MEMPHIS APPEAL.

☞ A female suffrage amendment to the Constitution has been introduced into the Indiana Legislature.

☞ A magnetic bank lock without key or keyhole, and impossible to pick, is among the recent inventions.

☞ At a recent convention of literary associations at Philadelphia, colored associations were admitted.

☞ Missouri papers contain frequent notices of clergymen throwing up their pastoral charges in order to escape the test oath.

☞ The total vote of Wisconsin solely for the negro suffrage question, is two hundred and eighty for and one thousand one hundred and sixty-six against that measure.

☞ It is stated that as the Emperor Napoleon III., is forbidden by his physician to smoke, he is distributing his fine collection of meerschaum pipes among his friends.

☞ The farmers in the Catskill Mountain regions are complaining that the bears, said to be unusually numerous this year, are killing large numbers of sheep.

☞ New York has one policeman for every four hundred residents; Boston one for every five hundred; Chicago one for six hundred and fifty-six; Baltimore one for eight hundred; Philadelphia one for one thousand and fifty.

☞ The wreckers have raised a great portion of the famous rebel iron clad Merrimac, which was sunk off Norfolk. The composition wheel of nine tons, fifty feet of the stern and a section of the shaft were brought up at one lifting, and have been carried to the navy yard.

☞ All sorts of projects are afloat in Washington to give the negroes a living—among them "a laundry of the National Freedmen's Industrial School." "We are doing," they say, "all kinds of washing much lower than any other establishment in the city."

☞ Hundreds of Lilliputian graves have recently been discovered in Middle Tennessee. Skeletons less than two feet high, but evidently those of adults, have been found, and there are all sorts of theories as to the time the pilgrims flourished there.

☞ The ribbon trade at Lyons, France, has received the liveliest impulse from America since the close of the war. Many heavy orders have been lately received. The operatives seem to have plenty of work, and at better wages than ever before, for the price of ribbons has risen almost one-third.

☞ The Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the stamp duty upon bills of lading in no wise depends upon the stamp duty on the receipts of the Steamboat Law, given for two distinct transactions, and each must bear the appropriate stamp. If more than one bill of lading is issued, each must be stamped as an original.

☞ The Collector of Internal Revenue for Montana Territory, in a letter received by the Secretary of the Treasury, says that the produce of the gold and silver mines of that Territory for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five will be upward of sixteen million. In eighteen hundred and sixty-two the Territory was a wilderness, uninhabited except by savages.

☞ Gen. Milroy has received at Nashville, a collection of human remains found in ancient graves in Wilson county, Tenn. They were taken from rough stone coffins, made of slabs, put up in the shape of a box, without cutting or hewing, and none of them exceeding twenty-four inches in length, the average being fifteen to eighteen inches. There are scores of these graves at various points, and there is not a large skeleton to be found.

☞ The crew of the brig Troubadour, from St. Johns, N. B., which arrived at City Point a few days ago, reports that during the voyage, while the vessel was sailing at great speed, the captain, in a fit of "horrors," jumped overboard and was drowned. As soon as he launched into the sea the boat hauled to the wind and a heavy gangway plank thrown overboard; but this the captain refused to catch hold of, and struck off in another direction. Therefore the small boat could be launched and get after him, he sank to rise no more. The Troubadour was brought into port under command of the first mate.

☞ Carrie Bigelow, aged twelve years, was drowned in Kishwaukie, Ill., on Thanksgiving day. In company with several other young girls, she was sliding on the ice just below the bridge, when the ice gave way, and she and a girl by the name of Styles went through, the water being eight or ten feet deep. The Styles girl was rescued by George Tuttle, who took the end of a rope and went out to the girls, breaking his way through the ice, but before any means could be devised for rescuing the other girl she sunk.

☞ Rev. Ebenezer Schofield, pastor of the Baptist Church in Amboy, was killed at Warren, Ill., on Friday last. It seems that he was engaged near a standing freight train on the track, the train being unexpected in the middle, but the cars were so near together that those passing between them had barely room by turning sideways as they passed the bumpers. Mr. S. had repeatedly passed this dangerous point, but at the fatal moment when the train backed, was between the bumpers and nearly out in two. He expired a few hours after the accident.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Worcester Spy, says: The other day it was reported on the streets that the notorious and most infamous Quantrell had arrived here as a pardon-seeker, and taken a room at one of the hotels. There was immediately intense excitement among the Kansas men stopping in the city, and some half-dozen of them, armed with pistols, hunted for him diligently. I am convinced that they would have shot him on sight if they could have found him. But no Quantrell was found; the report was false. Those best informed in regard to the movements of this noted rebel, are sure that he died at Louisville just before the close of the war. His real name was Quantrell. The name, Charles Hart, by which he was known during the border-ruffian war in Kansas, was assumed.

☞ There are great numbers of Germans, fresh from Fatherland, proceeding to Missouri, where many of their countrymen now are, to take up the unoccupied lands in that State which yet belong to the Government. It is said that there are over six million of acres of land yet to be had at one dollar and a quarter an acre, and much of the land is very superior. We understand that twenty-four thousand six hundred and thirteen acres were taken up for homestead actual settlement, more than one-third of which were railroad (even numbered sections), or two dollars and fifty cents per acre land. Recent dispatches from Oregon indicate a rapid extension of pre-emption and home steed settlements in that region. At Humboldt, Kansas, two thousand five hundred and sixty-three acres, in November, were located with agricultural college scrip.

☞ In the New Bedford Police Court, Mary E. Haskell, a girl only fifteen years old, was complained of by her father for truancy, having been married to one Lu Haskins, in October last. Her father forbids her husband, Charles J. Haskell, who is living. For the defense it was claimed that respondent having been first married at the age of thirteen years without the consent of her mother, who is her only living parent, and having been separated from Haskell by his being incarcerated in the State Prison, and having no intention to live again with him, that marriage was void. Thereupon it was by the consent of all showed, how ever, that she had expressed an intention to live with Haskell after his term of imprisonment should expire. The Court said that the reports hold that a female of twelve years is of legal age to consent to her own marriage, and respondent was ordered to furnish three hundred dollars bail for her appearance at the Superior Court at Taunton, in March. The complaint in the above case is married to the brother of her sister's first husband, both of whom were sent to the State Prison last June for shoplifting in Westport.

☞ BLOODY SETTLEMENT OF AN OLD FEUD.—A serious shooting affair occurred at Neoga station, in Jackson county, Illinois, on Wednesday, Oct. 11th. The parties concerned were two men by the name of Williams, and one named Clare, on one side, and two Hams, father and son, on the other. The cause was an old feud existing for some time. For the purpose of settling it they came at the precinct on election day armed with rifles and double barrelled guns. At the first fire one of the Williams was killed, and Ham, Sr., firing at the other brother, Newton Williams, aimed his aim, the ball unfortunately taking effect on the body of a Baptist preacher, named Grantham, and inflicting what is believed to be a mortal wound. Meanwhile, the younger Ham was shot down, and his father, standing over him, defended his body with clubbed but empty gun. While thus engaged, Newton Williams approached, and firing the barrel with fatal effect into the breast of the father, turned and discharged the other through the head of the prostrate and disabled son. This ended the difficulty. Newton Williams remained on the ground nearly all the day, assisted in the burial of his brother, and defied arrest. Next day Capt. Rawn, of the seventh infantry, in command at Marianna, with a file of men, proceeded to the spot, and arrested Williams at his own house. Clare at last accounts, was still at large.
