

LABOR DECALOGUE.

I. Thou shalt join a union of thy craft, and have no other unions before it. II. The meetings thereof shalt thou attend and pay thy tithes with regularity. Thou shalt not attribute unholiness to thy brother in union. Beware of the fact that, though thou be honest, "there are others."

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST

A Good Story From Maryland by Franklin H. Wentworth.

They were both from the heart of Maryland. One of them was slight, delicate, with finely chiseled features. His brow was frank and open; his lips and nostrils tremulous with sensitiveness and feeling.

NOT BY BREAD ALONE; REV. CHARLES STELZLE

Economic Question Not the Only One to Determine Human Destiny.

The economic interpretation of history completely satisfies the man "whose God is his belly," and who has forgotten that Christ once said to the tempter, "Man does not live by bread alone."

FOOD FOR REFLECTION PARASITE AND WORKER

There are 1,000 men in this nation whose combined income is greater than the total wages of the 22 million toilers whose labor produce it all.

PARASITES. Many of the fashionable women of Newport spend $2,706 a year on their pet dogs.

WORKERS. The American workman receives but $47 a year with which to keep his family of five—18th U. S. Labor report.

One woman had a house built for her dog, the exact model of a Queen Anne cottage, with rooms elegantly papered and carpeted, and windows hung with lace curtains.

Howard Gould has a cow house which cost him $250,000, a hen house which cost $150,000, and a fence around them both which cost $10 per running foot.

It is estimated that there are 1,000 women in New York who spend $50,000 each annually on their wardrobes.

Mrs. C. W. Mackay has a marble bath tub which cost $50,000.

Young Bradley Martin spent $40,000 on his wedding costume.

Mrs. Lars Anderson has a dress she wore in London society which cost one-half million dollars.

J. Hobart Moore's table expenses are $200 per day, which does not include his wine.

There are dogs in New York city wearing coats lined with ermine, and worth $200 each. A pocket in each contains a fine silk handkerchief.

The Countess Castellane (Miss Anna Gould), has a bed valued at one million dollars.

Its luxury madness has made New York the only American city in which $100,000 fetes and dinners have been given. New York can boast of dinners that cost $500 a plate and where gold plate service was used, costing $50,000.

FLOUR CITY UNIONS TO HAVE NEW HOME

Plan Erection of Magnificent Structure Costing Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Present Quarters Wholly Inadequate for the Accommodation.

The labor unions of the city want a new home, one that is outside of the patrol limits, and in less than a month architects will be drawing plans for a structure to cost close to $100,000.

For years past Alexander's hall on Sixth street has been too small to house the various unions, and it has been a difficult thing to arrange meetings so as not to conflict with each other.
