RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

WIND, WEATHER AND BUSINESS.—The river rises with rapidity. At St. Louis, says the Republican of Wednesday, the river is swelling at the rate of two inches in twenty-four hours, and at dark last evening the whole rise since Saturday was about five inches. The last arrivals from lower report from Troy down to the channel cut to Cairo. At Quincy there was a rise of 10 inches, and still rising. The Louisville Courier of the same date reports that the river was falling very slowly yesterday, and was about at a stand in the evening, with six feet two inches water in the canal by the gauge. During the previous twenty-four hours the river had fallen only six inches. The Cincinnati Commercial, of Wednesday, says: "At Pittsburg, last night, the river was 18 feet and rising. At Wheeling, 10 feet and rising, with 10 feet and rising at Parkersburg. Here the river has stealthily but steadily kept up for some twenty-four hours. The Kanawha had fallen four feet at the mouth, on Monday, and all the tributaries between Kanawha and Cincinnati were pouring out freely."——The Party, from St. Louis, has not yet been heard from here, and we fear that the Jim Bee (of Nashville, Skylark, Wildcat, Rose, Pike, Rose of Sharon, Nashville and Orleans) from New Orleans for the Prima Donna and Mailman, from Pittsburg, for Orleans the National and Rebel, (Mail) from Louisville the Republic, from St. Louis the J. D. Swan, from Pittsburg the H. D. Mears, the Dunleith from New Orleans, also the Minnie Gem for the river.——The Victoria leaves to-morrow for Louisville.——The Hard Doll starts for White River this evening.

BY TELEGRAPH.—The Cincinnati Commercial says that the Ohio was rose in comparatively light, but a very fine business was done until 10 of yesterday, when the Memphis arrived full up at Cairo. It is stated that the others and crews of the Memphis and Vicksburg United States mail packets have addressed a communication to Capt. McMahon, expressive of their sympathy in a recent affair on board, and that they will, from a decided improvement in the business of the line.

The Platte Valley, on her up trip, found it impossible to get up with her freight, and discharged at Mt. Vernon. Other yellow bales of wool came from the wreck of the Post Boy, and 1,000 sacks of cotton are. The Platte carried twenty-five bales between St. Louis and Cairo, most of them aground, the rest little bedfast.——Packet T. L. McNeil, Capt. Callahan, bound from St. Louis to New Orleans, broke over one hundred feet of levee at Kinney Point, five miles above Cape Girardeau, by sticking snags and logs. She was rendered safe to continue her trip to New Orleans, and accordingly discharged her freight at Cairo, and went up to Cairo, and was at Cairo, on Monday night, with her freight and passengers and stock were reshipped on the City of Louisiana for New Orleans.

Boats Leaving.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The handsome and convenient Mail Packet Capt. Dave Morris, will leave this evening for White river. W. F. Hanna, Eclipse wharf boat, agent.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The splendid fast running packet Florida, Capt. Scully, leaves this evening at five o'clock. Elliott, Pickett & Co. are the agents.
