LOCAL MATTERS.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 28.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.—There will be a meeting to-day of the committee appointed at the late defense meeting.

OPENING ON SUNDAY.—John Hastel was fined $20 by the Recorder for having his saloon open on Sunday.

FOR EXAMINATION.—Joseph Savley, charged with shooting Gus. Baker, was yesterday held in $1000 bail to appear before Recorder Moore for examination, on Wednesday next.

APPLES.—An advertisement in another place informs the public that Gilmer & Co., No. 3 Madison street, have one hundred bushels of apples on sale.

PERSONAL.—Colonel Moore, of General Jeff. Thompson's command, in Missouri, returned from New Madrid yesterday. He placed us under obligations by delivering late northern papers.

THANKS.—Aaron Sutton, Esq., with several other gentlemen, who recently left St. Louis, arrived in this city yesterday. Through the kindness of Mr. S. we are in possession of St. Louis papers of the 23d.

☞ We are gratified to refer our friends to the letters of Gen. Jeff. Thompson and Dr. J. S. McDowell, referring to the fact of the abundant supply of clothes, blankets and medicines for his suffering army.

LEATHER—NOT PRUNELLA.—Our enterprising, though venerable neighbor, Thomas Childs, 305 Main street, advertises this morning for sale lots of leather, a lot of brogans, sundry barrels of alcohol, and shoemakers' tools.

☞ Capt. Cameron, of the Memphis Young Guard, is in the city for the purpose of recruiting for the war. Enfield Rifles and sibley tents will be furnished to all who enlist. Fifty men are wanted. He will remain in town five days only.

ARRIVAL.—Gen. A. B. Bradford, of Mississippi, was, on the 22d inst., elected to the Provisional Congress of the Confederate States, to fill the unexpired term of Judge Clayton, and is in the city en route for Richmond, and now stopping at the Worsham House.

MILITIA ORDER.—Brigadier General Carnes publishes a general order this morning, stating that in consequence of the want of tents and camp equipage, the regiments of the 23d brigade will not march to this city until next Saturday, when transportation will be furnished on the different railroads.

MAKING ARMS.—The shop of the Little Rock railroad in Hopefield has, for the last three weeks, been engaged in finishing cannon, smooth bore and rifled, howitzers and Parrot guns, cast in this city. Superintendent Feger is overlooking the work.

RECORDER'S COURT.—At this court, yesterday, there were sixteen cases, five persons paid forty-five dollars, eight were sent to the chain gang, and three were discharged. The charges were, five disorderly, one for resisting the police, two intoxication, four fighting, three misdemeanor, one keeping saloon open on Sunday.

BELLIGERENT.—The state of war appears to be affecting the social elements of society; the number of cases of fighting before the Recorder of late have been far above the average, and he never issued so many peace warrants in the same time as he has done in the past ten days.

DRY GOODS AT WHOLESALE.—We would call especial attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Martin & Beasley, in another column. It will be seen that they offer their entire stock, comprising everything to be found in a first-class dry goods house, at wholesale prices. Now is your time to buy cheap goods of Messrs. Martin & Beasley.

GEN. CARNES' SPECIAL ORDER.—The special order of Gen. Carnes, which we published on Sunday morning last, was copied from a blank, one of each of which, filled up, was addressed to each colonel of the 23d brigade of the Tennessee militia. The copy we published, being in blank, was not fully understood by some of the officers. This explanation will make the matter clear.

AN OYSTER LUNCH.—The splendid new bar room, of the El Dorado, will open this morning. The proprietor, S. Kaufman, will distinguish the occasion by acting before his friends a splendid Oyster lunch. He keeps on hand liquors that will bear the examination of the most fastidious connoisseurs, incomparable cigars, and luxurious wines. The saloon is under the well known El Dorado billiard saloon.

ONE MORE CHANCE.—Mr. Cayce, from the Arcade, wishes us to state to all concerned that they can have one more chance for good bargains—especially the ladies. The goods that will be offered are such as they need. Also will be added to the attraction, two sewing machines, said to be in good order—just what every family ought to have. Ten o'clock is the hour. Don't forget, Cayce is a minute man.

HOME FOR THE HOMELESS.—We are desired by the president and secretary of the board of managers to give notice that there will be a meeting of the board of managers of the Home for the Homeless, at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Johnson, corner of Third and Jefferson streets, on Friday, the 29th instant, at 10 o'clock A. M. As there is important business before the board, all the members are requested to be present.

OVERTON HOSPITAL.—At this institution, J. M. Johnson, of the 12th Tennessee regiment, company H, died on Monday night. He had a leg amputated some days ago. The cause of his death was an attack of pneumonia. At one o'clock yesterday morning, C. H. Middleton, of the 12th Tennessee regiment, company F, died. He was shot in the face; the ball passed obliquely through his nose, then through his cheek, from which it passed into his shoulder, coming out behind.

NEW FLOURING MILL.—We have already mentioned that new machinery is being put into the old Eagle Mills, which will soon be at work again. Yesterday Messrs. Elliott & Co. commenced tearing down the upper portion of the old ice-house on Beal street, between Shelby and Main, intending to so change it as to adapt it to a first-class flouring mill, which they expect to have in operation in four months. They will have three run of stones and turn out from 125 to 150 barrels of flour a day.

VOLUNTEER OR MILITIA SERVICE.—A most excellent opportunity is now offered to such persons as prefer the volunteer to the militia service, to join the regiment of Col. Avery, now being organized at Germantown. Three or four more companies are needed to complete the regiment. If reported immediately the regiment will be armed and equipped forthwith, and ready for service. Now that it is made manifest that all our effective force is soon to be put in the field, we take it for granted that the volunteer service will be preferred. A more gallant or worthy commander than Col. Avery, could not be elected, and we trust his regiment will soon be full and ready for marching orders.

THE ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT.—We have had numerous entertainments during the last few months, and the public have become somewhat critical; but the tableaux last night, under the direction of Mrs. Thompson, defied criticism. They took the fancy and charmed the imagination; they bribed the judgment with the witchery of beauty, and bore away the palm of victory. The house was crowded to excess—a large assemblage of the beauty of Memphis, arrayed with that graceful taste that so signally distinguishes the ladies of this city, were present. The audience was in ecstacies with several of the brilliant, gorgeous scenes presented to their gaze. "The Painter's Studio" was encored with rapturous vehemence. Let those who were not present, imagine a studio filled with portraits, every portrait being, not a painting, but a beauteous, soul-entrancing woman. The effect was electric! The fabled stories of oriental imagination never portrayed a scene more dazzling and enchanting.

On 'Change—Business News.

There was a fair attendance yesterday, but the uncertainty as to who will be detailed on the militia interferes much with business. There was considerable hesitation about operating, as much uncertainty prevails about prices. Flour was drooping and dull; there was no disposition on the part of buyers to purchase and prices were irregular. Sales were as much as $1.50 lower than the highest prices of the season. Corn was very dull and drooping, at the reduced rate of 75c. Wheat was active, at a decline of 25c to 30c a bushel. Sugar was active at unchanged rates. Owing to small stocks, molasses were something firmer. The telegraphic report stated that in New Orleans the market was generally drooping. It is evident that the removal of the blockade is making a considerable reduction in prices in our market, and we heard a general expression of pleasure that there was a good prospect of the necessaries of life being furnished at a more moderate rate to the people.

The sales were: Flour—38 sacks Extra $10.50; 35 bbls. country Superfine $8.12½; 161 sacks Family $9. Wheat—25 bu. $2.10; 100 bu. fair Red $1.50; 100 bu. damaged $1.25; 50 bu. weevil-eaten $1.25; 40 bu. Smith's $1.25; 35 bu. fair $1.55; 40 bu. prime $1.50; 50 bu. common $1.25; 1000 bu. prime Red p. t. Corn—250 bu. White 75c. Rye—50 bu. $1.75; 16 bu. $1.85. Hay—150 bales prairie p. t. Molasses—40 bbls. 23c. Salt—240 sacks coarse $8.50; 100 sacks coarse $9.

The New Orleans papers of Tuesday state that sugar was in ample supply and moderate demand. Molasses were in liberal supply and fair demand. There were no sales of flour reported.

River News and Steamboat Business.

The river fell 1½ inches during the 24 hours ending last evening. The weather cleared up yesterday fine and rather cool. Business at the landing was dull.... The Kentucky, from Columbus, had 353 barrels apples, 340 sacks corn, 109 sacks and 53 barrels flour, 113 hogs, 269 sacks and 51 barrels potatoes, 44 sacks wheat, and a lot of eggs and butter. The Kentucky returns to-day. Capt. Lodwick in command, and our gentlemanly friend Woods at the desk.... The Judge Fletcher, commanded by that careful and experienced officer, Capt. J. F. Smith, leaves to-day for Columbus.... The Equality is up for White river.... The Rose Douglass left for Columbus, the Mears for Vicksburg, the Natchez for New Orleans, and the Yazoo for Columbus.... The N. O. Delta of Tuesday says 30 inches water are reported on the bars of Red river to Shreveport. A New Orleans "journal" remarks: There are now at our landing six Memphis packets, and none of them seem to be receiving anything. If this state of affairs continues to exist, business here will begin to find a resting-place, like that of Memphis.... The St. Louis Republican of Saturday last has the following: The river here is slowly rising. In the 24 hours ending at 10 o'clock, A. M., it swelled 1½ inches, and just 6 feet 10 above low water mark in December, 1860.... The Illinois river is falling slowly, with 3 feet scant in the channel below Peoria, and 3½ feet between Peoria and Lasalle.... The upper Mississippi is falling from St. Paul down, with 3½ feet on t he upper and 30 inches on the lower rapids. Below Keokuk there is 5 feet scant in the channel.... The Missouri river is supposed to be falling, but we have not heard from it in some days. There was 3½ feet scant in the channel, at last accounts, from Leavenworth down.... There is 5 feet in the channel of the river out to Cairo.... The freight is being removed from the sunken steamer W. I. Maclay, and it is probable the boat will be raised.... Business on the landing is dull.... The Ad. Hine came down on Friday with 300 volunteers belonging to the thirteenth Iowa regiment. The remaining 800 are on the Des Moines City and barges, which grounded on Friday near Cape Girardeau. The Ad. Hine went up to the assistance of the Des Moines City after discharging her load of troops.

BOATS LEAVING.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The State vs. Riley, for carrying concealed or under his clothes a bowie knife, was called and tried. The proof did not show the instrument to be certainly such a knife, and, if it were, it was so broken off as to be ineffectual as such, and the defendant was acquitted. The court ruled the law interdicting such instruments, when so worn, as just, and tending to save the effusion of blood. It was lawful to wear them outside the clothes, as done by the soldiers, and they might be proper instruments of warfare; but they were dangerous to the peace and quietude of private life as concealed weapons, and were properly esteemed by the law as unchristian.

The case of the State vs. Selby, passed day before yesterday on account of the absence of defendant's counsel, was called and continued by consent of the State and defendant.

The scire facias docket was called and disposed of.

Motions for new trials will be heard to-day, and no jury cases will be tried, all having been disposed of excepting six or eight set for particular days.

The jail is a prison for the "safe-keeping and confinement of all persons committed under the authority of law," which persons are defined by the statute to be such as are "detained or committed by authority of the courts of the general government, as well as the courts and magistracy of this State." In another place, the statute provides that "no person can be committed to prison for any criminal matter until examination thereof be first had before some magistrate." The Legislature has thus jealously and properly guarded against the imprisonment of a citizen in jail, except by lawful authority. Several cases having occurred in which parties were not committed lawfully, the court, not changing any rule on the subject, and to save future trouble, directed the sheriff, as jailer, to receive no person without a mittimus, and added that, if any offense had been committed, or there were reasons to believe so, it was easy and convenient for parties to appear before a magistrate and obtain a mittimus, that the imprisonment may be lawful, or to a lawful officer of the general government: and the suspected person could be easily retained in custody till then without subjecting him to the disgrace of the prison before he has been ordered there by lawful authority. It is the duty of citizens to arrest parties for crime, but they have no power to commit to jail. Neither the military authorities, nor any acting under them, can violate the law. The Constitution of the State, rigidly guarding the person of the citizen, declares that, "in all cases, the military shall be kept in strict subordination to the civil authority."

THE DEFENSE OF VICKSBURG—MEETING OF THE CITIZENS.—A meeting of the citizens of Vicksburg was held last Friday evening, for the purpose of ascertaining what ought to be done in the present critical juncture of affairs for the safety of the city. A series of resolutions were adopted, the most important of which we subjoin:

WHEREAS, from the statements of our generals in the field, and from the action of our governor and the State Legislature, we have reason to think that there is an impending crisis in the affairs of our State and country demanding prompt and energetic measures on the part of all our citizens; therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of three for each ward in this city be appointed by the chairman, to ascertain how many guns, pistols, and of what kind, and what amount of powder, shot, lead and caps are in the possession of each inhabitant, and on sale; and how many men there are capable of bearing arms not now members of volunteer companies, with their names, and that they be instructed to report the result of their investigation to the chairman of this meeting on Monday next.

Resolved, further, That the citizens of Warren county are requested to meet in their several police districts and take action of a nature similar to that which this meeting has resolved to take in the several wards of this city.

Resolved, That the citizens of Hinds and adjoining counties be requested to co-operate with this city and county for our common protection and defense.

The proceedings of the meeting were forwarded to the governor at Jackson.

FOR MISSISSIPPI READERS.

EDITORS APPEAL: Mr. James Fort, of Holly Springs, has announced himself in the Mississippian, as a candidate for election to the office of Auditor of Public Accounts for the State of Mississippi. For the information of your Mississippi readers who do not know Mr. Fort personally, I subjoin a communication which appeared in the Mississippian in reference to him as a candidate for the office:

JAMES FORT, ESQ.

From the Mississippian, November 22d.

EDITORS MISSISSIPPIAN: It is truly gratifying to the friends of the gentleman whose name heads this article, after much private solicitation, to see him announced in your paper of yesterday, as a candidate to fill the vacancy in the Auditor's office, occasioned by the death of its late occupant, the lamented Burt. Those who know Mr. Fort well, have long been aware that his capacity to fill a position of this character is second to none in the State, and I trust that the following testimonials of his worth as a gentleman, and his fitness for the position to which his friends desire that he should be elevated, will not be deemed out of place, now that it is perhaps more important than ever before in the history of the State, that the "right man should be in the right place." A distinguished jurist who has known him long and intimately, thus speaks of him:

"I have often selected him, in preference to all other persons, to act as a commissioner in chancery cases of great importance involving intricate and complicated matters of account in which I was concerned as counsel. I think I may say without vanity, that I have some reputation as an accountant—at least among the legal profession in the State of Mississippi. I say it only to give emphasis to my declaration that I regard Mr. Fort as one of the most able and accomplished accountants I ever knew. I vouch for him as a gentleman who will belie all his antecedents if he does not prove to be "honest, faithful and capable," in whose hands the interest of the State will be safe, and whose election I believe would be a most fitting and judicious one."

Another says:

"He is a well educated, thorough business man—a good book-keeper and an excellent accountant, and he combines in an eminent degree all the qualities which fit him for the office."

Many others of a similar character, but these are deemed sufficient. If elected his faithful and thorough discharge of the duties of the office, together with his amiable reserve, prompted by the purity of his morals, and his integrity of character would so endear him to those with whom he would come in contact, that he would become a fixture in the office as long as he felt disposed to occupy it. VICKSBURG.

Correspondence.

MISSOURI STATE GUARD, CAMP NEW MADRID, November 25, 1861.

Prof. Joseph N. McDowell, Surgeon Gen. of Missouri:

DEAR SIR: It affords me pleasure to thank you for the active part you have taken in obtaining clothing and stores for my army in your late visit to New Orleans. My men have been enduring the hardships of a soldier's life with uncomplaining firmness, but now when the frosts of winter and merciless storms are about to close in upon us, their valor and patriotism could not sustain them without some of the comforts which are being now so lavishly bestowed upon us by the kind hearted and neighborly people of the Southern States. I am satisfied that you have used your utmost endeavors in our behalf, and not only our sick, but our healthy soldiers, are under many obligations to you, and will remember you hereafter with many thanks.

Hoping that "peace" will soon smile on unhappy Missouri, and that we can all return to our once happy homes,

I remain your obedient servant,

M. JEFF. THOMPSON,
Brigadier-General Commanding.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 26, 1861.

GEN. M. JEFF. THOMPSON: I have received your polite note approving my efforts to supply your suffering brigade with medicine, hospital stores, and clothing. In my recent visit South, I left your camp too ill, to attend the sick, but placed them in good hands. So soon as I had recovered, I repaired to New Orleans, and made my publications and never did any people respond more cheerfully. I had expected to receive a few things and those for the suffering sick, but to my astonishment, I received donations in thousands, as well for the healthy soldier as for the sick. But while you return me thanks for my efforts, allow me to give thanks to others of your brigade. Your brigade surgeon, Dr. Smith, and your regiment surgeons, Drs. Homer, Means, Bartlett, and Dr. Mondil, deserve more credit than I do, for their faithful and true attention to the hospitals.

Relying in the justice of our cause and a confidence in Heaven, we may trust the banner of Missouri for the final issue. With such men as are in Southeast Missouri, and her natural defenses the swamps, they never can be conquered. Let your motto be, "Remember Marion of the Santee and Podee, and dye every lye-path, river and bayou with the blood of the ruthless invader."

I am sir, yours, and the State of Missouri's to the end of the war,

JOSEPH N. MCDOWELL.

ATTENTION, DRAGOONS!

THOSE who have joined my company will hold themselves in readiness to go into camp at this place, on MONDAY, December 2d, when the equipments and arms will be complete by that time. I have not yet my entire complement of men, (one hundred), and wish a few more good men, who wish to go in a twelve-month's company, thoroughly armed and equipped, rather than be drafted into the militia service.

Each man is required to furnish a horse; only all other equipments will be furnished. Appliances will find me at E. M. Apperson & Co's store.
