Daily Appeal.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

RIVER, WEATHER AND BUSINESS.—The river at this point is still falling slowly. The latest dispatches from Louisville report the river at that place rising, with four feet in the canal. We have no later news in regard to the stage of the upper rivers. The weather yesterday was pleasant, and business on the levee quiet.

MISCELLANEOUS.—The Belmont has to a great source of trouble to the large boats—nearly all having to lighten in order to get over it.....The Howard J. Gay went out last evening for New Orleans with a good trip of freight.....The Missouri, for Vicksburg, went yesterday with a lively load.....Some hundred and twenty-four bales of cotton were brought to the city last week by the terrytoat Mark Z. Cheek.....The Victoria is undergoing repairs at the upper wharf.....The Platte Valley left last evening at her usual hour for St. Louis. The New Orleans Bulletin of Friday says the Belfast, on her way down from Memphis, on the night of the 22d, struck a snag, or perhaps some particular snag we know not, in Island Chutney, breaking off one of her timbers, and had gone into dock for repairs. The Grand Duke will take her trip and leave on Saturday for Memphis.....Capt. Thomas H. Rogers, a veteran boatman, died in Lafayette, Ind., a few days since, after a brief illness. The Napoleon passed down the river eighteen or twenty years ago, and afterwards engaged in the navigation business at Lafayette since that time. He accomplished his object, reaching Orleans on the 20th, and was buried on the following day.....We learn that Capt. Wm. Gwin, of the Jackson, and his wife, are now on a visit to their friends in Louisville.....Capt. Thomas P. Rogers, a veteran boatman, died in Lafayette, Ind., a few days since, after a brief illness. The Napoleon passed down the river eighteen or twenty years ago, and afterwards engaged in the navigation business at Lafayette since that time. He accomplished his object, reaching Orleans on the 20th, and was buried on the following day.....We learn that Capt. Wm. Gwin, of the Jackson, and his wife, are now on a visit to their friends in Louisville.....Capt. Thomas H