FAREWELL BENEFIT TO MISS JENNIE STANLEY.—It is gratifying to us, as it will be to her many friends in this city, to announce the complimentary benefit to Miss Jennie Stanley, at the new Theater this evening. The beneficiary is one who deserves much at the hands of the Memphis public, as she has by her efforts on the stage during the past season, and by her deportment in social life, merited our appreciation, and endeared herself in every one who has been so fortunate as to be thrown within her sphere. In consequence of the press of other matter we are compelled to withhold the announcement, which was in a high degree complimentary to the beneficiary.

THE RAFT MURDER.—The Argus says: We announced in an article on the late murder on the river being a few miles above this city, that a party would proceed to the spot and exhume the body of the murdered man, in order to discover if it was really that of Mr. Copley. The remains were accordingly exhumed, and although already much decomposed, were identified as those of Mr. Copley by several of his friends. It not seeming deemed advisable to attempt a removal of the body, it was interred in the grave where it had been placed by the officers on the first visit. This confirmation has left little to the doubt of perpetration of this dreadful tragedy. Suspicion, the alleged murderer, and we have no doubt of his conviction whenever the case comes before the Criminal Court for trial.

MISS WATSON'S SCHOOL.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Miss Watson, who will open a school this morning at the south Memphis Methodist church, and this evening at the west Baptist church. Her reputation of children in vocal music Miss W. carries an enviable reputation as an instructor in music, and is recommended in the highest terms by all who have patronized her schools in this city. She teaches instrumentation with great facility, who attends at her schools their proficiency. We bespeak for her a generous patronage commensurate with her merits.

THE LATEST FROM CHARLESTON—SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE APPEAL.—At the moment of going to press we are in receipt of a very important telegram of Hon. Jno. Cochrane, member of Congress from Memphis, from our correspondent in Charleston. It seems that a party platform has been determined upon, and that the document, after laying down a set of principles concerning various important matters, wound up with a recommendation of the service rule of nominees for president and vice, at the Nothing house of J. S. Duke & Co., 305 Main street.

☞ N. D. Collins, candidate for Attorney-General, will address the citizens of Memphis on Saturday night next, at Exchange Buildings. His opponents are respectfully invited to meet him. apl24-d
