POLICE STOP FIGHT BY ORDER OF JOHNSON

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 12.—The police put a stop to a 15-round bout between L. G. Whitehead, colored, of Minneapolis, and Ben Tremble of St. Paul. After two and a half rounds of fighting, a police lieutenant came on the scene accompanied by two officers. The lieutenant told the referee orders had come from Governor Johnson to stop the mill. Honors seemed about even in the first round, but in the second round Tremble began to bear in upon his opponent and had him going when the bell rang. Although the main event on the evening's program was prevented, a lightweight bout between "Kid" Hoopes of San Francisco and Jimmy Barco of St. Paul for five rounds was fought as a draw.

CATERPILLAR IS HIS WEATHER GUIDE

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 12.—Truman Evans, of East Goshen, has long been known as a weather prophet and he does not believe in the "goose-bone" theory. The humble caterpillar is his guide and he is out with the statement that it will be cold during January and a portion of February, the spring being a mild one.

"If the caterpillar," says Evans, "has dark hairs on the head, he means that there will be a cold winter, and if it means cold weather to come early and the time of the cold weather can be told until spring by following the position of the heavy hairs to the tail. This season they are found near the head, protecting that portion."

THIEVES TAKE WATCH DOG, SIGN AND ALL

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The quiet and law-abiding village of Great Neck, L. I., is beset by one of the most audacious thieves on record. He has preyed upon Farmer Michael Quinn until that advocate of the simple life is almost distracted. Quinn suffered a great loss of cabbages, turnips, parsnips and other vegetables, and as a means of warning the intruder against further depredations, put in the center of his potato patch a sign which said: "If you thieves come here again you'll be sorry."

The next morning Mr. Quinn learned that the sign had been stolen, and with it many bushels of potatoes. Then he purchased the most ferocious bull terrier that the village boasted. A feeling of pity welled up from Quinn's heart as he noted the Bismarck and the dog, so before unleashing the dog for the night, he posted a sign which read: "Beware of the dog—the mankiller."

Feeling secure against intrusion, he retired. On arising he found that dog and sign had been stolen, and also nearly all the vegetables that had remained. Quinn finally has appealed to the authorities, and the village police expect that one man has been put on the trail of the miscreant.

POSTMASTER IS VERY BAD MAN THEY SAY

COLON, Dec. 12.—On board the Panama railroad steaming ship Havas which sailed today for New York were Mr. Price, a special agent of the Santa Fe railway and Matthew Kenney, a detective of Kansas City, having in charge a man named Fuller who for the past eight months has been a station agent and postmaster at Pedro Miguel, in the canal zone, but who, it is alleged, is a well known criminal.

It is claimed that the man among other aliases, is known as Armstrong, Leticia and McGee but that his right name is Leticia. It is alleged that he already has been convicted of larceny, burglary and arson and that he has escaped from prison three times. It is further alleged that he has been accused of attempted murder, bigamy and other crimes.

Fuller is said, married his third wife, Anna Lassen of St. Louis, at Cristobal, a month ago.

RUMOR SAYS THAT BECKWITH IS ALIVE

BERLIN, O., Dec. 12.—A wild story was circulated here tonight to the effect that C. T. Beckwith, late president of the failed Oberlin bank, is alive and in Canada. The death of Mr. Beckwith occurred months ago, following the wrecking of his bank by the Chadwick exposure.

An investigation of the story has revealed the slightest foundation for the rumors. The agent of the insurance company which had paid a $25,000 life policy, said tonight that he saw Mr. Beckwith's body several hours after death.

The city officials take no stock in the story and the report that the grave is to be opened was denied.

MAN MAY VOTE ONLY WHERE HE SLEEPS

DES MOINES, Dec. 12.—The Iowa supreme court decided today that a man cannot vote in the precinct where he sleeps.

The ruling was made in the case of Dr. L. Savre, of Oage, who was acquitted on a charge of illegal voting in the precinct where he took two meals a day. The court rule reversed the acquittal and Savre must stand trial for illegal voting.

The court held that a man cannot say for himself where he is to vote, but must cast his ballot in the precinct where he has an established residence. The ruling clears up many disputed points in the Iowa election laws.
