THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY M'CLANAHAN & DILL. MEMPHIS, SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1861. VOLUME XII.—NUMBE

Daily Appeal.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17.—The Speaker called the House to order at 9 a. m.

Mr. Ridley presented a petition in response to inquiries by several committees on behalf of parties interested therein, presented through the speaker, which was referred to committee on banks and bonds.

By Mr. Hartsfield, Resolution No. 12, proposing to the Governors and Legislatures of the Southern States, for the purpose of considering the subject of saving the Union from dissolution, civil war and anarchy, and to encourage commercial intercourse with the Northern States; No. 14, to prevent, if possible, a conflict of arms between the Federal Government and the seceding States; and by Mr. Speaker Newman, proposing a convention of Southern States, to meet at Montgomery, to consider the relations of the Southern States to the Federal Government, and appointing twelve commissioners to represent Tennessee in that convention.

Mr. Payne, chairman of said committee, asked to be relieved from further consideration of said resolution No. 4, and reported a series of resolutions in lieu thereof, which were read, made special order for Wednesday, 23d inst., and 100 copies ordered printed for use of senate.

No. 4, to give the banks to July 1, 1862, to resume specie payment; releasing the banks from penalties for suspending bill that shall have requiring weekly statements to bank commissioners; authorizing Bank of Tennessee to issue $1, $2 and $3 notes, and to issue twenty-five cent notes if need come; made special order for Wednesday, 23d inst., and 100 copies ordered printed for use of senate.

No. 5, to provide for calling a convention of the State, was taken up and passed first reading.

Mr. Payne moved to reconsider special order for 6 p. m. to-day, for considering Senate bill No. 7, to incorporate the Light Dragoons company, resolutions on military affairs.

Mr. Cockrill introduced bill No 8, to provide for the raising of a volunteer military corps.

Mr. Payne moved to order at 10 o'clock a. m. to-morrow, was opened with

TO A [illegible] Mr. Lane, asked and [illegible] rules in favor of [illegible] State.

[illegible] of resolutions, [illegible] Assembly has heard [illegible] of the resolutions relative to the Southern States of the Federal Government, [illegible] Assembly recommending to the Federal Government and the seceding States of the South, to adjust the difficulties now existing in the Union, [illegible] Assembly [illegible] Federal Government [illegible] Southern States to return to the Union [illegible] Assembly [illegible] Southern States [illegible] Assembly [illegible] Southern States [illegible] Assembly [illegible] Southern States