MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE FURLING OF THE FLAG.
April 9, 1865.

BY MRS. VIRGINIA D——T R——TH.

AIR—"Wearing of the Green."

Come, Soldiers, sadly furl our flag,
Unstained, though drooping low;
Full soon its folds must trail'd be
By touch of Northern foe!
The glories of its stories! Past
Are all that you can claim,
With wreaths of amaranths, to deck
Your country's shrines of fame!
The hirelings' steps—innumbered—hear!
Along our valleys tread,
And from their hero-slumbers stir
Our beds of Martyr-dead!
Then furl your banner, hallowed now
By years of matchless fray;
While bleeding, stricken, your southern hearts
Beneath the South-rose gray!

And, Soldiers, sheathe the trusty sword
Which struck each mighty blow,
From arms, steel-braced, and at your feet
Lain many a vassal foe—
From arms made strong by hearts, whose pulse
Leaped panting for the right,
Though vain the heart, the arm, and sword
Against the Millions' might!
By all the holy ties—by years
Which established in our breast,
Never can the invader's hand by ours
In fellowship be pressed!
Nor, by the bloody rust, which we
In Memory's chambers lay,
Can Southern Soldiers ever forget
He's worn the suit of gray"

Then furl our banner, Brothers: furl
Our banner, drooping low,
Which o'er our Southern, blood-red fields
Long flashed in strife—glory!
Its splendors, Brothers, fold undimmed,
Save by the battle's smoke!
When time, shall bring our dear dead,
The craven legions broke!
Fold it! and when, at night, your hearts,
You dwell on scenes long fled—
When, with sad hearts, yet loving voice,
Recall our noble—dead!
Then this no prooder meed you'll give,
No higher tribute pay—
"For Right, by Might, overborne, each fell—
"He should, the Southern gray."

To the General Traveling Public

My Old Friends and Guests.

I THINK it hardly worth while to say to you that I never have been account in anything I have attempted to do in the way of catering to the public from the earliest day I reached this state. To the citizens thereof, also, I have to say that I will not trail or hitch in the wake of any establishment now—kind will now what does. We are all clean, and if the "unequaled" party is as good as I mean what I say, we will have at least two good hotels in Memphis. Very respectfully,

LOSS BY PORTLAND FIRE, JULY 4.

The total amount covered by the Ætna Policies on property destroyed or damaged is $1,250,000, of which sum we will be about five per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $50,000, and we promptly advised and paid. This sum is five per cent. upon the company's assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our government and State taxes paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $300 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.

The security for insurance and the value of wealthy, strong corporations is forcibly illustrated by this fire. Several weak insurance companies are destroyed. Portland has a population of 35,000—was handsomely built of mostly fine brick or stone architecture—protected and screened with upwards of 300 shade trees—bounded on three sides by water—indeed, literally, almost rising from the ocean—and with a steam fire department equal to any city of its size in New England—yet, on a comparatively warm July night, the city was in ashes! The very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire cracker.

Remember the trifling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interest and give the Ætna Agent a call if you desire fire insurance security. Pay a fair rate of premium for a good and genuine article and will these lights and experience of our country, procure your insurance with skilled judgment.

"Mr. McIntosh," says [illegible] Richmond Whig, "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of musical excellence, with a musical reputation rarely attained by any man of his age in this country. In the book he stands at the very head of church music, no one disputing the position with him."

The book contains everything of value of Southern or Western origin, much of which is now for the first time reduced to a written form. The variety is great—embracing all the old early Sacred Music, a full elementary department and fine collection of new anthems, hymns and sentences. The whole is printed on the finest of white paper, neatly and tastefully gotten up, well printed and bound.

Price, $3 50 per dozen, which is half the price of other books of the same class. Sent to any part of the country, [illegible] copies, for examination and introduction, on receipt of address, postage paid, on receipt of one dollar.
