Daily Appeal.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river continues to rise at the rate of two inches in twenty four hours.....Business had some activity about it yesterday.....The weather was warm but cloudy—threatening rain.....The arrivals and departures were from St. Louis to New Orleans, Alonzo Gifford, R. J. Gray; Louisville for New Orleans, Fairchild; New Orleans for Louisville, John Ralston; New Orleans for St. Louis, Nebraska, Morrison, Alhambra; New Orleans for Pittsburg, River Wave; St. Louis for Arkansas river, Lake City.....The Silver Wave went out for Pittsburg with a crowd of passengers and one hundred and thirty seven bales of cotton.....The Neptune, for Cincinnati, was crowded with passengers above and below.....The splendid Glimbale leaves for Cincinnati this evening, with such officers as A. H. Buford captain, L. G. Jenkins clerk, and a steward that is proverbially one of the best stewards on the river, no wonder that a great portion of their merits are taken.....The boat Little Rock, Capt. Harbin, leaves for Arkansas river to-morrow.....The Rose Douglas left for Arkansas river; the Kanawha Valley for Jacksoport, White river; the St. Francis for St. Francis river, and the Golden Eagle for White river.
