PROSPECTIVE ARRIVAL.—Col. Van Orden, of Spalding, Rogers & Co., has engaged Odd-Fellows Hall in this city, for five nights, commencing with the 20th instant. We are not advised as to the particular attraction he will bring, but we do know that Spalding & Rogers never invite the public to a bad show.

MEMPHIAN KILLED IN ARKANSAS.—The body of a laborer on the levee, who had been killed recently near Columbia, Ark., was brought to this city Sunday evening by the steamer T. L. McGill. We did not learn the name of the deceased, nor the crime which led to his death.

ELMWOOD CEMETERY.—The following gentlemen were yesterday elected directors for the Elmwood cemetery for the ensuing year: Joseph Lenow, W. B. Miller, Thomas M. Allen, James M. Williamson and W. B. Hamilton, and the board organized by re-electing Joseph Lenow president and Charles Hamilton superintendent.

ARREST OF A KIDNAPPER.—A man named E. J. Matthews, who had a negro woman in his possession, was arrested on board the Pocahontas, at this port Sunday, by order of Marshal Underwood, upon a telegraphic despatch from Natchez. It is alleged that the negro woman in Matthews's possession had been stolen. The accused will await a requisition from Governor Pettus, of Mississippi.

IMPORTANT AUCTION SALE.—To-day, at 10 o'clock, Monsarrat, Dupree & Co. will sell at auction, at their rooms No. 8 Monroe street, sixty-five acres of suburban property. The owner wishes to leave the State, and will sell this tract, at whatever it may bring. We think there having the money to buy will regret it if they do not attend this sale.

☞ Good clothing for you and all your friends can be bought cheap of Tickner, Robbins & Co., next to the Planters' bank, on Jefferson street. They have all kinds, sizes and colors, and can give you anything you want in the way of clothing or furnishing goods. Go to Tickner, Robbins Co's, next to the Planters' bank, on Jefferson street, for good clothing and paper collars.

THE NEW THEATER.—The fame of the Richings has had evidently preceded them to this city, as they had a large and fashionable audience at their reception last evening. Miss Caroline has most charming vocal powers, and is a chaste, accomplished actress. Mr. Peter Richings earned his fame on the London boards, and will be a favorite with us. The entertainment this evening will embrace Zenobia Maller and the Bonny Eight Week.

STOCK DIVIDEND.—An advertisement this morning informs the public that the directors of the Memphis & Charleston railroad are prepared to pay a cash dividend of four per cent., or one dollar per share; this is in addition to a dividend declared in December last of sixty per cent. in stock. The company expect to pay a permanent dividend of four per cent. every six months. The M. & C. railroad is one of the best paying roads in the United States. An excellent location, a well kept road, and superior management are proof using plentiful fruit.

PRESSED COTTON.—The fact of cotton being transported in many instances by railway, as in now the cheapest mode of transportation that is coming more and more in use—must have some effect in the mode of packing it. On the railway space is extremely valuable, and to carry cotton profitably to the road and economically to the shippers, it will be necessary to reduce the bales to the smallest possible bulk. We find that the railroads are already taking action upon this subject—the Cincinnati Commercial, of February 15, states as follows: "We understand that the general freight agent of the Grand Trunk railway has instructed the agents of that line in this city to take no more cotton at the present rates, unless it shall be repressed. The present size of the bales—being loosely packed—prevents the loading of more than one-half to three-quarters the weight in a car which it ought to carry, and, consequently, nearly double the number of cars is required to do the business.

A SECRETS STORE.—The store of Messrs. Hunt & Lloyd, on Main street, between Monroe and Union, is worth a visit from every citizen of Memphis, as a sign of the progress and extent of the business done in this city. China, queensware, glassware, house furnishing goods, lanterns of all possible kinds, table cutlery, and many other articles are on hand. The basement is used for packing and unpacking, and heavy packages are transported from one end to another, by means of a miniature railroad. The store is a perfect Aladdin palace for beauty and interesting objects. The most beautiful objects in China and other ornaments, toilet services, Bohemian and other curious and beautiful glassware here met the eye, that has ever been exhibited in this city. Tea, breakfast and dinner services, chamber ware, and all other description of goods from the hands of the potter, are in wonderful abundance and variety. An elegant stock of plated goods is also on hand. The first room upstairs is devoted to the purpose of a general wholesale room; the second is a wholesale room for glass; the third for willow and other cane, refrigerators, coolers, and other articles. Country store-keepers should not fail to call on Hunt & Lloyd.

COUNTERFEITS.—There are birds of prey that do not wear feathers. To this genus belong all the class who live by injuring the reputation of the discoverers of valuable remedies, and by poisoning the unwary with the imitations of them. It seems that Hostetter's celebrated Stomach Bitters, a preparation that has risen, by its intrinsic merit, to the first place among tonic and invigorating preparations, has been singled out by the counterfeiters, as a fine chance to rob the sick, the helpless, and the infirm, as the special objects of their nefarious operations. Some twenty cases are now before the courts of Louisiana, Missouri and Alabama, in each of which the proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, have obtained injunctions against the sale of spurious articles, put up in imitation of the famous preparation, and bearing a close resemblance to their stolen trade mark. A few cases have terminated—in a fine, or imprisonment, or both, as a matter of course, varying the penalty to the circumstances in each case, and, where the offender has been a repeater, the penalty has been made heavy and severe, as a warning to others. We congratulate the proprietors of the genuine article, on the success of their efforts to protect the public against the spurious imitations, and we congratulate the public that they can now rely with confidence on the purity and efficacy of Hostetter's bitters in the sick and the feeble, as a tonic and invigorator.

EAST FRIGATE, Capt. Hudson ..... VICKSBURG
SOUTH BENDS, Capt. Hudson ..... RED RIVER
AMERICA, Capt. Boldt ..... ST. F. RIVER
ST. CHARLES No. 2, Capt. Bolmar ..... ST. F. RIVER
JENNIE WINPENY, Capt. Gee ..... ARK. RIVER

RIVER, WEATHER AND BUSINESS.—The river has at last become stationary at this point. White river is still very high, but was falling when the Admiral, which arrived yesterday, came out. The last arrivals from the Arkansas river report that it was rising slowly, with plenty of water for all purposes to Fort Smith. We have had alternations of rain and sunshine since Saturday. The day was clear yesterday, however, and the weather was warm and quite fine. There was unusual activity on the levee yesterday.

TELEGRAPHS.—The Mississippi was falling slowly at St. Louis yesterday, with plenty of water there to Cairo. The Missouri and Illinois rivers are reported declining, with a no-stage of water. The upper Mississippi was challenging, and in good boating order. The Ohio river at Louisville was falling last evening, with eight feet water in the canal.

ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.—The following regular packets have arrived since Saturday: John Simonds from New Orleans, Evansville from Louisville, St. Francis No. 2 from Napoleon, St. Francis No. 3 from St. Francis river, Lake City last Saint from Arkansas river, Admiral from White river, J. H. Dickey from St. Louis, and the Glendale from Cincinnati. The St. Francis No. 2 brought the cap of twenty bales of cotton for our warehouses, the St. Francis No. 3, 425 bales, the South Bend 16 bales, and the Admiral 125 bales. The Glendale brought the best trip ever brought to this port from Cincinnati, including 1550 packages of dry goods, 900 packages of groceries, 400 barrels of whiskey, 200 packages of beer, 700 barrels of potatoes, 100 barrels apples, 75 barrels vegetables, 25 kegs nails, 30 hogsheads bacon, 30 tons iron, 250 barrels of flour, 20 barrels machinery, 150 live cows, 30 horses, etc. In addition to the cotton the Admiral also brought about 200 bales. The J. H. Dickey also brought an excellent trip of freight, including 700 sacks of oats and 325 sacks of corn. The packet departures embraced the Fort Smith for Louisville, the Nebraska for New Orleans, and the J. H. Dickey for St. Louis. The Nebraska had an excellent trip, winding 2222 bales of cotton and 90 hogsheads of tobacco. The Kentucky took 97 bales of cotton, 32 of which were for Louisville and 15 for Pittsburg. The Imperial from New Orleans, passed up St. Louis with a fine trip. There was also a large number of unusual arrivals and departures, to will be seen by reference to our port list below.

INCREASE.—The receipts of cotton by river since our last embraced 20 bales, and the shipments 2,019 bales, 1,932 bales of which were taken for New Orleans and the remainder for the Ohio river. Of the shipment of 87 bales by the Kentucky, 10 bales were taken for Pittsburg and the remainder for Louisville. Rate are now nominal and according the falls of the Ohio, with six feet four inches over the rocks. We are informed by Mr. Chapman, of the John Simonds, and by Capt. Jas. Gee, of the Jennie Wimpenny, that the Simonds and Wimpenny will be ready for the Cumberland, Tennessee and other business. The owners of the Skylark and Lake City are building a neat little passenger packet to run between Little Rock and Fort Smith. The Jas. H. Lucas will arrive from St. Louis to-morrow or next day. Business quiet this evening. She is under command of Capt. Ethelby, with our young friend Tarwell in the office. The Magnolia had sheet up to leave Louisville on Friday, but did not get away until Saturday, owing to the fact that the industry of the crew "jumped her." The Rebecca is now in Louisville with a large cargo for the Hartford City coal company, and expected with a new if slightly large.

The St. Francis No. 2 did not get away yesterday, but will leave for Galena' Landing to-day. The Admiral will make a quick trip in the Ohio River trade. The Nebraska will leave for New Orleans on Tuesday. The Glendale will make another trip in the Ohio River trade. St. Louis trade, and will be be placed in what the St. Louis Republican calls her "intimate trade," the Memphis river. The Memphis and New Orleans packets will make job-lot trips hereafter, instead of regular advertised packets. The Kentucky will be placed Louisville trade, at Evansville on the Union, and will then look into the latter point. The Lone Star, another above Yazoo, has been attached. It is reported that Messrs. Scott and Gee Quitman will each make a trip in this port shortly.

Our New Albany Correspondence.

[Forwarded by Adams Express.]

NEW ALBANY, Ind., March 3, 4 P. M.

FRESH REPORTS.—Since our last a remarkable change in the weather has taken place. Spring has back work to abundance of exits has fallen, quite enough for thoroughness, and we have been made to feel "Winter like unto a drunkard who has been fuled with wine until he loses reflection no more. Drays are doing a thriving business and everywhere people are feeling better in consequence, and consequent on their feet again. This kind of weather may be as overcoming to the gardener and farmer, it may be very agreeable to dandies and poets; but we must acknowledge that it is far from comfortable to the rights of beings, i. e., inter-tropical. And we are to obey. In the language of an eloquent poetic lady, we suppose our streets are horrible, and we will compare with the great metropolis of the West, and if there should be any more rain we would recommend the heavy Grand Jury to take the land route. Thinks the river this morning has "receded" to its proper channel, and is rising the "John" and Jo. to-day from reports from above, the channel is the safest navigable one for a big boat, though it is continuing for a time.

Business on the landings yesterday and to-day was decidedly dull. There were only two arrivals, including the regular packet. The receipts were light and shipments for the upper rivers were small.

The New Orleans business, the only element that are doing a thriving trade. With light offerings for New Orleans, we give the following as the quotations: Twenty-five cents per bushel for sound corn, and 20c to plantations and way-landings. Pork, per bbl. 50 and 75 cents, lard 25 and 30 cents, whiskey 25 and 30 cents, and other articles in proportion; mules 50 per head, horses from eighty $7 and $8, wheat 75 cents per bushel.

Our railroads are doing an excellent business, the trains running with great regularity and carrying full complements of passengers and freight.

The accounts from the interior are of active preparations for the spring crop, and of the prospect. The weather has been favorable for plowing, and a great deal of work has already been done.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting the beautiful and accomplished Mrs. P. Passage of Vincennes. She is now on a visit to Louisville, and will spend her leisure days and friends in this city.

We have not heard from our gubernatorial force of late of much importance. There are now, however, rumors of resignations in prospect in different counties. Meetings of Democratic clubs have been counted for the last two weeks or more. The Methodist church has received the greatest accession in the way of new members.

Capt. Robson, of the packet Madrid, is negotiating for the purchase of the new Louisville Times Bulletin, for a summer packet in the Vicksburg and New Orleans trade.

The Atlantic arrived on sale last evening with an excellent lot of freight and passengers. She looked "some one on her" with her paint, and looking fine. She is a North Carolina model. She is now leaving a new pair of wheels, Pollard's and will be off all right again tomorrow, and will leave for New Orleans again to-morrow evening.

The fast steamer John Raine will be due here to-morrow, and will have Cincinnati return agents. Capt. Jo Bailey, who commanded her trips at Louisville, is on deck, and comes and goes full to the brim with passengers and freight.

The Independence set off yesterday for Memphis with a good trip of freight and passengers.

The National Guards left this city this morning with a new of square banner of coal for Memphis. Yesterday they received the fine bell, one of her large strength and sonic character of Sandy Island.

Capt. John B. Poe will leave for Louisville to-day on the Big Lake, next week, attending the planters' convention of that city.

Office of sale Hillman and Contract reminder for a small bag for 4 sacks 5-10 cambricness. Capt. Orton is taken for a short trip to Louisville to be more new boat for the most trade. Yours truly, J. A.

Boats Leaving To-Day.

FOR VICKSBURG.—The elegant steamer Kate Frazier, Capt. Lee, with a large freight and passenger packet for Vicksburg, Tyro, and will leave at the usual hour this afternoon. She is all ready to ship travelers and freight, and will be a fine, comfortable and popular office. Capt. Mooty is the clerk, and is assisted by Mr. Quin.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The popular steamer Admiral, Capt. Reid, will leave for the White and Little Red rivers at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Capt. Reid will find her all they could desire. Our old friend Capt. Thomas is her clerk, and is all right.

FOR ARKANSAS RIVER.—The fine new steamer South Bend, Capt. Martin, will leave for Pendleton the Arkansas river at 4 o'clock this afternoon. She is one of the finest boats, and therefore makes her trips with perfect regularity.

The Jennie Whipple will leave for Fort Smith at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Her accommodations are excellent and cheerful, attentive officers. The Lake City, Capt. Hicks, will leave for Arkansas river at the usual hour to-morrow.

FOR THE ST. FRANCIS.—The splendid packet St. Francis No. 3, Capt. Bowman, will leave for Helena and the St. Francis river at the usual hour this afternoon. She is a deserved favorite, having excellent accommodations. Mr. Dewitt Abbott is the clerk.
