LOCAL MATTERS.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19.

TO ADVERTISERS.

All advertisements and cards for insertion in the morning APPEAL, should, if possible, be handed to the chief clerk in the counting room before six o'clock, P. M., the evening previous to their appearance. After that hour they will receive attention only if handed to the foreman of the composing room on the second floor.

LETTER LIST.—The list of uncalled-for letters will be found on our fourth page.

ARRIVALS.—Among the arrivals at the Gayoso hotel yesterday, were Col. T. C. Hindman, C. S. A., and Lieut. I. N. Brown, C. S. Navy.

IMPROVEMENT.—Under the care of Station-House Keeper Olin, bunks have been put up and several other improvements made at the station house.

THE WEATHER.—Cloud, gloom, drizzle and mud made up yesterday a weather mixture that did honor to the weather clerk's powers of making mortality miserable.

DISCHARGED.—Susannah Chandler, and Solomon, her son, charged with stealing wood and iron, have been discharged from custody, evidence not sustaining the charge.

FRESH OYSTERS.—Our friend Dom. Aste, on the corner of Union and Main streets, has just received a fine lot of fresh oysters, and other things to match. Call and try them.

THE COMMERCIAL.—Dr. Scott and Mr. Jones, the hosts of the Commercial, are making their hotel a pleasant abode for the traveler. They set an excellent table. Their bill of fare will bear a comparison with any similar document.

☞ Thanks to S. A. Wells, news agent, for a copy of the New Orleans Picayune in advance of the mail and express. His agents offer the New Orleans papers on our streets daily, early on the morning after they are printed.

PARDONED.—Geo. F. Dunham, formerly a member of our police, who was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for killing by stabbing, a man named Harrigan, has been pardoned by Gov. Harris.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business at this court continues as dull as ever. A few unimportant cases were disposed of yesterday entirely void of public interest. This speaks well for the morality of Memphis.

PERSONAL.—Capt. J. H. Hammersley, late of St. Louis, Mo., and so well known at the South as a cavalry instructor, etc., has, we are informed, been appointed adjutant to Col. Wirt Adams' regiment of cavalry, now on its way to Bowling Green, Ky.

☞ Mr. Winter, member of the 11th Arkansas regiment, respectfully tenders his thanks to the Southern Hebrew Relief Association, for the kind treatment bestowed on him during his recent illness at the house of Mr. E. Levy. The kindness of Mr. Levy and family is especially remembered by Mr. Winter.

MEETING OF MERCHANTS.—We are requested to state that at 10 o'clock this morning a meeting of merchants and business men will be held at the Merchant's Exchange, north Court street, to take into consideration the recent prohibition, by the military authorities at Columbus, of the transportation of wheat to Memphis from ports above.

EXPLOSIVE.—It has been resolved to blow up the wreck of the old wharf boat at the foot of Union street with gunpowder, if the state of the water will permit. We fear this nuisance will remain a pest for another year, for the river yesterday again began to rise here, and at last advices there were rises in the Mississippi at St. Louis, also in the Missouri and in the Ohio. Could not some of the inventors that are trying their skill in the way of submarine batteries make an experiment on the wreck? They could thus prove the utility of their invention at a profit to themselves.

CONFECTIONERY.—In the face of the difficulties that have caused the suspension of many enterprises, with a perseverance that does him credit, Mr. Rocco has completed a handsome building at the corner of Second and Madison streets, and decorated the interior with graceful taste, and fitted it up as a first-class confectionery. He has on hand a large and well selected stock of candies, fruits, preserves, jellies, oysters, wines, cigars, sardines, raisins, nuts, and all other articles in that line. The public will find his establishment worthy of their liberal patronage.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT.—The concert for the benefit of "our own boys," now lying sick at Columbus, was, by request, postponed until this evening, when all who attend the theater will be treated with a beautiful concert and a number of attractive tableaux. Mr. Farmer, who has just arrived from the army, will give one of his delicious flute solos. A fine national song and chorus, written by Signigo, the Memphis poet, expressly for the occasion, will be sung. Let "our boys" have a good benefit. The ladies will themselves expend the money in such comforts and necessaries as those who are sick among them may require.

CRIMINAL COURT.—This court yesterday finished the misdemeanor docket, comprising 531 cases, excepting a few set for certain days of the term, and so transacting a very large amount of business. The following cases are set for to-day: State vs. Duncan, State vs. Smith, State vs. Bloomingdale. The misdemeanor docket being through with, excepting the set cases, the court announced that the following docket would be taken up in the morning, and the jail cases on bail, in their order, excepting such as may be set for particular days: W. J. Clemens, for assault and battery, was fined one hundred dollars and thirty days imprisonment. He took an appeal. In the case of Mrs. Ray, charged with stealing a watch, the property of Major Dunbar of Corinth, Miss., no true bill was found. True bills of indictment were found against F. Sweed and R. Williams, charged with assault and battery, and against Mary Haynes, charged with larceny.

THE FUNERAL OF DR. SHANKS.—When the citizens generally learned from the newspapers yesterday that Dr. Lewis Shanks had been called away from life by a most calamitous occurrence, expressions of regret were universal. In every part of the city were those who had profited by his kindness, or enjoyed his friendship. At the hour announced for the funeral services, Calvary Church was crowded; every seat was occupied. The coffin was placed on a bier in front of the altar. The service for the dead, so touching and consolatory in the ritual of the Episcopal church, and the solemn notes of the organ harmonizing with the soft music of the voices, produced a profound effect upon the assembly. Dr. White, the respected pastor of the church, delivered a sermon powerful with eloquence, glowing with earnestness, and touching deep the fountain of tears in its gushing pathos. There was no mere fictious sentimentality, no labored effort to be affecting; but there was that naturalness and vigor that is the outpouring of a heart revealing its own grief. Dr. White regarded the deceased as his nearest friend, and it was from the abyss of his own sorrow that he drew the power which beguiled his whole audience of their tears. Stern men, unaccustomed to the display of feeling, melted under the anguish of soul which the speaker's words and tones betrayed. It was an occasion none will forget who were present. At the conclusion of the services, when the last note of the organ had ceased to echo from the roof, when the whispered blessing of the minister had been pronounced, the congregation filed slowly down the aisles, to gaze, for the last time, reverently on the face of the dead. This tribute of affection paid, the coffin was moved to the hearse, the long procession of carriages took up its solemn march, and in Elmwood cemetery, amid the most affecting demonstrations, the body of Dr. Lewis Shanks was laid to await the resurrection of the just. What we saw on this occasion convinced us that the people of Memphis, whatever faults they may possess, have certainly the virtue of knowing how to appreciate a good man.

On 'Change--Business News.

But little business could be done on 'Change yesterday for want of materials. There was a good attendance and a great anxiety to do business, but not a sample of wheat was on the table. The blockade that has been established north of the city is already sending produce up. On Friday of last week the books show that sales of "Eagle Mills" flour were made at $8.75; a lot of 100 barrels of the same brand was sold yesterday at $10. An order for a second 100 barrels at the same price was reported.

It was stated by parties, just from Columbus, that in consequence of the farmers in that neighborhood not being allowed to sell their wheat, where they can purchase their winter's supplies, they are not seeking it or offering it for sale. Much conversation took place respecting the late prohibition and its probable effects, which it was believed would cause calamities. Stress was laid on the fact that when oats, hay, corn, and other articles were prohibited from being brought to this city from above, the prohibition was quietly acquiesced in; but the article wheat stands in a relation so important, and the effects of the artificial scarcity induced, were regarded as likely to prove so serious that it was thought necessary to take direct action upon the subject, and it was thought proper that a public meeting should be held of merchants, business men, and others who feel an interest in the matter. The meeting will be held at 10 o'clock this morning. We had two or three days ago, before the public, the notions the people "on 'Change" entertain on this subject.

A Card.

In making up yesterday, my acknowledgment of contributions received, I overlooked my memorandum of the following, which I with pleasure and in justice to the donors, make now:

Deposited with F. Lane & Co., by Mrs. Bernard Franklin, of Moscow, Tennessee: 4 pairs pants, 7 pairs drawers, 5 pairs wool socks, and 6 blankets.

Sent to my room by a lady of the Gayoso house, 1 pairs socks: by a lady of Natchez, Mississippi, (unknown) 1 small bundle, contents unknown, for Gen. Thompson; by same person and from a place unknown, a sealed bundle for the special use of Gen. Thompson—forwarded by Mr. Henderson.

I also omitted to tender my compliments to the ladies of St. Agnes Academy, for a magnificent flag with the coat of arms of Missouri richly embroidered upon a field three feet square. The embroidery being worked through and through, so as to present the same appearance on both sides. It will be duly honored and appreciated by Missourians. My acknowledgments are also due (though long deferred) to Mrs. Capt. Decker, for the making of several banners and sashes.

In stating yesterday, the contribution from Zion Church, Maury county, an error occurred, by which it appears there was an item of 116 blankets, when it should have been box No. 1, blankets 16.

LETTER FROM PINE BLUFF.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., October 12, 1861.

EDITOR APPEAL: The river at this point is extremely low, and navigation almost entirely suspended. The town of Pine Bluff is extremely dull, nearly all the male inhabitants having gone to the war. Provisions are very high, especially bacon, but pigeons are extremely plenty. Immense flocks of them passing here all the time. It seems as if King Abraham has not been able to blockade the feathered tribe, unless it may be the geese, so many of which are still in the North, and likely to remain there this winter. Those pigeons make a very good dish these hard times. They are quoted in the Pine Bluff price current at about five cents each. Quite an active trade is doing in the article at the present moment. Captains Ben. Smith, McKissock, and others, left here yesterday, overland for Memphis, with abundance of clothing and other supplies for the 9th Arkansas regiment, now stationed at Memphis or Union City. There seems to be little doing here except in army matters, the enthusiasm for which has not yet died away. En route for this place, from Napoleon up, I passed some splendid cotton fields, looking first rate. The region of country between here and Napoleon cannot be beaten for cotton.

Among the plantations I passed was that belonging to the estate of the late Dr. Jordan, considered much the finest and most extensive in the State. It was melancholy to think that the talented and energetic proprietor should have been taken from among us so suddenly. He was the architect of his own fortune, commencing the world, not a great many years ago, as a physician and dying in the prime of life, worth nearly two millions of dollars. His loss to his State, at this time, is severe.

5. You are strictly prohibited from making personal use in any manner whatever or investing in any kind of property, or loaning with or without interest, or exchanging for other funds, without leave of the court, any money or funds of any kind received by you in your official capacity.

VI. You are prohibited from employing except at your own personal expense, any attorney or counsellor to aid you in the discharge of your duties, other than the district attorney of the Confederate States for your district; and you are instructed to invoke to his aid under the 9th section of the law, in all matters of litigation that may arise under the law.

VII. You will take special care to avoid the loss or deterioration of all personal property perishable in its nature, by applying for the sale thereof under the provisions of the 12th section of the law.

VIII. IX. Whenever, in the discharge of your duties, you discover that any attorney agent, former partner, trustee or other person holding or controlling any property, rights or credits of an alien enemy, has wilfully failed to give you information of the same, you will immediately report the fact to the district attorney for your district, to the end that the guilty party may be subjected to the pains and penalties prescribed by the 3d section of the law.

Attorney-General.

NEW SOUTHERN ENGLISH GRAMMAR,

BY REV. ALFAN M. SCOTT, D. D.,

Late President of South Gibson College, in this State.

Dr. Scott is a Tennessean by birth and education, and he has been a practical teacher in various parts of the South and West for thirty years. He has made English Grammar a specialty, and, perhaps, has taught that science to more persons than any other in the Southern Confederacy.

The forthcoming work has been examined in MSS. by many critics, and in every instance pronounced to be eminently adapted to the purposes of school instruction.

The rules are brief and comprehensive, the illustrations are numerous, and the notes just such as the student may need. The examples in parsing are mostly new, and the book will draw on almost every page that it is a

SOUTHERN WORK BY A SOUTHERN AUTHOR.

We appeal to teachers and all others interested in the cause of Southern Education to consider us in this attempt to furnish School Books for our people. We have no more School Books or teachers from the North. Let our divorce from those families who have grown rich upon our industry, and who are now seeking to subjugate us, be extended to our literature in all its departments.

☞ The price of the Grammar will be Twenty.

☞ Liberal arrangements made to supply schools, etc., etc. Booksellers furnished at a liberal discount.

☞ We have also in preparation, from the same author, a new Speller.

M'LEAN'S CORDIAL.

As may be seen, we insert this week the advertisement of McLean's Cordial, etc.

It is very well known we are not particularly favorable to patent medicines, and, as a general thing, eschew the whole of them with but little ceremony, and with these sentiments we declined inserting this advertisement until we knew what were the ingredients of the medicine, and how compounded. This we have learned and believing, as we do, that the ingredients are good, and the compound judiciously made, we recommend it as a mixture worthy of public confidence.

The above is from the St. Louis Christian Advocate edited by the renowned Rev. Dr. McAnally, which speaks volumes in favor of McLean's Cordial. We say to all, try it. See the advertisement in another column. febl dawly

CLARK & FULLER'S AMBROSIAL OIL!

CLARK, GREGORY & CO. Sole Proprietors

CURES Headache, Earache, Toothache, in three minutes; Rheumatism, Coughs, Neuralgia, Colds, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Colic, Cramps, Inflamed Eyes, Chronic Sore Eyes, Sore Throat, Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sprains, Chapped Hands, Piles, Ulcers, Diarrhœa, Bunions, Corns, Frosted Feet, Deafness, Old Sores, Sore Breast, Sore Nipples, Scald Head, Ringworm, Tetter, Scalds, Boils, Spider Bites, Sore Heel and Spinal Bites. The world is challenged for its equal for Scalds and Burns. It cures Scratches on horses, Sore Eyes on horses, Sprains, Swinney, Pole Evil, Fistula, saddle and harness galls, fresh wounds or swellings. It is the best known remedy to apply, to render lame horses from founder—take up the legs and bathe well about the frog of the foot. Cures all rheumatic diseases on man or beast.

No one medicine can cure in all cases, but we can show cures real proof of the virtue of Ambrosial Oil as its healing properties, from respectable citizens, in cases above being bought, than can be produced for any other medicine.

We do not assert a cure for every malady to which the human family are subject, but what we proclaim we can substantiate by living witnesses. The Ambrosial Oil is a Nashville preparation, and sold throughout the South and Southwest by all wholesale druggists and general dealers. The South may be justly proud that Dr. Clark, a native Tennessean, after much labor and research, has produced a really worthy medicine, which is bound to drive out much of the worthless imposed trash with which the country is flooded.

Please call at our office, where we will take pleasure in showing letters and testimonials too numerous to set forth in the form of an advertisement, some of which come from physicians in high standing, who prescribe it in their practice, as they state, with marvelous effects. We challenge the world to produce a remedy so speedy and efficacious in its healing properties.

☞ Read the evidence of the virtue of Clark & Fuller's Ambrosial Oil, evidence so authentic, and from persons whose word and standing are unimpeachable. Read and be convinced.

To Our Country Friends.

COL. CHAS. D. MCLEAN has been good enough to furnish 100 cords of wood for the poor of the city, free of charge. The Memphis and Charleston railroad, through their President, Sam. Tate, will bring the wood to the city free of charge. We must urge this division for our poor, and I request every humane man in the neighborhood of railroads to follow the example of our worthy Mr. McLean, and no doubt all doubt will follow the example of Sam. Tate, Esq.

Respectfully,
JOHN PARK, Mayor.
