LIST OF LETTERS.

The list of uncalled for letters in the Memphis post office will be found on the fourth page of this morning's paper.

TAKEN.—For trading with slaves J. Newman was yesterday fined ten dollars.

ARRESTED.—For threatening a citizen that he would shoot him, John Nolan was yesterday put in jail.

GRACE CHURCH.—Divine service at Grace church this morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 9 A. M.

PROVISIONS ARRIVING.—The Charleston railroad, yesterday, brought into this city four hundred and eighty hogs.

☞ Any person having a pair of mules and a cart, can dispose of the same to advantage by calling at the store of J. E. Merriman & Co., or W. J. Smith.

THE IMMIGRANTS.—The three hundred and fifty German immigrants that came in by the Col. Kossuth, on Friday, started up the river yesterday on the Bruzelei.

ATTENTION, SIR KNIGHTS!—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of Cyrene Commandery No. 4, held this (Sunday) afternoon at 3½ o'clock.

CONTEMPTIBLE.—Mike Mahoney was arrested on Friday for attempting to pass a counterfeit ten dollar bill of the Merchants' and Mechanics' Bank of Wheeling, Va.

☞ Through the politeness of the agent of the Adams express, we were last night in receipt of the latest dates from Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Louisville and Indianapolis.

COTTON.—The shipments of cotton during the week were: to New Orleans, 80 bales; to northern points, 198 bales; to interior points, 161 bales; total 437 bales. The receipts of the week were 335 bales. The stock on hand is 1,500 bales.

☞ A. S. Lary & Co. sell, by order of the administrator of Mrs Wiesgerber, a large lot of fine guns, pistols, etc., on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at the store on Center alley, one door north of Jefferson street. There are some very choice guns among the lot.

THE STOKES CASE.—Tom Stokes was examined before Esq. Richards yesterday on the charge of assaulting Reeder with intent to murder him. He gave bail—himself in two thousand five hundred dollars, and two securities in the like amount—to appear at the next term of the criminal court for trial.

INDEFINITE.—Reeder, who was stabbed at the recorder's court by John Stokes, is lying at the hospital under the care of Dr. Mitchell. He is in a fair way of recovering, and will soon be about. James Curry and Thomas Burns, who were stabbed on Wednesday night at Reagan's boarding house on Chickasaw street by John Conlin, are in the same institution. They are rapidly recovering.

YOU ENTERED.—Capt. Whitley, commander of a company at Camp Jackson, at the time of the different outrages at St. Louis, has brought twenty-five of his men to Memphis, and joined the Dixie Grays, Capt. Ed. Pickett, Jr. Dr F. Morgan second, and in which company Capt. A. L. Whitley was yesterday elected first lieutenant. The company will leave for Jackson immediately, to be mustered into service.

THE DICKEY.—The Dickey made a start from St. Louis for this city and arrived at Columbus on Thursday; learning that if she came to Memphis she would not be allowed to ascend the stream again, she returned to St. Louis from that place and did not expect to come down again. At Cairo three boxes containing cartridges, hid in marble dust, were seized by the authorities. The soldiers told the people about the boat that they were to be marched South in ten days.

A CALL FROM NORTH CAROLINA AND A RESPONSE FROM TENNESSEE.—The teachers and pupils of St. Mary's School, in Raleigh, North Carolina, having contributed a fund for the purchase of a flag to be presented to the cavalry company of that city, and not being able to procure the materials there, telegraphed yesterday to have the order filled at Memphis.

An elegant banner of the young Confederacy, promptly prepared by our townsman Cameron, and forwarded gratis by the patriotic Borden, of the Adams Southern Express, was speedily sent on its way to the capital of the old North State.

SINGULAR.—"Carrying coals to Newcastle," is an English expression by which is characterized actions striking for their absurdity. In this country, carrying tobacco to Louisville appeared almost as ridiculous an action as any one is the present; but it is ridiculous no longer. The state of war in which we are extolled is causing many strange transpositions, and this among them. The steamboat Louisiana, which came in last night from New Orleans, brought up four hundred hogsheads of tobacco, her destination Louisville. We understand, a few days ago, that we, in Memphis, are receiving bacon from New Orleans, while we are sending rich bacon to that city.

ARRIVAL OF THE LOUISVILLE.—The steamboat Louisville, Capt. Hollier, Mancourt clerk, arrived here last evening from New Orleans, bound for Louisville. She had nearly three hundred deck passengers and a hundred and twenty-five cabin passengers. Among her freight was four hundred hogsheads of tobacco, which is doubtless seeking shipment for Europe from a northern port; she had also a quantity of sugar and molasses. She had authority from Gov. Harris to complete her trip, but the committee required the boat to remain in port until they could communicate with Nashville. A detachment of military, under command of captain Miller, was put in charge of the boat.

CAMP JACKSON LETTER.—We were called upon last evening by Mr. A. A. Wilkers, a Virginian, who has for many years resided in St. Louis, who informed us that he was one of a party of thirty-eight persons, all among the prisoners lately seized at Camp Jackson, St. Louis. We learn from him that there are two thousand men who are pushing to reach the South, that they may have an opportunity of arranging the indignity to which they have been subjected. This party of thirty-eight is the first installment of the coming crowd. They came to Columbus on the Dickey. Capt. Abel treated them well, and gave them a free passage. At the Welhouse house, Columbus, Mr. Welhouse made them welcome, fed them sumptuously, and declined to present a bill. The ladies of Columbus assembled and made a handsome flag, which they presented to the company. At Hombolet, for first time since their captivity, the escaped for by full themselves to be such, and hearty cheers for Jeff Davis, that place the landlord of hotel then liberally to the best in prepared them nothing. The Department treated them kindly and at Springfield to all these kind Baird, Pike desired by the commander Department and grateful 1857: etc. To the ladies of Each a special acknowledgment a wiper, was at Jefferson City a wife (mother of troops were arms, everything under the operation in the instance Gen. Harney send to the quarter if they could chat to a friend, they would arrive. The quarters at Jefferson service in the jail and lock and he saw, Mr. In entering the representative Court are large at Sedalia, into a to the spot.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.—To-day is Trinity Sunday, the day on which the culminating observances of the church reach the throne of the God-head. From the cradle of Christ, at Christmas; the manifestations of the Gentiles, at Epiphany; the fasting in the wilderness, at Lent; the crucifixion, on Good Friday; the resurrection, at Easter; the return to the primeval glory, on Ascension day—to the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, at Whitsuntide, the great stream of Christian history has been reverently followed and celebrated by appropriate observances. The remainder of the year, until the time for preparation for the Advent arrives, is noted in the prayer book as first, second, third, etc., Sunday after Trinity until the 24th Sunday after Trinity, when the preparation for Advent, for Christmas, commences. During this interval, however, there are commemorations of the saints, the virgin, St. Michael, and all angels, all saints, thanksgiving-day, etc. These observances are retained in a greater or less degree in the Roman Catholic, Greek, Episcopal and other churches that claim an organization continuing from the primitive age of the church, which is usually understood to embrace the three first centuries of its existence. The churches that sprung into existence after the reformation, such as the Presbyterian, Independent, Baptist, Methodist, etc., usually disregarded form and festivals whose only authority, in their opinion, was mere tradition. They sought to join to the primitive spirit of the church, an organization adapted, in their opinion, to the wants of modern life. To even these, however, there is an interest in the ceremonies and seasons the nature of which we have each Sunday described. They may regard them as the mortal remnant from which the etherial spark has flown, but cold and dead as it appears to them, there is a connection with sacred names and solemn events, transmitted through long generations that furnishes an attraction of no common kind. In astronomical matters there is nothing of special interest this week to the observer who is without instruments. Venus may be looked for in the evening after sunset; she is now east of the sun, and soon will be the "bright particular star" of the western sky, "the evening star with silver ray." Mars may be looked for toward the west after the departure of twilight. Jupiter and Saturn are still the former west and the latter east of Cor Leonis, the brightest star in the Lion, and will be seen a little south of the zenith. Monday—Anniversary of the decapitation of the Miter prisoners in Texas, 1843. Wednesday—Massacre of Fannin and his men in Texas, 1836. Friday—Columbus died, 1506. Saturday—Kentucky admitted, 1792; Crimean war closed, 1856.

ADD TO THE POOR.—Mr. Underwood, city sinoner, had several applications at his office on Second street near Madison yesterday, for assistance. Nine persons received articles of food for which they appeared very grateful. Three were refused, inquiry having revealed that they were not in necessitous circumstances. One woman, on being offered a piece of bacon, turned up her nose with the remark that she did not eat the article. She was informed that she might call again when real necessity had made her less delicate. Mr. Underwood will evidently make a good almoner. He is kind without credulity, and firm without harshness.

MORTUARY.—We are indebted to Dr. Mitchell for the following report of the deaths that occurred in this city during last week: Consumption, 1; convulsions, 1; diarrhea, 1; diptheria, 1; dysentery, 3; fever remittent, 1; hydrocephalus, 1; hydrothorax, 1; marasmus, 1; pneumonia, 1; premature birth, 1; suffocation, 1; teething, 1; unknown, 1. Adults, 4; children, 14; males, 11; females, 7; whites, 12; blacks, 6; citizens, 16; strangers, 2. Total, 18.

SARDIS BLUES.—This company held a meeting in camp at Corinth, on Wednesday last, Dr. T. W. Crump in the chair; Ad. G. Spain, secretary; at which, resolutions introduced by R. W. Crump, were adopted expressive of regret at the loss, by death, of sergeant Thos. A. Akins, of that company, condoling with his afflicted relatives, and thanking Dr. Buchanan and family for their kind attentions to the deceased.

BRITONS.—Citizens of Memphis that are subjects of Great Britain, are requested to meet in Stillman's building, corner of Madison and Second streets, on Monday evening, May 27, at eight o'clock, on business pertaining to the war.

☞ A gentleman of this city who left Montgomery on the 22nd inst., reports President Davis as having started on that day for Richmond, Va.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river was slowly falling yesterday.....The weather was pretty and reasonable.....Capt. Priest's dual steamer left for Columbus she took the Kennett's passengers and a considerable quantity of her up river freight.....The Victoria left for Vicksburg with fifty bales of cotton.....The Chester Ashley went on for Arkansas river.....The Natchez arrived from little Rock with a large freight list for Memphis.....The Sovereign was towed down to Fort Pickering where she is laid up.....The Kentucky came in low.....The Col. Kossuth discharged her freight here; she will not be allowed to go above.....The Louisville came in with 425 passengers and and a large lot of freight, including one bale of jute. She had a permit with her from the governor of Tennessee allowing her to proceed in her trade.

From Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, May 25.—Express matter from the South northward-bound goes unmolested. Express matter from the North bound south ward is not permitted to pass to any point outside of Kentucky, and Kentucky packages are examined to see if they contain money. Every thing for the seceded States is contraband.

Letters appear to pass intact. Some letters in Confederate gap envelope fail in reaching their destination. [Use plain envelopes.]

Express matter from this point southward goes untrammeled.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, May 25.—The brig Angela, which left Vera Cruz on May 12th, has arrived bringing $6000 in specie.

A letter from Minititlan says that gold has been discovered and taken from the waters of the Malatargo. The diggings are very rich. Great excitement exists regarding the discovery. Business was dull.

Advices from Texas furnish glowing accounts of the grain crop.

From Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, May 25.—Attorney-General Purviance has sent a letter to Gov. Curtin, resigning his position as attorney-general of Pennsylvania. In his letter he says: "For reasons which appeal to my selfrespect, I cannot continue any longer in connection with your administration."

The Great Eastern.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The Great Eastern has departed.

LOUISVILLE, May 25.—Mollie Jackson is the winner in the three mile heats to-day. Time—5:30, 5:32, 5:28½.

Holloway's Pills.

BODILY PROSTRATION—A WORD OF ADVICE.—No other medicine has yet been discovered to equal the celebrated Holloway's Pills, in their rapid cure of all morbid affections of the brain and weariness or enervation of the body, the one being intimately allied with the other. The primary causes of this disease exist in the stomach, and these medicines are especially adapted for purifying the blood, correcting the derangements of the liver, invigorating the digestive organs, and invigorating the general system.

Sold by all druggists, at 25c
