STREET COMMISSIONER.—The newly elected street commissioner, J. W. Parsons, enters upon his duties to-day.

FIRE.—The toll gate near the eastern terminus of Poplar street was accidently consumed by fire yesterday morning.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—The funds of the Building and Loan association are due and payable to-day, and will be sold at the usual place to-night.

COTTON AND TOBACCO.—Messrs. Gridley & Partee have opened a house at No. 5 Monroe street, for the purpose of doing a general cotton and tobacco factorage business, and we recommend them to the favorable notice of our planting friends.

PEACE WARRANT.—A man named Lewis was arrested yesterday and held to bail in the sum of $240, to keep the peace for one year. The peace warrant was issued at the instance of one George Gesthals.

MAIL ROBBER.—A man answering to the name of J. W. Hamilton was arrested by detective officer S. P. Witt yesterday afternoon, suspected of having committed a mail robbery in Springfield, Ill., some time since.

THE SUMMER OF 1860.—The present summer promises to be memorable for hurricanes, hot weather, big crops, astronomical wonders, an unusual influx of Asiatic and European royalty, and a superabundance of presidential candidates.

COUNCIL.—The new council are hard working men, as a perusal of our council report will show. Some of their acts yesterday will have an important bearing on the future interests of the city. The report should be read by every citizen.

CITY FINANCES.—We have at times received heavy malediction for articles written under the head of "City Finances." If we wanted a justification for our strictures, it would be found in the report of the investigation committee, mentioned in our council report this morning.

CHIEF OF FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The differences between the board of aldermen and fire wardens, growing out of the election by the former of a fire chief have been for the time adjusted, the board of aldermen declaring their proceedings illegal. The new chief will now be elected by the board of fire wardens.

STEAMBOAT RESERVE.—The officers of the Arago inform us that a robbery was committed on board the Choctaw, at Cairo, Friday morning last. The thief stole the keys of the boat from under the pillow of the clerk, and obtained the entire contents of the safe, amounting to $800 or $1,000.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—Several negroes belonging to Mr. Clayton Rogers, residing a short distance below this city, were arrested on Monday last, charged with the murder of Joseph Powers, overseer on James Rogers' plantation. An account of the murder which was committed by strangulation, we gave at the time. The negroes have, as we learn, made a free confession.

☞ A. S. Levy & Co. sell at the store room formerly occupied by Jacks & Shanks, No. 301 Main street, all the fixtures, glass cases and shelving on ninety days' credit. These fitting up stores, or refitting, would do well to be on hand. They are new and must be sold. Remember the hour, 9 o'clock this morning.

FATALITY AMONG CATTLE.—From our exchanges we learn that at Helena, Ark., and neighborhood, numbers of cattle have been seized with some disease unknown to that locality, which is proving very fatal. Can it be possible that the terrible cattle disease which was sweeping over the New England and other States is visiting this portion of the country?

POLICE UNIFORMS.—The ordinance providing for the uniforming of the police was passed upon its second and final reading by the board of aldermen yesterday afternoon, and is now a law. In order to secure the services of good and efficient policemen, an additional pay of $10 per month has been added to the salary of each member of the force. The police will be uniformed on and after October 1st.

SUIT AGAINST THE CITY.—In consequence of the proceedings of council yesterday afternoon, Messrs. Louden & Co., wharf contractors, have notified the authorities that they will discontinue the paving on the wharf, and enter suit against the city for the full amount of their claims. By reference to the council proceedings, a full and more explicit account of what was done will be found.

COTTON FACTORS.—The card of Messrs. McNutt, Trotter & Bailey, cotton factors, commission and forwarding merchants, No 5 Monroe street, appears in another column this morning. These gentlemen have long been established in business in our city, and by their uniformly correct dealings, have won the confidence of the business public.

STREET COMMISSIONER.—The city council being of opinion that the street commissioner ought to be a practical civil engineer, have elected to that office Mr. J. P. Parsons. Mr. Parsons was assistant engineer when the present city civil engineer was in office two years ago. He has had every opportunity of becoming well acquainted with the duties of this office, and from his experience and attainments he is in a position to make a good officer.

LITTLE ROCK RAILROAD.—We learn from the president of this road that enough iron is contracted for to finish it. He is going to New Orleans to arrange for its delivery. Some fifty miles of the Little Rock end will be ironed during the approaching winter. This will leave a gap of forty miles, which will be completed the winter succeeding. In two years the iron horse will be running clear through from Memphis to Little Rock.

BELL RINGERS.—After the adjournment of the Bell and Everett meeting last evening, a large crowd paraded the different streets, carrying transparencies and ringing bells. Such a tin in abolution never has been heard in the city. Sheep bells and cow bells, dinner bells and bells for all meals, auction bells and bells for lost children (to bring in the truants) were rung until their sides must have become sore at the brazen conduct of the ringers. The ringing was kept up until a late hour to the no little discomfiture of timid people, and the fear of negroes who no doubt thought their latter end was nigh.

FRANKLIN COLLEGE.—We take pleasure in referring our readers to the advertisement in to-day's paper of Franklin college. This institution, which ranks among the first in the State, is located five miles east of Nashville, in a region of country unsurpassed for its beauty of situation and healthfulness. In addition to the able faculty, a valuable accession has been made to the corps of instructors by the appointment of W. D. Carnes, late president of the East Tennessee University, as professor. The discipline of the college though mild is strict, and every effort will be made to guard the minds of the youth from corrupting influences. We commend the college and its instructors to the favorable consideration of the public.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Council met in extra session last evening, the President, Ald. Martin, in the chair.

An account from the Bulletin company was presented and ordered to be paid.

A petition was presented from Mr. Hies, and another from a New York company, asking permission to lay down a portion of pavement at their own expense in some part of the city to test it.

Ald. Kirby said a third party wished to put down a piece of pavement.

Ald. Hughes objected to the price of iron pavement; it would cost $35 or $60, where boilers would cost $20. He wanted to see he more good pavement taken up and a humbug put down, as he was of opinion it had been done in one part of the city.

A resolution was adopted allowing Mr. Hies to put down a portion of iron pavement at a place to be designated by the improvement committee. A similar permission was given for putting down a portion on Montgomery pavement.

A petition to have Crane avenue graded was referred to the improvement committee. The same reference was made of a petition for grading on the east side of Exchange and a portion of Third street.

Marketmaster Levering reported the collection of $253.25.

A proposal to dedicate an alley between Exchange and Fourth streets was referred to the city attorney, with instructions to act in the premises.

The committee on the disputed election in the Seventh ward was discharged.

A letter and documents from Mr. J. M. Vernon on direct trade were laid on the table, in consequence of statements made respecting the party sending them.

A communication from Mr. Armour asking that iron taps might be put on two cisterns on new Madison street, was referred to the mayor and city engineer.

A letter from Thos. J. Williams, complaining of a nuisance, was referred to the chief of police.

Ald. Robinson stated that provision would have to be made for meeting demands during the month of August, of $100,000. He offered a resolution authorizing the mayor to issue the city's notes for such an amount as would be necessary to meet the amount not provided for by incoming amounts. Adopted.

Ald. Kirby, from the vigilance committee, reported that the committee, at the desire of the mayor, had investigated a street rumor to the effect that he had disposed of a city note, indorsed by Messrs. Apperson and Atkinson, of the amount of $2,500, in an irregular manner. They reported that Mr. Apperson offered to take the note at a less rate than charged by Mr. Folwell, to whom it was sold, but the mayor had previously engaged to sell it to Mr. Folwell at the rate obtained for it, and he carried out his engagement. The committee exonerated him from blame. The transaction took place in 1857. Report adopted.

Ald. Hughes hoped this was the last street rumor that would be investigated.

The mayor said he should investigate a different way another time.

Ald. Frazier, from the ordinance committee, introduced the ordinance upon the police force for a second reading.

Ald. Robinson was opposed to any military drilling of the police; the system was not worth a cent, and would make the police a farce. It was the first time he knew of introducing military tactics in a police force.

Ald. Frazier thought the drilling would improve the police. The objections of Mr. Robinson were to a street parade. This was a drill not performed in the street.

Ald. Hughes had never known of drilling without arms.

On a vote, the section to drill was stricken out.

An amendment was adopted, that the wearing of the uniform should begin on the first of October, and the pay from the first of July, payable when the police is fully equipped and uniformed.

Ald. Molloy moved to increase the police pay $10 per month. Adopted.

Ald. Frazier was opposed to the $10 per month additional pay. It would amount to $7720 more than is now paid.

Ald. Molloy wanted to give a fair pay and get good men. The present pay did not allow a man to keep his family in comfort.

The ordinance, with the additional pay and the uniform, was finally passed.

Ald. Hughes proposed an amendment to the rules making a motion to amend debatable.—Adopted.

Ald. Molloy, from the wharf committee, reported against lowering the charges on boats. Looking at the charges made at New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville, he found the Memphis charge of seven cents was the lowest amount charged by any of them.

Ald. Frazier offered a resolution, that an above-ground sewer be constructed at the foot of Adams street. Referred to the improvement committee.

Ald. Molloy offered a resolution to have the wharf drained and filled between Union and Real streets, so as to put it in a permanent condition. Adopted.

Ald. Hughes said justice led him to say that he had been told that the former city engineer had approved of the paving done at the wharf and had directed the contractors to proceed where the pavement had given way. If that was the case the contractors ought not to be held responsible and the city ought to take up and relay the pavement at their own expense.

Ald. Molloy stated that the wharf committee and the contractors had agreed on a sort of compromise by which the latter agreed to take up the stone, as it had not been laid down according to contract. He reported the work from Union to Adams should be received and laid for as 12 inch pavement, and that from Union to Beal should have sewers and fills such as are necessary put down by the city, the contractors to take up and relay the stone, they not to be held responsible for any further sinking or sliding of the ground, and to be allowed pay as for nine inch pavement.

Ald. Hughes objected to several things about the wharf paving; it was not the sort of work he expected to get.

The report was adopted.

Ald. Hughes offered a resolution that a certain portion of the wharf be inspected in sections by the city engineer, and that he report to the board. He denied that the board had ever received a foot of the paving done at the wharf. He thought it the first time any such people had ever received such a work as this without estimate and inspection. He was of opinion the pavement was not a twelve inch one.

Ald. Morgan said it seemed to him that ever since he new board came in, there had been a design to make war upon Messrs. Louden & Street about the wharf paving. He thought the agreement made ought to be accepted, and was opposed to the inspection proposed. He noticed that the two members who talked the loudest against the street pavement, had not signed the report.

Ald. Hughes said he did not undertake to go with the current; he was in the board when the contract was made, and he loudly said and ever should say, that the wharf pavement was not done according to contract. He asked was there anything wrong in ascertaining whether the pavement was a 9 inch one or the 12 inch one it ought to be? Let the contractors be paid for just such work as they have done, and no other.

A note written by Mr. Humphreys, the late engineer, was read, stating that he considered the work on the wharf had been done according to the contract as modified by the special committee; another was read from Ald. Douglass, chairman of that committee, stating that the contractor had modified the contract in accordance with a resolution adopted by the board, allowing nine inch stone to be substituted for twelve inch.

On a vote, Mr. Humes's resolution to have a portion of the work inspected, was adopted by 8 to 4.

Ald. Martin offered a resolution, which was adopted, requiring the chief of police to put a stop to the shooting of dogs, and requiring them to be impounded, when, if not redeemed by their owners, they should be drowned in the middle of the Mississippi.

Ald. Hughes proposed the appropriation of $1,000, to be paid to the friends of Gov. Jones, to aid in raising a monument to his memory. He stated how greatly the departed gentleman had labored for the good of the city. Such an appropriation was due for services performed.

Ald. Morgan was opposed to the resolution, as transcending the powers of council. He was willing to contribute individually one-tenth of the amount named.

Ald. Molloy believed that if the citizens were appealed to, not one, but five thousand dollars would be raised.

Ald. Hughes stated that the board had no power to contribute to such an object.

Ald. Hughes stated that he had offered the resolution without any suggestion from any friend or relative of the late Governor. He

The mayor said the friends of that gentleman would feel an appropriation to be a compliment.

Ald. Hughes withdrew the resolution.

A committee to inspect the Greenlaw gravel paving, was, on the request of its chairman, discharged.

Ald. Martin, from the special committee on investigating the state of the various city offices, reported that the committee, on looking over the tax books for the 31st, 32d and 33d corporate years, found they had not been added up, and there was no evidence to show whether they were or were not correctly made out. An exhibit has been promised, but in the state the books are, it will take a month to make it out. The collector, Mr. Bowen, is absent, and further investigation into his department has, on that account, been deferred. As far as can be judged, his accounts are in a satisfactory condition, and he appears to be performing his duties well. The city books generally are in a very unsatisfactory condition, not being made up promptly to the time of examination.

There is a great want of system in the various departments and great facilities exist for fraud. No charge of fraud is made, but it is because the officers have been men of integrity, not for want of opportunity, which is amply offered by the present state of things. From this time every city officer should be held to strict accountability in the performance of his duty.

To remedy this state of things a new officer is required, a controller, by whom all accounts shall be examined and put in a proper condition to come before the board, and who shall countersign all warrants issued by the mayor, and make monthly reports to the board of receipts and expenditures, and of estimates of each succeeding month's revenue. The report concluded with a resolution to have an ordinance drawn creating the office of city controller and defining his duties. Received and adopted and referred to the ordinance committee.

A resolution, offered by Ald. Robinson, was adopted to relay the pavement where required in the market houses.

A resolution, introduced by the same, providing for laying out the lines of Pigeon Roost Garibaldi had announced his intention of sinecuring Italy to the kingdom of Sardinia.

The ship Hancock arrived at Liverpool on the 16th, from New Orleans. The ships P. Chapman and Crescent City arrived at Cuxhvis from New Orleans.
