DOUGLAS CLUBS OF MEMPHIS.

A meeting of all the Douglas and Johnson clubs of the city is requested at Democratic headquarters to-morrow (Monday) evening at half past seven o'clock, to make final arrangements for the reception of Judge Douglas.

RALLY DEMOCRATS OF MEMPHIS.

The Bluff City Douglas and Johnson club, will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday, October 23d, at 7o'clock v. m., to make arrangements for the reception of Douglas and Johnson. All members are requested to be on hand.

SAM. TOON, President.
J. J. BEAL, Secretary.

DOUGLAS IN MEMPHIS.—We are pleased to announce that by private dispatch, received from St. Louis yesterday, we are assured that Mr. Douglas will reach this city Tuesday evening. We will, in this connection, remind our friends that the Memphis and Charleston and the Mississippi and Tennessee railroads will run extra trains on the 24th, bringing passengers to Memphis for full fare, and taking them back on the same tickets, free of charge, which makes the arrangement equivalent to half fare. The Mississippi and Tennessee railroad will run an extra train from Memphis to Hernando, leaving Memphis at 5 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of affording persons visiting Memphis to hear Mr. Douglas, an opportunity to return the same evening. It is hoped that the other roads running into Memphis will make similar arrangements, so that no one may be deserted from hearing and seeing the greatest living statesman through any want of facility or burdensome expense. Arrangements will be made to accommodate the ladies on the occasion of Douglas' speaking, and it is expected that large numbers will attend.

THE COTTON SHIPMENTS BY RIVER.—The shipments of cotton by the river for the week ending last night, as we learn from J. R. Coleman, assistant wharfmaster, were as follows:

New Orleans	540
Ohio river	2000
St. Louis	2200
Total	12,740

The imports from all sources during the same time, as shown by the books of the Chamber of Commerce, aggregated 14,892 bales.

BLUFF CITY COURSE.—There was a very good attendance at the Bluff City trotting course, near the fair grounds, yesterday, to witness the contest for the $100 purse, mile heats, best three in five, for which there were four entries. The sport was somewhat marred by the ease with which Cowan's "Putnam" led the course, winning the purse in three straight heats. We affix a

DEATH OF A MOST ESTIMABLE CITIZEN.—Mr. John H. Harrison, widely known and generally esteemed in Shelby county for his many fine qualities, departed this life at the residence of his father, at Germantown, in this county, on the evening of the 19th inst. Mr. Harrison was for five or six years deputy clerk of the Shelby county court, and for two years past notary public and commissioner of deeds for all the States in the Union. In performing the duties of these positions, he came in contact with a large class of the community, and possessed the happy faculty of making friends of those with whom he dealt. Mr. Harrison was a young man of much promise, and in his demise the community has lost an ornament and his aged parents an affectionate and hopefull son. If sympathy cannot remove, it may sometimes relieve sorrow, and we are sure his family have the earnest condolence of his numerous and devoted friends. The funeral will take place from the residence of his father, at Germantown, on Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock.

IRON TIEPOSS COTTON BALES.—Last season our old friends and neighbors, W. Howard & Co., succeeded in introducing to the attention of some of the planters in this region the celebrated Fassman's iron tie for cotton bales. The sales of the article at first were quite limited, but the test made of its merits by a few planters last year has this season brought it almost into general use by all who have any knowledge of its superiority over every other mode of fastening cotton. To give an idea of the popularity of this tie, we have only to state that the Messrs. Howard have sold during the present season some 4,000 bundles, 2,000 bundles of which have been shipped to their patrons from this city, and the balance delivered along the river below this point. The demand is daily increasing, and it is with the utmost difficulty, that the Messrs. Howard can keep a sufficient supply on hand to meet their orders.

FOOD FOR BEAST.—The attention of all good feeders is called to that cheap, nutritious and economical food for stock of all kinds, oil meal, as manufactured by Fenten & Co., 69 navy yard building. This valuable food can always be had at this establishment fresh ground and nicely put up in 100 lb. sacks, ready for use. To hose having cows to feed, this oil meal will increase their milk one-third, and that of an extremely rich and pleasant flavor. This is the experience of those who have tested its real merits. As the winter season approaches, we are told the demand rapidly increases for the meal.

CHRISTMAN FAIRIES.—We are pleased to see that an addition to the literary productions of Memphis genius is to press, from the pen of Sophie May, whose contributions to the Memphis press render her name not altogether unknown to the Memphis public. The work is a Christmas juvenile, entitled "Christmas Fairies," which will be issued from the press by the first of December, and is published by the well-known firm of Geo. Pattison & C., No. 263, Main street. From the title of the work, and the graceful pen which the lady wields, we may safely anticipate an imaginative production of considerable merit.

AN OLD AND USEFUL CITIZEN GONE.—We have this morning to record the death of Wm. Armour, Sr., who died yesterday morning at his residence near this city, in his sixty-second year. Mr. Armour originally came from Baltimore, Maryland, but has been identified with the business interests of West Tennessee for the past forty years, having been the principal of the firm of Armour & Lake, of Jackson, a cotton firm, which in its day was as widely known as any house in Tennessee, and subsequently largely interested in the cotton business in New Orleans. Mr. Armour retired from business some years since and settled near this city, where, after an active and useful life, he has finally fallen with the autumn leaves, and gone to his reward. He will be mourned by many warm friends, and an affectionate family. His funeral will take place from St. Mary's church, this evening at 3 o'clock.

CITY COUNCIL.—Council finally procured a quorum on Friday afternoon, when the board proceeded to business according to the call previously made. An ordinance was presented by Ald. Frazier, providing that should the county locate the jail in the city of Memphis, the privilege be granted to construct the necessary sewers underground; but in case the said sewers get out of repair, the county to repair and place the street or alley along which it runs in good condition. The rules being suspended, this ordinance passed a second and final reading. It was also resolved by the board that the city will consent to any sale which may be made by the navy yard tenants to the county of Shelby for the site of a jail, so far as the claims in the leases against subletting is concerned, and that the city will make a warantee deed to the county upon satisfactory payment; provided such deed will not conflict with the trust now on the navy yard property. The mayor called the attention of the board to the question of the validity of tax sales under the present system, whereupon Ald. Hughes moved that the mayor and finance committee be authorized to investigate the matter with power to act, which was carried.

THE SABBATH.—Again the busy hum of the week is ended. The clang of the hammer and the clamor of the exchange are arrested by the quiet of the "day of rest." Nature, in her countless forms, seems to put on a more lovely aspect as seen through the quiet of the Sabbath day. The very air comes in softer gusts, or the whistle of the wind is set to a sweeter melody when all things feel repose. The husbandman exchanges the field for the chapel, the plow stands neglected in the furrow, the ox is released from his yoke; the denizen of the marts of commerce, the crowds that throng our busy streets in quest of gain, the clerk at the counter and the accountant at the desk, to-day rest from the toils and cares of secular affairs. The child deserts its toys for the Sabbath school, and numberless tiny feet clatter upon our pavements wearing their sunniest smiles and fairest curls, on the way to the house of God. Maturity in its vigor and age in its decline listen with reverence while

Of God's unsearchest rainbow tells."

The smoke from the battle of politics lifts a little from the field of strife, and through the rifts in the clouds which obscure what we would fain hope to be the brightness of the future, the azure blue of heaven looks as serenely down as though a great country was not being poised in the balance of a vexed and doubtful destiny. A great people have stilled for a while their conflicting passions, and a great nation, like a child weary with its ceaseless play, lies hushed and still in the arms of the sacred sabbath—that day which God appointed to be observed as a day of rest from all secular labor or employments, and to be kept holy and consecrated to his service and worship. It was originally the seventh day of the week on which God rested from the work of creation, and this day is still observed by some denominations of Christians, and the Jews, who do not recognize the motives which induced the body of the Christian church to keep holy the first instead of the last day of the week. At a very early day the Christians began to observe the first day of the week, in commemoration of the resurrection of Christ on that day, by which God's plan of the redemption was completed. From this fact arises the name often given to the Sabbath, of the Lord's day. By the heathen nations in the north of Europe this day was dedicated to the sun, and hence their Christian descendants still continue to denominate it "Sunday." In this country, however, Christians have generally discarded the heathen and adopted the Jewish name, Sabbath, which is not strictly synonymous with Sunday, the latter being merely the name of the day, while Sabbath is the name of the institutions of the day. Sunday is the Sabbath of the Christians—Saturday is the Sabbath of the Jews.

THE CASE OF HINES, THE POLICEMAN. B. F. Hines, the policeman to whom we mentioned yesterday as having been arrested for abusing a slave and assaulting the mistress and her two daughters, was before 'Squire Hill yesterday morning on a charge of assault and battery, said out by the ladies whom he so brutally treated. No one appearing against him he was remanded to jail, and in default of $20 fine and $1.50 costs he will have one hundred and three days service to perform for the city. So much for the pleasure of a spree while on duty.

MORTUARY.—The report of the board of health show the following interments as having been made during the week ending at one o'clock yesterday, by the city sextons, as nearly: Hotel 18, Flaherty 14, Smith 3—total 35.

NASHVILLE RACES.—Through the politeness of Col. Stone, secretary of the Memphis jockey club, we learn that the citizens' purse of $100, heats of four miles, run yesterday at Nashville—in which there were three entries, namely Payne's ch. g. by Ringold, dam by Trustee; McGavock's St. Patrick, by Shamrock, dam Corsica, by Leviathan, and Campbell's Joe Stoner—Joe Stoner won in a gallop, and Payne's horse was distanced in first heat, when bets were offered of one hundred to ten on Joe Stoner. Time—8:29, 8:29½ 8:33½.

A FIRST CLASS SALOON FOR SALE.—The splendid and very popular saloon in Anderson alley, between Main a reet and Front Row, known as the "Cabinet," is now offered for sale, with or without fixtures. The proprietor, on account of health, is obliged to retire from the business. This is a rare chance for any person wishing to purchase, as it is now doing a first rate business.

BACK STOCK.—The steamer Atlantic left Louisville on Wednesday last, for this port with a fine stock of horses on board for the Memphis races, including race horses, and trotting horses. Among the number was Keene Richard's string of four, with Betty Ward, and Magenta, Mr. Foley's s h c, with Lightning and three others, and the trotting stock of Mr. Wilson, of Maryland, with Reindeer at the head. It is expected that she will reach this port to-day.

THE COURTS.—In consequence of the illness of Judge Dixon, the common law court was not in session yesterday. In the criminal court, Judge Swayne, the court was engaged yesterday on the misdemeanor docket. Nothing of general interest transpired.

FINE ARTS.—From an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Clark & Remington, corner Main and Madison streets, take photographs, ambrotypes, ivorytypes, spherotypes and life-sized photographs on canvas, painted in the finest styles of art. Give them a call.

COTTON RECEIPTS.—The receipts of cotton into this port for the week ending last evening, were 14,892 bales, as shown by the books of the Chamber of Commerce. Yesterday's receipts were as follows:

Memphis and Charleston railroad	691
Mississippi and Tennessee railroad	942
Memphis and Ohio railroad	1000
Memphis and Little Rock railroad	1
River	85
Total	1677

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH AT ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—Services every Sabbat at 11 o'clock, A. M. and 7½ P. M. Lecture Sunday night on Mathew, 8-12, "The children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth." All persons contributing to the support of public worship in the hall, are specially requested to meet at 9 o'clock Sunday morning upon important business.

☞ Cotton shippers will do well to give attention to the notice of the agent of the Chickasaw cotton press, to be found in our advertising columns this morning.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN

STAR AND TALLOW CANDLES;

Oleine, German and Palm Soap,

LARD OIL, PEARL STARCH;

FANCY SOAPS.

Candles Sold by Actual Weight.

☞ It is well known that many Star Candles that are really sewed in the round are branded and sold as "sixes." There is a disadvantage and a loss in this practice to both retailers and consumers, even if the Candles are bought at a 10 cents or two cents per lb. from the price of the regular article. Thus:

A box of "Sixes," GROSS WEIGHT, contains 240 Candles, and is sold for 40 lb. at 40 cts. 16.00.....$12.20

A box of Sevens, containing the same number of Candles, same gross, is sold for 34 lb., ACTUAL WEIGHT, at 20 cts. 6.80

Difference in favor of tossing by weight 40

And this difference becomes greater as the price advances. It is obvious that the retailer can get no more for his 340 Candles in one case than in the other, consequently on every hundred boxes of "short weight" do sold, he loses FORTY DOLLARS. oct13-dawtw
