LOCAL MATTERS.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Dr. Kerr will preach at Dr. Steadman's (First Presbyterian) Church Sunday morning, at eleven o'clock.

BLOCK & CO.—We are indebted to these enterprising gentlemen for the earliest copies of the latest papers.

EMMONS & SON.—Full files of all the latest papers from each state and territory. Table by Mess s. Emmons & Son, Jefferson street.

THE SOLDIERS' RELIEF SOCIETY.—A meeting of the members of this Society is called by the President, at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, at ten o'clock.

LATE PAPERS.—We are again indebted to our friend, Loop, of the Southern Express, for late papers, among which was a copy of the New Orleans Echo of the evening of the 6.

SINKING OF THE CATAWBA.—In our river column will be found an account of the sinking of this steamer in White river on last Monday night.

MEETING IN CHELSEA.—There will be a meeting of the conservatives of Chelsea held tonight at Butchers Hall, on Second street. Let there be a good turnout.

MORALITY.—Only two arrests had been entered at the register at the station house last night when we made our usual ten o'clock visit, one for drunkenness, and the other, a negro, for an attempt at burglary in South Memphis.

DAN WILLIAMS.—We understand that this negro, who has been lying for the past months in jail, charged with killing Maj. Darwin Stewart, will be released on bail to-morrow, as the proof against him is by no means clear enough to convict him of willful murder.

REPEATED FAVORS.—Every day we are the recipients of favors from the Pioneer Express Company, and yesterday our friend Frank M. Myers laid upon our table a huge bundle of the very latest Northern and Southern and Western papers.

FOURTH WARD MEETING.—The Conservatives of the Fourth Ward, irrespective of former party associations, will meet, tonight, at the Billiard Saloon (up stairs), for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention, to be held on the seventh. A full attendance is hoped for.

THE INDEPENDENT BUTCHERS.—Jerry Powell and John Trevathan, the enterprising butchers, who are not by any means partisans as to whose cattle they kill to supply their stall, were brought before Squire Creighton, yesterday, charged, therein even repeated, their case was continued over until to-day.

THE MATINEE YESTERDAY.—Never have we seen so many children congregated together as we saw at the circus yesterday afternoon, it being for the benefit of the Southern Soldiers Home. There was a general turnout on the part of the ladies and the children, to assist in providing a permanent home for the brave and unfortunate ones of the "lost cause."

BURGLARIOUS.—An attempt was made by two burglars at about five o'clock yesterday morning, to enter the store of Bohler & Borram, Main street, but the burglars were discovered at their work by two policemen, who made an attempt to capture them, but the burglars heard their approach and fled down Adams street, and turning into Bank Alley, they escaped.

DRUNKS.—Our city is fast improving in sobriety, if we are to judge from the number of disciples of Bacchus, that appeared before the Recorder yesterday, and these to all intents and purposes, were sober for once, and looked very sorry for what they had done, especially after having to pay six dollars, each, for the privilege of spending a night in the station house.

THE ORPHANS' FAIR.—The large hall used for dinner was crowded with charming citizens last night, from the gray haired and portly merchant, grave matron, beautiful belles, and dashing beaux, down to the bright eyed, golden haired fairy of thirteen summers. All had gathered there to contribute something to this charitable and most worthy object. The Fair will be continued to-night.

PENITENTIARY BIRDS.—Deputy Sheriff Pryor passed through the city yesterday, having in charge the following prisoners, sentenced to the penitentiary at the last term of the Shelby Circuit Court, at Raleigh: Jerry Hermes and Henry Beckton, for stealing two bales of cotton from a Mr. Caldwell, near Hickory Withe, sentenced for five years each; Taylor Hayes, for an assault upon Col. Chesher with an axe, for three years; and Mack Butler, a white man, for selling twenty-one dollars in gold, went up for three years.

THE NEGRO AGAIN.—Yesterday morning a white soldier, whose name we could not learn, had an altercation with a negro on Beale street, during which the negro drew a knife and cut the soldier severely in the arm. The negro, whose name is John Grady, was immediately afterwards arrested by the police, who started with him for the Station House, but in the meantime the soldier had recovered from the effects of the blow of the knife, and rallying, drew a pistol and made several attempts to shoot him, and for this purpose followed him to the door of the Station House, and was only deterred from doing so by the efforts of the Police.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Memphis is becoming quite moral, and no longer are the gay scenes that were enacted at the Recorder's Court, to be seen there, but in their stead a few straggling policemen, a knot of reporters with empty note books and a "beggarly account of empty benches, all to make up a picture." The Recorder looks nervous and uneasy and casts furtive glances at the Police as though he thought they had been derelict in their duties. The clerk looks disconsolate because there are no fees coming in, or perhaps at the recollection of the mysterious disappearance of that one hundred dollar note, the reporters look grave and serious as well they may. Only nine cases, and six of these ordinary drunks. Well may they look serious, for the Bluff City is fast becoming too serious for anything sensational, save in an explosive kind of way, and the river reporters get all the benefit of that.

THE IRVING BLOCK.—Yesterday the last of the dingy wall that surrounded this institution was pulled down, and as we passed that end, yesterday, we saw a negro standing guard, as it were, at the door, but instead of holding in his hand a musket, he held the staff of a whitewash brush, with which he had been effacing the traces left there by its late occupants; but what, thought we, can office items do in the memories of those who lately occupied its numerous rooms, the misery and remembrance of the days, weeks, and months spent there, to say nothing of the dread of being taken forth to a court martial, and thence to the gallows, and the nameless fear or dread of this that haunted them in their dreams by night, and troubled them in their thoughts by day. Ah! how many sad and sorrowful scenes are connected with these walls, which will, in a few days, resound with the noise and tumult of a busy mart, instead of the vibdal jest of the guard or the armed tread of the sentry—all gone, and in their stead bright and smiling faces, bending over costly goods, and that which but a few months since was a place to be passed hastily and timidly, is forgotten in the busy rush of business, and the mercurial god who surmounts the front, and the cauchon lions that adorn the corners, will look down upon a far different scene, and the dreaded prison will be numbered with the things that were.

Speciti's.—In our rambles yesterday we dropped in upon our old friend Joseph Speciti, at No. 37 Madison street, and spent an hour in looking through his well regulated establishment, and watching the crowd which was attracted there by the cakes and confectionaries which he has prepared for his customers during the festive season. As every one knows that they are of his own manufacture, and not the stale articles imported from the North, of course they rush to his rooms for supplies. In connection with his other business, a magnificent oyster saloon for ladies has been opened out in real Oriental style, and where polite and attentive waiters can always be found, and the bivalves are served in splendid style.

Columbian Gin.

For Pine Bluff, Little Rock and Fort Smith, Capt. Robe Haines is receiving freight and passengers for the above, and will leave on Saturday. RIVER MATTERS.

Weather and Business.

The weather yesterday was clear, soft and balmy, and the dust insufferable.

Business was again very dull, and the number of boats arriving and departing, was very small indeed, and all that went up, left with very light trips.

The river is still falling rapidly, having fallen sixteen inches since our last report.

Arrivals.

Steamer G. W. Graham, from St. Louis.
" Alabama, from New Orleans.
" Vicksburg, from Vicksburg.
" Mississippi, from St. Louis.
" Lady, from Madrid Bend.
" Nevada, from Hatchie river.
" Meinotte, from Cincinnati.
" Mississippi, from New Orleans.

Departures.

Steamer Dee Are, for White river.
" City of Cairo, for St. Louis.
" G. W. Graham, for St. Louis.
" Silver Moon, for Cincinnati.
" Mississippi, for New Orleans.

Boats in Port.

Minnesota, Ellwood, Lady, Hero, Justice, Memphis, Northwest.

Miscellaneous.

The Darling blew out her cylinder head when some thirty miles above here, on last Wednesday. Luckily no one was injured.

The Minnesota is posted for Cincinnati this evening. She is a swift boat, and has the old fashioned business.

The Nevada came in from Hatchie river yesterday, with two hundred bales of cotton.

From the officers of the Albert Pearce, which arrived here yesterday, we learn that the little White river packet Catawba, while going up White river, on Monday night, when some four miles below Jacksonport, she struck a log and immediately sunk. No lives were lost, and as the bow of the boat rests upon the log, and her stern having swung round into shoal water before sinking, the larger part of the cargo will be saved, although the boat will prove a total loss. The Catawba was on her way from this port to Jacksonport, and was laden with merchandise and agricultural implements.

The Henry Ames was hard aground yesterday, near Cairo and about half way down President's Island. The Commonwealth was lightening her off.

The favorite Laura Fenton will be found at the wharf this morning, and will leave for Louisville this evening. The Laura is a safe and reliable boat, and her passengers will receive every attention from the officers, who are of the olden time.

The steamer Kilsburg arrived at daylight yesterday morning, with a fair cargo and full of people. She returns this evening. Her officers are polite and attentive, and their boat is comfortable and clean.

The G. W. Graham arrived from St. Louis since our last report, with a good trip. She returned last evening with a light one.

The Albert Pearce brought out of White river one hundred and twenty-five bales of cotton, including twenty-five for this port. She reports nine feet of water in that river to Jacksonport.

The Alabama came up from New Orleans yesterday, full of people. She returns this evening.

The high-handed Mississippi passed down last night, with a fair trip of passengers and freight.

A private dispatch was received yesterday, by Capt. Jack Lee, that the Sixth and Louisiana passed Vicksburg yesterday morning. They will, consequently, arrive here to-morrow morning, and leave at twelve—the latter for Louisville and the former for St. Louis.

The City of Cairo went out full of people, but with little freight.

The Justice brought one hundred and twenty-five bales of cotton out of White river.

Capt. Jo. Elliott, of the firm of Elliott & Miller, stated to us that a large shipment from the firm and retires to his "bluegrass" farm, in Kentucky. We regret to lose Capt. Miller from our circle of friends, but envy him his retirement. He is accompanied by Capt. E. S. Levy, the gallant commander of the late steamer Miami, who brings with him a life time's experience in the steamboat business.

The Henry Von Phul left New Orleans on Wednesday for this port with 300 bales.

The Clifton left Cincinnati on Thursday last in place of the Golden Eagle.

The fast-going Memphis is off for Little Rock this evening.

The North-west has her flag up for Wittsburg this afternoon.

The Ellwood brought out of Hatchie river yesterday two hundred bales of cotton.

The Silver Moon went out for Cincinnati last evening, with a crowded cabin and two hundred and eighteen bales of cotton.

The splendid steamer Mary E. Forsyth will arrive this morning, and leave for New Orleans at noon. She is in every way reliable.

The little Lady brought down six hundred sacks of corn yesterday, from Madrid Bend.

The great Keytone will be down this afternoon, and leave for New Orleans at five P. M.

The Rivers Above.

The Louisville Journal, of Monday, says the river was falling slowly. By the mark, at six o'clock, there was six feet four inches water in the canal, four feet four inches in the Falls cut, and three feet four inches over the rocks. Floating ice made its appearance in the river at that point on Monday for the first time this winter. The logs were numerous, but not at all formidable. They will not interfere with navigation, unless the present north pole weather should continue for several days. The floating islands of ice, hugging the Kentucky curve of the river, were so novel in that latitude that they were viewed with interest by all who crossed upon the river front.

The Cairo Democrat of Thursday says: The river continues to fall at a very rapid rate—from three to four feet per day. Business was rather more than moderate yesterday, but not particularly brisk. The weather was warm and pleasant—a perfect spring day.

The New Orleans True Delta of Wednesday says:

Yesterday was without exception the most disagreeable day of the past eighteen hundred and sixty-six. At early morn it was cold and damp, threatening rain at any moment. About nine o'clock it commenced to blow with a slow driving rain with high wind, which continued throughout the entire day. Even appearances we can expect but little improvement. Owing to the weather yesterday but little was done in the way of shipping. The few boats that left, however, had good trips. There was quite a number left over until today, being unable to get their freight down.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the seventh says: The weather was cold, clear and moderating last night, with the mercury at thirty-two degrees above zero, and the wind from the east. Navigation is suspended at Pittsburgh. Our dispatches give the latest information from all points above Cincinnati. There was very little ice running past the city yesterday afternoon and last night. The river is still receding at the rate of two feet every twenty-four hours. There is thirteen feet home to Louisville. There are six feet in the Canal, and twelve feet on the shoalest bars along the lower Ohio. There are seven feet and falling in the Cumberland.

The Cumberland is falling with five and a half feet on the shoals.

The St. Louis Republican of the seventh, says: The river is falling slowly. Weather pleasant. Ice rapidly thinning. To Cairo there is ten feet of water. Upper rivers closed, with good water, and a rise reported in the Missouri. There is a good stage of water in the Cumberland, seemingly permanent for since months to come.

Larry Harmstad, 14 Jefferson street, agent.

FINANCIAL.

Money matters were remarkably dull yesterday; in fact far more so than for many a day. The universal reply to our inquiries being "nothing doing." There is a considerable falling off in the demand for Exchange which however closed firm at former rates, and should the present dullness in the Cotton market continue, we are apt to hear for some time to come, "nothing doing." New Orleans Time Bills are quiet and steady at the following rates: Tenday bills ¾, Fifteen-days 1, and Thirty-days 1¼ per cent. premium.

Gold and Silver.

This market is very quiet and prices remain steady at former rates. We continue to quote Gold buying 38, and selling at 39 and 40. Silver buying at 33 and selling at 35.

Currency.

Currency remains easy and quiet with but little doing, being seriously affected by the depressed state of the Cotton market, in which the news by the last steamers has caused a fastness that it will take time to recover from, and the holders of the staple will not want funds save to balance their bank accounts.

Government Stocks.

There was some demand yesterday at the counters for Seven-thirties, which remain unchanged at former rates, viz: buying 98, and selling at 99 and par.

Uncurrent Funds.

Nothing doing in the notes of the Southern Banks, which remain firm and steady at former quotations.

Other Markets.

The New Orleans True Delta of Wednesday says:

The feature of the movement in Financial circles to-day has been a still further reduction in rates of Gold and Foreign Exchange.

Gold opened inactive at yesterday's closing figures. Differences were heavy, and the demand was but little better than nominal; sales were effected, however, at steadily declining prices, and the market closed at the subjoined figures. We annex the table of the movement, so far as particulars of rates have been furnished, viz.: $1,000 and $2,000 at 139, $3,000, $4,000, $7,000, $10,000 and $11,000 at 139¾, $12,000 at 139¾, and $12,000 at 139¾. Transactions in Silver comprise $2,500 in American halves and quarters at 132, and some trifling lots of the same at corresponding figures. We now quote Gold at 139½, and Silver at 132@134 for American coin, and 137@138 for Mexican dollars.

Foreign Exchange has been dull and drooping to-day. The market was amply supplied throughout, and the demand was of very restricted character from the opening to the close of business. Most of the leading parties were stand off, awaiting lower figures.

Commercial Exchange has ruled very materially advanced to-day. Outdoor offerings were much lighter than heretofore, and the demand was active from the opening to the close of the market. Most of the Banks checked in the morning at ¼ per cent. discount, but they soon advanced the figure to ½ per cent. discount, and closed at par.

Stocks and Bonds still continue inactive. Offerings of favorite classes are light, and the general run of Securities is almost a little neglected. Transactions since our last have been confined to 22 shares Bank of Louisiana at 13, 100 do. at 14; 20 Union Bank at 49½, and 200 do. (assigns) 49¾, and 50 do. City Railroad Company at prices that have not transpired.

Uncurrent Bank notes have exhibited but little, if any variation since our last quotations, of most classes were light, and the demand was restricted to those parties who have the purpose of meeting accrued obligations. The sales since our last have been confined to $9,000 and $7,000 Bank of Louisiana at 36@36½; and $2,000 Bank of New Orleans at 96; per dollar. We still quote Crescent City Bank, Bank of New Orleans and Union Bank at $35@40. Louisiana State Bank and Merchants' Bank at 75@80, and Bank of Louisiana at 35@36 per dollar.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the 7th says:

The symptoms of an advancing course in Gold, noticed last Tuesday, were dissipated the next day by a slight decline in New York, and it has since appeared, in its fluctuations, to have had a spiritless market. It has, nevertheless, given much speculative attention there, and certainly not here.

Dealers here keep a pretty wide margin on it; such has been the case particularly for the last few days, as the demand has been very light. To-day they were indifferent about taking it at 28c premium. The New York quotation is generally made their selling rate, which, at three o'clock to-day, was 29@c premium.

Exchange has become a little firmer during the week, so that most of the transactions have been at par buying; per thousand selling. There has been no object in accumulating large Eastern balances, and consequently Bankers have been rather low in their figures. An easier feeling as to Currency is gradually developing, and when more fully realized will make it more convenient to have large Eastern credits.

QUOTATIONS.
	Buying.	Selling.
N. Y. Exch.	par.	40c per M.
Philadelphia	par.	40c per M.
Boston	par.	40c per M.
Baltimore	¼@ dis.	1-16@ dis.
Silver	30 @31 pr.	31 @34 pr.
Gold	38 @ par.	39 @ par.
Certificates	28@29c dis.	1 @ par.

As intimated above, Money is becoming a little more plenty, though there has been but little change in the current of mercantile business that is calculated to bring it in from the interior very freely. So far it is brought about mainly by a change in the direction of country Bank Balances in this direction, instead of outward, as was the case a short time ago. The demand for Loans improved a little to-day, over that it has been for several days past. Rates of interest are well maintained at 10@12 per cent for first-class paper.
