FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, May 11, 1869.

FINANCE.

Last year at this time we had an active market, as far as it related to local scrips and bonds. In addition to our brokers' offices there were some five or six regular street operators who bought and sold upon a large scale, and who were actively engaged filling orders from tax payers. These gentlemen have found their occupation gone. The aggregate sales of the day now would hardly pay commissions enough to support one of them. All have retired from the field save two or three, who may be seen at almost any hour of the day on Madison street looking probably the most forlorn of any persons whom you meet.

City Scrip is firm and scarce—there being none upon the market except what is held by dealers. They are not disposed to sell, and think that it will go up to 95c in a short time.

County Warrants are dull. County Bonds will, we think, soon be in the market, as Col. Mitchell is now in New York having them prepared by the engraver.

Police Scrip is dull, with a light demand only from tax payers. Dealers generally are well supplied.

City Bonds are in some demand. Two or three were offered to-day at 53c, but the best bid was 52½c.

$3000 stock of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad was offered during the day at 53c, but no buyer found so far as we could learn.

Gold in New York opened at 137½ and closed at 138⅛.

Sterling exchange was steady; prime 60 day bills 109½. Money on call at 7 per cent.

Wall street on the 7th was thrown into intense excitement by dispatches announcing the extremely active condition of the London market consequent upon the advance of the Bank of England discount. This has been manifested in all departments of the Stock Exchange, owing to the enormous amount of American securities being carried in London for parties in this city who had consigned them to their foreign correspondents, either for the purpose of being disposed of at a certain figure, or to be used as collateral securities for the consignors. In this condition of affairs abroad, the gold and Government brokers have especially sympathized, and advantage was taken of this circumstance to form a combination to depress the price of Governments by advancing the gold premium. The Gold Room was the center of attraction during the day, the transactions being on a scale of uncommon magnitude. About 4 p.m. dispatches were received giving the price of bonds at 76½, when an additional impetus was given the gold premium, and amid the intensest excitement the price was carried up to 139¾, though later to 138½, the latest quotation being 138¾@139¼. The banks are rapidly accumulating currency, while the supply of National Bank notes is so abundant that three millions of this class of currency was offered to the purchasers of the Government gold yesterday to make their payments to-day. The actual quotations of Government bonds in London are 1½ per cent. lower than yesterday, and reports from there indicate a feeling bordering on panic. The fluctuations in the home market have been frequent and constant, and the market was heavy and drooping, closing at about the lowest prices of the day. The railroad shares market was intensely agitated. After the close of the Open Board the Long Room became the scene of wild excitement, with a general rush to sell. This was caused by late London dispatches that Government securities had declined to 72½, and that the Bank of England had declined to loan funds even on consols. The scene in the Long Room and afterward in the street baffles description, but stocks were tumbled over without regard to their intrinsic values, and from 4 till 6 o'clock it is estimated that more sales were made than the aggregate of the week's transactions.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market at the opening to-day was dull. Uplands 11½@11¾; Orleans 11¾@11¾d. There was no change at noon, but at the close it was dull and lower. Uplands 11¼d; Orleans 11½d.

In New York, at the opening, it was dull with prices steady. Low Middlings 27½; Uplands 28¼@28½; Good Middlings 29¼@30c. At 11 a.m. it was inactive with prices drooping. It was dull and nominal at noon, and closed heavy and irregular at the opening quotations.

Our market was dull, with little or no inquiry. The only sale worth noticing was one of 200 bales strict Good Ordinary to Low Middlings at 26c. All the other transactions were confined to small outside lots at irregular rates. We quote dull as follows:

Good Ordinary	26	@27c
Low Middlings	26	@28c

TRADE.

The rapidly approaching Commercial Convention is the engrossing subject of interest to our citizens. Our city will no doubt be full of visitors from all sections, and the questions which will be discussed before the Convention will be of interest to the whole country. Capitalists from the East will be here, and when they see the advantages possessed by our State of Tennessee, as well as other portions of the South, through which they must pass, it will not be long before the results of the Convention shall be seen and felt. The Southern Pacific Railroad will be the subject of much attention, while that of immigration will be treated at length. Various questions, however, for the good of the South will come up before the Convention, and from their discussion we hope for great and almost immediate good.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business was active upon the levee yesterday, and our local packets had no reason to complain of their trips.

We had but one arrival up to dark last night.

A darky drove his mule and dray into the river near the foot of Jefferson street, and our informant assured us that "mule and dray were both drowned."

Capt. Jim White, master of the Frank Pargoud, who has been on a visit to Louisville, arrived in this city by rail yesterday. He assumed command of the R. E. Lee at this port.

An unknown towboat passed up last night.

The W. A. Caldwell, Capt. Haynes, leaves on Thursday for Little Rock and all way points.

Capt. John Cannon got off the Lee at this port and left by rail for Frankfort, Ky., where, we regret to learn, his family is ill.

We are assured by Capt. Jim White that the Frank Pargoud will not enter the St. Louis trade. She will lay up next month, when some alteration will be made in her wheels. The Gov. Allen will take the Pargoud's place in the New Orleans and Greenville trade as a summer packet.

Capt. John S. Davis has secured the mail contract from the month of the Arkansas to Pine Bluff. It embraces a semi-weekly mail. The White river contract has not been re-let. Capt. Davis still retains it, and we do not think it could be in better hands.

The Geo. W. Cheek, Capt. Jim Lee, will get away to day for Friar's Point and all way landings on the Mississippi.

The Mississippi is due from below.

In the boat race on Saturday, between New Albany and Louisville, the latter won by two lengths. Distance, two miles; time, seventeen minutes.

The Cocea is in the pleasure excursion "hog" at Cincinnati.

The Hesper has entered the Osage river trade.

The Mollie Able has new chimneys, a new wheel and a new cylinder, and is loading at St. Louis.

St Himeaway is coming with the Galatea. She goes into the Lafourche trade.

B. P. Field and Stack Lee are clerks.

Capt. Jim Durff, of the Third Ward and Avalanche, left yesterday for Louisville. He will probably purchase the canal and remove it to this point.

The gay Indiana will pass up at an early hour this morning for Louisville. Robe Neal is master; Charley Miller is clerk.

The splendid Sam Hale, with Capt. W. P. Walker, a popular officer on the roof, leaves to-day for Cairo and Cincinnati. She is an excellent packet, well officered and handsomely furnished, and is prompt as a mail train. Ed. C. Miller and Mr. Walker are her clerks.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL

A WEEKLY PAPER,

DEVOTED to Literature, Science and Art. Omitting ordinary news, and avoiding partisan advocacy, both political and sectarian, the JOURNAL will be devoted to general literature, to science, art and education, and to the diffusion of valuable information upon subjects of public importance. It is intended to make use of all resources, original and selected, domestic and foreign, which can give interest and variety to its pages; and neither expert nor no expense will be spared to secure the aid of the best talent of the time. We contain from the large professions and the parade of conspicuous names so common on these occasions, and, trusting to the intelligence of the people, shall be content to let the Journal speak for itself. The department of literature will embrace:

Fiction, in the form of both Serial Novels and Bits of Stories;
Essays upon Literary and Social Topics;
Sketches of Travel and Adventure;
Discussions upon Art, Books, and kindred themes;
Papers upon all the various subjects that pertain to the pursuits and recreations of the people, whether of town or country; and Poems by our foremost poets.

Illustrations will form an important feature in the plan of the JOURNAL. Nearly every number will be accompanied by either an illustrated Supplement on some Popular Theme, and Engraving in the best Style of the Art, or a Large Cartoon, engraved on wood. No. 1—Contains a Cartoon of the Grand Drive in the Central Park, a Spirited and Animated Scene. No. 2—Contains an Eight Page Supplement of Unground Life and Mining with 10 Illustrations. No. 3—A Steel Engraving of Noon on the Seashore, from a Picture of Kensett. No. 4—An Art Supplement, containing New York Illustrated with 12 Superb Illustrations. No. 5—A Superb Cartoon of the Levee at New Orleans.

Novelty, freshness and continual change will be aimed at in this department. The Illustrations will usually be valuable as works of art; those on steel, and the cartoons, consisting of views of American scenery, by our most distinguished painters, and illustrations of character and life, by our foremost draughtsmen. They will be printed with extra care on separate sheets, and may be either bound in the volume at the close of the year, or framed to hang upon the wall. The JOURNAL, on this feature, will be unlike any other.

Each number of APPLETON'S JOURNAL contains 32 pages of reading matter. The great novel of Victor Hugo,
