$50 REWARD!

TO 3 DAYS

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AN UNFAILING CURE FOR

GONORRHEA,

And all Diseases of the Urinary Organs

THIS remedy cures where all other preparations fail.

It is entirely unlike every other preparation containing no Mineral Poison or Nauseous Drug, as it is prepared solely from Roots, Herbs and Leaves, which have been handed down from one generation to another, by the Cherokee Indians. It is offered to the public on its well merits. It performs its duty quickly and thoroughly. The ingredients of either set, will be required to cure this complaint, instead of placing Cubebs at the mercy of some Quack or Professor. This remedy strikes at the root of the disease, and is warranted to eradicate the poison, but to remove the cause on which it depends. Full directions, in pamphlet form, accompany each bottle. The agents are prohibited to sell anything but this remedy. In all cases of Gonorrhea, (Clap,) Gleet, Gravel, Inflammation, Stricture, Whites (in females,) and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, has established the most scientific cure of the age. This remedy is free from all nauseous and injurious properties, but invigorates the most delicate constitution.

☞ It does not affect the bowels, or interfere with any class of business, or require any deviation from the usual diet.

☞ It requires no assistance from other medicines.

☞ And what enhances its value, is the entire absence of all nauseous taste, being a pleasant and delicious syrup. Price $2.00 per bottle.

POYNER & MERWIN,

Sole Proprietor, St. Louis, Mo.

☞ Sold in Memphis by Chandler & Co., and all druggists everywhere.

Jno. Wright & Co., New Orleans, wholesale agent for the South.

Cheering News to the Afflicted.

GENTLEMEN of science may speculate and theorize, but facts are worth more than the altitude that all the theories the world ever produced.

DR. A. G. GOODLET'S

Improved Houck's Panacea,

is acknowledged by all who have given it a trial, to be one of the best medicines ever used for the cure of all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, or an impure state of the blood. The marked success with which it has performed by the "Panacea" in the city of Nashville and vicinity, and in every section of the country where it has been introduced, is a sufficient guarantee of its efficacy.

The Rev. J. C. Bowden, of McMinnville, Tenn., speaks thus:

DR. A. G. GOODLET—Dear Sir: It may be gratifying to you to hear that Houck's Panacea, prepared and sold by you, is doing its good work in the relief of your fellow-men. During my research among a several months in Middle Tennessee, I have often met those who have used it. The universal testimony is, "It is the best remedy I have ever used." It has been very useful to me in cases of hoarseness, by breathing its vapor in the open air and laboring in revivals. Its reputation as an agent in this place. Very respectfully,

J. C. BOWDEN.

THE BELL-EVERETT DEMONSTRATION YESTERDAY.—The Bell-Everettites on yesterday opened their "protracted meeting" with a grand flourish of trumpets. The procession was formed on the corner of Market street and Front row, marching thence down in the direction of the Gayoso Hotel. In front was a four-horse wagon, containing four or five men, one of whom was diligently engaged in tolling a large bell, whose melancholy intonations, with the slow movements of the crowd, reminded the passer-by very much of a burial procession. Next in order came a band of music, which discoursed sweet airs, and in the rear the distinguished orators who were in attendance upon the occasion, only two of whom we recognized—the Hon. Thomas B. Nelson, of Tennessee, and Judge William L. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

The most striking, attractive (we had almost said magnificent) feature about the whole affair was the large car, trimmed with silken curtains of white, red and blue, and containing a bevy of beautiful young ladies, one to represent each of the various States in the Union, and holding in their hands ensigns inscribed with the names of the States and their respective emblems. This was a platform much better than "the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws," and one upon which Douglas and Breckinridge men would scarce refuse to stand. The names of the ladies, and the States they represented, are as follows:

Miss Fannie Horton	Alabama.
" Julia Johnson	Arkansas.
" Hettie Woodruff	California.
" Annie Bradley	Delaware.
" Kate Henderson	Florida.
" Sue Riley	Georgia.
" Jennie Lindsey	Illinois.
" Minnie Bowley	Indiana.
" Minnie Clements	Louisiana.
" Florence Cox	Kentucky.
" Clara Jewett	Louisiana.
" Martha Kirk	Massachusetts.
" Mollie Parker	Maryland.
" Sallie Hunter	Mississippi.
" Hettie Woodruff	Missouri.
" Belle Hunter	New Hampshire.
" Maggie Crawford	New Hampshire.
" Kate Pendleton	New Jersey.
" Fannie Green	New York.
" Lenitia Austin	Oregon.
" Regina Peckham	Rhode Island.
" Jennie Walker	South Carolina.
Mrs. Good Wyatt	Virginia.
Miss Mattie Hancock	Texas.
" Annie Terry	Vermont.
" Tod Owen	Virginia.

The following States were not represented owing to the accident absence of the ladies whose names are attached:

Miss Lee Hanson	Rhode Island.
" Sarah Mitchell	Ohio.
" Laura Nelson	Ohio.
" Fannie Boyle	Minnesota.
" Jennie Merrill	Wisconsin.
" Jennie Austin	Connecticut.
" Ella Sherman	Michigan.

After this lovely, and only redeeming feature in the programme, came carriages, horsemen, and others on foot, amounting in all probably to two thousand people.

The train proceeded from the Gayoso down to Beal, thence to Main, and marching up almost the entire length of that street, went down Poplar to Brinkley's Grove, in the northwestern vicinity of the city. Here Judge William L. Sharkey delivered a speech of about two and a half or three hours in length, to an audience of not over twelve hundred people, after which they dispersed. Taking out the "female" portion of the programme, we are compelled to say, the demonstration cannot be regarded otherwise than a "magnificent failure."

☞ Everybody buy clothing and furnishing goods of Drake & Co., 185 Main street.

PURE DRUGS, WINES AND BRANDIES.—During the present week many of our friends from the country will be here to purchase supplies of the above articles. To all such we would commend the house of Messrs. Dearing & Wetherill, on Main street, who always keep on hand a full and complete stock of the very purest and best articles in their line. Their house is well established, and is a favorite resort of those in search of the best articles. See their card in another place.

THE FAIR.—This morning the Shelby county agricultural fair commence their exhibitions for the week. Extensive preparations have been made, both for the amusement and instruction of the thousands of visitors who are expected to attend. These annual exhibitions of the skill of the mechanic, the enterprise of the stock raiser, and the care and labor of the husbandman, should receive the encouragement of all citizens.

COTTON RECEIPTS.—The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday, as shown by the books of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, aggregated 2282 bales, as follows:

Memphis and Charleston railroad	782
Mississippi and Tennessee railroad	272
Memphis and Ohio railroad	177
Wm. Morrison	37
Wm. Bell	37
Total	2282

IUKA SPRINGS.—This justly celebrated watering place has been long under the immediate supervision of Mr. Cook, one of the gentlemanly proprietors, under whose management they have gained a wide reputation. The public will be pleased to know that the company has been reorganized, and that it is in contemplation to improve the grounds and buildings so as to accommodate a greatly increased number of visitors.

THE ABDUCTION CASE.—We have mentioned the arrest of a woman named Stevens on a charge of abducting a child from St. Louis. Immediately after the authorities at St. Louis were telegraphed, and yesterday morning Chief of Police Garrett received a dispatch, stating that a requisi ion on Gov. Harris would be forthcoming for the prisoner's return to Missouri. When Mrs. Stevens was arrested the child could not be discovered, but yesterday, accompanied by an officer, she visited the place of concealment, and both are at present in jail together.

☞ For Boy's and Children's clothing, go to Drake & Co.'s, 185 Main street.

LARCENY.—James Monroe was before Squire Horne yesterday charged with the attempt to steal a box of boots from the steamer Wilthemy Saturday evening. The light fingered gentleman lowered the box through the wheelhouse into the river, and had gained the shore with his prey, when arrested. He was committed for trial before Judge Swayne.

PERSONAL.—Frank Merrielee, late of the steamer Messenger, has concluded to take up his residence among us, and will be gladly welcomed by his numerous friends as a citizen of Memphis.

CONGESTIVE CHILL.—Mr. Thos. H. Merrill, formerly connected with W. M. Hutton in the job printing business, and well known to a large circle of personal friends in this city, died at his residence on Sunday, of congestive chill.

THE STOKES-GALLOT ASSAULT.—Thos. Stokes, for his late assault upon Mr. F. M. Gallot, of the Louisiana, was before Esquire Horne yesterday for examination. After an investigation of the facts, the magistrate required Stokes to give security in $1500 for his appearance at the criminal court. Stokes was also taken before the recorder on State charge, but the examination was postponed until this morning.

☞ Buy clothing and furnishing goods of Drake & Co., under the Worsham house.

☞ Persons visiting the city who would like to know where they can get the best pictures would do well to visit Bingham's, Main street, opposite the Worsham house. An examination of his specimens will convince one of that fact. He has a fine gallery, and employs the best artists.

☞ The ladies are all agog about the fair, and those of them that believe that John Bell will be President are excited beyond all measure. We would advise them to watch for the result of the elections to-day in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania; in the meantime keep quiet, and while waiting to learn for whom they should vote in order to defeat Lincoln, let them buy a piano with which to amuse their hours of idleness. Sixteen magnificent instruments will be sold this morning by Mesearst. Dupree & Co. These pianos were brought here for the retail trade of this market, and any one of them would adorn the palace of Victoria regina Dei gratia.

COMMITTEE ON COURT HOUSE AND JAIL.—From a communication laid on our table, we learn that we were in error in stating in our Saturday's issue, that a committee had been appointed by the county court to act in concert with that appointed by the city council on the subject of a new court house and jail. It seems that the action of the court is to be entirely independent of and without reference to the committee appointed by the city council. The court passed an order at its session on the first inst., appointing the judge and four members of the court to act with him as a committee to purchase ground and erect a jail, and report plans and specifications, and the probable cost of the new court house to the court at Raleigh, at the next quarterly term. When this jail and court house are finished they will belong exclusively to the county, and are placed by law under the control of the county judge. The committee on the part of the court is composed of gentlemen who have no private ends to meet in the location of the buildings, and they have determined to place no store houses under the court house, as has been suggested, as the law gives the county court no authority to erect business houses.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATRE.—The announcement of Miss Maggie Mitchell in her charming impersonation of "Milly," in the Maid with the Milking Pail, called together a good house at this popular place of amusement last evening. Miss Maggie, as usual, forced a smile into every face, and won the good opinions while she enlivened the good feelings of her auditory. There is a charm about this nymph of the stage which seems to please a Memphis audience beyond measure. Katty O'Shaul and the Goose with the Golden Egg closed the evening's entertainment. To-night, Satan in Paris will be presented, Miss Mitchell impersonating six characters—in all conscience enough of a good thing. The Bonny Fishwife is the afterpiece.

☞ Citizens and strangers buy clothing of Drake & Co., under Worsham house.

IMPROVEMENTS—MEMPHIS VS. NASHVILLE. Yesterday, a party of gentlemen were in conversation on the subject of Memphis improvements, pointing out the numerous features of progress that are continually forcing themselves upon every observer. Building after building was mentioned—iron front business houses, our new magnificent hotel, palatial dwellings, etc., etc.—when one of the party, who had recently visited Nashville, apparently wishing to change the subject, commenced telling of a desperate combat he saw he'ween two gentlemen in the "City of Rocks." After depicting an animated and not bloodless scene, some one asked him how the difficulty originated. "Well," said our friend, "one of the parties said there was one house being built in Nashville, and the other contended that there were two."

CINCINNATI RAILROAD CONVENTION.—The various committees on the subject of a railroad connection between Cincinnati and some southern point, met in Cincinnati on Friday, and after some conversation pertinent to the business before them, a resolution was adopted authorizing the secretary to proceed to Lexing on, or obtain by correspondence with A. G. Gower, engineer of the Lexington and Southern railroad, the surveys and estimates of all southern railroad connections, and report the same to the committee at as early a day as possible. A communication was received from Wm. Bess, Esq., president of the South-western railroad, (McMinnville route,) asking for information, and tendering his services to further the investigations of the committee.

Mayor Baugh and Wm. Kirk, Esq., of Memphis, were present, and entered fully into an explanation of their views in regard to a railway connection with that city.

RETURNED.—Mayor Baugh and Alvin Putney, Esq., arrived from Cincinnati yesterday, the latter gentleman with a piece of household furniture in the shape of a beautiful bride. May love's waters run deep, and, like all deep waters, smooth.

A MAN'S HEAD SAWED IN TWO.—We learn from the Argus that one of the employees in a sawmill at Crockett station, Gibson county, lost his balance and fell within range of the immense saw. The instrument grated through his hair, entered the scalp, and cracked the skull as it passed through. Death—instantaneous death—was of course supposed to have ensued, but the man lingered four hours in nervous agony, every pore of his skin exuding moisture, and his eyes twitching from side to side in a manner most horrible to behold. This dreadful accident occurred last Wednesday, and yet we have not been able to ascertain whether the unfortunate man, whose name was McClure, left any family to shudder at his fate and lament his loss.

☞ It must interest a farmer who has been accustomed to buy lands by the acre to see it sold by the foot and inch, and to see an inch of God's habitable globe sold for enough to buy the best acre of land on a Mississippi plantation. We have seen such men at city auction sales who were not a little puzzled to work out by arithmetical calculations the profitable results of such investments. The calculation is very simple. Take for instance the lot at the corner of Madison and Second streets, now almost the very center of the city; suppose it costs $800 per foot, twenty-four feet will cost nineteen thousand dollars. Suppose a building be erected to cost ten thousand dollars; even now, such an investment of thirty thousand dollars will pay an annual revenue of from four to five thousand dollars, and when the whole street is built up, as is rapidly being done, the rents will be increased, perhaps doubled. Business property always pays the best income, it is permanent, steady, and certain. As a rule, too, the revenues from such property increase, and such is the best heritage a man can leave his children. Negroes may die, the prices of cotton may fluctuate, crops may fail, but the income from such property arises with the coming and going of the year, without care, labor, or anxiety to the owner. The lot referred to above will be sold at auction on Thursday, at 10 o'clock, by Mesearst. Dupree & Co., and we would advise the curious in such matters, as well as capitalists, to attend.

REAPPEARED.—Our friend Cavaline, for some time lying on his oars for the new building of the Gayoso savings' institute to be finished, has opened next door to his old stand, on Adams street, and this morning, at 10 o'clock, spreads a fine collation for his numerous friends.

NOT MUCH OF A FUNERAL PROCESSION.—An Irishman, working at the new pavement on Main street when the Bell-Everett procession passed that way yesterday, hearing the tolling of the bell raised up from his work and leaning upon his spade viewed the pageant for a moment when, resuming his work with redoubled vigor, he exclaimed, "B-jabers, it's not much of a funeral procession after all."

DISORDERLY HOUSE.—For keeping a disorderly house, Maggie Ames was yesterday fined ten dollars by the recorder.

LARCENY.—James Monroe was before Squire Horne yesterday charged with the attempt to steal a box of boots from the steamer Wilthemy Saturday evening. The light fingered gentleman lowered the box through the wheelhouse into the river, and had gained the shore with his prey, when arrested. He was committed for trial before Judge Swayne.

PERSONAL.—Frank Merrielee, late of the steamer Messenger, has concluded to take up his residence among us, and will be gladly welcomed by his numerous friends as a citizen of Memphis.

CONGESTIVE CHILL.—Mr. Thos. H. Merrill, formerly connected with W. M. Hutton in the job printing business, and well known to a large circle of personal friends in this city, died at his residence on Sunday, of congestive chill.

THE STOKES-GALLOT ASSAULT.—Thos. Stokes, for his late assault upon Mr. F. M. Gallot, of the Louisiana, was before Esquire Horne yesterday for examination. After an investigation of the facts, the magistrate required Stokes to give security in $1500 for his appearance at the criminal court. Stokes was also taken before the recorder on State charge, but the examination was postponed until this morning.

Sixteen magnificent instruments will be sold this morning by Mesearst. Dupree & Co. These pianos were brought here for the retail trade of this market, and any one of them would adorn the palace of Victoria regina Dei gratia.

THE FAIR.—Fleming & Lockhart, sole agents for Sands' pale cream ale, have leased stand 38 and fitted up in a superior style, where they will accommodate their customers and admirers of this popular beverage during the fair. Remember the place—sign of the American shield.

REPORTORIAL.—We are pleased to meet in our city once more Mr. S. P. Weaver, formerly connected with the Memphis Enquirer. Mr. Weaver, we understand, resumes his connection with that paper.

BLOODED STOCK.—The steamer City of Louisiana brought from St. Louis on her last trip, a quantity of blooded stock for exhibition at the Fair. Among the rest was the famous trotting stallion Ethan Allen.

$1000 Reward.

FOR NED $800 will be given on his committal to our jail so that I get him, and for any person that will give me such information as will lead to his apprehension and conviction, or in proportion for any number less than five, and in proportion for any number over five, who may be instrumental in the premises. Ned is a very black negro, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and weighs about 160 pounds; has a very pleasant countenance and speaks quick when spoken to; has a very smooth face, and is a very likely negro; has been in the habit of hiring himself out as a hand on the Mississippi river, and has a wife living in Memphis; he has been about Memphis in the last three or four years; he is a black, strong-built negro, and will attempt to pass himself for a free man. Ned was raised in Memphis; he belonged to a man named Brown or Brownlee, in the upper part of the city. Ned is about 25 years old; has teeth, which he shows when he smiles; high forehead; somewhat round shouldered and knock-kneed; weighs about one hundred and twenty pounds; rather long for a negro of his complexion, and usually dressed which he is very fond of; speaks very decided, rather varying anything except in reply, when he is very apt to grin, but seldom or never laughs.
