CORBETT WILLING TO STAKE MIKE SCHRECK

Former Champion Believes His Man Can Give Jeffries His Money's Worth.

Frank Hayes Has Opinion on Subject—Believes Corbett's Judgment Good.

Jim Corbett has expressed a willingness to bet from $5,000 to $15,000 on Mike Schreck. This is significant. Corbett's judgment as to the outcome is not to be disregarded. The writer has an intimate acquaintance with Corbett and his methods, and is morally certain that there are some good reasons underlying his determination to put his money up on Schreck.

It is very evident to me that with such a man as Corbett backing Schreck, the big boiler-maker will have the fight of his life on his hands, and may succumb altogether. The most distinguished fighters of our country have been given opportunities to prove their superiority over Schreck, but from one excuse or another they have shied clear of engaging him. I very much fear that if any of our northwestern fighters should undertake the job, the first punch would start them on a pilgrimage to the tall timber, as was the experience of my erstwhile friend Jim Arnold.

JOE GANS CALLS TURN ON NOISY TOMMY BURNS

Joe Gans and Tommy Burns came together in Buffalo the other day. Burns had said that Gans was afraid to fight Memsic. Gans accepted and took $1,000 out of his pocket and putting it in the hands of the sporting editor of the Buffalo Courier, scornfully said: "I did not come up here so much to arrange a match as I did to ask you why you wish to put your man against a colored man when you will not fight Jack Johnson." Burns did not reply to this, and Gans left with his money still in the hands of the sporting editor.

It certainly was a great opportunity for Memsic, while Gans had everything to lose and nothing to gain.

If Tommy Burns would not do so much talking and fight Mike Schreck and defeat him, he might have some claim to a championship. He don't seem to want any of Mike's game, and the people are getting tired of his newspaper fighting claims.

TOMMY SULLIVAN CAN'T MEET ATTELL'S WEIGHT

It seems impossible for Tommy Sullivan, formerly of Brooklyn, and at present a boxing instructor of St. Louis to reduce sufficiently to meet Abe Attell. If Tommy could only meet Attell's weight it would be the greatest featherweight battle seen for many moons, and would be worth while going many miles to see. Sullivan is a fighter, and is decidedly clever, but no featherweight every stepped into the ring who could excel the cleverness of Attell.

GOTCH MAY WRESTLE THE RUSSIAN LION

A $10,000 purse will be hung up for a wrestling match between George Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion, and Frank Gotch, the American champion, to take place in Kansas City in May. The promoters and Gotch will notify Hackenschmidt that $5,000 will be posted in England to insure the purse, which will be divided on the basis of 75 and 25 per cent. A side bet of $1,000 will also be made.

SULLIVAN AND CORBETT CONTEST NEXT WEEK

Next week I will write about the great Sullivan and Corbett fight at New Orleans as I saw it. A party of Duluth fellows left here to see the fight. There were two other contests between McAuliff and Myers, and Dixon and Skelly. The party was made up of P. McDonnell, Tom Donnelly, Jack Roach, Andy Hillberry, Tom Cassidy, Brad Olcott, Nick Drew, Chas. Dunphy, Dan Ryan and myself. Every one in the party bet on Corbett, except Paddy McDonnell and myself. We almost had to walk home. I'll tell the story next week.

ANOTHER DULUTH PRODUCT.

Duluth is proud of the boys she has brought forth. No city of its size in this union has given birth and training to so many young men and women of national life—both useful and ornamental. Newt Randall a Duluth boy who will take the outfield in the Chicago Cubs for the ensuing season, leaves today to begin his work. This is a well merited recognition and we congratulate our young friend on his promotion. We know he will make good.

DULUTH HEIGHTS GOSSIP BRIEF AND SOCIAL NEWS

Volunteer Fire Company Holds Important Meeting—More Fire Hose Desired.

Much Discussion Over Proposed Public Improvements—Cement Side Walks.

The Volunteer Fire company held a most enthusiastic meeting last Tuesday evening. Only a few were present, but it is the same few who have succeeded in keeping the organization together for the past five years.

After reports from committees were heard it was resolved to request the fire commissioners for 1,000 feet of hose for emergency use. After the good and welfare had passed a discussion took place over proposed improvements for the Heights during the coming season.

It was thought that steps should be taken to building cement sidewalks on the improved streets. Petitions will be circulated for planting trees on Orange street.

The movement for a park near the pumping station has been renewed. The public affairs committee will probably take the matter up at its next meeting.

Some of the residents along Palmetto street are talking about boulevarding that street, by putting stone gutters in a thirty foot road way with a grass plot between the curb and the side walk.

An informal discussion on the matter of starting a sewer on the Heights was had at the meeting but most of those present believed it to be too great an undertaking for the coming year.

RAG SOCIAL, A DANDY.

The rag social was largely attended Wednesday evening. A very appropriate program was arranged, and much credit is due its originators. Very fine prizes were given for the winners of the several events. Mrs. Pennell's comical songs were the life of the evening. Happy Holligan sang "My Wife is the real McKye in fine style. Mr. Maghan gave several fine selections on the phonograph. The proceeds of the entertainment are for the maintenance of the Highland church.
