

DULUTH

The boycott on Buffer's butcher shop has been declared off.

E. J. Meagher will represent the Electric workers at the state federation.

Don't miss the next number of the Labor World. It will be an interesting one.

The labor temple committee will collect in all contributions to labor temple fund.

The National Tailoring Company has been boycotted by the Tailors' union.

James Travers will represent the Bartenders' union at the state federation.

The label league meets in the electrical workers hall the evening of December 15.

The Labor World is the best advertising medium at the head of the lakes.

E. R. Cobb and M. Gleason will represent the street railway employes at the state federation.

The first annual ball of the Meat and Pastry Cooks' union will be held in Odd Fellows hall, Dec. 17th.

The Trades Assembly has endorsed the boycott on Moody's lunch room, and the fight is on in earnest.

The barbers elected John Kemler, D. Evans and J. P. Johnson as delegates to the label league.

E. W. Prophet has resigned the foremanship of the News Tribune composing room and is succeeded by E. M. Grace.

The old label committee has been discharged and the following appointed. Messrs. Firoved, Minder, Dworschak, Lyons and Hayes.

Owing to the boycott on Sullivan's barber shops Mr. Sullivan has been compelled to close up one of his shops; the one in the Lonsdale block.

Organized labor of Duluth will be ably represented at the National Federation, which opens in Cincinnati Dec. 14, by Mr. George C. Findley.

The following delegates were obligated at the last assembly meeting: J. L. Laley, Frank Childs and Jake Polaski, Pressmen's union; Catherine Briggs, of the Waiters' union.

From West Duluth,

Duluth, and from points farther away, people are going to Superior this winter to replenish their wardrobe. The selling out of the well and favorably known stock of the big Columbia Clothing Co., at West Superior continues, and prices for fine Suits and Overcoats are lower than anyone ever imagined they could be.

$9.65 buys suits of the highest value. The very heaviest Worsteds Sweaters can be had at $1.73. Caps for Men and Boys at 48c. Wool Gloves at 18c. and Heavy Mittens at 22c. But then prices don't tell you much. Wear's the difference. We might continue to write the whole long list of bargain prices, but you have to come and see and examine the extraordinary values before you can judge the lowness of our prices. Better come at once.

Columbia Clothing Co.

WEST SUPERIOR WIS.

Owing to the barbers boycott on Sullivan's shops, which has been quite a drain on their treasury, they decided at the last meeting not to send their elected delegates to the state federation.

The piers for the Duluth-Superior bridge have been completed so far as the masonry work has been concerned. We are promised that the structure will be ready for use by May 1.

The Trades assembly has recommended George C. Findley for the appointment of district organizer to succeed J. W. Nichols. Mr. Findley will undoubtedly receive the appointment. A better one could not be made.

The American Federation of Labor has set aside $500 to pay the expenses of a delegate to co-operate with Robert Howard, of Fall River, Mass., in forming a union of all the textile industries of the country.

Charles Firoved, one of the best union men in town, has bought out the barber shop in the basement of the Columbus block. Mr. Firoved is deserving of your patronage see that you give him your work.

John Berglund, who was permanently injured in 1893, while working in the hold of the steamer Centurian, by a piece of timber falling down the hatchway, has been awarded $2,500 damages by Judge Lochren.

The members of the Street Railway Employes' union are intending to open a reading room and gymnasium in central Duluth. An institution of that kind would do a great amount of good in that part of the city.

Houses and lots for sale on monthly payments of from $8 to $20. You cannot afford to pay rent when you can buy at present values and on ten years time if desired. Call and see our list of houses. No. 2, First avenue west. Chan. Smith, Secretary.

The barbers, at their meeting Tuesday evening, discussed the practicability of again aiding in the support of the Union club. It was decided, owing to the boycott they are carrying on against Sullivan, not to do so at present, as all the funds would be needed. The barbers feel that other unions will not