Leaving To-day.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendid steamer Eclipse, Capt. R. I. Cook, will leave for New Orleans at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Her accommodations are deservedly pointed to those of any steamer on the western waters, which are unsurpassed attractive officers. Mr. Bell has charge of the ladies's office.

FOR CINCINNATI.—The elegant new steamer Silver Moon, Capt. John Barber, is this morning at Price's landing, and will leave promptly at five o'clock. Although new in the trade, she has deservedly gained popularity in southern Passengers will find their old friend, Capt. R. L. Dean, in the clerk's office.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—The magnificent new steamer Pocahontas, Capt. John P. Lyons, will arrive from New Orleans at four o'clock this afternoon, and leave promptly at five o'clock for Louisville. Her cabin is all of a piece, and her officers are all after the style of her gallant Captain, Mr. Henry C. Landram.
