A WORD ABOUT COCOAINE OIL.—It is a well known fact that the use of this oil as a cosmetic has been universal among the people of India for ages. No oils or oil could have given the beauty, luxuriance and great abundance of hair, which has so little from the admiration of travelers in that new E. In the year 1856, Messrs. Joseph Burnett & Co. turned their scientific and pharmaceutical knowledge toward producing a compound which shall have for its basis Cocoanut Oil. Shortly after they offered to the public a compound in which the oil is permanently doodorized, adding to COCOAINE, a name and an article which has since become famous. No other preparation possesses such nutritive properties for promoting the growth and preserving the beauty of the human hair.—R. O. True Delta.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.—Whoever is troubled with Coughs, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, will find these lozenges a most valuable remedy. Taken, or two in each of the day, those at all inclined to hoarseness should not be without them. They are prepared by Wm. Ayer, Brown & Son, who, as good sources, stand among the best in this city, and are sold by all the principal druggists.—Boston Journal.

DR. MORTIMER, OF LOUISVILLE, KY., Who devotes his time exclusively to the treatment of the various forms of Chronic Disease, will make his usual visit to Memphis and will be at the Worsham House, on Monday December 3d, and remain one week, where those who are afflicted, and who desire to, can consult him.

His treatment embraces Rheumatism in all its various forms, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Lumbago, Diseases of the Kidneys or Spine, Diseases of the Womb and Bladder, Affections of the Heart and Pulmonary Organs, Weakness and Nervous Affections, brought on by general debility, or other causes.

Dr. M. is equally in treatment of such complaints as probably known to the citizens of Memphis and those in the surrounding country, he has no great need to refer those who could that could come to him elsewhere, as also throughout the South.

He does not visit Memphis as an adventurer or stranger, but comes at the solicitation of many warm personal friends, whom he can refer to a large number of prominent citizens. He charges no consultation fees, but, after an interview, if he can desire to place himself under his treatment, satisfactory and proper arrangements can be made.

Dr. M. has devoted his study to work upon the diseases of the sexual system, and has gained a reputation in certain diseases, but fears his treatment on the principles of common sense. Hence, in unbosom of the origin, cause and character of the disease, and then apply the proper remedies. Neither does he confound the proper, and commonsense efforts of all practitioners of the profession, but relate superior science or knowledge, other than that gained by constant investigation and by long, extensive and varied practice. This it is that now gives a peculiar success to his cures.

After interview and consultation, if patients desire it, they will be placed under treatment, which will be continued by correspondence, and remedies furnished there time follows, as the case or character demand. In this way he has, during the past few years, treated many patients in several thousand cases throughout the Southern States.

Having always on hand a large and substantially increasing number of patients it is with pleasure that Dr. M. announces to his old and new friends in the South that he has associated with him in practice L. Leonidas Lorrain, M. D., a gentleman of high attainments, long and favorably known in practice, as a regular member of the medical profession, who will accompany him in his visit to Memphis. Nashville, Natchez and New Orleans on the coming winter and spring.

Dr. M. or L. will spend the entire summer and remain in New Orleans from January to the April n20-1w

TO ADVERTISERS.

☞ All advertisements of Wants, For Sale and Rent, Lost and Found, Steamboat departures, etc., not exceeding five lines, are inserted in the APPEAL, under proper headings, at 50 cents for one insertion, two lines for [illegible] cents, and one week for $1.50, payable invariably in advance.

☞ Cardigan knit jacks at Sproule & McCown's, under Worsham house.

THANKS.—We thank Fisher, of the Worsham House, for late New Orleans papers. He has all the periodicals.

INSPECTION.—Our city council are about substituting voluntary for compulsory inspection of merchantable articles.

☞ Dr. Edmonds has removed his residence to the north side of Beal street, second house west of the Medical college. [24-2t*

GENT'S SHAWLS.—The largest stock of gent's shawls in the city can be seen at Sproule & McCown's, which they are selling at great by reduced prices.

LIQUID AND SOLID.—The police placed H. Harris in the station house yesterday; he had about two pints, ten dollars, and a part of a barrel of whisky.

☞ This morning, at 10 o'clock, will be sold at 262 Main street, a variety of chairs, mats, tubs, buckets in mats, furniture, and all sorts of wooden ware. Housekeepers, attend.

ESCAPED.—As the Neptune was leaving the wharf, on Thursday evening, one of the deck hands became entangled in the line and was drawn overboard. He was rescued, but the escape was a narrow one.

THE "HOME."—The ladies of the Home for the Homless association are making their last arrangements for commencing active operations. They meet in a few days to appoint a matron.

LARCENY.—James Maloy was yesterday arrested on the charge of robbing an Irishman, a fellow-boarder of his, at a house on Gayoso street. He looks upon the whole story as an erroneous presentation of his true character.

ALABAMA UNSTEADY.—An Alabama young gentleman was looked up at the station house for making a mistake in some spiritual experiments he tried. Instead of the table tipping it stood still with a tumbler on it, and young Alabama tipped himself—unluckily he tipped over.

LOST AND RECOVERED.—On Wednesday a thief stole from the warehouse of Elliott & Vinson a trunk that had been stored with them. It was afterward found in an uncovered shed on Gayoso street, east of DeSoto. The thief had probably become alarmed, for the trunk had apparently never been unlocked.

LOVELY WOMAN.—A specimen of crinoline, thoroughly delivered by the special gifts of spirits to abnormal influences, was yesterday so corrupt in the sublimity of ecstacy, that she was brought to the station house on a dray, her exaltation reaching beyond the ken to which people do so common an act as walking.

MUSICAL.—We call attention this morning to the advertisement, in another column, of Anthony & Joshua Motley. Joshua has recently come here from Virginia, where he had a high reputation as an excellent servant, an unsurpassed violinist, and prompter of the most fashionable dancers, including Les Lonciers, etc. Anthony has already a fine reputation here.

TRIAL OF SHEPPARD.—"The Vicksburg Sentinel of Wednesday says: "The trial of D. J. Sheppard for the homicide of Col. W. D. Ray, was commenced yesterday—Col. T. S. Martin and Van A. W. Anderson representing the State, and Thos. A. Marshall and C. L. Buck appearing for the defense. The entire day was exhausted in endeavoring to empanel a jury, but without success, only also being obtained out of the extra and regular venire of one hundred men."

THE THEATRE.—Once more and for the last time, the popular Collins Bates, will be presented in the theater. Such a run as it has had, such an unflattering and continued tide of popularity, is almost unprecedented in this city. Collins, the great and sole representative of the old Irish gentleman, makes his farewell now this evening. The universally attractive afterpiece of Forty and Fifty will follow Collins Bates. This is a great Saturday night's bill.

THE WATER GAGE.—We learn from the city engineer that the water gage now being put down at the foot of Union street will be so constructed that a dial, like the dial of a clock, will show the hight of the water above low water mark, and also above the imaginary line upon which the grading of a city is constructed. This will be accomplished by means of two concentric rows of figures to which an index hand will point simultaneously.

THE CAMPBELLS.—As an antidote to the miserable weather, as a pleasing stimulant to the spirits after the cares and labors of the day, as an agreeable variation of the "work, rest, and bed," style of passing through life, a visit to the Campbells's rich treat. Mirth, so chaste and genial, music so sweet, melodious and gushing are seldom accessible, and the opportunity of realizing a little enjoyment should be seized while the Campbell troupe remain in the city. The bill for this evening is an excellent one, some of the companies finest pieces will be brought out.

A GOLD MINE AT DES ARC, ARK.—The enterprising citizens of Des Arc, Arkansas, have been for sometime engaged in boring an artesian well. The Citizen, published at that place, states: "While we are going to press, the report is prevalent about town of the discovery of gold by the workmen engaged at the artesian well. The excitement occasioned by this cause is easier imagined than described. Several small pieces have been dug out which are pronounced by those pasted in such matters the genuine stuff. Should it prove to be so, the vein is a rich one."

MEMPHIS MEDICAL COLLEGE.—We are glad to hear of the success of our Medical college. We learn that the class is larger than it has been for several years. We are also glad to learn that the young professors, appointed to places in the school last summer, are giving great satisfaction. They are proving themselves laborious and fine organists, and we are assured, on all hands, are highly popular with the class, which is represented as being one of the most intelligent ever assembled in the Memphis Medical college. Everything about the college gives promise of a prosperous future.

CITY EXPENDITURES.—At length we have an officer who shows a willingness to allow the people to know how their money is spent. The incumbent of the office of city controller, W. O. Ledford, Esq., is issuing twice a month a statement of the city expenditure. From his last report, we learn that the total payments by the city during the preceding two weeks amounted to $36,840.95. The expenses of supporting the city prisoners amounted to $1,180.60; bills payable are set down at $18,788 23; the police department $4,525.41; ledger balances $3,081; secret police $77.60. It will be seen that criminals, and officers to look after them, cost a large sum; it must be borne in mind that there is a large offset against this outlay in the receipts of fines at the recorder's office.

MATINEE MUSICALE.—We learn from Signor Carlo Patti, President of the Memphis Philharmonic society, that the first great concert of the new association will take place at 3 o'clock to the afternoon of Thursday next. Much care has been exercised in the selections. We hear there will be two overtures from two pianos and a full band, two piano solos from Katzenbach and Seigfert, a violin solo from Patti, a cornet-a-piston solo from George Handwerker, a solo on the celebrated instrument the tuba Euro from Pfeiffenschlager, besides other instrumental and vocal music. This day concert will initiate the successful plan of matinee musicale by which the public, especially the ladies, are spared the dangerous of attending a night concert at this time of the year, when darkness, mud, and inclement weather interfere with enjoyment. We hope great success will crown the first matinee musicale of the Memphis Philharmonic society.

MERCHANT'S MEETING POSTPONED.—It was generally understood yesterday that the members of the Merchants' Exchange would hold a meeting to consider the condition of the financial question as it now presents itself. It was generally believed that resolutions would be proposed looking upon the policy considered advisable for our banks to take under the present circumstances. A large number of gentlemen appeared at the exchange room on north side of Court square, but it was announced to them that, after a conference with parties interested upon the matter likely to form the principal subject of attention at the meeting, the board of officers at the Chamber of Commerce had postponed the intended meeting.

THE WEATHER.—The weather yesterday was a topic of universal discussion, or as Sambo pronounces it, of "discussis," for curses were frequent and of a warmth in precise inverse ratio to the indications of the thermometer. Snow, and sleet, and mud, a leaden sky, and depressing influences generally contributed to make the streets like any thing but "the good time coming boys" that has been so often sung but is not yet realized. At noon the clouds broke, and the bright sun once more gladdened the earth with smiles and brightness. A cold wind blew up and ice was rapidly formed in exposed and shady places. As we write a heavy frost seems inevitable.

PANCOASTIC.—Pancoast has this season increased the variety of his usual supply of good things—to his splendid Baltimore keg oysters he has added those grand luxuries, the Norfolk keg oysters. Game, chickens, celery, and a crowd of delicious comforts are to be found at his store, on Madison street, next door to Specht's saloon.

DEATH OF R. A. SAMPLE.—The police held a meeting at the station house on Tuesday, officer McIlvane in the chair, when resolutions were adopted expressive of high respect for the deceased as an officer, and of sympathy with his surviving partner. The station house will be draped in mourning, and each of the police will wear a badge of mourning for ten days.

CRIMINAL COURT.—John Myers was yesterday found guilty of attempted manslaughter. He was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. Peter O'Keefe was put on his trial for rescuing a prisoner from an officer.

POLICE CHANGES.—Officer Tucker has been appointed captain of the night police, in place of Collier, deposed. W. W. Jacobs has been temporarily put in his previous office as second lieutenant of the day police.

STEALING A COAT.—Wm. Young was yesterday put in jail on the charge of stealing a black coat from Loving's boarding house on Union street. He was arrested by Frank Byrd.

CHAIN-GANGED.—Jack Sheppard, the inventor of a street name, was put on the chain gang for swindling a young fellow at the Mexican ball game.

BUT AGAIN DI HAMBRE.—Ex-Officer Boyt, whose second a test we mentioned, was again let out of jail yesterday, there being no charge against him.

MYNATT'S TRIAL.—The trial of Mynatt for killing Webb was proceeding at Somerville on yesterday. The evidence was gone through on Thursday.

☞ Go to Sproule & McCown's for overcoats, business suits, velvet vests, and gent's undervest.

SWINDLING.—W. H. Fitch, connected with Dimond and Moran, the counterfeiters, has been arrested on the charge of swindling.

☞ Warm clothing, all-wool undershirts, drawers, half hose, etc., at Sproule & McCown's.

Riot at a Funeral---One Man Killed and Two others Dangerously wounded.

We have the painful duty to chronicle a much regretted affair (says the Detroit Tribune of Monday), which resulted in the death of one man and the wounding of two others. The news relative to the matter came to hand so late that it is impossible to give the full particulars, but what we have we place before our readers:

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, about three miles out on the Fort Gratiot road, there was a funeral, and some parties (Irishmen, we understand, by birth) went into Anthony Sellmann's grocery and asked the bar-keeper to treat them to liquor, and he responded by saying that if they wanted it they must pay for it. At this the Irishmen set upon him and were beating him roundly, when Mr. Sellmann interfered, and the melee was transferred to the road, where rails, clubs, etc., were used as weapons offensive and defensive. During the fight a German by the name of Casper Schwartz was deadfully cut on the head, and struck on the back with a fence-rail. Two other Germans, named respectively William Nuernberger and John Hagele, were badly wounded, the first-named being at the present writing in a critical condition. This morning about seven o'clock Mr. Schwartz died from the injuries received. He is represented as a hard-working farmer, and leaves a wife and seven children almost destitute. The four parties accused of being the principals in the murderous affair, with some others, were arraigned before Justice Kunz, and lodged in jail. We understand that a man by the name of Sheehan, another by the name of Bourdon and one by the name of Moynahan were the parties, apprehended, as also another individual whose name we had not learned at the time of putting this issue of the Tribune to press.

ANECDOTE OF JEROME BONAPARTE'S FIRST WIFE.—A good anecdote is told of Mrs. Patterson, of Baltimore, the lady connected with the Bonaparte family by marriage. Being in Italy, at an evening party, it fell to her lot to be handed in to the supper table by a young English nobleman, who had a good share of the puppy in his composition. Thinking to quiz the old lady, he said, "You are acquainted with the Americans, I believe, Madam?" "Yes, sir," "A more rously vulgar people, aren't they?" "Yes, but what could you expect when you consider that they are descended from the English?" Had this gentleman, now, been Italians or Spaniards, we might look for some good breeding among them." The nobleman did not venture to address Mrs. Patterson again that evening.

SOCIETY FOR LOVE.—Mary Smith, of New berry, Md., found last week that her lover was ready enough to entertain any affection for her, and at a late hour in the night rose from her bed and walked to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, where she sat down to wait for the express. On hearing it approach, she threw her night robe around her head and laid down on the track. In a moment her headless corpse rolled down the embankment.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a regular meeting of Shelby Lodge, No 51, I. O. F., on the 19th of November, 1860, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise Creator to take from us Bro. Wm. L. Winsford, who died on the 20th of October, 1860, in the thirty-third year of his age, we, therefore, adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved, That through we bow with humble submission to the decrees of an unerring God, yet we feel deeply this dispensation, and will cherish in our memories the many virtues of our departed brother.

Resolved, That we tender to the widow and children of our deceased brother our condolence and assistance, and the secretary be authorized to furnish them with a copy of these resolutions.

Resolved, That in respect to his memory, we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be published in the Memphis Appeal.

WM. R. WALKER, WESLEY MOOR, J. G. HARVY, Committee.

BENJ. J. F. OWEN, Secretary.

ST. LOUIS, November 22.—The Mississippi river at this point is rising slowly. The Illinois is rising. The Missouri and Upper Mississippi are reported to be on the decline.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

RIVER, WEATHER AND BUSINESS.—The weather was miserable yesterday morning, snow sleet and mud combining to make loading boats almost an impossibility, and several were incredibly detained in consequence. In the afternoon it turned to fine weather and wind and tide. The river continued to rise.....The arrivals were the following: From Nashville, the James Johnson, Kentucky from Louisville the B. J. Adams, Lecompte, E. W. Roberts from St. Louis, A. F. Dowell from Cincinnati, the Judge Fletcher from New Orleans, the W. Bishop, J. Lucas, Hesperian, Ben Sherrod, White river, Hazel Dell, Yallbusha, Tishomingo, the Victoria. The departures during the same time, are reported in the chamber of commerce, were the following: To New Orleans, the Johnson, Adams, Lecompte, Roberts, Sherrod, Hesperian, Hazel Dell, Yallbusha, Victoria. The Ed. J. Gay has laid up until Friday next, when she will take her regular place among the New Orleans boats.....The Admiral left for White river this evening with a very good trip.....The Lady Franklin was offered for sale yesterday, but no bids were made, and certainly start for Cincinnati at 4 o'clock this evening.....The H. R. W. Hill came in from New Orleans with a good trip. She is much injured and her owners can be greatly relieved, the extent of insurance being required from the owners. She refloated yesterday.....Captain Wm. McDowell arrived here yesterday in advance of his boat, the Charles, coming by rail by way of Cairo.....The Charles is from St. Louis, and will pass down this morning for New Orleans.....The Venus passed the Bluffs on her way up. She had no doubt a big hole on the bank where she struck the water in not over her bow; off the wheelhouse it covered the boiler. She appears to be well, but it cannot over-estimate whether she can or not be repaired.....The Monarch picked up about 300 bales of her unloaded the back on to Cincinnati; and for which she will claim salvage.....The I. M. Kennett passed down from St. Louis for New Orleans.....The Ben Franklin passed down on Monday evening, with a fine trip. The river is very near stationary. There are six feet only in the channel out to Cairo, and any amount of water below Cairo. The lower Ohio is in good stage. The upper Mississippi is reported swelling very little at Keokuk. There are three feet on the lower rapids, and five feet want from Keokuk down. The Missouri river was falling slowly at last accounts.....

The Louisville Courier states that the river continues to fall rather fast, with seven feet water in the canal to the mark last evening at dark..... The Cumberland river was falling rather slow, with only two feet water reported on Harpeth shoals. The Sam Kirkman had arrived from and departed for the Ohio.....

The Cincinnati Commercial of the same day says: At the hour of our last issue, the river was falling slowly. Here, the river has receded six inches during the past twenty-four hours.....The Ben Ada arrives on Saturday night. The river at this point is fallen, with three and a half feet water in the channel to the mouth, and has but two feet in the canal.

MISCELLANEOUS.—The St. Louis Republican, of Thursday, says of the steamer Alonzo Child: The well known of the Mississippi, which has bravely fought the tides and currents, snags and sand bars, for a number of years, has re-appeared at our wharf again, totally transformed, vastly improved, splendid in appearance, and ready for the river. The Alech Scott is the most widely known steamer on the western waters. Captain Robert A. Reilly, her present owner and commander, has recently expended nearly $12,000, in improving and refitting her boat, which proves that she is a blessed good for several years service. Her hull is sound as a new dollar, and strong as a shaved. The hull has been lightened about eighteen inches, and new drafts drew rest nine inches light. This will improve her freight capacity wonderfully, and she will be capable of passing in all stages of water. Her boiler deck is immense, and will hold a vast amount of light freight. The St. Louis for New Orleans on Saturday next.....

The St. Louis Republican of Thursday, says of the new steamer Yuba: The new steamer Yuba, Capt. Jas. Yuba Pool is two hundred and seventy feet in length, forty feet beam, and eight feet hold. She has four boilers thirty feet long and forty-six inches in diameter. Her cylinders are twenty-five inches in diameter, with eight feet stroke, working a water wheel thirty-four feet in diameter, with fourteen and a half feet bucket. The Henry Von Phul is supplied with all the modern improvements in machinery. She has a Lane steam fire engine, which is a great safeguard and also other ropes, which cannot burn or be injured, and rather. The cabin is very neat and tasteful, and is the very ideal of comfort. The rooms are unusually large—eight by eight, and eight by ten feet—and state accommodations can be furnished with first class cabin accommodations. The Henry Von Phul is owned by Messrs. J. A. R. Walsh and Captain P. Gorman, and was built at a cost of $60,000. She will come down to the levee this evening, and will leave for the S. with on Sunday morning next.....

The Lucy Bell is expected under wire. The discharge was opened at Pump island, but got off and the McDowell had some trouble there.....The Louisville Courier says: "Freights for the South, at this point, and all along the Ohio river are scarcer at this season of the year than we have ever known. The park season, however, has fully commenced, and an improvement in shipments may be expected.....

The same paper states: "The Atlantic yesterday was receiving a portion of the deck load of the Tecumseh, that sank at the head of the canal Sunday. The John Change was down yesterday from Cincinnati with three marine or steam pumps to be used to try and raise the Tecumseh. In the evening arrangements were made to build bulkheads in the after part of the boat, also to draw a temporary floor and clear the hatch, and that morning three marine pumps will be set to work and it is expected that she will be afloat in a few hours after they get fairly at work.....

The same paper says: The mail boats are unusually receiving small lots of sheet railroad iron, manufactured here, for Cincinnati. That is a curse in trade.....Capt. Blanchard has sold the St. Jacques to Mr. Alex. O'Neil. She is in at Shawhown.....A Cairo correspondent says: Freights by rail are strictly a mere trifle, and shipping will probably be stopped.....The Ben Ark Clifton sure a new boat, the Tom Sugg, has appeared lately she is under the command of Capt. Harvey, of that place.
