LOCAL MATTERS.

Thursday Morning, Sept. 26, 1861.

Office--Union Street, Cor. Front Alley.

TO ADVERTISERS.

All advertisements and cards for insertion in the morning APPEAL, should, if possible, be handed to the chief clerk in the counting room before six o'clock P. M., the evening previous to their appearance. After that hour they will receive attention only if handed to the foreman of the composing room, on the second floor.

WINGED SHOT.—A quantity of Cowen's wing shot and shells have been sent up the river for practical trial.

NO LICENSE.—For selling liquor without a license, Cornelius Murphy was yesterday fined twenty dollars by Recorder Moore.

EAST TENNESSEE.—Among the new advertisements this morning will be found one from Knoxville Tenn., stating that they can supply any quantity of good hay on demand.

☞It will be observed from an advertisement in this morning's paper, that the Commandant's office has been removed from Madison to Jefferson street, south side, between Main and Second.

CHARGE OF STEALING.—Constable O'Herron yesterday arrested Lou. Fisher, charged with feloniously appropriating to his own use three hundred and fifty dollars, the property of Mary Petty, better known as Pom Pettis.

DISHONEST NEGRO HACKMAN. — Captain Kirk yesterday arrested a negro known by the name of Mack, on the charge of robbing a soldier, who had entered his hack in a state of intoxication, of a knife, a watch, and twenty dollars in money. The knife and watch were recovered.

CAPT. HAMPTON.—We saw yesterday a correct and striking likeness of the late Capt James Hamilton, at the house of F. H. Clark & Co., which they are selling at the low price of one dollar. It is a photograph, in the best style of the art, and in tone much like a steel engraving.

MILITIA DUTY.—The militia colonels are calling on the citizens of the various districts to appear for drill. All citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five are required to do militia duty when called upon, under certain penalties. At this exigency all good citizens should learn to do military duty from patriotic principle.

THROWN.—Mr. Douglass, recruiting officer, of the marine company, whose headquarters are in the Adams block, yesterday, at noon, mounted a horse, which had run off to take it to the stable. The animal immediately ran away, and when opposite the Exchange building, it came in contact with a wagon. Mr. Douglass was thrown to the ground with great violence, and was very seriously hurt.

COUNTERFEITING.—The police of Nashville on Friday last, arrested Barney Mulverhill, Jas. Sample, and Wm. alias Dock Henry on the charge of coining. Mulverhill is an overseer at his house six miles from the city. Molds for making dimes, quarters, and half dollars, with metal and some of the base coin were discovered. The present demand for change will probably lead to speculations of this kind, and the public will do well to be careful.

THE WHARFBOAT WRECK.—At length there is hope of its remains being removed. We learn from the City Engineer, that he has received instructions from the Mayor to draw up a contract with Michael Chronin, to do the work for nine hundred dollars. The securities are Dr. J. B. Christian, Michael Gilney, and Thomas Usher. The Engineer informs us that the contract will bind the party to do the work in thirty days, if the river do not rise higher than the point at which it now stands, during that time.

SHINPLASTERS.—We learned yesterday that the design to have shinplasters issued by our city government is abandoned. This makes it unnecessary for us to discuss the question we had proposed to write upon this morning, respecting the propriety of the government of a city issuing promises to pay, when its bonds, coupons, notes, and warrants command the financial position ours do. We shall keep a close watch on this matter.

THE TABLEAUX AGAIN.—We learn that the net proceeds of the tableaux entertainment, given on night before last, show a clear profit of about four hundred dollars. The patriotic ladies who originated this laudable enterprise, and who have carried it out with such brilliant success, deserve the thanks of the entire community. And to none, we believe, is more credit due than to the Misses Kirk, who, as is universally conceded, have been behind no others in their prompt and energetic attention to everything in the conduct of the affair, where their services could be rendered at all available.

STRANGE PROCEEDING.—On Tuesday night at half past 10 o'clock, as the chief of police, Jas. Gerrett, was within a short distance of his dwelling, on Beal street beyond the second bayou, he was met by a man who presented a drawn bayonet and ordered him to cut d. Garrett asked what he meant? The man replied: "Stand, d—n you, or I will kill you." Mr. Garrett contrived to pick up a brickbat, in each hand, with which to defend himself, being unarmed. The man pressed toward him with the bayonet, when a bullet from a pistol fired by some passer-by who saw the imminent danger in which he stood, struck the man in the arm. Garret then ascertained where his assailant lived and obtained a carriage and took him home and got a doctor for him. The man was a stranger to him, and he knows of no motive for the attack, but presumes he was mistaken, in the dark, for some other person.

DRAMATIC PERFORMANCE.—We announced at the time that our German citizens had met and appointed a committee to arrange for a series of entertainments, under the management of Mr. Boettner, for patriotic and benevolent purposes, the first of them will be given to-morrow evening at the theater. The play is one of the productions of that great German genius, Schiller. It is chosen from points in it that have an analogy with the state of things existing now as at the present time, its incidents being founded on events arising from the attempt of a German prince of a portion of his army to fight the battles of England, a measure considered somewhat of the Lincoln stamp, so far as the purchase was concerned. Dances and songs will be added, making a very attractive bill. An advertisement in another column gives the prices at which tickets can be had.

ON 'CHANGE.—Business was dull on 'Change yesterday, the stocks of produce on hand being limited. Gentlemen recently from Columbus give cheering accounts of the courageous and ardent spirits that now animate "the hosts" there. They are working hard, and putting the place into a good position for defense. The appearance of Gen. A. S. John too among themhas thrown a brush or two over all the proceedings, and infused new life into the men. They are confident of being able "to go in and win" now. Remarks were made on the subject of the charge of being "Rhylocks," which has again and again been made against business men, because the price of the various necessaries of life is higher at this time than is usual. It was remarked that in a fortress, when the ordinary means of obtaining supplies are cut off, smaller rations are issued, in order to make those supplies last until the strait is over. Although our stocks and receipts are by no means narrowed down to the condition of things in a besieged fortress, still they have to be drawn from a narrower circle than formerly, and must be economized. The rise in price compels that economy, and imposes good use being made of every necessary we possess. It was also observed that the speculation of prices does not rest with dealers; when there are fewer articles for sale than there are customers, the customers bid against each other to obtain them, and the price rises. When there are more articles than customers, then those who hold them bid against each other for customers, and the price falls. This is regulated by the law of supply and demand, a law which man did not make, but which necessarily arises from the state of things as they exist; and which is as imperious as any law of nature. It was asked what would be our condition if, in the article flour, for instance, we were to sell at the same rates as would prevail if thousands of barrels were landed at our wharf every week from the North? Evidently the supply on hand would be exhausted before the next crop of wheat is harvested, and destitution would be the result. The rise in price compels all to use less than they otherwise would do, and a supply is kept on hand for a future day.....Inquiries were made by visitors why we have no compulsory inspection here to ascertain the quality of articles, to gauge barrels and weigh or measure bales. It was replied that any buyer can have articles inspected and gauged at will, but that such articles as flour, liquors, oils, etc., being manufactured elsewhere, are usually inspected where made, rendering further inspection in this market unnecessary.

STEAMBOAT AND RIVER MATTERS.

The river has again commenced falling .....Business was dull at the landing yesterday..... The weather was fine and pleasant.....The Kentucky from Columbus arrived with 394 sacks of wheat, 894 sacks of corn, 645 bbls. apples, 21 cattle, and a quantity of potatoes, lard, butter and eggs; she returned in the evening.....The Mears left for Vicksburg and the Col. Morgan for White river with fair trips.....The Col. Kennett started to New Orleans with a fair load..... The favorite boat Louisville, with the executive and courteous Manough as clerk, goes out this evening for New Orleans. She is a splendid boat, with polite waiters and experienced officers. Those who take the Louisville will be satisfied.....The handsome Vicksburg, Capt. White, a genial gentleman, leaves to-morrow evening for New Orleans.....The Champion has been purchased by Frank Smith, Esq.....The Admiral contemplates starting for the old route on White river on Saturday.....The Arkansas is reported failing..... The Mary E. Keene is due.....The Tucker from Columbus will be in port to-day.....The Alonzo Child, with but a moderate trip, left New Orleans for this port last Monday.

Boats Leaving.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The splendid passenger packet Louisville, Combs, master, will leave for New Orleans and all way landings this evening at 5 o'clock. J. T. Bourne & Co., Elliott & Vinson, and Thos. H. Williams & Co., are her agents.

FOR WHITE RIVER.—The splendid freight and passenger steamer Bracelet, Capt. Miller, will leave for Jacksonport and all way landings, this afternoon at 5 o'clock. J. T. Bourne & Co., agents.

THE LABORATORY.—Under the able management of superintendent Wurzbach and Jesse Hill, Esq., this establishment is turning out a vast quantity of pills and powders, made on a prescription considered by physicians to be of great efficacy in the cases of unacclimated northerners visiting the South without invitation. We went over the place and found all it beautiful order. A new furnace is being put up by our friend Brown, which which will afford the means of extending the pill manufacturing part of the business. The pills are made on a principle that enables them to enter the stomach without the disagreeable operation of sea lowling—they are considered indigestible, and therefore permanent in their effect.

ATTENTION.—The commandants of companies forming the 170th Tennessee Militia, or First City regiment, are hereby notified to call on their respective companies, for company muster, on Saturday, the 5th of October next. They will also call out their companies on the 8th of October for regimental muster. Said muster will be at the hospital parade ground. Companies will be on the ground at ten o'clock A. M. There will be drill for all the officers of the regiment, at No. 11, Exchange building, on Saturday, September 28th, at eleven o'clock A. M. These orders are required by law. All failing to attend may expect to be fined. Prompt attention is required. By order.

A. C. KIRWAN, Col. Com.

SAMUEL TIGHE, Adjutant.

ATTENTION, MAYNARD RIFLEMEN!—On and after Friday there will be daily drill at 5 o'clock, P. M. [sep26-2t] E. A. COLES.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.—On the first Monday in October next, all real estate upon which the corporate tax for the past year has not been paid, will be condemned by the law side of the Common Law and Chancery Court of the city of Memphis. Delinquents will save cost by paying up before the first of October.

JOHN H. SOWER, City Tax Collector.

MEMPHIS, September 23, 1861-1w.

A CARD.

It is beyond question that the people of the Lower Mississippi Valley are the most noble generous of any about in this area united, prosperous and happy but now scorched land. They are free, and mean to remain so. They are giving of their substance freely—many almost their last dollar, as well as other articles to relieve the soldier—many are working day and night to supply their wants, and the ladies (without whose efforts we would be poor indeed) are scouring their whole heart, mind and strength are enlisted; their prayers ascend to a Throne of Grace in behalf of liberty and independence, and we feel assured of the protecting care of a confident Providence. The continued generosity of this people is manifested by the following contributions for the benefit of Gen. M. Jeff. Thompson's command.
