HO, FOR BALTIMORE & SANDS' ALE!!—At the St. Charles, where the convention is held daily to discuss who will be the nominee for President at the Baltimore convention, Sands has been urgently requested to allow his name to be used as a candidate, but respectfully declined, as he does not wish to be elected, which he know he would, should he run. The reasons are, he has made his mind up to be president of all Sweets, and wishes to devote his whole time and attention to the manufacturing of his pure, unadulterated pale cream ale, which has gained for him so much notoriety all over the United States. The ale he always has had pure and delicious at the St. Charles, which has become the resort of the "Bon-ton," and all judges of a good glass of ale. Fleming & Lockhart, sole agents.

OVERLAND MAIL.

The Overland Mail leaves every Wednesday and Saturday at 6 o'clock, p. m., by the Little Rock Railroad, per steamer Morphine, foot of Jefferson street.

To CANDIDATES AND THEIR FRIENDS.—It is proper to remind that all notices respect to persons candidates for office are charged for as other advertisements, and must be accompanied with the cash to secure their publication.

ADAM'S EXPRESS.—We are indebt d to Mr. H. Borden, of the Adam's Express company for New York papers in advance of the mails.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were six additions to the workhouse from the recorder's court yesterday, of which number three were females.

SUNDAY EXCURSION.—There will be an excursion to Mound City Sunday on board the steamer Mark A. Cheek. A sumptuous dinner will be served at the hotel.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—Mr. A. S. Levy will sell at auction, on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, by order of the sheriff, a large lot of boots and shoes, all of which are fresh and sound.

ONE-FELLOWS' HALL.—Rev. Mr. Nye will preach on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. At night he will review a tract of the American tract society entitled "Universalism unscriptural and absurd." 21

☞ This morning at 10 o'clock on the premises, Messrs. Cayce & Sorwell sell a six year's lease on the store room and lot now occupied by Mr. Boro, on West side Main street, between Union and Trezevo streets.

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES.—A sale of several desirable lots of dry goods and groceries will take place at Mr. Levy's auction rooms at ten o'clock this morning. Dealers will find it to their interest to attend.

FATAL RESULT OF AN ACCIDENT.—Hiram Wright, the gentleman who fell from the bridge over the bayou at the northern extremity of Main street on Monday last, died of his injuries yesterday.

INSCRIBENTS.—The grand jury of the criminal court, at present in session, have returned three indictments, two against Wm. Malone and John Marshall, charged with an assault with intent to kill, and another against Patrick O'Keefe for rescuing a prisoner from the custody of an officer.

THE PARSIFICON.—There will be an exhibition of the great work of art at Odd-Fellows' hall, at eleven o'clock this morning, for the accommodation of ladies and families. Those who have not already seen it, should avail themselves of this opportunity. There will also be an exhibition at the usual hour this evening.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In this tribunal yesterday, Wm. English, who had been convicted at the last term of the court of receiving stolen goods, was acquitted. A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of James McMann, charged with the larceny of a skiff. To-day the jail cases will be called and disposed of in regular order.

☞ For the benefit of all those who desire something new in the wearing line, we would advise them to call at the well-known house of Sproule & McCown, where they will find everything new and tasty in the clothing line. As these gentlemen are all skilled in daily receipt of new goods direct from their own manufactory, they can offer extra inducements to customers both in style and price.

THE CENSUS.—We are gratified to learn that the census takers are getting along expeditiously with their work, but that they meet with no obstacle in the way of attaining all the information desired. To judge from the returns already in the hands of the deputy marshals, it is fair to presume that the population of Memphis will approximate forty thousand.

AN OLD RELIABLE HOUSE.—We invite attention this morning to the card of Messrs. Vernon, Parker & Clay, cotton factors, grocers and commission merchants, No. 7 Front Row. Planters and the trade may find at all times at this house, a full supply of fresh groceries and plantation supplies. Any business entrusted to the old, reliable firm will be transacted with fidelity.

☞ Six small lots and another 65 by 175 feet, on which there is a comfortable cottage, will be sold on the premises this morning by Monsarrat, Dupree & Co. These are hard times, the banks are making up their semi-annual statements, and men should attend who want bargains. The property is on the corner of Talbot and Mulberry streets, and must be sold, or it would not be offered now.

FUN! FUN! FUN!—Look out for fun this day among the retail clothing merchants. They will be at busy as bees, and an avalanche of goods will be sold out. Best goods at lowest prices will draw the largest crowd, and as Tickner, Robbins & Co. have reduced their prices, and are selling goods lower than any house in town, their store will be headquarters for all wanting goods in their line. They can be found at their store on Jefferson street, next to the Planters' bank, and as their store is for cent and they stay here but a short time, their store is the place for bargains.

BOOK NOTICE.

THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA: A Popular Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, Literature, and General Information. Edited by G. Ripley and C. A. Dana. Vol. IX. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

The ninth volume of this important work is now before us, and a cursory glance at its contents satisfies us that the writers of the various articles have not been content to servilely follow authorities, but that a careful and independent judgment has governed them in preparing their articles. Of course, where the articles are so numerous and the subjects so varied, there will be an inequality of merit, but clear and succinct statements and explanations, with a strict avoidance of the display of partisan or sectarian proclivities, mostly characterizes them. The work is a valuable acquisition to our literary treasures, and as such is generally welcomed, as we have observed, by the press of all parts of the Union. In historical, biographical, and other articles, the narrative is brought down to the latest period; "Utah" includes the recent revolutions on that soil; "Tapan" is brought down to the period when it was resolved to send an embassy to our shores; and so on. The book is well printed and contains an immense amount of matter. The facilities for reference are all that could be desired—there is not only a running head in every page, but an entire alphabetical index to the whole volume is given. The present volume ends from "Sharp" to "Spain." The price of the work is three dollars per volume, and a more valuable addition to the library cannot be ma

HOOP SKIRTS.

A lady correspondent of the Mobile Register thus gives vent to her indignation in regard to the abandonment of hoop skirt by the Empress Eugenie:

An "article" and has so decreed, Eugenie acquiesces, and we—mobiles as a matter of course. Unlawful interference on the part of Mrs. Napoleon, we call it. Can't she amuse himself sufficiently with writing snub letters to the Emperor—twaddle the Austrians and ram down the Italians? Must he meddle with his wife's affairs, too! Not content with turning the political world topsy-turvy once or twice, hot money-bag has taken the fashionable! And Mrs. Napoleon, hasn't she spunk? Lucy Stone ought to send her an invitation to a woman's rights meeting. I would take the liberty myself, only we never knew much down South. But she should be remonstrated with. Does she comprehend the magnitude of the sacrifice she is about to lay on the altar of mobdom's idolatrous? Has she weighed well the consequences of the step she is about to take—out of crinoline? Has she reflected on the wholesale shrinkage which will immediately follow the collapse? Has she thought how weather is coming on, too, when the article is so indispensable to feminine comfort? Why, we shall feel like let down umbrellas, and look—oh gods! how we shall look! We enter a solemn protest against masculine arbitration in a matter so peculiarly our own business. Will any sister second the motion?

We hope the ladies will not follow the example of their queen of fashion this time. Almost all the gentlemen admire hoop skirts, and if the lading wish to please them, hoops should not be discarded, especially as they are so very comfortable.

A fellow living on the Indiana shore of the Ohio river, near Vevey, Indiana, having a few days leisure, recently went over to the Kentucky side of the river, visited a graveyard there, and stole a tombstone, which he placed over the remains of his lamented better half. Our Election Returns.—Owing to an informality in the returns, the official returns of the election of the third of March last, in the Third ward, for county officers, was not accompanied given at the time, for reference with a request made by interested parties, we append the following vote to that ward for the leading offices that were voted for: For sheriff—Fritz 303, Smith 365; Circuit court clerk—Stewart 370, Hills 297, Alsup 78; Clerk county court—Tennent 299, Brown 356; Register—King 319, Lake 273, Taylor 105, Carrithers 27; Trustee—Woodward 322, Griffin 37, Crenshaw 10, Day 312; Tax collector—Farrell 296, Fuller 21, Newson 354, Rosenbaugh 14, Douglass 13, Abbington 4, Nelson 4, Rogster 71, Lyde 176, Hunter 67, Rourke 1, Mason 6, Death 1; Clerk common law court—Wright 846, Mosely 253.
