FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, November 23, 1867.

Owing to the depression in the cotton market, and the well known torpidity of our market, so far as the staple is concerned, on Saturday, there were fewer bills offered than usual at our banks to-day. Buying rates are the same as yesterday—the same, in fact, as they have been for weeks, and therefore as they are likely to be for some time to come, without our supply of currency is much improved from some source not yet discovered. The selling rates, owing to improved demand, are stiffer and have advanced to par.

In coin there is almost nothing doing. The offerings of gold and silver are so light and it takes so long to make up a shipment, together with the state of the exchange market, all combine to keep a large margin on New York quotations; for during the early part of the season we all that a shipper wanted, but now few purchase at less than 2c margin to cover all contingencies. The New York market opened to-day at 19¾, and closed at 18¾. Here dealers bought at 18½ to 18¾ for gold, and 12c for silver.

City scrip is in demand, but there is less call for it than early in the week. Dealers buy at 41 to 42, and sell at 43 to 45c, though some bold higher.

County Warrants are less active than for a few days back, but there is still a good demand for small pieces. Brokers buy at 67 to 70c and sell at 72 to 75c.

A small lot of Police Scrip would sell at 80c, but the offering rate is 75c. Selling at 65c.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has recently made the following decisions which will be found of much importance to business men and the public generally:

When a conveyance of realty is made upon actual valuable consideration, which is manifestly inadequate, the deed should be stamped according to the amount of value, and cancellations, and a succession tax, unless the successor be the wife of the predecessor, should be assessed upon the value of land conveyed, less such consideration.

Where there is no stamp upon a promissory note until it is issued, a stamp is to be canceled when it is attached or used; and although a stamp may be affixed when a note is signed, it cannot be said to be used until the note is issued.

A check, draft, or order for the payment of a sum of money drawn otherwise than at sight, or on demand, is liable to stamp tax at the rate of five cents for each one hundred dollars, or fractional part thereof.

A receipt for a bank check is a receipt for money within the terms of the Internal Revenue Act, and if for a sum exceeding twenty dollars, requires a two cent stamp, and is not relieved by the stamp upon the check.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce takes place on Monday next, in our usual column will be found a brief summary of the importance of a full attendance of members.

The Liverpool opening dispatch of this morning quoted that market heavy, with uplands 9¾d; Orleans, 9¾d, and at 2 p.m. was quiet, but firm, with prices generally unchanged. Sales for the day, 10,000 bales.

In New York the opening dispatch quoted small transactions, and prices selling—Middling, 17½ to 17¾c; Mobile, 17¼c; Orleans, 18½c. At noon the market was still and nominally unchanged, and at the evening there was a moderate demand and prices weak. Sales for the day, 1500 bales; week's sales, 16,000 bales. Receipts for the week, 24,000 bales. Exports, 16,000 and stock 35,000 bales. There was some inquiry here, but at such figures and with such terms offered except by a few sellers. The majority kept their samples out of sight. Sales were made, however, at irregular prices and on such terms as the old sell, buyers made their own terms. There is a fair demand for low grades, and buyers have their own better than Middlings, but all seem to give way under the unfavorable news.

We quote our market inactive and weak:

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention, as well as a valuable remedy in Scurvy, Scald Head, Eruptions of the skin and Piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the Teeth whitened and cleans d, Plate and Jewelry cleaned, Stains effectually removed from Carpets, Furniture, Clothes, Paint, Varnish or Marble, with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known Soap which will wash Flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without fulling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin by the most delicate fabric. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. P. McGimsey, Memphis, Tenn., and sold at the following places in the city at wholesale and retail: Page & Co.'s, Dean's, Taylor's Drug Store, Poplar street; King's, corner of Third and Adams; Gilver & Co.'s DeSoto Block, Madison street; will soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use. aug18

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

For the Memphis Appeal.]

THE OLD MAN AT REST.

The Old Man laid to rest!
The weary weight of life
Uplifted from his breast!
Peace! how supremely blest,
Crowns at the last his seventy years of strife!

Oh, thou chivalric soul!
Brave heart, to rest, no more!
Beyond Fate's fiercest control,
Safe at the victor's goal,
Pilgrim! thy staff thou needest never more!

Triumphant over all
The griefs of man's estate,
No peril may appal,
Nor phantom hope recall,
Captive who once hath borne his prison gate.

Oh! ten and three-score years,
With business sore to bear—
Hopes ever chilled with fears,
Loves ever dimmed by tears,
Where now your consequence for ever more there?

For while I sit to-night
In presence of the dead,
Eternal Rests and Night
No longer hid from sight,
Make glad the vision of the spirit fled.

SILVESTRE.

For the Memphis Appeal.]

GIVE A KIND WORD TO THE ERRING.

BY CARRIE BELL SINCLAIR.

Give a kind word to the erring!—
It may raise a fallen brother;
And the law of heaven teaches
We should kindly treat each other!
Ah! the pathway's lined with many
And when tempted, and when tried,
Take act mortal, and remember
That thy feet may turn aside!

Give a kind word to the erring
Who have trod the path of sin;
For the tempter, too, may woo thee,
And thy feet may walk thereon!
All along life's rugged highway,
Stones are bruising weary feet;
Thistles spring among the flowers—
Tares are growing with the wheat.

And the Master in His vineyard
Holds a work for thee to do!
For the harvest there is plenteous,
But the laborers are few!
Tarry not!—the day is waning,
And the night is drawing on;
And the Father will reward thee
For the labour thou hast done.

If from out one bleeding bosom
Thou hast plucked the bitter thorn,
Or hast cheered a drooping spirit
When its every hope was gone;—
If thy hand is stretched in kindness
To lead straying, erring feet—
There's a rich reward awaits thee,
And Love's labor—oh, how sweet!

If along some rugged pathway
Thou hast raised a drooping flower;
If thy smile hath ever brightened
For one heart a gloomy hour;—
If hath placed a star to glitter
In the angel-crown above!
For Life's mission here is holy,
When we make it one of love!

Oh, remember, then, the erring!
Thou may'st lift the soul again;
And from some poor, bleeding bosom
Wipe away the guilty stain!
Ah! this world is one vast vineyard,
Where there's work for all to do;
For the harvest there is plenteous—
But the laborers are few!
Work, then, work!—Life's sun is setting,
And the night of Death comes on;
And the Master, at His coming,
Will expect thy work well done!
