Notice to the Public.

IN retiring from the liquor business in this city we wish to give notice that we have sold our entire stock, together with the premises, lease, etc., of the Metropolitan Saloon, 264 Main street, to Dr. J. H. WASSON & CO., to whom we were formerly accessories, and after returning our sincere thanks to our numerous patrons and friends who have so liberally favored us during our continuance of business, we solicit for our successors a continuance of the same. As to the character and qualifications of our worthy successors in this branch of trade, their reputation is too well and favorably known in this city and throughout the country generally for us to do more than simply say that we might have sought for some one who would do our friends and patrons a more efficient service than they are in long and tried experience in this branch of business, and therefore most cordially recommend a continuance of your favors to their house.

JOHN C. NIPSCH.
A. NIPSCH.

The unsettled business of NIPSCH & BEAKIRT will be left with A. NIPSCH, who is settled by either of the sole partners at 264 Main street.

JOHN A. NIPSCH,
NIPSCH & BEAKIRT.

To the Public.

IN retiring from the above purchase and resuming business at the old and well known stand, No. 264 Main street, where we have so often and so long met our friends and patrons, and adding my new and friendly patrons around to our fireside of business, it is with feelings of earnest acknowledgment that we are again prepared to offer our friends and patrons the choicest wines and well selected stock of Brands, Medicines, etc., etc., and tickled every thing usually kept in a first-class and well conducted Drug store, to which we are now adding, and will continue to add constantly, fresh supplies of the most staple and choice Articles the market can afford. And as we shall import from foreign markets direct, and from the land Jackies, we intend sending this House to the Drug Emporium of the south, the world, Gergenne, to keep our Commercials, in both Medicines and Liquid Drinks, to the city and country, to give us a call, examine and price our stock before purchasing elsewhere, so we can be determined by cash and Wholesale of the patrons of the city and country, as well as with the trade, and our superior facilities in making our purchases, so as to be able, with the choice quality of our stock and the low prices we will offer them, to defy competition, and even to compete with the Jackies. Anxiously hoping, therefore, that those gentlemen (or we intend to make good to the interest we have proposed), will meet with the hearty concurrence of our old friends and patrons and the community generally. We are, respectfully, yours, etc.,

J. H. WASSON & CO.,
Proprietors.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

THE CITY OF GOD.

BY FRANCIS BURNER PALGRAVE.

O thou not made with hands,
Not thronged above the skies,
Nor walled with shining walls,
Nor framed with stones of price,
More bright than gold or gem,
God's own Jerusalem!

Wherever the gentle heart
Finds courage from above;
Wherever the heart forsook
Warms with the love of love;
Where faith bids fear depart,
City of God! thou art.

Thou art where e'er the proud
In humbleness melt down;
Where self itself yields up,
Where martyrs win their crowns;
Where faithful souls possess
Their souls in perfect peace.

Where in life's common ways
With cheerful feet we go;
Where in bleakest sea tread
Who tread the way of woe;
Where hole in the heart,
City of God! thou art.

Not thronged above the skies,
Nor golden walled afar,
But where Christ's two or three
In his name gathered are;
Be in the midst of them,
God's own Jerusalem!

THE DOOMED MAN.

BY REV. J. A. ALEXANDER, D. D.

There is a time we know not when,
A point we know not where,
That marks the destiny of man,
To glory or despair.

There is a line by us unseen
That crosses every path;
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.

To pass that limit is to die,
To die as if by stealth—
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Or pale the glow of health.

The conscience may be still at ease,
The spirits light and gay;
That which is pleasing still may please,
And care be thrust away.

But on that forehead God has set
Indelibly a mark—
Unseen by man, for such as yet
Is blind and in the dark.

And yet the doomed man's path below,
May bloom as Eden bloomed—
He did not, does not, will not know
Or feel that he is doomed.

He knows, he feels that all is well,
And every fear is calmed—
He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell,
Not only doomed, but damned.

O! where is this mysterious bourne,
By which our path is crossed,
Beyond which, God Himself hath sworn
That he who goes is lost?

How far may we go on to sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where do ~~hope and~~ end, and where begin
The confines of despair?

An answer from the skies is sent—
"To-day, if you shall hear,
Whe'er it is called to-day repent,
And harden not your heart."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, October 12, 1867.

The money market has gone along at a sluggish pace with but little of improvement to note. Customers in good standing find short accommodation, but the demand is largely above the ability of our banks to meet. It would seem that the ruin which has accompanied the unlocking through the years 1866-7 and '67 will hardly be evaded in '67 and without our staple takes an upward flight and a decide one at that, it will be impossible to see anything but shipwreck ahead.

Gold opened in New York at 40½ and advanced to 40¾ under the influence of the belief rumored resignation of the Secretary of the Treasury, but the opposition to the gold premium appears to be the overwhelming condition of the New York market. The embarrassment of the payment of the November coupons has a depressing tendency; but on the outstanding "short" interest and the growing conviction of European politics appear to outweigh this consideration, for the moment at least. The sales of cotton were better in our market to-day and several lots were sold which contained from $200 to $500 above the buying rate.

Silver is scarce. Buying is a small way at 25 to 30.

Exchange is in good demand and firm at ¼ premium selling. Cotton bills are taken at ¼ to ½ off.

City scrip is offered freely and has declined to 45 buying with few brokers in the market. Selling at 47 to 50.

County warrants are dull and weak at 75 to 80 buying, and 80 to 82½ selling.

Police scrip is heavy at 85 buying. Brokers merely buy on orders and do not wish to hold it on hand. Selling at 87½.

The cotton market still remains weak and unsettled. The New York market opened today very much unsettled, and quotations generally were lower than at the docks; Mobile, New Orleans, etc. At noon there was no change, but the closing report showed the market to be quiet but steady with upwards of an eighth and no change in other grades. The sales at that port were for the week 14,000 bales, including 6,000 bales. Exports, 8,000 bales, and stock on hand 1,730 bales. There was a good many orders on hand to fill, but they are generally limited to 10 and 15,000. A few of the quality ones were filled to-day, but some were disappointed at being over owing to the difficulty of finding the kind in the styles and qualities called for, at a low holding to sell at the figures. Among the sales to-day we note a lot of 50 bales running from low middling to middling at 15½; 50 bales strict, low middling, 15½; 25 bales middling, 15½; 50 bales, 15¾; 50 bales, 15¾; 50 bales, 15¾
