RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river was about stationary yesterday.....Business was moderately active.....The weather was bright, sunny and rather cool.....The arrivals and depts in advance our last were from New Orleans for St Louis Maria Denning, Imperial, Meteor, Sam Gaty, Kowena; New Orleans for Cincinnati, Dunbar, Argyle; Nashville for New Orleans, Edward Howard; St. Louis for New Orleans, Alex Scott, Crescent City, Charleston; Louisville for New Orleans, Grey Eagle; Cincinnati for New Orleans, Sunnyside; Cairo for New Orleans, Republic; New Orleans for St. Louis, Argo, Robin, Nebraska, McDowell.....The magnificent Commercial, the new boat of Capt. Archer's, will be here from Louisville on Friday.....The Gleaner did not get into Pittsburgh until last night; she had 1500 bales of cotton, all compressed.....The Mary McClellan left for Louisville; the Little Rock for Arkansas river; the Golden State for White river and the St. Francis for St. Francis river.....The Kenawha Valley left for White river with the largest trip that has gone out in that direction for some weeks; Capt. Price went out in her for his health; he expects very soon to be able to resume his duties as commander of the boat.....The Prairie, now left for Cincinnati with 107 bales of cotton and the machinery and other articles from the wreck of the sunken Quapaw.....It is awaiting the peerless Silver Moon, with Bunker on the hurricane deck and the clerks' desks in the office ready for Cincinnati.....The popular Vicksburg packet boat, the Kentucky, leaves as usual this evening for Vicksburg.....The Ingomar also leaves this evening for New Orleans.....The mate of the Prairie Rose was fined ten dollars at the recorder's court yesterday for injuring the pavement of the wharf in spurring off his boat.....The Beauchamp had Bracket leaves for White river on morrow evening.....Our old friend Mr. J. E. Bourne, the steamboat' agent, has associated in business with him his son Mr. W. F. Bourne. We wish the firm abundant and long continued prosperity.....

The Louisville Courier of Monday says: The river is falling slowly, with eight feet eight inches water in the canal last evening at dark by the mark. On the falls there were five feet eight inches steamboat water, and nearly seven feet in the pool. During the previous forty-eight hours, the river had fallen five inches at the head of the falls.....

The Cumberland, at Nashville, Saturday, was falling, with less than seven feet water on the shoals.....Mr. Davis is the clerk of Capt. Archer's new boat, the Commercial.....The Cincinnati Commercial of Monday reports that at Pittsburg the Ohio was 6 feet 10 inches and falling, at Wheeling 11 feet and stationary, and at Cincinnati it had fallen 6 inches in the 24 hours.....The survey-board of inspectors are in session in Washington city, by adjournment from New York. The session is called by order of the secretary of the treasury, the object being to re-district the present districts—making them more accessible.

MEMPHIS CITY VARNISH ROOMS.

No. 11, Madison Street, (up stairs.)

THE subscriber wishes to inform the citizens that he is still ready to receive old and second hand furniture of every description, to repair and varnish the same, and, if it be desirable, he has no objections to repairing the furniture at the family residence—the expense of carting and hauling would be saved. He will do splendid work for cheap rates, make very fine chairs, sofas and divans. All description of second hand furniture, chairs repaired and painted, and no objections to going any distance in the country on the plantations; then the expense, trouble and transportation of the furniture to the city and back again can be saved—the whole, would pay the repairing of it. Apply as above, or address me through the post office.

SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL FOR 1861.

SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL FOR 1861.

SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL FOR 1861.

SOUTAERN FAMILY JOURNAL FOR 1861.

THE coming year inaugurates the third volume of this favorite exponent of Southern literature. It was a source of no little gratification to us that in announcing the third volume of the JOURNAL, we are enabled to give the best possible regard to the discouraging predictions of Northern publishers, as well as to the gloomy forebodings of even hearty well-wishers in our own section of country. Yes, we are proud to say that the brilliant success of the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL has proved the existence of literary talent and enterprise in the South which fears no rivals.

The friend of Southern literature have often declared that, much they set a Southern paper which, in point of intrinsic merit and in price, could compete with Northern weeklies, they would cheerfully support it. We offer this desideratum; we ask these promises to be redeemed. We ask a comparison with other papers of its class, and are satisfied that the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will be found equal to the best. Arrangements have been made with the

BRIGHT WRITERS OF THE SOUTH, and the publishers have no hesitation in saying that the JOURNAL must become a

WELCOME GUEST IN EVERY SOUTHERN HOME.

For the ensuing year we are enabled to report a host of new and interesting features, comprising among others

BRILLIANT ADDITIONS TO OUR STAFF OF CONTRIBUTERS;

an intensely interesting series of

DETECTIVE STORIES;

important and varied additions to our justly celebrated

BIOGRAPHICAL ESSAYS.

We also intend to have in our power to announce, early in spring, the commencement of a series of

SKETCHES OF EUROPEAN TRAVEL.

With this view we have entered into negotiations with a highly popular author to furnish us with a regular correspondence.

With the January number will commence a story of unprecedented power and beauty and thrilling interest, entitled

ARLINE ADAIR,

OR,

Who's the Captain?

A HISTORICAL ROMANCE OF FRONTIER LIFE.

BY CAPTAIN R. C. KENDALL.

Besides the varied entertainment offered in the foregoing summary, the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will present, as heretofore, an unexpurgated collection of

SHORT STORIES, (complete in one number.)

ADVENTURES, (by flood and field.)

ITEMS OF NEWS, (at home and abroad.)

GOSSIP, (about men and things.)

WIT AND HUMOR.

POETRY.

We may also add

ANECDOTES IN NATURAL HISTORY.

FACTS FOR THE FARMER AND HOUSEKEEPER.

NEW INVENTIONS.

In a word, a varied miscellany of instructive as well as entertaining matter.

The SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL is a elegantly eight page paper, containing forty columns of closely printed reading matter. Each number is handsomely illustrated.

The SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL is published weekly and mailed to single subscribers at $2 a year; two copies sent for $3. Terms invariably in advance.

Any postmaster receiving six eight subscribers at $1 50 will be entitled to one copy free.

The SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL can be had of all news dealers and periodical agents.

☞ Liberal arrangements will be made with dealers, who are requested to send in their orders without delay.

Specimen copies sent free when requested.

All communications relating to subscriptions or otherwise should have the name of the writer plainly written, give name of post office, county and State. Address

THE TRUE AND GENUINE!

THIS tone, if fairly tried, will soon restore the tone of the digestive organs, invigorate the blood, give general retentivity to the figure, and add energy to the mind and nervous system. Its value has been remarkably evidenced by its wonderful curative powers, when ordinary tonics had been vainly exhausted. It affords nourishment to the body when no other can be borne, and furnishes the frame with fat in a truly remarkable manner.

For CONSUMPTION and BRONCHITIS,

For SCROFULA in all its developments,

For WEAKNESS, WASTING, and every form of DEBILITY, its curative properties are unrivaled.

It may be taken without disrelish by the most delicate patient, and retained without effort in the most sensitive stomach. Its superiority in this and other important characteristics of genuineness, has guaranteed for it the recommendation of the most eminent physicians throughout the Union; the written testimony of the faculty of the best medical schools; the professors of the University of Pennsylvania,

Jefferson College of Philadelphia,
Philadelphia College of Medicine, and others.

Invalids should be careful to purchase Oil of undoubted reputation if they desire the most active and immediate advantages of the remedy. That which we prepare has decided evidence of superiority over other brands. Manufactured only by

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because their article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons will prefer the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive their commendation. Invalids, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, supernatural invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S GERMAN STOMACH BITTERS, and see that the bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
