RICHARDSON'S IRISH LINENS, DAMASKS, DIAPERS, ETC.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and these dealers who are obtaining the genuine goods, should see that the cases they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & CO'DEN, as a guarantee of the purity and durability of the goods.

This caution is considered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are imported, custom after custom, and sealed with the name of Richardson Bros. and other firms, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine goods, will not hesitate, if they can make a business profit, while such chasers can be imposed on with goods of a worthless character.
