We will pay the above reward for the apprehension, with sufficient proof to convict of every thief detected in stealing the Appeal from the doors of city subscribers. NOLLAHAN, THORNDIKE & DILL.

February 7, 1860.

COME WANTED.—See advertisement under this head in another column.

FAST DRIVING.—John Kingsy was fined five dollars by the recorder yesterday for fast driving.

RAILROADING.—Mr. E. F. Fuller, traveling agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and Mr. J. W. Brown, of the Ohio Central railroad, are in the city.

TO GARDENERS.—Messrs. Hill & Durion have either for sale or rent a fertile tract of ten acres of land, in the suburbs of the city, which may be obtained on easy terms.

PERSONAL.—Gen. Peter B. Starke and Hon. A. M. Clayton, of Mississippi, and Wellington Harlan, Esq., of Kentucky, are at the Gayoso House.

PERSONAL.—We publish this morning the "of Messrs. Jesse L. Harris & W. P. Wilson, associated as attorneys-at-law. Mr. Harris is an old Raleigh practitioner; Mr. Wilson is of seven years' standing in this city.

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT.—Workmen are engaged tearing down the old foundry buildings known as Curtis & Knapp's, on the Bluffs, preparatory to the erection of a splendid brick foundry for our fellow citizens, Messrs. Quimby and Robinson.

THE NEW THEATRE.—The programmes for this evening is so unusually attractive one, embracing Much Ado About Nothing, in which Mr. Sullivan will appear in the character of "Benedick!" and will conclude with The Middy Ashore.

RAILROAD CELEBRITIES.—We were pleased to meet yesterday Mr. B. F. Fuller, great western agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and Mr. Jno. W. Brown, general ticket agent of the Central Ohio Railroad.—Those gentlemen are at the Gayoso.

VIOLENT ASSAULT.—A troublesome negro man, known as Tennessee, struck a negro wash-woman named Laura, who lives on Clinton street, on the head with a heavy piece of iron, yesterday, inflicting a painful (though probably not fatal) wound. Tennessee was arrested.

THE SHAD AT THE GAYOSO.—The second catch of the season at the Gayoso House was received on the first specimen of fresh shad of the season from the Savannah river, will be served at the table of that popular hotel this morning. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to "assist" on the occasion.

☞ We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting our old and particular friend Maj. R. T. Redman, who has had the good luck to be married in the holy bonds of matrimony with one of the fair daughters of Arkansas. He and his accomplished lady have taken rooms at the Worsham House, where they were greeted last evening by a number of their friends.

RETURNING TO SERVITUDE.—Six negroes, who were set at liberty about six years ago, and who have been enjoying the delights (?) of freedom during that period in the State of New York, were passengers by the Tecumseh last night for the scene of their former servitude, in the vicinity of Helena, Ark. They prefer southern slavery to northern liberty.

BURNED TO DEATH.—Eva, an interesting little daughter of Mr. M. L. Hillebrand, who resides fifteen miles from this city, in DeSoto county, Miss., was so badly burned, about two weeks since, by her clothes catching fire, that she died on Thursday last, after suffering most intensely. The deceased was a niece of our fellow-citizen Mr. E. E. Clark.

ASSAULT UPON CAPT. WORMAN.—Some ruffian, unknown to him, struck Capt. Worman, of this city, with a slung shot, on the landing at Cincinnati, a few nights ago. The wound was painful, though not dangerous, and we are grateful that the Captain has so far recovered as to be able to resume his labors again at the wheel of the steamer Tecumseh.

GAYOSO DEBATING CLUB.—We are truly glad to hear of the continued prosperity of this the only literary society in the city, and they now number more active members than ever before since the organization. They hold their meetings every Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock at their hall, corner Main and Monroe streets. The young men of the city are invited to attend.

THE LAST INVENTION.—Messrs. Tuley and Moyer, who have the right for the State of Tennessee, are in this city, for the purpose of introducing an invention of great interest to all persons who wear clothes; no less an invention than a new plan for cutting garments, which may be used with success by the most inexperienced. The plan is simple, cheap and invaluable. The agents for the sale of the patent may be seen for a few days at Mr. Chas. Pottect's, No. 98, Front Row.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In this tribunal yesterday no less than two hundred charges of misdemeanors were disposed of. The only case of importance of this number was that of A. Kahn, charged with selling liquor without license. He was convicted, and his punishment assessed at a fine of two hundred dollars and imprisonment for two weeks in the county jail. The grand jury returned a true bill against Bill Jones, alias Gen. Jones, for burglary.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT TO MR. SULLIVAN.—The many admirers in this city of this distinguished actor, have tendered him a complimentary benefit the new theater, which he has accepted, and which will come off tomorrow evening. There is no event in connection with the present season of the new theater, that could create such a feeling of enthusiasm among our play-goers as the above announcement. We will lay the correspondence between Mr. Sullivan and our citizens before our readers to-morrow.

THE MYNATT CASE.—It will be remembered that we stated yesterday that the grand jury of the criminal court had returned a true bill of indictment for murder against Thos. R. Mynatt, charged with killing Jas. L. Webb. According to the law of Tennessee, when it is shown that any undue excitement exists in a community against any person accused of crime, the court may continue the trial of the accused from the term of the court during which such alleged criminal has been indicted until the following term; and for this reason the final trial of Mynatt has been continued until the June term of our criminal court. In the meantime an application for bail has been made by Mynatt's counsel, and the court has signified an intention to hear the evidence in the case at an early day, when a decision will be rendered upon the application for bail.

MAGNIFICENT NEW BLOCK.—At the office of Mr. Calvin Fay, corner Main and Adams street, we yesterday saw a plan of a magnificent block which it is proposed to erect at the corner of Second and Jefferson streets. Messrs. Stratton & McDavitt are about to build three large stores to run from Second street to the alley; they propose to Mr. Overton to join them by putting up three other stores, so as to form a handsome uniform mass of building, from the corner of the two streets to the north side of the livery stable, the whole to be called "The Washington Block." The design of Mr. Fay is a most magnificent one, and highly creditable to his taste. The block is four stories high; the numerous windows are flanked by solid-ed Corinthian pillars with rich capitals; there, together with the cornices, stand out from the level of the wall, as also does the pilasters that ornament the second stories. It is impossible for us to give an idea of the beauty of the design. We are sure that all who see it will agree with us that it equals at least, if not surpasses, any block yet built in the city. We hope, from the public spirit of Mr. Overton, that he will not let so fine an opportunity of adding a rich architectural acquisition to the city be lost. The block is to front Second street, and will be the first of a series of stores that will, in a few years, make Second street the principal retail business street in the city. Stratton & McDavitt will have seen at work digging the foundations of their stores in a week, and in a month bricklayers will commence active operations.

Judge Scott's Charge to the Grand Jury.

EDITOR APPEAL: At the opening of the present term of the criminal court, the Hon. Judge Scott delivered the charge of the court to the grand jury, by request of the Hon. Judge McKiernan, alike challenging the admiration of the jury, the bar and a large audience. It would afford you many readers pleasure to see the same in the columns of the APPEAL, if consistent with propriety. A prevailing the profound ability which so eminently distinguishes Judge S. as a jurist, and the almost maiden modesty that prevents him from giving to the world thoughts and sentiments born of the heart as well as the head, prompts this public call upon him to submit the able charge to your columns—a call which we trust will meet with a prompt response.

Respectfully yours, CITIZEN.

Organization of the Peoples' Passenger Railroad Company.

The incorporators of the Peoples' Passenger Railroad Company of Memphis, eleven in number, met yesterday at the office of Messrs. Small & Foote, and in pursuance of the terms of their charter organized by the election of five directors to act for the ensuing year. H. D. Small, Esq., was called to the chair, and Col. B. F. Dill chosen Secretary. A ballot being taken resulted in the election of M. Kirby, B. F. Dill, H. A. Orne, H. D. Small and Wm. Kirk.

After the incorporators had complied with the requirements of the charter they adjourned sine die, and the board of directors organized by the election of Wm. Kirk as president, and R. M. Kirby as secretary, after which the following resolutions were adopted upon the motion of Mr. Kirby:

1. Resolved, That the President be, and is hereby authorized to execute the contract with the city of Memphis, in accordance with the present existing agreement, and that in so doing, and till further ordered, he used a "scrawl" for a seal.

2. That the President contract for the building of the railroad on Main street, in pursuance of the contract with the city, for the best terms he can make, and report the same to this board at next meeting.

3. That the president procure such books and stationery as are necessary for the opening of books for subscription, and the business of the company, and that he open books to the public for subscriptions to the stock of the company.

Adjourned to meet Thursday at 4 o'clock P. M.

The following is the charte under which the company exercises the rights and privileges granted them by the city:

AN ACT to incorporate the People's Passenger Railroad Company of Memphis.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of the State of Tennessee, that A. P. Dill, A. M. Rowe, H. D. Orne, Charles Stephens, C. C. Cheares, W. P. Lewis, Joseph Brown, Henry D. Small, R. M. Kirby, Wm. C. Bryan and Wm. Kirk, of their associates, shall be and are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of the People's Passenger Railroad Company of Memphis, and by that name may have succession for the term of twenty-five years; may sue and be sued; plead and be impleaded; may have and use a common seal; may purchase and hold such personal and real estate as may be necessary for carrying on the business of the corporation, and the same to sell or dispose of at pleasure; may make all needful by-laws for their government, not inconsistent or in conflict with the laws of the United State, the State of Tennessee, or the laws of Memphis.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the capital stock of said company shall be five hundred thousand dollars, which shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, and the same may be subscribed to and made subject to such calls and terms of payment as the directors, hereinafter provided for, shall designate.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the persons above named shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, open books and receive subscriptions to the stock, and as directors of said company, and thereupon said directors shall choose one of their number to act as president, and may elect such other officers as they think necessary, to be contracted and accepted with the county court in office and year, at which time, after three weeks' notice in Memphis, they shall open books in the people of Shelby, State aforesaid; the stockholders of said company shall meet and elect the directors aforesaid, each stockholder having one vote for each share of stock held by him or her; said directors shall then open their books, and continue open three days, and said election shall take place annually. Said stockholders may vote in person or by proxy. Three of said directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That said company, by their directors and officers, shall have power to complete and execute all contracts or agreements entered into with the city of Memphis, or other parties, for the use of the streets of said city, or building said railroad; provided, however, that the rates of fare shall not exceed the rates of fare now established by the city of Memphis, with the consent of said city; may enter into all necessary contracts for the building, operating and working the said three directors on the capital stock of same.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That said company may extend said road or branch outside of the corporate limits of the city of Memphis, not to exceed two miles, by contracting and agreeing with the county court for the public highway, and with individuals for the lands thereon, which they may need for depots, etc., and shall not be so mentioned as to grant either the inducements of the State of Mississippi or any body.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the stockholders of said company shall be individually liable for the amount of their stock called for and not paid in.

(Signed.) W. C. WHITHORNE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TAS. W. NEWMAN, Speaker of the Senate.

Passed February 1, 1860.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, NASHVILLE, TENN., Feb. 4, 1860.

I, J. R. E. RAY, Secretary of State, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original "Act to incorporate the People's Passenger Railroad Company of Memphis," now on file in my office in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Tennessee, at my office in Nashville, on this day of February, A. D. 1860.

J. R. E. RAY, Secretary.

GROWN TO BE AN EVIL.—Holders of cotton in the city have been greatly annoyed by persons who make it a business to steal small quantities of cotton from the sheds, and other places where the stage is stored. Of late the practice has grown into a serious evil, and the aggregate loss by this species of larceny has been considerable. Two poor females were brought before the Recorder yesterday for the offense alluded to above, but there being no positive ordinance on the subject, the accused were discharged. Others who offend in a similar way may not expect such leniency.

MEMPHIS LAW FIRM.—We publish this morning the card of Messrs. Jesse L. Harris and W. P. Wilson, who are associated for the practice of their profession in this city. They are both gentlemen of fine legal accomplishments, well prepared for the practice of the law, and are faithful to the interests of their clients.

HIBERNIAN MUTUAL RELIEF SOCIETY.—A meeting of this society will be held at the hal of Fire Company No. 4 this evening.

☞ Ticknor, Robbins & Co. clothing store on Jefferson street next door to the Planters Bank, is now closed for repairs and enlargement, but will reopen about the 23d inst., with a larger and better stock of goods than ever.

FURNITURE! FURNITURE!—Rare chance at Locke's auction room, Main street. The subscriber begs leave to inform the people of Memphis that he has a few more parlor and chamber sets, for sale below cost.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AN INVARIABLE CURE FOR

GONORRHEA,

And all Diseases of the Urinary Organs

THIS remedy cures when all other preparations fail. It is entirely unlike every other compound—containing no Mineral Poison or Nauseous Drug, as it is prepared solely from Roots, Barks and Leaves, and has been handed down from one generation to another, by the Cherokee Indians. It is offered to the public on its own intrinsic merits. It performs its duty quickly and thoroughly. The unfortunate, of either sex will be rejoiced by using this remedy, instead of placing themselves at the mercy of some Quack or Professor. This remedy strikes at the root of the disease; its tendency is not simply to suspend the poison, but to remove the cause on which it depends. Full directions, in pamphlet form, accompany each bottle. The speedy and permanent relief afforded by this remedy, to all cases of Gonorrhea, (Clap,) Gleet, Gravel, Bricksdust Fever, Affections, (Whites in females,) and all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, has established the most enviable name of the age. This remedy not only eradicates all poison from the system, but invigorates the most delicate constitution.

It does not affect the breath, or interfere with any class of business, or require any deviation from the usual diet.

It requires no assistance from other medicine.

And what enhances its value, is the entire absence of all nauseous taste, being a pleasant and delicate syrup. Price $1.00 per bottle.

MOSES McLELLAN, Capt. Irwin.....LOUISVILLE.
PLATTE VALLEY, Capt. Postal.....St. Louis.
NORTH BEND, Capt. Hughes.....LITTLE ROCK.
KATE MAY, Capt. Brown.....CINCINNATI.
ECLIPSE, Capt. Smith.....NEW ORLEANS.

THE RIVER rose about 3 inches at this point during the twenty four hours ending at 6 o'clock last evening, the weather moderate and cool during the afternoon, but more warm an cloudy as night during the morning. There is no unusual activity of the landing.

TELEGRAPHIC.—Our news of yesterday yesterday from Louisville yesterday, reported the river stationary at that point, with six feet three in low water in the canal. The Mississippi was cool nearly at St. Louis.

ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.—The only regular packet arrivals were the Belfast and Imperial, from New Orleans. The former came off earlier little, and the latter about half-an-hour later than usual. The Imperial discharged 250 barrels molasses, 200 bags coffee, and 80 hogsheads sugar for our merchants, and left for Cairo with about 100 hogsheads sugar for reshipment to St. Louis and Chicago. The B. M. Bryant for White River, and Silver Moon, for Cincinnati, were the only boat packets that departed, both having late trips. The Kit for Mars Isle (Sun.) 200 bales cotton for Cincinnati. Of the transient boats the Diana, from Louisville for New Orleans, passed up from Mars Isle, from New Orleans for St. Louis, the E. H. Fairchild and Pacific, from New Orleans for Louisville, the Jessie K. Bell, from Cincinnati for New Orleans and the Alamo, third, from St. Louis for New Orleans, arrived, and departed, all with good trips. The Kate May, from Arkansas river, arrived yesterday, and commenced receiving cotton for Cincinnati. She will leave to-day.

INCIDENTS.—The new South Bend, from the Arkansas river, brought 14 bales cotton, which was the only cotton by river for some time past. There was but a single shipment of cotton yesterday, that of about 1 200 bales, by the Silver Moon for Cincinnati. The Belfast, for Orleans, had about 1,000 bales on board for transhipment. The Imperial will arrive at this port from Cairo Friday, and will take a cargo of cotton for New Orleans, leaving Saturday. Mr. Eugene Clark, the assistant clerk of the boat may be found on the landing at all times, prepared to receive freight.....The little trading steamer Carl was receiving her cargo yesterday, preparatory to her departure for the St. Francis river.....The standard freights on cotton has advanced to 40 per bale to New Orleans, at which rate the Belfast and Belfast were receiving yesterday.....Freights are said to be scarce in the Ohio at present, and as a consequence, steamers.....It is said the Imperial will make but one or three more trips in the Memphis and New Orleans trade, and that she will then lay up for the summer season.....We are indebted to Mr. Smith, of the Mazeppa, for Louisville papers.....Mr. J. J. Watson, steamer of the lower wharf-boat, left out of a venue into the river yesterday and narrowly escaped drowning.....A large shipment of cotton was where in the hold below Cairo, inclosed Capt. Wall is to take the Imperial to that point.....The Belfast and Imperial had a little race at a trial of speed on the trip up, in which it is said the Imperial got the advantage. The Pacific had a later return, while the Imperial was tied, and the friends of the latter claim that it was not a fair race. The trial was a fair one. They are both very fast boats—good enough for all practical purposes—and among the most successfully mastered steamers on the western waters.....Capt. John B. Adams, of the Memphis and Arkansas river packet company, presented a splendid silver tumpet to the Little Rock fire department, on Saturday last. The compliment was gracefully conveyed by Capt. Adams in person, and received by Mayor Pery.....The Indianola, Capt. Brigs, struck a snag on Sunday, the 5th inst., when a few miles below Montiville, on Red River, and sunk. She had 75 bales cotton on board, and will prove a total loss. She was insured for $7,000.

Boats Leaving To-day.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—The favorite mail steamer Moses McLellan, Capt. T. M. Irwin, will leave for all points in Louisville at the usual hour, this afternoon. She is fast, safe and substantial, and unprecedented. Mr. Jno. J. Watson, the clerk, and top-notch gentleman and old friend, Col. Green, on board.

FOR THE ARKANSAS RIVER.—The elegant steamer New South Bend, Capt. Haines, is the regular mail packet for the Arkansas river at four o'clock, this afternoon. She is a favorite favorite with the traveling public, having unsurpassed accommodation for the trade, and efficient officers.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The elegant steamer Platte Valley, Capt. Postal, will leave as above at the usual hour this afternoon. Supernumerary packet in that direction could not find a more desirable means of travel.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The extremely elegant Eclipse, Capt. Harry I. Smith, having been detained by the receipt of her freight by the bad weather, will not leave as advertised this evening. This will be a great loss to many consignees who wished to remain until to-day.

FOR CINCINNATI.—The splendid new steamer Kate May, Capt. Wm. Brown, left for Cincinnati at three o'clock to-day. She is new and has every accommodation for passengers that could be desired.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The steamer Imperial will leave for Orleans Plaster regular and Revenue Packet this afternoon, at four o'clock. Nothing but freight will be taken. Stockholders have their freight ready and will receipt for it on board. Her small, but fast and staunch, A plan of her cabin may be seen at the office of her agents, when all passengers can secure their rooms in application to Thos. H.
