$10 Rewards.

For the sharp reward for the apprehension, and proof to convict, of every thief detected stealing APPEAL from the doors of city subscribers.

CLARAWAY, VROUDALE & BITE.

CALAMITY.—There was a false alarm of fire about 8 o'clock last evening.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Geo. R. Champion and Mr. Swearingen are the Nebraska for this city.

PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. Beer for Cincinnati papers in advance of the mail.

Mr. S. H. Whitsitt.—Our old friend, S. H. Whitsitt, is announced as a candidate for Constable in the Eleventh civil district.

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.—We are indebted to Hon. W. K. Sebastian, Hon. A. G. Brown and Wm. T. Avery, for valuable public documents.

THE MASQUERADE.—The admirers of such amusements should not forget the grand masquerade ball at the old Memphis theater tomorrow evening.

COLONEL.—Col. Wilson, the able representative of the editorial corps of that popular journal, the New Orleans Picayune, is in the city.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In this tribunal yesterday about one hundred judgments final were rendered, about twenty nolle prosequis, and one hundred charges in misdemeanors were disposed of.

By request, the Rev. C. A. Davis will preach in the First Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, at 11 o'clock this morning, the first of a series of sermons on the subject of Christ's Baptism.

THE NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—Monday evening Mr. Edwin Booth will make his first appearance this season in Hamlet, to be followed by Knock in the Dark. The admirers of Mr. Booth will not fail to attend.

SPIRITUALISM.—Mrs. Middlebrook will speak in the morning at 11 o'clock, at Odd-fellows' Hall. Subject—"The ministry of the realm; or, spiritual manifestations in ancient and modern times;" and, at 7½ o'clock in the evening. Subject—"The proofs of religious ideas."

SOMERVILLE BRANCH OF BANK OF TENNESSEE.—We learn that at the last meeting of the board of directors of this bank, all the old officers were re-elected by a unanimous vote, as a stability and fidelity with which they have discharged their duties, well entitled them to the expression of confidence and approbation on the part of the directory.

THE ARCTIC VOYAGE.—Baine's great panorama of Dr. Kane's Voyage to the Arctic Regions, is the great attraction in the city at present, and each exhibition is thronged by visitors. It will be unrolled again at Odd-fellows' Hall to-morrow. If the lecturer could articulate more distinctly when he speaks, or engage a substitute who could, the exhibition would be as instructive as it is pleasing.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—The sale of real state during the past week has amounted in the aggregate to a large sum. A plantation on St. Francis river, in the neighborhood of D. Irvin, was sold to a Kentucky gentleman. The residence on Shelby street, occupied by Judge Scott, was sold to Mr. H. A. Jones at twelve thousand dollars, and two lots on Hernando street, were in the market at seventy-five dollars, and ten others at forty-five dollars, quick pay, locality that indefatigable and industrious gentleman, Col. Massivant.

NEW WHOLESALE DRY GOODS HOUSE.—We observe with pride the addition that have been made recently in this city, in the jobbing business in dry goods, but none of the additions that have been made in the line excel the new establishment of Messrs. Shepherd & Moore, at No 303, west side of Main street, below Monroe. The members of the firm are Southern men, have a long and varied experience in the business, understand perfectly the wants of the trade of the South-west, and none are more capable of furnishing a satisfactory solution to the question as to the practicability of establishing a wholesale trade in Memphis. Their stock of goods is one of the largest and best selected we have ever seen in a similar establishment, and they offer facilities to the trade equal, if not superior to those enjoyed by the purchasers of the largest houses in the eastern markets.

CONCEALED WEAPONS.—In view of the horrible crimes committed in this city from time to time, in consequence of the cowardly and assassin-like practice of carrying concealed weapons, Abl. Ferris has done himself credit by introducing into council an ordinance to punish more stringently persons guilty of this preliminary to murder. The ordinance, which was referred to the city attorney, provides that no person shall carry concealed weapons, such as sling shots, pistols, or bowie-knives, under the penalty of $50 fine and imprisonment in the city jail for three months; the weapons so unlawfully concealed shall be forfeited and taken to the use of the city, the offender. This ordinance is a good one, but we would advise Abl. Ferris to compare it with the present city ordinance on the subject; especially he should include a provision stating under what circumstances policemen should be allowed to carry weapons hidden about them.

A VALUABLE MEMPHIS ARTICLE.—In speaking a few days ago of the great drug establishment of Mansfield & Co., we stated that they were the sole manufacturers in this country of a tonic compound more adapted to the wants of the Southern people than any of the bitters made at a distance. An extract from the London Times informs us that this tonic, known as "The Highland Bitters," is in great repute among the Scottish chieftains, and that to its use the Scotch soldiers of the Highland regiments were principally indebted for their comparative good health during the famous Crimean war. It was first compounded by a Scotch military surgeon, and a wineglass full three times a day has been found useful in invigorating, strengthening and building up the system. The secret of the composition of the Highland Bitters is in the possession of Mansfield & Co., it is, therefore, unnecessary to patronize compounds gotten up abroad, when an article suited to the Southern climate and constitution can be obtained at home. We have tested the bitters, and expect they will become a favorite and successful remedy for the class of diseases mentioned in the advertisement which we publish this morning.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.—This is Q inquisitive Sunday in the church, sometimes called Shrove Sunday. The sun enters Aquarius; the moon is in Aries. The sun rises at thirty-two minutes past six and sets at twenty-eight minutes past five. The day is four minutes short of being eleven hours long; the moon rises and sets minutes longer than new year's day. Venus in the evening star shining brightly in the west for some time after sunset; at her setting Jupiter may be seen almost directly overhead, and Saturn in the eastern sky. On Monday the moon is in apogee. Tuesday is the anniversary of the battle of French Mills, in 1814. The day is known in Europe as Shrove Tuesday or Mardi Gras, and in Catholic countries is a time of feasting and jollity, a saturnalia or carnival being observed on that day. In many parts of England it is celebrated by eating "pancakes," which are made of flour and milk, and cooked with fat in frying pans. The observance arose from the day being the last one before Lent, and the last for a considerable time on which theater-going, merry-making, and feasting could be indulged in for some time. New moon in the evening. Wednesday is Washington's birthday; it is also Ash Wednesday, or the first day of Lent, a period of great solemnity in the church. Lent continues until Easter, the 8th of April, and during that period the Episcopal and Roman churches require their members to fast. On Friday the moon is in conjunction with Venus, presenting a pretty scene in the west after sunset. Saturday is the anniversary of the battle of Treaton, in 1776.

On referring to the ARRIVAL of the week last year corresponding to the present one, we find that the public mind was still excited at that time respecting the murder of the clerk at the bank of Jackson, the criminal in which case has never been discovered. Another subject of attention was the alleged gambling, to inquire respecting which the city council appointed a committee last Monday. A project was also got up for a new company, a charter for which is now before our legislature. On the 22d the news was published in the city of the destruction of the steamboat Comet. Capt. G. P. Kennett, on the night of the 18th, when she was about landing at Capt. Scudmore, eighteen miles below the city. The boat was struck by a tornado, capsized and sunk; several lives were lost. Spring was earlier in her advances last year than during the present; on the 20th of last February we recorded that "the trees are covered with buds, the peach blossoms are out in many places, the leaves of the lilac are expanding, the rose trees are covered with leaves, and the willow trees within the past two or three days have become green. Mobiling notice quoted 10c@10½c."

BUILDING REGULATIONS.—In consequence of accidents that have happened in this city and elsewhere from the criminal negligence of bricklayers and contractors, buildings have fallen down and bound life been destroyed; to guard against a repetition of such occurrences in this city, council appointed a committee to investigate the subject. That committee state that the foundations of buildings should be required to be opened to the natural strata of earth, unless where piles are driven, and in no case to be less than one foot below the common level of the ground. The foundations to be of stone or hard burnet brick with projections on both sides of the walls, according to the height of the building. The interior or foundation walls of five story buildings to be three bricks thick to the top of the first tier, two bricks to the top of the second, and one and a half for the next two stories; small buildings in proportion. All foundations for buildings to be laid in mortar composed of two-thirds to be laid in mortar composed of two-thirds common lime and one-third of hydraulic cement, and a proper amount of hair or bluffsand. All walls of five story buildings to be grouted to the top of the third tier, and all houses to be grouted in proportion; the great mortar to be composed of one part cement, two of lime and the proper amount of sharp sand. An ordinance of the above tenor has passed council on first reading.

If the proposed ordinance is to be of practical value, it must have attached to it a provision requiring all persons doing any kind of building, which requires the temporary occupation of any portion of the public streets, to take out a permit, which permit shall be registered. The register will enable the proper officers to keep an eye upon all buildings and repairings going on, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the city ordinances, with respect to the mode of building, provision against fire, occupation of no more than the proper portion of the street, etc., are complied with. Such a register would also afford accurate information as to the actual progress of the city. We hope the ordinance committee, Messrs Barbert, Douglass, Leland, Tighe and Forrest, will not fail to make use of our suggestion.

MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD.—For the following tabular statement of the operations of the Memphis and Charleston railroad during the month of January, we acknowledge our obligations to Mr. Charles L. Anderson, the general ticket agent of the company:

From passengers	$ 54,496 55
From freight	87,240 30
Per mail, express, etc.	4,773 35
Total receipts	$146,472 20
Deduct operating expenses	69,201 49

POST OFFICE AND THE MAILS.—The post office will be open to-day from one to three o'clock P. M. All mails by the Memphis and Ohio and Memphis and Charleston railroads will be closed at six P. M. All river mails, and mails by the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad, will hereafter be closed at twelve o'clock M.

FRESH AND CHEAP GROCERIES.—Housekeepers who wish to furnish themselves with fresh and cheap groceries, also chickens, eggs and other family supplies, would do well to call on Mr. O. Carter, on Monroe street, near the corner of Second, where excellent bargains can be had. Give them a visit!

THE MAIN STREET RAILROAD.—The subscribers to the protest against the contemplated railroad in Main street, are requested to meet at the office of the Memphis Insurance company at 3 o'clock to-morrow, on important business.

THE CITY PRISON.—There are at present one hundred and thirty-five persons confined at the city prison; sixty-four of whom are held upon charges of felony, sixty-one belong to the chain gang, and ten are runaway negroes.

LOST CHILD.—A little girl about three or four years old, came to the residence of Mr. R. B. Hawley, on Third street, between Washington and Adams, yesterday morning. She says her name is Emma. She was shortly taken in by Mr. Hawley.

☞ The moulders of Memphis are urgently requested to assemble in meeting at No. 6 engine house on Tuesday, at half-past seven o'clock P. M. Business of the most important character demands that every one should be present.

THE MEMPHIS LIGHT GUARDS.—This gallant company, under command of Capt. Genette, will meet at their armory to-morrow evening, for drill and other purposes, preparatory to a public parade on the 22d inst.

LOST DOG.—Adams & Co.'s express offer a handsome reward for the recovery of a hound, lost last week near Patterson's stables. A description of the dog will be found in the advertising columns.

VAGRANCY.—John Nelson, Patrick Murray, John Donley, John Curry, and Nathaniel Jenkins, for vagrancy, were each sent to the chain-gang by the Recorder yesterday.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were fourteen cases before the Recorder yesterday, and eleven were sent to the chain-gang.

PEOPLE'S PASSENGER RAILROAD MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the board of directors at the office of Messrs. Small & Foute, on Monday, February 20, 1860 at 10 o'clock A. M. All persons interested in the enterprise, or desiring to take stock in the same, are respectfully invited to attend.

W. M. KIRK, President.

HIGHLAND BITTERS!

SCOTCH TONIC,

The Celebrated Harbinger of Health to all Nations.

"DRINK AND LIVE."

THIS most astonishing must of the nineteenth century is a sterling medicinal preparation to meet the many ills that flesh is heir to, and one of the agents entirely free from deleterious ingredients, was most seriously felt in this age of opulence, till the Highland Bitters, that valuable and inestimable secret of health, was ushered to the world.

Sir George Ballingal, Professor of Military Surgery in the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, after years of patient scientific research, presented at the request of her Majesty Queen Victoria, discovered a certain selection of choice herbs and roots, indigenous to the mountains of Scotland, which, when combined with the most esteemed medicinal attention, was found to be the most capitalizing and invigorating tonic ever offered to the world for your blood.

As a specific for all those intricate moral and constitutional ills, which are the offspring of a sedentary life, and which, in the hurry and excitement of the age, are so rife, the Highland Bitters are unequaled, as a preventive of Chills and Fevers, Malarious Fevers, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Typhoid, or any other form, it is peculiarly applicable, being a perfect regulator of the whole functions of the human system, giving every few doses of this palatable therapeutic cordial the effect first elastic and vigorous—removing all impediments, clearness all impurities, strengthens generally the whole human mechanism, and has never been known to fail in a single instance where it has been tried.

Females and children who are this strengthening medicine, will find it a most valuable tonic. To the dyspeptic, which is chronic, these Bitters are indispensable, and more particularly when the system's development is inadequate to the demands of the child.

To those who wish to retrieve themselves from a life of drudgery to one of activity, these Bitters will most effectually dissipate the morbid appetite for strong drinks, and restore both the faculties of the mind and body to a moral healthy condition, and will not take a chance in recommending this great specific against Bad Blood, Scrofulous Humors, Rheumatism, and all the usual attendants of debauchery.

These Bitters are prepared from the original recipe, by the sole manufacturing agents for the whole world, MANSFIELD & CO.

Wholesale Druggists, Memphis, Tenn., who will supply all druggists, Hotels, Merchants, Hotel keepers, etc., upon the most liberal terms. feb19-dawtw

"SAFES!"

IT is with much pleasure that we are permitted to publish the following testimony of our Agent, Mr. Gerhard, from the office of Orgill Brothers of Mesdes. Fowlkes & Co., cotton factors and commission merchants of this city:

To Messrs. Orgill Bros. & Co., Memphis:

Gents: The fire on the morning of the 25th January last, destroying the whole of the Post Office Block (in which our store was located) severely, and in so most satisfactorily, tested the FIRE PROOF qualities of one of Studts & Marvin's Salamander Safes, for which you are agents, and which I have in this city. You will please send us another, similar size, of the same manufacture.

Respectfully, FOWLKES & CO.

A good assortment of the above reliable Safes always on hand, and for sale by St. Louis Money Market.

From the Democrat, February 18.

There is more ease in the money market, and only to the currency of Illinois and Wisconsin, accommodation paper issues, but Kentucky bankers are asking their money with the government, in lieu which [illegible] Bank of the Republic of Louisville, [illegible] to be supplied. Exchanges have shown some [illegible] and Wisconsin, a supplement having been [illegible] [illegible] in the market nominally at 1@1½ per [illegible] Exchange on New Orleans is in demand, and we quote sight at ½ prem. for bankable funds. Sight on the East [illegible] per cent. [illegible] sell for 1@1½ but the tendency is downward.

MANCHESTER, N. Y., March 19, 1856.

MR. E. S. RADAY: Have used Rubinstein's Hair Coloring for three years, and have found it to be a most excellent article. It not only restored the color of my hair, but left it very soft and strong, so that it could be combed without any difficulty. I have recommended it to many persons, and have never heard of one but it gave satisfaction. I shall still continue to use it as long as I live, and cannot do less than recommend it to my friends.

Prostration of the System

AND rapid decline are almost inevitable results of early indiscretions and unchecked venereal habits. A treatise embodying not one, but twenty instances from the grave, illustrating this proposition, and the cures to well as prevention of the same, is entitled "Human Frailty; or, Physiological Researches." It states plainly the causes, effects and cures of the most calamitous mode of self-abuse, and of additional nature with opinions thereon, as to the perfect restoration of those who are prevented by impediments from entering into the marriage state.
