LOCAL MATTERS.

Thursday Morning, Sept. 12, 1861.

Office—Union Street, Cor. Front Alley.

POSTPONED.—A note from F. H. Tannehill, Esq., informs us that his intended performance is deferred until some future time.

SALT.—An immense quantity of salt is arriving from below; the Kennett from New Orleans on Saturday brought in 5350 sacks.

INSPECTORS.—Messrs. E. C. Lemoyne and Robert McLain have been appointed assistant City Inspectors.

A FIGHTING LADY.—Mrs. Flood was put in jail for examination yesterday on the charge of beating her husband cruelly—the unfortunate man is subject to fits.

FIRST COTTON FROM FAYETTE.—Messrs. Jones, Brown & Co. received yesterday from the plantation of J. N. Williams, Esq., of Fayette county, Tenn., the first bale of cotton from that county.

LOUIS D'OR.—This boat did not get off last evening, owing to the storm; on the arrival of the cars on the Charleston road to-day she will start for New Orleans. Bourne & Co., are her agents.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—We were informed yesterday that Col. W. A. Jones, of Panola county, Miss., sent on to Richmond, Virginia, his draft for nine hundred dollars, to be expended in clothing the Springport company now at Manassas, from that county. Col. Jones is a wealthy citizen, and has furnished a good example for gentlemen of fortune. Who will volunteer next to clothe an entire company?

ATTEMPT TO KILL.—W. B. Mearsham, who was yesterday fined by the Recorder for being engaged in the affray near the Phœnix, on Main street, on Monday night, has also been bound over to answer the charge of shooting Mr. L. Bibee, son of Dr. Bibee, on Saturday night last, at the same place. Mr. Bibee was wounded in the arm and also in the lower part of the face, two teeth being driven out by a bullet that entered his mouth.

PUBLICATIONS.—We have received from W. H. Clemmitt, Richmond, Virginia, the publisher, a copy of the proceedings of Louisianians in that city for the purpose of forming a soldier's aid association, something like our Southern Mothers' Home. Also from Hutton & Freligh, publishers, the report of the engineer of the Mississippi levees, by Mr. Merriwether, a useful and interesting document to all who are interested in Mississippi river lands.

CONCERT.—The concert on Tuesday night was a success; the young people acquitted themselves well, and delighted an overflowing house. The success of this entertainment is another proof that Memphis posses es within herself large resources and great accomplishments that, if judiciously employed, will assist in a most important degree to furnish means for supplying our soldiers with many comforts and necessaries, and aid in sickness; to contribute to their families left in difficult circumstances, and to soften the rigor of the coming winter to the poor of the city.

FINED.—We stated on Tuesday that on the previous evening a disturbance occurred on Main street, between Union and Gayoso streets, opposite the Phœnix saloon, in which four pistol shots were fired, and Major Yowell, a spectator, was shot in the heel, a portion of the bone being driven out of the wound. Yesterday the wounded gentleman was suffering greatly. Three of the parties concerned in the proceedings, W. B. Mearsham, Jno. R. Bennett, and Thos. Nally were yesterday fined $10 each by the Recorder for participating in the affair.

PRODUCE BUSINESS.—We are still doing more business in produce in Memphis than was done this time last year when the St. Louis and Ohio boats were running. Our Chamber of Commerce is thronged daily during 'change hours. During the three days of the present week, 14,008 bushels of wheat were sold. The market is very firm at a dollar a bushel for prime red. The supply is just now smaller than at any previous time since the season fairly opened. A thousand bushels of oats were sold yesterday at 68 cents, an advance of five cents. Nearly 6000 bushels of corn have been sold during the week at an advance of from five to seven cents a bushel. It is firm at sixty cents.

A SUGGESTION.—A correspondent offers the following suggestion: The Southern Mothers' Home is crowded to excess—their task is a laborious one. Permit me to suggest how the young unmarried men can relieve them to a great extent. I would recommend that they at an early day meet and form clubs, say seven clubs, of ten each, one club to take charge of the institution each night during the week—by that means the task would be light on each member and would greatly relieve the mothers and the gentlemen who now have it in charge. The married men could assist by going early in the morning to the relief of the clubs, so they might get a few hours sleep before business hours. Will you not call a meeting of young men, say at the Merchants' Exchange, Wednesday night?

MOTHERS' HOSPITAL.—This institution, now located in the Irving block, has grown from a little effort, with thirty beds to start on, to the dignity of a Confederate States hospital, whose walls on Sunday last, inclosed no less than 497 patients. This success, in a great measure, is due to the exertions of Dr. Currey, the physician of the hospital. Of the above patients 181 were allowed furloughs to go to their friends; 75 were taken into private families; 3 died, one of them from the effects of an overdose of opium administered to him in camp. In the hospital there are now 300 beds, and room for 150 more. No money from the Confederate States has hitherto been received; volunteer efforts having, so far, met all demands. We passed over the hospital on Monday and found it well arranged, and the men attended to with unremitting kindness. It is fortunate for the sick soldier that such care is ready for him in his need. The unselfish philanthropy of those good women who take the convalescent patient and nurse him to health at their own homes, is admirable, and worthy of all praise.

A GREAT CRIME.—There are some crimes so shameful in their nature, the result of depravity so piluted and degrading, that every one hates to think, much more to speak about them; the consequence is, that those who commit them oft get off unpunished, when criminals of farless deep a dye have to endure severe penalties. This is not just, and where the crime obtains some degree of prevalence, it is not polic. Our readers will remember that on Sunde last, in a sand hole on the bluff opposite the Gayoso House, the bodies of twin babes were fand, and that the coroner and jury returned verdict to the effect that death in the case w the result of abortion. Our detective polb, aided by Capt. Kirk, have been engaged ascertaining the particulars of this infame affair. We learn that their investigations ave led to the knowledge of most atrocious and revolting particulars, implicating close allied members of the same family, and th family one of respectability and standing. What course is to be taken in such a case as is? Is the blackness of the guilt, and the dgrace that an amiable family must suffer for se faults of some of its erring members, to bathe interference of law; or is "justice to be ne though the heavens fall?" In a late instan an attempt was made to bring a notorious individual to justice for engaging in the nidorous business of abortion, but a very heavy mount of money—we speak on the authority of the police—removed the principal witness and defrauded justice of its due. The nporous instances of finding the dead bodies cinfants in or near this city, as recorded in thbooks of the coroner, intimate that if the lw has been lax toward this class of crime, it time the day of indulgence were past.

STEAMBOAT AND RIVER MATTERS.

The river continues to fall.... The weather was stormy, with thunder last evening.... The Tucker came in from Hickman with 1,325 sacks of corn, 330 sacks of oats, 55 sacks of potatoes, 80 barrels and 25 sacks of flour, and 6 cattle. She returns to day.... The neat and commodious Louis D'Or was detained by the storm. She will inevitably leave to-day on the arrival of the Charleston railroad train.... The Mears left for Vicksburg. She had 30 bales of cotton for New Orleans.... The Louisville and the Mary Keene are both due.... If the depth of water will permit, the old wharf-boat wreck will soon be removed. The matter is now in the hands of the Mayor.... The Cotton Plant, a good vessel for the business, has been purchased here, and will leave for Columbus this day, in the charge of first-class officers.

Boats Leaving.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendid passenger packet Louisville, Combs, master, will leave for New Orleans and all way landings this evening at 5 o'clock. J. T. Bourne & Co. and Elliott & Vinson, agents.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The steamer Ferd. Kennett, Brierly, master, will leave for Pittsburg and all intermediate landings this evening at 5 o'clock. Thomas H. Williams & Co., agents.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The elegant steamer Louis D'Or, leaves this evening as above. Jas. T. Bourne & Co. and Thos. H. Williams & Co., agents.

FOR NEW MADRID AND HICKMAN.—The elegant passenger packet S. H. Tucker, Storm, master, will leave for the above and way landings this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Larry Hammond, agent.

FOR HICKMAN AND COLUMBUS.—The steamer Cotton Plant, Lodwick, master, leaves as above this evening at 5 o'clock. Elliott & Vinson, agents.

BURGLARY.—About nine o'clock last night, as policeman Holly and his partner were passing the store of Messrs. Walt & Co., they found the front door on Promenade street, between Adams and Jefferson, open. A bag of coffee was lying in the door ready to carry off, and another bag had been taken outside and put by a sand heap. On entering, no one was to be found; the thief or thieves, had probably escaped by jumping out of a window in the rear, looking on the river, and then sliding down one of the pillows that support the frame awning. The office door had been opened, and a key used to open it with was left in the lock. A pair of boots, a hat, and a coat were found, which had been left behind. The boots had probably been pulled off to prevent the sound of footsteps being heard.

LOCAL DEFENSE.—For general information we published two days ago a copy of the new law of the Confederate States for raising and regulating companies raised for local defense and special service. Under this law Mr. Lofland, the City Controller, is about to raise a company of light artillery—for which he is already provided with four pieces of ordnance—it will be composed principally of married persons and those whose business does not permit them to leave the city except in case of exigency. Mr. Lofland invites calls upon the subject at this office in the city buildings.

THE WHARFBOAT WRECK.—If the stage of water will permit, this nuisance and dangerous obstruction is to be removed; it will be cleared away at an early day. The matter now is in the hands of the Mayor, so of course "its all right, judge."

CORRECTION.

EDITORS APPEAL: The gunboat now on duty up the river in connection with Gen. Polk's forces at Columbus, is not named "Yankee," as the APPEAL has it, but her name is the "Jackson," under the command of Captain Washington Gwathmey, a native of Richmond, Va., and for a long time a most efficient officer of the United States navy. Had he not cast his fortunes with the Confederate States, (which he did so soon as he was excused from service as the executive officer of the sloop-of-war Brooklyn off Fort Pickens,) he would now be a commander in the old concern, and probably enjoying the command of a large steamer or sloop-of-war, instead of a little gunboat in our navy.

ONE WHO KNOWS.

McLean's Cordial.
AS may be seen, we insert this week the advertisement of McLean's Cordial, etc.
It is very well known we are not particularly "vorsable to patent medicines, and, as a general thing, assess the whole of them with but little ceremony, and with these sentiments we declined inserting this advertisement until we know what were the ingredients of the medicine, and how compounded. This we have learned, and believing, as we do, that the ingredients are good, and the compound judiciously made, we recommend it as a mixture worthy of public confidence.
The above is from the St. Louis Christian Advocate, edited by the renowned Rev. Dr. McAnally, which speaks volumes in favor of McLean's Cordial. We say to all try it. See the advertisement in another column. se8-daw

Dissolution.
THE copartnership heretofore existing between Samuel A. Taylor and T. A. Cromwell, under the style of SYLLS, CROMWELL & TAYLOR, in the Produce and Commission business, No. 95 Front Row, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.
Thad. A. Cromwell is authorized to settle up the business of the old firm and can be found at the Commercial Bank on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from 9 A. M. till 4 P. M., until further notice. Persons indebted to the firm will please call and settle without delay.
A CARD.
In retiring from business, in order to enter the service of our country, we return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to a generous public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon us, and in parting with the business community of Memphis and surrounding country, we do so with many regrets, but while our country needs our services we cannot in justice to the principles of patriotic hearts remain at home. Should Providence see fit to deliver us from the jaws of sin and the hands of the enemy, we will return to Memphis and resume business, and hope to be able to merit a continuance of the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed upon us.
Very Respectfully
SAMUEL A. TAYLOR,
THAD. A. CROMWELL.
