RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

RIVER, WEATHER AND BUSINESS.—The river rose about one inch at this point during the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock last evening. There is about seven feet six inches water in the Mississippi, between Cairo and St. Louis. The St. Francis river is still falling, with plenty of water however for navigable purposes. Business is dull in the St. Francis river country, nearly all the cotton and other produce having been brought out. The weather was warm and smoky yesterday, with very little activity at the landing.

We learned by dispatch from Pittsburg yesterday that the Ohio river at that point had fallen to the mark of twenty-one feet four inches. A great freshet is expected. Several manufacturing establishments have been flooded, and families have been driven from their homes. There has been a considerable rise in Cumberland. Accounts from the other rivers state that considerable damage has resulted from the flood.

The Wabash river is very low, with but little prospect of a rise soon.

TELEGRAPHIC.—Last night's despatch reported the river rending at St. Louis. The Missouri river was rising at Leavenworth City, at the rate of one foot in twenty-four hours.

The Ohio river at Louisville is rising rapidly, with 8 feet 6 inches water in the canal.

ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.—The regular packet arrivals yesterday entertained the Planter Valley from St. Louis, the W. H. Langley from St. Francis river, the Moses McLellan from Louisville, and the St. Francis No. 2 from Vicksburg. All the packets that arrived were well freighted. The Planter Valley brought some 1000 sacks cotton, 700 bales hay, and several heavy thousand lots of goods for our merchants. The Moses McLellan was also freighted down in the guards, and had a large number of passengers. The Langley had twenty-odd cabin and deck passengers, but brought only four bales cotton. The following regular packets departed: J. H. Lucas and Platte Valley for St. Louis, Moses McLellan for Louisville, South Bend for Arkansas river, and R. H. Meredith for Vicksburg. The South Bend had one of the heaviest trips of freight of the season, and actually refused freight before her departure. The T. C. Tatchell, John Warner, Admiral, and Red River packets down with considerable cotton. The Red River put out a quantity of freight for our merchants, including 15 bales cotton and 200 bales.

INCIDENTS.—There were but 19 bales cotton received by river yesterday, and no shipments.....The gross every of the landing was the arrival of Spalding & Rogers' show-boat, Jonas Secor master, under command of Col. G. N. Lumbard. Immediately after her arrival, Capt. Watson, the inimitable jester, mounted his washtub near the mouth of Wolf river, which wandered by Tom green to the foot of Union street, amid the acclamations of the wandering multitude on the beach and in the bluff.....We have already announced the explosion of a boiler on the Sam Gale, near Commerce, Tuesday. From a dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial from Capt. F. Bassett, we learn that one fireman was killed. Mr. McKnoll, first engineer, Brooks, carpenter, and the deck hand, were dangerously scalded. Johnson, the clerk, was slightly scalded. The upper works were blown away by the explosion. The hull was uninjured. Capt. McLellan came along shortly after the accident, towed her ashore, and rendered all the assistance in her power.....The little steamer Cassenova was sunk on Harpeth Shoals, in the Cumberland river, on Tuesday last. The Freeze will pay reasonable lowwater between Louisville and Evansville.....The memorable Third street bridge over the mouth of Evergreen, has been demolished.....Capt. Mocklung, the former clerk of the Belle Memphis, is now commanding the "river Queen."....We learn from the Cincinnati the Intendant was receiving freights, 7 cents for this year Tuesday.....Capt. Elliott, of the "Western Insurance office, of Cincinnati, has gone to the scene of the wreck of the Market Time, Red river, in hopes of raising her.....The Gen. Quitman was the first New Orleans last evening, and will return at the usual hour this afternoon. Mr. Williams, her agent, has engaged her much cotton for her as she can take.....Her young friend Wilson, late of the John Simonds, went by railroad to New Orleans from this city, where he identified Little Simmons and was installed as her freight clerk. The Simmons left New Orleans for this port last evening.....The A. W. Quarrier, Capt. Riley Jones, will leave New Orleans for this port on Saturday for White river, in place of the Gen Pike.....Mr. W. C. Rodgers of Mayfield, Ky., jumped overboard from the bow of the B. M. Runyan, four miles below Smithland, last Saturday night, and was drowned in Ohio river, of the Charlotte, had a physician encounter with a sick hand at St. Louis Monday.....The steamer Jennie Deane is due from the Illinois river with a load of ice for this city, having passed St. Louis Monday.....A new Commercial river packet is now on the stocks at Cincinnati, to be finished at Wheeling, Va. She is intended as a regular packet between St. Louis and Nashville, running with the B. M. Runyan and General Anderson, a twenty-days packet between Louisville and Nashville, Gen. Quitman, Capt. Conner, will leave this port for New Orleans at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She is the only packet for the South trade, and is the fastest and one of the most popular boats that ever plied the western waters. Capt. Conner, Capt. Reynolds, are favorite with the traveling public in the clerk.

Boats Leaving To-Day.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendid new steamer Gen. Quitman, Capt. Conner, will leave this port for New Orleans at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She is the only packet for the South trade, and is the fastest and one of the most elegant and substantial boats on the western waters. Capt. Reynolds, an old favorite with the travelling public, is the clerk.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The fine steamer St. Francis No. 2, Capt. Hugh Quisenberry, for White river at 4 o'clock this afternoon. She is an elegant packet for the trade, having good passenger accommodations and the capacity for freight. Mr. Geo. Nelson is the clerk.

THE EDITOR'S WOOING.

We love him, Ann Maria Smith,
And in our embrace we hold him;
We see a future full of joys,
The moments hence unfold him.

There's Cupid's arrow in thy glance,
That, to the heart pierceth,
Has reached our melting heart at length,
And asked for mercy.

With joy we read the blissful smart,
And see our success manifest,
We freely place the love upon
The bid of our exchanges.

There's room in the lowest line,
And all, or in the contract,
And to-morrow we will give the full
Particulars hereafter.

Oh! we could tell them of our plans,
All obstacles to scatter;
But we are tired out here, and have
A press of other matter.

Then let us marry, Gospel of Smith,
Without a re-hearsal;
The sooner it is done, the more
A larger circulation.

ABOUT GIRLS.—The best thing about a girl is cheerfulness. We don't care how ready her chisel may be, or how well velvet her lip is, if she wears a scowl, even her friends will consider her ill-looking, while the young lady who illuminates her countenance with smiles, will be regarded as handsome, though her complexion is coarse enough to grate nutmegs on. As perfume is to the rose, so is good nature to the lovely. Girls, think of this.....Byrle said whatever Midas touched turned into gold. In these days, touch a man with gold and he'll turn into anything.....BOSWELL was one day complaining that he was worse times dull. "Yes, yes," cried Lord Kame, "Homer sometimes nods." Boswell being too much elated with this, yet kind added: "Indeed, sir, it is the only character I have of resembling Homer."..... It is a lamentable but certain fact, that many of those who one would hope are real Christians, act in a manner apparently contrary to the precepts of Christ, and it has confound these who are weak in the faith, and lay religion open to the scorn of the ungodly.....A YOUNG lady, according to the latest authority, is a driving man. He sees acquaints in bubbling springs, buildings in stones, and cash in everything.....A young lady who is well posted in the fashionable literature of the day, quotes Byron and Tom Moore, and writes blue-tailed dogs in sky colored convolutions, to perfection, innocently inquired of a young lady, the other evening, who this Mr. Lecompton was, who had occasioned so much trouble at Washington.....Texas are truths which some men despise, because they have not examined them and which they will not examine because they despise them.....A saloon called upon a gold-broker in this city, recently, and asked what could be the value of an ingot of gold as big as your arm. The shop-keeper beckoned him into a back room, and primed him with grog. He then asked to see the ingot. "Here it is," said Jack, "I have not got it yet; but I'm going to Pike's Peak, and would like to know the value of such a lump before I start."..... Parson of small intellect are very dangerous enemies because they are likely to have few extraneous from his to divert them from their immediate object of malice; because they are shrewd politicers of personalities, and personal weaknesses; because there is nothing which a fool and a mean man enjoys so much, as to catch a wise and honest one in a misdemeanor.....A MISERABLE old bachelor friend of ours, thinks children's games are becoming popular with older persons, now-a-days, as he has recently seen several full-grown men chasing hoops through the streets.....PEOPLE say that they shed peas, when they sa-shell them; that they hook corn, when they sa-husk it; that they dust the furniture when they sa-weep it; and take the dust from it; that they skin a cat, when they sa-skin it; and that they make fishes, when they sa-make them. I have heard many men say they were going to weed their gardens, when I thought their gardens were weedy enough already..... The house where there is no fire smoke visible, is filled with sighs of God.....WHEN salt water rises to the clouds, it loses its saltiness, and becomes fresh and sweet; so with the human soul.....A LADY went to the circus, the other day, and was much embarrassed, lest her chaste mother should hear of her having been there. The lady was very much embarrassed in finding her there, himself.....WHY is a young lady just from a boarding school like a building committee?.....Because she is ready to receive proposals.....At what time of day was Adam created? A little before Eve.....Does ore said to "speak with their tails? Would it be proper to call a short-tailed dog a "stump orator?"..... It is an old trite saying that a man should not marry unless he can support a wife; and, from some examples that we have seen, we are beginning to doubt seriously whether a woman can genuinely marry unless she can support a husband.....A contraband was seen about the 'Bluffs' a few days since, who was about to be sent to the house of correction, was told they would set him to picking cotton. "Let 'em try it," said he, "I'll bear the thing to pieces!.....A tear of joy, a tear of sorrow, a tear of pleasure, much pain, a little longer hurrying and worrying through the world, some long greetings and a long farewell, and our play will be "played out," and the injury and the injured will be laid away, and ere long forgotten. Is it worth while to hate each other?.....Sir," said an enraged lady to one of her boarders, "why do you call this union butter?" "Because in union there is strength."..... Our lives are better for the rain that falls into them. They who have known no sorrow have felt no honey-dropping balm of consolation. We are nearer heaven after the ministry of grief. As the sky looks gently from the skies, so may all things lovely and of good report fall into our human hearts.

.....Said Tom, "Since I have been abroad I have eaten so much pork, that I am ashamed to look a pig in the face!" "I s'pose, ain't, then," said a wag, who was present, "it does shave without a glass."..... Bishop Horne had his dignity somewhat taken down when he took possession of the Episcopal palace at Norwich in 1781. He turned around upon the steps, and exclaimed: "Bless us, bless us! what a multitude of people!" "Oh, my lord," said a bystander, "this is nothing to the crowd last Friday to see you hanged!"..... SCRIPTURE.—As a man drinks, he generally grows reckless. In his case, the more drams the fewer scruples.....SALT LOGIC.—A sailor being brought before a magistrate for beating his wife, the justice attempted to reason with him, and so reached his heart. "Why, this is not like a true-hearted sailor, to beat his wife; besides, you ought to know that she, as the Scriptures say, is 'the weaker vessel.'" "Thunder!" cried Jack, "does she ought not to carry as much sail?".....A MAN is the healthiest and happiest when he thinks the least of health or happiness. To forget an ill is half the battle; it becomes easy work for the doctors.....A PUBLISHER of a newspaper down east, in the first issue of his journal, returns thanks to those who found him the missing mare, and his grateful gratitude to heaven that there is no law in the State enforcing imprisonment for debt.....A BACHELOR merchant's advice in selecting a wife:—"get hold of a piece of calico that will wash."..... Goo sees us in secret; therefore let us seek his face in secret. Though heaven be God's palace, yet it is not his prison.....Which is Jonas?—What's that? a picture on?" said a countryman, in our hearing, the other day, in a print store, to the proprietor, who was turning over some engravings. "Jonas, sir?" said the dealer, "is Joshua commanding the sun to stand still?" "Dutch!! Well, which is Joshua and which is his son?"..... Do good brothers and it will come back in blessing to you. The water you pour at the foot of the cocoa tree, comes back to you a sweet beverage at the top. Falloing to the Bible that that tree requires frequent watering,) and that its fruit, which grows at the extreme top, is filled with a delicious milk.....'Mavaxx," said a little chap to what is this wor?" in valentines?" "No, no," said the knowing mother, "it's Valentines; here you have been going to school for six months, and you can't give the right pronunciation to one word yet!".....Swazy is the music of the lute to him who has never heard the prattle of his own children.....Conversation—Why is a woman like a steamboat? We suppose it is because it costs a fortune to rig her, and because a man is liable to get blown up at any time.....ALL moral philosophy is as applicable to a company and a private life as to a most splendid life. Every man carries the entire form of the human condition within him.—Montaigne.....'So Charley, I hear you have been to a juvenile party." Precacious boy—"Well, I don't know what you call juvenile. There was no one there under five years old."..... As the sun-light tints the flowers and colors the rock—it alternately sparkles to the dew drops and shines in the broad ocean—so the true religious spirit is present in the humble Christian, the lowliest word of kindness, as much as in the grand songs of Hebrew bards and the profound teachings of St. Paul—the Apostle, those ancient headlands of Christian thought.
