Nervous Tonic for Chills.

SULIVAN, MO., March 16, 1860.

DR. SLEDGE, of Memphis—Sir: Some two years ago I purchased your Pulmo, Tonic, Liver Pills, Chills and Fever, and applying for medicine in the drug store in Dutton, I was recommended to try your Chills and Fever. I did so, and I was effectually cured by taking two doses, and, to my certain knowledge, several others of my neighbors were cured as I was. It is, sir, the best Fever and Chill medicine I ever have seen or heard of in my extensive travels. Pub it where, I am located for life; as the Chilland Fever are prevalent in this county every season. I conclude an address to you a few times, requesting you to drop me a few lines, and inform me whether you would supply me with two bottles through the way of St. Louis. If so you can write to me, and I will then write to you for instructions, how to send the money to you as the most safe way. Please write immediately.

G. G. MCKAY.

The above is but a specimen of certificates we are constantly receiving of the virtues of the Nervous Tonic as a specific in the cure of Chills, Fever and Ague. All persons should use this remedy that are thus afflicted.

THE FIRE.—The house burned on Tuesday night, belonged to A. Sweet; it was insured.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Sweeney, of the editorial department of the Pittsburg Free Press, is in the city.

COMMON LAW COURT.—We learn this court will adjourn on Saturday.

PANORAMA.—The panorama of Odd-Fellows' Hall does not fail to be well attended. It is a beautiful work, and is universally admired.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. J. S. Toof has been elected secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. He entered upon his active duties yesterday.

SENTENCED.—William Eglints was yesterday sentenced to three year's imprisonment in the penitentiary for grand larceny.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Sixteen cases at this court yesterday brought in the city $35, and added eight laborers to the chain-gang.

WHARFAGE.—From the statement just published of the condition of the city from July 1, 1859, to June 30, 1859, it is shown that during that year, the income from the wharf was $17,506 42.

THE WEATHER.—The Storm of Tuesday night cooled and purified the atmosphere and we had yesterday sweet weather and—what is more—to-day. Such days are happy intervals for Memphis.

FORESTALLING.—Buying in market to sell again is a punishable offence. For being guilty of this act, Conner Grandpie was yesterday fined five dollars at the recorder's court.

SONS OF MALTA SOIREE.—We hear of the most brilliant preparations being made for the festive entertainment of the Odd-Fellows' Hall. It will be a grand and fascinating affair.

QUIZ.—The city was free from exciting events yesterday. King whisky had some Mordecai about toward evening, but they made their prostrations for the mail part, with commendable quietness.

CITY FINANCES.—Yesterday two members of the city council set up, in the Bulletin, another article of very slender two pins for us to bowl down—so we will not forget to do it. Hard work this versus weather for the bone that set the pins up.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The next election for corporate officers of the city of Memphis takes place on the last Thursday in June next. Several candidates for minor are announced, and there is yet ample room for more.

THE MYRATT CASE.—Myratt, charged with killing M. Webb, was before the criminal court yesterday on an application to be liberated on bail. After an examination the prisoner was remitted to jail. Bail was not allowed.

BORROWING.—It appears from the recently made statements, that during the last fiscal year, the city borrowed $82,714 more than her entire income. Her receipts were $250,105, her expenditures $332,207. This is "fair for the people."

☞ Wm. Kinnan, bell hanger and locksmith, has removed from corner Second alley and Union street to Main, between Gayoso and Real streets, where he will be happy to see his old customers, and as many new ones as will give him a call. SIGN OF THE GOLD PADLOCK.

TO THE LADIES.—Beautiful plate! were of the best quality, of Britain plate on albata, that we have seen, which we have received from our house in Philadelphia, and are now prepared to sell at the lowest price, for cash, or in exchange for country produce, by the dozen or single piece. Call at the cheap cash store of Commercial Matters.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, THURSDAY, April 12, 1860.

GENERAL BUSINESS.—The planters are now busily engaged on their plantations, and cotton but few visits to the city. This makes dull times at all our grocery stores, and the retail stores generally feel the effects.

COTTON.—The foreign news published in the Appeal yesterday had the effect of completely flattening down the market. Sales were very few and very small. The news from New Orleans last evening showed that, for the first time this year, the receipts of three days had been below the receipts of the corresponding three days of last year. Hence the decrease on the receipts, will be some firmer. The sales were: 12 at 9 1-4 ad fr., 17 at 9 ad fr., 40 at 9, 32 at 8, 4 at 7, 6 at 7¾, 11 at 8, 20 at 8¾, 18 at 8¾, 20 at 8¾, 1; at 8¾, 25 at 10¼—total, 277 bales.

LADD, WEBSTER & CO.'S

TIGHT-STITCH

Sewing Machines,

THE following are a few of the important points claimed by the proprietors of the above Machine. They make a stout uniform on both sides, and which cannot be ravelled or pulled out.

They are perfectly simple in operation, easily managed and will use any spool of cotton thread or silk.

They will sew the finest fabrics or the heaviest negro goods.

They are confined to tight boxes, thus making it possible for a lady to sit her dress.

They have no hands, extra wheels or springs, that can possibly get out of order, and are recommended by physicians to planters and others who may reside at a distance.

The following letter from Col. Arnold, planter, formerly of Lauderdale county, is respectfully submitted as one of the many testimonials in favor of these machines:

SHARON, TIPTON CO., TENN., January 27, 1860.

DEAR SIR: You wish to know how I am pleased with my Lady Webster's Sewing Machine, I bought last September. I can say that it fully equals our expectations. My wife has used it during the fall and winter and it has never been out of order. She is well pleased with it, can do any kind of work on it, coarse or fine, and would not part with it for four times its cost if she could not get another. I think it combines more good qualities for durability and simplicity than any machine I have examined or seen at work. (signed) JNO. N. ARNOLD.

Ladies and others, whether wishing to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to call and examine.

Planters in particular will find it to their interest to take a look at them.
