LITTLE GIANT CLUB.—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the "Little Giant club" to-night, and that all of the Douglas clubs of the city are invited to attend, as business of importance will come before the meeting.

☞ The recent census of St. Louis shows a population of 162 079—just two thousand larger than that of Cincinnati. That place is thus entitled to the appellation of the "Queen City" of the West.

LUMBER.—Two rafts of lumber, containing 100,000 feet of clear pine, arrived at our wharf yesterday from the upper rivers.

ASSAULT.—For assault and battery on the person of Geo. Habersack, H. Tschudi was brought before Squire Horne on a peace warrant, and fined $10 and costs.

ILLness of JUDGE KING.—We learn that the Hon. E. W. M. King is lying quite ill at Corinth, of bengue, and will probably not be able to return to this city by the day of election.

☞ The citizens of Louisville to-day vote upon the subscription of $100,000 to the Shelby branch railroad, which is supposed to be a sufficient amount to insure its completion.

☞ Those who have taken our off repeated advice, and obtained one of Tyler's inimitable ambrotypes, are under great obligation to us, and we trust they will stir up their neighbors and make them speed by follow their good example.

A WORD OF ADVICE.—The time of Heller's advent is approaching fast, and we understand that many persons, fearing a crowd, are already anxious to secure seats for his first performance. Those desirous so to do will be accommodated by calling at Odd-fellows' hall on Saturday, between the hours of two and four in the afternoon.

THE CASE OF TOM. STOKES.—Mr. Tom. Stokes, who recently assaulted Mr. F. M. Gallor, appeared at the police court yesterday to answer to the charge of the assault. In the absence of a material witness the case was laid over till Monday next. No warrant has been issued for the arrest of Stokes on the part of the State.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER.—The engineer authorized by the city to take soundings in the Mississippi river, adjacent to the wharf, pronounced the deepest place to be eighty-two feet, lying between the extension of Jefferson and Court streets.

POLITICAL.—On Thursday, the 11th of October, Gov. H. S. Foote, E. M. Yerger, Esq., and J. Knox Walker, Esq., will address the citizens of Corinth, and vicinity, in advocacy of the claims of Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnson, for President and Vice-President of the United States.

☞ The sale to-day of several beautiful residence lots in that most desirable neighborhood, the corner of Talbot and Mulberry streets, should attract the attention of persons wanting a cottage home, or a small or large vacant lot in the fashionable portion. The terms are very easy. The dimensions of the lots are such that a man of the smallest means may be accommodated, and we would advise those wishing to buy to attend on the premises, at 10 o'clock, precisely, this morning.

DEMOCRATS ATTENTION.—The Bluff City Douglas and Johnson club will meet this evening at half-past seven o'clock, at their hall. Several distinguished speakers will be in attendance; and in addition to the regular order of business, we understand that the "glee club" will sing, for the first time, the new campaign song (dedicated to the club) "Our Democratic Union Ship." We expect to find the large hall of the Bluff City club well filled, as it always is on such occasions.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE STORM.—The year 1860 will long be known as remarkable for the severity and number of its storms of wind. From a telegraphic dispatch in another column, it will be seen that the vicinity of New Orleans has been visited by another terrible tornado, which swept away three miles of trestle work on the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern railroad, between Amite and New Orleans, and by which one passenger train was detained two days in the swamp.

CITY COUNCIL.

At an adjourned meeting of the board of aldermen held last evening, Ald. Hughes in the chair, eight members to the roll call, when the proceedings of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Ald. Morgan, from the special committee, appointed to wait upon the county court at Raleigh and present to that court the bills rendered by Hackett & Son for the burial of paupers and request its payment of the same, reported that the court had adjourned before the committee arrived at Raleigh, but from a consultation had with the judge on the subject, in which he expressed himself favorable to the object of the committee's visit, it was reasonable to suppose that the county will assume the present debt, and become responsible for the burial of all paupers in the future.

Ald. Morgan moved that the improvement committee be instructed to advertise for bids for the laying down of gutters, either of stone or brick, and according to the plan at present adopted, at the expense of the city.

This resolution elicited a long debate from Alds. Merrill, Kirby and Morgan.

Ald. Merrill stated that he wished to submit, for the consideration of the committee and the board, a plan for guttering the streets more substantially and at less expense, and in a manner that would afford a better drainage than that now adopted.

Ald. Morgan was in favor of adopting some substantial mode of guttering, and urged that something be done immediately toward paving the gutters and streets with stone, if not by the city, then by the property holders, as is the case in some other cities.

Ald. Kirby urged the propriety of first finishing the work of paving already commenced before the city involved herself in any new paving contracts. He referred to the present condition of several of the principal streets on which works of this kind had been left in an unfinished state, endangering the sidewalks, and tending to the destruction of the grading already established at great expense.

Ald. Merrill believed that some plan for paving should be decided upon at once.

Ald. Hughes suggested that it would not be right for the board to require a man owning property worth six dollars per foot to pay as much for paving and guttering as a man who owned property worth $2000 per foot, which would be the consequence of Ald. Morgan's proposition.

Ald. Merrill said the tax would be assessed unequally in any circumstance. While in Louisville recently his attention was directed to the labor of paving a street in the suburbs, on which there was not a single house, and that, too, at the direction of the board of aldermen. In answer to a question from him as to the expediency of the work, he was told that so far from being considered oppressive upon the property holders, it brought their property into market and enhanced its value fourfold the amount of the outlay. Ald. Morgan's motion finally passed.

Ald. Morgan introduced an ordinance which was passed on its first reading to the effect that the ordinance recently passed extending the fire limits stand void until the first of January.

The monthly reports of the officers were called and appropriately referred, excepting that of W. O. Leland, city controller, which was laid over till next meeting.

Ald. Merrill moved that the mayor, Ald. Morgan and the city attorney be appointed a committee to act with the committee from the county court, in the selection of a suitable site for a jail and court house, which was passed, and Ald. Merrill added to the committee.

The board then adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening next, at 7 o'clock.

STATISTICS.—Memphis is fast getting out of her pinafores and putting on maturely airs in more than one respect. The area of our Bluff City, her large and continually increasing business, the railroad agencies by which she says every point of the compass contiguous to and depending upon her, are not the only respects in which she is seeking to obtain a title to metropolitan standing. During the month of September 702 persons were before the recorder for various offenses, of whom 631 were found guilty, 71 were discharged, 214 paid fines, and 317 were sent to the workhouse. The amount of money collected of the amount assessed, was $2796.56. This shows a heavy business, exhibiting a weekly average of a little over 175 cases, on which were assessed nearly $700 fines. A large portion of the persons included in this number, are persons who are brought to our city by the numerous channels of ingress, and do not properly belong to our credit, yet our city has to suffer her calendar of crimes to be swelled by such characters, to the no small injury of her fair fame. Being on the highway between the northern and southern cities, between which these disreputable characters fluctuate like birds of passage, it cannot be expected but that we should feel their influence.

AN EDITOR WRAPTUROUSLY WRETCHED.—The editor of the Lewisburg Messenger visited Nashville recently, and falling in with the "local" of the Patriot, they visit a ladies' fair together. Let the Nashville editor tell the rest:

The editor of the Lewisburg Messenger who hasn't any wife to take care of him, saw there "an article" which he "fain would own, but it was not for sale." He declares that since that night, he is "wrapturously wretched." As the "article" was bound in hoops, the reader is left to infer that it was either a girl or a keg of whisky. They are both calculated to make a wretch "wrapturous."

RESULTS OF THE SUBERMAN AUCTION SALE.—Yesterday morning a portion of the Bagby subdivision was sold at auction by Monsarrat, Dupree & Co. The purchasers were S. A. Holmes, Wm. Baugh, G. B. Guerrant, Thos. Cullen, W. L. Porter, and others. The property sold averaged over $1000 per acre, and prognosticates a prosperous fall trade in real estate, despite the warring elements in the money market.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—Owing to the rain, there was not so large an attendance as usual out at the theater last night to witness the presentation of Shakspeare's "As You Like It, and Miss Ince's rendition of "Rosalind." The play passed off quite well, however, and the music was as soul-stirring as usual. To-night is Miss Ince's farewell benefit, upon which occasion will be presented the interesting piece of Mary Stuart, which has been in rehearsal several days. We trust that the public will compliment this deserving lady with an unusually large attendance.
