RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river is at a stand. The weather yesterday was cool but clear, sunny and fine. Business was lively at the landing.....The arrivals and departures since our last were from White river, Admiral; St. Louis, John D. Perry; from Arkansas river, Spring; New Orleans for St. Louis, Banshee; New Orleans for Cincinnati, Tennessee; Louisville for New Orleans, Amazon; Nashville for New Orleans, James Woods; St. Louis for New Orleans, Wm. M. Morrison; Cairo for New Orleans, Prince of Wales.....The Hastings is loading with cotton for Pittsburg; it has 800 bales engaged and leaves today.....The Bramble left last evening with a slim trip.....The Stella came in from Arkansas river with 85 bales of cotton and a quantity of pork and whiskey from the freight of the eastern Quapaw, together with the machinery of that boat. She reports the Arkansas to have four feet and falling. She goes back to-morrow.....The Chester Ashley left for Arkansas river with a full trip.....The John Simonds will leave to-day with 3000 bales of cotton and 100 hogshead of tobacco.....The Arkansas went out with 800 bales of cotton.....John D. Perry brought in a splendid trip of corn, bacon and beef from St. Louis. She left on her return with 86 bales of cotton.....The splendid Lady Franklin, Capt. Eugene Bowers' popular boat, is taking on her cotton.....The Clinton is loading for Pittsburg. She leaves to-morrow.....The Admiral came in from White river with 100 bales cotton and a large lot of cotton seed and hides. She reports freights very scarce on that river. She leaves to-morrow for that stream.....The Tria left for Louisville with 350 bales of cotton.....The St. Louis Democrat of Wednesday says the river there fell one inch the day before. Business was lively—New Orleans boats had plenty of freight. The Illinois river boats find business dull on that stream.....The Missouri was still frozen at Omaha on Saturday last, the weather was cold and the river was falling.....The Cincinnati Commercial of Wednesday reports: "At Pittsburg, last night, the river was 9¾ feet and falling. At Wheeling, 17 feet and stationary, with 11 feet and falling at Parkersburg. The Kanawha is rising, with 5 feet from Charleston to the mouth. Here the river has receded 20 inches during the last forty-eight hours.".....The Cambridge was recently sold to a Captain Kelly, at Pittsburg, for $7,000, for the Upper Mississippi and Tennessee river trade.....The Illinois river is reported as a stand, with twelve feet in the channel. It had begun to fall at Lasalle.....The Mississippi river is now open to Dubuque. It opened to that point on Monday night last, at eleven o'clock.....

The Louisville Courier of Wednesday, reports: "The river was falling rather fast yesterday, with nine feet two inches water in the canal, by the mark, in the evening. During the previous twenty-four hours the water had fallen five inches at the wharf and fifteen inches at Portland.....On the falls last evening there were fully six feet steamboat water and seven feet two inches in the pass.....The Kentucky is offered for sale, cheap, at Cincinnati.

MEMPHIS CITY VARNISH ROOMS,
No. 11, Madison Street, (up stairs.)
THE subscriber wishes to inform the citizens that he is now ready to receive all and execute hand furniture of every description, to repair and varnish the same, and, if it is desirable, he has no objections to repairing the furniture at the family residences—the expense of draying and hauling would be saved. He will re-upholster and furnish new hair cloth or chintz, sofas and divans. All description of standard furniture, chairs repaired and painted, and no objections to going any distance in the country on the plantations; thus the expense, trouble and transportation of the furniture to the city and back again can be saved—if, alone, would pay the repairing of it. Apply as above, or address me through the post office.
