GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY ON THE 25TH.

The committee of arrangements, composed of the different Douglas clubs of the city, are earnestly requested to meet at Democratic head quarters on Thursday evening, the 18th instant, at 7½ o'clock. Important business requires a full attendance.

WM. H. CANOLL,

Chairman Com. of Arrangements.

STEUBEN ARTILLERY.—The Steuben Artillery will turn out in full uniform to-day at one o'clock. They are a gallant corps, and extend to the other military companies of the city a cordial invitation to join them in their exercises.

ELECTION.—On the last Saturday of this month an election will be held for the officers of the Shelby county agricultural association during the next year.

CALHOUN RESTAURANT.—Messrs. Fisher & Shubart have just opened a new and elegant restaurant in the basement of the Calhoun block, corner of Monroe and Main streets, where they are at all times prepared to serve up in the finest style every delicacy of the season.

FAIR PREMIUMS.—Mr. Charles Dalton, the gentlemanly treasurer of the Shelby county agricultural society, will be found at the establishment of Edmondson & Armstrong during the next thirty days, prepared to pay all premiums awarded at the late exhibition. At the end of thirty days all claims remaining on the books will be canceled.

LARCENY.—A MAN by the name of Weller before Squire Horne yesterday charged with stealing a mule belonging to Shelby county, and a saddle and bridle, the property of Mr. Anderson, superintendent of the poor house, was sent to jail in default of $1500 bail, the evidence being strong against the accused.

PREMIUM CORTON.—The cotton to which was awarded the premium of $150 dollars at the late exhibition of the Shelby county agricultural society, will be sold at auction at the rooms of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce to-day at eleven o'clock. One bale of this cotton was purchased on Tuesday at the high figures of 20 cents per pound, and as fine cotton is just now in particular request, we apprehend the bidding will be spirited.

DIED.—In this city, of consumption, on Tuesday night last, Mrs. ELIZABETH McKNIGHT, wife of Wm. McKnight, of Dyer county, and eldest daughter of the late James McClanahan, of Jacakson, Tenn., aged about twenty-eight years.

This has passed from time to eternity, a meek and gentle spirit. Another angel has been added to the heavenly host who surround the throne of Him who dwelleth in glory, and who, knowing his chosen ones, calleth them early to his presence.

The deceased had been a member of the Presbyterian church for nearly girlhood, and died in the hope of a blissful future beyond the grave.

LARGE SALE OF COTTON.—Yesterday Fowlkes & Co., corner of Jefferson street and the alley between Main and Second, sold to Dwight, Gill & Co., of the Memphis Compressing establishment, 1,644 bales of cotton, at 19½ cents. This is the largest operation reported this season, and involves fully $80,000—a good day's operation for one house.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—Miss Maggie Mitchell continues to perform to delighted audiences at this favorite temple of Thespis. Her rendering of the character of "Fanchonnette," in the popular comedy of Wept of the Wish-ton-Wish, was much admired, and she was well sustained by the whole company. The Goose with the Golden Egg. The Young Prince and A Lady's Stratagem, will be presented to-night.

BRAKEMAN KILLED.—On Tuesday night, a brakeman was run over by a train on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, and immediately killed. A few hours previous to the accident he was seen considerably under the influence of liquor, and it is supposed that he fell asleep on the track

THE COURTS.—The common law, Marcus J. Wright, judge, and the criminal court, Judge Swayne, were in session yesterday, the former in the court room corner of Adams and Second streets, and the latter at Exchange building. The dockets were gone through with in each of these tribunals, but no cases of importance were up.

PREMIUM GUESS PEAS.—H. W. Caruthers, of Hickman county, Kentucky, to whom was awarded a diploma for the best guber peas on exhibition at the recent fair, has handed to M. D. L. Stewart, the efficient secretary of the Shelby county agricultural society, a statement, from which we learn that on thirty acres of ground he raised seventeen hundred bushels of guber peas, one hundred bushels of which he sold at eighty-five cents per bushel, and the balance to W. O. Britton at $1.00 per bushel —aggregating $1,605. The preparation of the ground for the planting of these peas is the same as for cotton, and the peas are drilled in rows twelve or fourteen inches apart, and covered with a harrow.

MASONIC.—The Grand Commandery of the State of Tennessee, at their recent session, elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing twelve months: Sir Lucius J. Polk, of Ashwood, Right Eminent Grand Commander; Sir A. S. Underwood, of Yorkville, Very Eminent Deputy Grand Commander; Sir Oliver K. Donahoe, of Memphis, Grand Generalissimo; Sir John Frizzle, of Winchester, Grand Captain-General; Sir T. J. Drane, of Memphis, Grand Prelate; Sir John H. Deverenx, of Nashville, Grand Senior Warden; Sir Lucius Hawkins, of Columbia, Grand Junior Warden; Sir Morton B. Howell, of Nashville, Grand Recorder; Sir William H. Horn, of Nashville, Grand Treasurer; Sir Hans Lemon, of Memphis, Grand Standard Bearer; Sir William E. McNeil, of Yorkville, Grand Sword Bearer; Sir Henry Stifle, Nashville, of Nashville, Grand Warder; Sir M. E. DeGross, of Nashville, Grand Sentinel.

OIL MEAL.—Have you tried that excellent article of food for stock, oil meal? Several of our citizens, we learn, have laid in their winter's supply. After first testing thoroughly its qualities as a feed, they find it much cheaper than corn at wheat bran. We are glad to see this valuable feed so extensively manufactured in our city, receiving the patronage its merits demand. We say to all our readers who have not yet used the oil meal, try it and be convinced.

TO GARDENERS AND SPECULATORS—FIVE HUNDRED ACRES AT AUCTION.—There has not been offered at auction for ten years past so large and valuable a tract of land as that to be sold on Friday morning next by Mossarrat, Dupree & Co. The five hundred acres lying on the Raleigh plank road, and the Memphis and Ohio railroad will surely attract every one who would select a beautiful site for a residence, or a most productive garden spot. The lots of 5, 10, 15 and 25 acres will be sold by the acre, and when next, if ever brought upon the market, will be disposed of by the foot. Much of the property sold on Friday next will doubtless go off at half its value. A large portion of the tract belongs to a gentleman of London, England, and another third or more of it to one whose interests require his removal to another State. Great bargains may be anticipated for speculators. The sale is positive and without limit. The instructions to the auctioneers are "sell the property, let it bring what it will." A train of cars will leave the foot of Main street at 10 o'clock precisely, to take all who would attend, free of charge, to the place of sale, four miles and a half from the city. A good dinner will be provided. The terms of sale are one-third by the 1st of January, 1861, balance in one and two years.

CORNER STONE.—The ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the First Presbyterian church will be performed this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the site on Court street. The Masonic fraternity will officiate in their ancient and impressive ceremonies. The public are invited to be present.

AGENDA TO RIVER NEWS.—About half past eleven o'clock, last night, the Fairchild, reported to be aground at island 24, came into port. The clerk of the Fairchild contradicts the report, and says they were "only sounding." The Diamond, eleven days from Cincinnati, reached this point about 12 last night. She is well loaded with freight and passengers. To Mr. J. J. Wilson, clerk of steamer Belfast—arrived last night—we are under obligation for the following memoranda: Steamer Belfast, Irwin master, left New Orleans Friday, October 12th, at 54 o'clock, p. m.; met steamer Pinpetta Pacific bend, Maria Denning at Diamond island, Jno. Simonds at Vicksburg taking cotton off of her large; met several boats Sunday night, City of Memphis at Vaudoue, H. R. W. Hill at Greenville bar; 9 ft. water at Greenville; Grand Duke and Hiawatha in Georgetown bend, Victoria in Cypress bend; lost eight hours by fog Monday night; met Great Western at Carson's landing, Uncle Sam at Giddings', Ed. J. Gay at head of island 65, J. S. Pringle at Robson's, South Wester at Friar's point, Red Rover at Delta, Sunny South and Ingomar aground at Helena; Sunny South got off some time in the night; laid by all night at Helena, and pulled the Ingomar off in the morning; met Morrison starting over the bar, met Flying Cloud below Sterling, met Imperial at foot of President island. Leave for New Orleans on Friday at 4 p. m.

FREIGHT OF THE MASONIC GEM.—We learn from Mr. W. H. Haines, the gentlemanly agent of the Eclipse wharf boat, that the Memphis board of underwriters have sent an agent to the scene of the disaster to the Masonic Gem, at Little Island, about 60 miles above the mouth of White river, with instructions to forward her freight on the Frontier City.

REMOVAL.—The house furnishing establishment of Ingraham & Lees has recently been removed from 319 to 293 Main street, Gates & Wood's old stand, in the Brinkley block. These gentlemen do a wholesale and retail business in the line of wooden and willow ware and house furnishing goods generally, and we commend them to those of our readers who want anything in their line.

THE CINCINNATI RAILROAD CONNECTION.—In our council report of yesterday morning we published a synopsis of the report of the committee appointed by council to lay before the citizens of Cincinnati the claims of Memphis to a direct railroad connection. We are enabled to lay before our readers this morning the report in full, which is as follows:

The undersigned delegates, appointed in pursuance of a resolution of your honorable body to repair to the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, and present to the citizens of said city the propriety and necessity of connecting the two cities together by rail, beg leave to report that, in pursuance to said appointment, they went to Cincinnati and had various interviews with the railroad men and a committee appointed in behalf of said city to look especially to her railroad interests, and that the project of filling up the link between Louisville and Bowling Green, so as to make a direct and entire route from the South by the way of Memphis to the North by the way of Cincinnati, was brought to their attention, and presented in as clear and forcible light as we were capable. We are happy to say that we found them alive to their interest upon this subject, and were informed that steps had already been taken to bring about this matter, by assembling the most eligible route, and the most important southern point that would give them the largest trade and the greatest commercial advantage; that this committee had been requested to make a thorough examination in regard to all statistical matters connected with the subject, the topography of the country, the distance from point to point, and the different railroad connections, etc., etc., and report to a future meeting of the citizens. They gave us every assurance that our proposed route should be carefully examined, and all due weight and consideration should be given it. In presenting the importance of this connection, we urged upon said committee to visit our city and witness for themselves the busy hum of business and see the different lines of railroad running into this city, and see the immense fertile country that is now pouring its products and wealth into our storehouses, and in return drawing supplies from our merchants, manufacturers and mechanics.

We would further state that R. B. Bowler, of Cincinnati, a very wealthy gentleman, is the sole owner and proprietor of the railroad from Covington, opposite Cincinnati, to Lexington; and that he is the owner of one-third of the road from Lexington to Danville, and in an interview with him he stated that he would take two hundred thousand dollars of the stock in the proposed route, and we have but little doubt but what he would be willing to increase the amount rather than let the project fail, for the reason that his road is now paying him nothing in comparison to what it will pay if this connection is brought about; in fact it will be the best paying investment he ever made in his life.

Two of your delegation visited Bowling Green, Russellville and Clarksville, and had interviews and talk with the leading railroad men of those places. They ascertained while at Bowling Green that the route proposed from Bowling Green to Danville was entirely practicable and through some of the richest and most productive portions of Kentucky, and that the citizens of those places feel a deep interest in the proposed enterprise and will cordially co-operate with us.

We have no doubt but that this proposed connection will be made at no very distant day, from the fact, that without it, all the trade and travel of the South must necessarily pass through Louisville, Kentucky, before going to Cincinnati, and in many instances will stop at Louisville without going to Cincinnati at all. This being the case, the Queen city is not willing to be thus robbed of her legitimate trade and travel without an effort. Independent of this, Cincinnati is determined to have direct communication with the entire South, and the cheapest and most practicable route is the one herein proposed. But suppose they should determine to build a direct air line route from Louisville to Nashville; in doing so the route would reach a point within twenty-five miles of Bowling Green, and it would be a matter of but comparatively little time and small gaps. Upon the whole, we feel greatly encouraged in the belief that this road will be built at no distant day, and we will have a direct connection as proposed.

GOOD ADVICE.—Those who wish to do good, but hesitate to do it, would do well to read the following. The reason may be suggested to them by the perusal:

Do not delude yourself with the idea that you can please everybody. Who ever knew anybody that was worth anything, that had nobody to find fault with him? You would have to do evil in many cases to please the evil; flatter some to gratify their pride; indulge the selfish, submit to the tyrannical, be a fool for the ambitious, and be careful not to have anything as good as those who desire to have everything superior to their neighbors. If you are a public man, should you be diligent, you must expect to have many secretly dislike you and talk against you for your success; and if you accomplish little, though many show themselves friendly, it often leaks out that some who appear pleasant to you, can do this because they do not fear your rivalry —they may smile upon you outwardly, and entertain contempt for your inefficiency. Always do that which is right, be diligent, do the most you can, pay no regard to ill-feeling, and you will find as many friends as any sensible man need desire.

EXTRAORDINARY SUICIDE.—The son of Mr. Bradbury, of the eminent firm of Bradbury & Evans, of London, printers, and proprietors of Punch and other well-known publications, has recently committed suicide in a remarkable manner. He went to Cremorne gardens and spent the evening in the amusements of that celebrated place. Toward the close of the entertainment he procured silver for a ten pound note, and going to the front of the dancing platform, scattered it among the crowd. He then called for a glass of grog, and having emptied into it a phial of prussic acid, made a speech, proposed the health of the company, drank off his glass, and staggered dead in the midst of that scene of wild riot and confusion. He was a young man of great ability and promise, and was very recently presented with a gold watch by the Emperor of the French, in acknowledgment of the value of an improvement he had made in printing.

Valuable Lands for Sale

WE, the undersigned, Wm. R. Smith, offer at public sale the following lands, to-wit: 1,200 acres of valuable cotton lands, in Carroll county, Mississippi, one mile from Richmond, on Yocona river; no better cotton lands; 240 acres in all seasons between this point and Vicksburg. There are only 300 acres in cultivation, with 100 or more Cleared. The improvements consist of a dwelling house, gin house, and negro quarters, and a comfortable Dwelling. Also, a very Superior Cotton Place, near Clinton, Hinds county, Miss., lying on the Vicksburg and Jackson railroad, containing 640 acres, of which 300 are in a high state of cultivation. On the premises are a good Steam Gin House, Barn, Negro Cabins, and two good cisterns. The Hill Place will be sold on the 15th November next, and the Valley Place on the 20th November.

TERMS—In cash case, one-third cash; balance in one and two years, with 8 per cent. interest from date of delivery, and possession given on the 1st January next.

For further particulars address T. G. Smith, Clinton, Louisiana.

To the Public.

MEMPHIS, TENN., October 17, 1860.

I HAVE received invoiced and patented a UNIVERSAL or CULTIVATING PLOW. For simplicity of construction, for adaptability to all kinds of soils and crops, for durability, for efficiency, for economy, for being changed into any kind of Plows usually used upon a farm, it has no superior.

The Share Plow will be exhibited at the Fair Grounds, near the city, during the present fair. All are invited to call and examine for themselves.

I shall commence the manufacture of the above-named Plow immediately, and will be prepared to fill orders by the first of January next. All orders for Plows, to be filled at a short time, will be thankfully received.

ASTROLOGY!

MADAME CLIFTON

IS now at the MERCHANTS' HOTEL, Room No. 12, Union street, in this city, where she will remain for a few days only. Come one—come all!

Gentlemen and Ladies, Madame Clifton is the greatest Fortune Teller of the age! She succeeds when all others have failed. Private rooms to consult in her profession. In LOVE AFFAIRS she never fails. She has the most astonishing success in Speculation. Madame Clifton shows you the portrait of your future wife, husband, or absent friend. It is well known to the public at large that she is the first and only Fortune Teller who has success in reality, and can give entire satisfaction in all the concerns of life and death. She has thousands, both married and single, who daily visit her, to whom she has given invaluable advice, which they say cost them dear.

Ladies, $1 to $3; Gentlemen, $2 to $4. Extra charge for drawing horoscopes.

SECOND SALE OF LOTS

IN THE CITY OF EUNICE.

A CHANCE to invest in real estate at the city of Eunice, on the south side of the Mississippi, Memphis and Little Rock over railroad. On the 15th day of October, 1860, I will be sold, at public auction, without reserve, a portion of Lots now owned by the Mississippi, Ouachita and Red river railroad company, at the city of Eunice, on the Mississippi river, being the eastern terminus of said road. A plat of the Lots can be seen by calling at the office of the company, at Carolin, or at Capt. Davidson, chief engineer, at the above point. Terms: One-third cash; the balance money will be required to be paid in cash on the day of sale, and the remainder 12 months thereafter, note bearing ten per cent. interest from date. Bills on solvent banks of Tennessee, Louisiana, or approved state drafts on New Orleans, will be taken in payment from purchasers of Lots. The road will be completed and in operation to Memphis by the middle of next month.

A better chance for the investment of capital was never presented, the prospect for the early completion of the road being so flattering. Eunice is a beautiful and when done properly at such point will soon be made to be a city of importance. It is the site of a city will spring up in a few years that will rival in importance any other interior town on the Mississippi river, between St Louis and New Orleans.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, the Steamer Ouachita, a very valuable residence for convenient to and near the business portion of the city. Terms of payment made known on day of sale.

JAS. THOS. ELLIOTT,

President Mississippi, Ouachita and Red river railroad company.
