MERCHANTS' MEETING

What They Talk About.

The Wharfboat Question---Tax on Drummers---Mobile Coming.

Yesterday afternoon there was an interesting meeting of merchants at the hall of the Chamber of Commerce, William R. Moore presiding. A letter was read from the Board of Trade of Mobile, suggesting the necessity for a closer business relationship between the two cities, and perhaps suggesting what has often been asserted in the columns of the APPEAL, that Memphis is Mobile's natural gateway to the northwest. In other words, Mobile proposes to undo what has been done by the Mobile and Ohio road, and form a commercial alliance with Memphis. It was suggested that Mobile may possibly become a part of Mississippi; that Alcorn and the Register, two great potentates of this world, now dreamed of such a consummation, and that direct railway communication between Memphis and Mobile was eminently desirable. The truth is, we have sometimes thought that Memphis should either be a State of itself, or the capital of a new State, or become part and parcel, politically, as it is commercially, of Mississippi. Why may not Alcorn gobble Memphis for dinner and dessert, after swallowing Mobile as breakfast? He took down the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments without a grimace, and might well hold two small cities, with all their vices, in his capacious maw. The Mobile letter will be answered; and a committee was appointed, consisting of W. J. Sykes, Davy Townsend and I. M. Hill, to take charge of the Mobilians and show them all the wonders of Memphis. When the Mobilians arrive it was said that there will be a called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and a good time generally. When this matter was disposed of, I. M. Hill, Esq., presented the following paper:

MEMPHIS, June 27, 1870.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen, City of Memphis:

Your petitioners, the Chamber of Commerce of this city, would respectfully represent to your honorable body, that in consequence of the rapidly increasing trade and commerce of our city the entire wharf landing is wanted for commercial purposes—our regular packet steamboats loading and discharging their cargoes, flatboats of produce from the upper rivers, and the various commercial purposes that create a use for a wharf. Added to this is the necessity of keeping a portion of the wharf at all times ready for the temporary landing of steamboats passing up and down the river; also the accommodation of our regular packet boats engaged in the transit trade with various rivers and cities, the number and wants of which are daily increasing, and which it is of vital interest to our city to foster, protect and facilitate the trade of the same by every means in our power. For these, and various other reasons that will suggest themselves to your honorable body, we respectfully request that all wharf boats of every class and description within the jurisdiction of this city be removed from the river landing and wharf. And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Resolved, That the President of this Chamber of Commerce be authorized to sign the petition to the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of Memphis, requesting them to remove all wharf boats from the landing within the limits of the city; and that the Secretary present the same to the city authorities.

The presentation of this paper led to a long and discursive discussion, for which we have not space this morning, but may give its substance hereafter. The participants were Messrs. Hill, Mahan, Lacey, Robinson, Chrisman, Townsend, Captain Adams, and others. Mr. Mahan presented the following substitute for the resolution of Mr. Hill, who finally moved that all the papers be referred to a committee, to report to the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce:

Mr. Mahan's resolutions, thus referred with Mr. Hill's, are as follows:

WHEREAS, The St. Louis Wharf Boat, owned by the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company, lying at our wharf, as it is now managed, is a great convenience, and the means of saving thousands of dollars annually in the way of damage to goods and expense of tarpaulin and skid hire, to the grocery and produce merchants of this city, and

Whereas, Said wharf boat being used by the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company in handling and taking care of freight owned, to a great extent, and shipped by merchants of this city, members of this Chamber of Commerce, and who pay into the Treasury a majority of the tax on merchandise collected by the city, therefore

Resolved, That this Chamber of Commerce recommend, and request the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen to license said Packet Company, or any other Packet Company terminating their trip at Memphis, to keep their wharf boat at our landing, restricting them, aforesaid, to the handling of freight shipped over their line, and free of charge to the owner.

Messrs. Hill, Lacey and Neely constitute the committee to dispose of the everlasting wharf-boat question.

ANOTHER MONOPOLY.

Mr. Wilde, of the house of Wilde, Collins & Co., said that he had seen cotton dealers peddling samples about the streets, and tobacco men and others, who only paid a license and the usual city tax, and that he had gone forth with his goods and wares, from his house on the corner of Washington and Main, and that, when he exhibited samples of his groceries to the trade, he was arrested and fined. He thought the discrimination unjust, and the city law wholly wrong. His case was referred to Messrs. Schoolfield, Pettigrew and Wilde.

Mr. Wilde offered the following resolution, on which the foregoing committee will report:

Resolved, That the President of the Chamber of Commerce be authorized to sign a petition to the Board of Aldermen to rescind section 67 of act levying taxes for city privileges, passed February 15, 1870, and the secretary be requested to present same at the next session of the Board, and urge action on same.

The body, at a late hour, and after many speeches, adjourned.

Gen. Forrest attended the meeting, but did not advert to the subject of his thought, the Memphis and Selma railway.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Tipton county was held at Covington, Tenn., on Saturday evening.

G. W. Smith, Esq., was called to the chair, and Capt. Sam P. Rose was requested to act as secretary.

On motion, the following named gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Convention at Nashville for the nomination of Judges for the Supreme Bench, should one be held:

Dr. M. Bell, Dr. J. R. Sanford, Fed. Maclin, P. J. Smith, Capt. Sam Rose, W. H. Wooten, Henry Turnage, Isham Roberts, F. A. Eucobs, E. W. Massey, Charles Stockly, Henry McCain, B. Payne, S. G. Overall, A. W. Freedle, D. Wood, Ruffin Smith.

The following preamble and resolution were then adopted, and the meeting adjourned:

WHEREAS, There are no political issues involved in the election of Judge and Attorney General of this the Fourteenth Circuit, and deeming it unwise to take action giving the canvass for these offices a political color, and that the people should be left free to fill these offices untrammeled by the action of a convention; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we are opposed to a Convention being held to nominate candidates for Judge and Attorney General of this Judicial Circuit.

—Zack Nemmons, the darky arrested by Mr. Perkins, the murderer, was released on examination yesterday morning.

—Miss Anna Maria Quinn, our talented young Memphis actress, returned home yesterday from her late Arkansas star tour.

—French John (Jean Fourchette), accidentally shot a few nights ago, is doing splendidly and will be out in a week or ten days.

—Our friend Henry Moode, agent of the Hollywood Memorial Association, returned yesterday. He will devote every moment of his time to the making of a picnic a great success.

—Parties from Hot Springs represent the village as crowded with sick, well and convalescent visitors. Our friend Creighton is said to have more patients than he can attend to, and is the most popular man at the Springs.

—Recorder Scales yesterday morning disposed of seventy cases of petty misdemeanors and infringements of the municipal code. Over four hundred dollars were assessed in fines, and two hundred and twenty-five dollars only collected.

—Fred. Martin, who chopped Mr. Honk with a hatchet a few days ago (and not Honk, who chopped Martin, as we had it), has not yet been arrested. He is no doubt skulking in the neighborhood of his intended murder.

—The attention of our readers is called to the card of Col. W. W. Lusk in another column. His depot for the sale of Sands' Cream Ale, Beer and Porter has been removed to Gaston's old stand, No. 44 Adams street. Call and see him.

—Mr. Honk, the blacksmith in Fort Pickering, so terribly assaulted a few days ago by one Martin, yesterday swore out a warrant against one Albertson (or Alberdon) for threatening to kill him and to burn his shop down. The defendant was put under $500 bonds to keep the peace.

—Messrs. Podesta & Cazassa, who have the contract for the restaurant and confectionery privilege at the picnic for the benefit of the Hollywood Memorial Association, will exhibit the great center piece of confectionery and prize cakes at their place of business during the next three or four days.

—We learn that Burrow and Craddock, drivers of the rival hack lines at Searcy, Ark., enlivened that place recently by trying to see who was the better pistol shot. Fortunately, each one missed his man, and no damage was done. Burrow was held to bail in the sum of $1000, and Craddock for $500.

—D. Young, a white man, and Eliza Williams and Mollie Lamburger, two negresses, were arrested on Sunday night for miscegenation. After a curious and disgusting examination of over an hour, the Recorder fined the Lothario, D. Young, ten dollars, and his associates fifteen dollars each.

—Policeman Carmichael had one J. D. Connors, a witness in a late case before the Recorder, arrested for perjury. The case came up yesterday before Squire Kiernan, and the defendant was bound over in the sum of $1000 to answer at the next term of the criminal court.

—One Tom Creed had a Mrs. Sherry arrested for assault and battery with intent to kill. The case came up before Squire Norton, and after a patient hearing the Squire fined the complainant five dollars and costs and let the lady go. Good for Squire Norton.

—Dr. Joe Lynch and Professor Leddin were thrown from a buggy on Sunday evening, near the corner of Second and Washington streets. The doctor's left arm was badly bruised, but no bones were broken. Professor Leddin was quite seriously injured, but we could not learn to what extent.

—The privileges for the great picnic for the benefit of the Hollywood Memorial Association, were let yesterday evening. They are as follows: For the shooting gallery, Mr. Krenkel (at Glassick's); bar, J. H. Meyers; restaurant and confection, Podesta & Cazassa. Mr. Clarke's calcium light has been engaged for the occasion.

—We received yesterday a cotton bloom, opened on the 20th inst. on the plantation of S. W. McCrary, Esq., seventy-five miles above the mouth of the Arkansas river. We understand that the stalk from which it was taken is but the sample of a large field, and that the prospects of a good crop in that section are splendid.

—Two persons were fined ten dollars each for carrying concealed weapons. The chief of police desires us to say that owing to the recent stringent enactments by the Legislature in regard to carrying concealed weapons, every case hereafter reported to him will be presented to the grand jury. So you pistol and knife carriers, look out.

—At the termination of a case of miscegenation, in which a gay dry goods clerk and two negro girls were the defendants, yesterday morning, the clerk carried the co-respondents and the witnesses up to Rocco's saloon to take ice cream. The motley crowd were informed by Mr. Rocco that he did not serve ice cream to such stock, and they left to seek more congenial quarters.

—We have received the annual catalogue of the Union Female College, of Oxford, Miss., of the session of 1869-'70. The catalogue is neatly printed and handsomely gotten up, and shows the college to be in a most flourishing condition. Every way we can judge it deserves to be, and as we wish Columbus and its institutions of learning to be in the front rank, we hope it will continue to be in them to be exceeded.

—The schedule of premiums for the first grand annual fair of the "Southern States Mechanics' and Agricultural Fair Association" of Augusta, Ga., is on our table. The fair will commence on Tuesday, October 25th, and continue five days. The premiums offered amount to an aggregate of $11,000. Competition is solicited from all parts of the country.

—Sam. Ireland, a nigger politician, whose avocation, like that other Othello's, is gone in Tennessee, is cutting a great swell in Mississippi. He lately gave a supper at Jackson, which the Pilot highly eulogises, and at which many Legislators were present. O tempora, O mores! A dirty pot-house negro politician; a loafer around the police stations—a dog altogether too low for any decent man in this region to notice—is the "distinguished" host of "distinguished" Senators. Great God! how are we fallen!

—The private "teams" of Memphis are not to be surpassed by those of any city of its size in the United States, although there are few localities with less facilities for showing the points of a horse or horses. One of the handsomest, freest and fastest teams in town is that of our friend Costello, 61 Monroe street, who has a pair of spotless blood-bays that have not their match for symmetry of figure, elegance and grace of motion, and gentility, in the country. We hope our Popular street turnpike friends will hurry up their Boulevard so that gentlemen having fine horses can display and exercise them to advantage.

—One day last week a Mrs. Kingley had her husband arrested and locked up for assaulting and beating her. The justice before whom the case was heard sent Kingley to the county jail in default of bonds to keep the peace. On Sunday Capt. Athey, who was cognizant of the circumstances, and having reason to "suspect something," raided Mrs. Kingsley's domicile, and found that she was consoling herself, during the incarceration of her liege lord, with another man, who was making himself quite as much at home as he (the said lord) could possibly have ever done. The Captain took the festive couple in, and they were fined $10 each yesterday morning. There were some sixty cases disposed of by the Recorder yesterday morning, and a large number were of a similar character to the above.

—His Honor Mayor Johnson and his children had quite a narrow escape yesterday morning. They were returning home from a morning drive, in a rockaway, and when near the Bayou bridge, on Adams street, the bolt attaching the left shaft to the axletree gave way, and the shaft fell against the horses' legs, frightening him and causing him to run. The rockaway was dashed against the buttress of the bridge and some of the party thrown out. Luckily the other shaft gave way, and the frightened animal ran off up Adams street without doing further injury. Mr. Johnson's arm was slightly injured, and his face somewhat scratched. His little son, aged two or twelve years, was severely bruised, but not seriously injured. Officer Joe Wright picked up the little boy and carried him home. We are truly glad, and congratulate Mr. Johnson that the accident terminated no more seriously.

—Considerable excitement was created around town yesterday morning by the rumor that Messrs. Brizzolara and Phelan, the two gentlemen who have recently been corresponding by cards through the papers, had gone over to the Arkansas shore to settle their difficulties according to the code duello. On inquiry we found that Dame Rumor for once spoke truth, and that the gentlemen had made the trip to fly that Fenians, now in confinement in England and the colonies, are harshly treated, will soon enter upon their world. The prisoners will have an opportunity to be heard privately before the officers of the Government.

Lord Clarendon's Successor.

LONDON, June 28.—The morning journals reiterate the statement that Earl Granville, Secretary of State for the colonial department, will succeed the late Earl of Clarendon as the head of the foreign office. The Post says that in such case the right Hon. Chichester Fortescue, Chief Secretary for Ireland, will probably succeed Earl Granville in the colonial office.

The Times this morning, in closing its eulogy of the late Earl of Clarendon, says an ordinary man or a mere politician could never have obtained his position. Other had to claim for new topics. He was always positive. He was a large-hearted statesman.

Railway Disasters in England---Erie Boat---Croquet in London---Croquet Tournament.

LONDON, June 28.—It is reported that Geo. Otto Trevelyan, one of the junior Lords of Admiralty, will resign in consequence of variance with the Government on the Education bill now before Parliament.

A meeting of the Anti-vaccination League was held yesterday. Professor Newman, editor of the Geologist, was present. There were many speakers and all denounced vaccination in the strongest terms, and urged Parliament to repeal the laws on the subject.

The evidence taken at the Coroner's inquest in the Great Western railroad disaster goes substantially to prove that the casualty was caused by the sudden breaking of an axle through a flaw which could not have been detected by the ordinary means.

The financial editor of the London Times says that English holders of Erie shares may expect copious information as to the condition of that Company's affairs on the presentation of their accounts next year, as shown by commercial statistics of the city. The purchasers of these bonds, with their perfect machinery, in the light possible prospective Tennessee, Georgia and four stories wine, will be found possessing fund equal to Harrisons, will be enriched by the ownership.

The spirit of manufacturing enterprise has just seized upon our people and we expect a large crowd at the place of sale, on Third and Beale streets, this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

THE Board of Education of the Memphis City Schools re-elected the present Superintendent, Jas. T. Leath, Esq., for the next scholastic year. The election of teachers was postponed until next Wednesday night, in order that the special committee appointed might revise the salaries paid to teachers.

TAX TITLES.

The Meeting at Assembly Hall Last Night--It Adjourns to Wednesday Night.

A numerous body of citizens and property owners met at Assembly Hall last evening in pursuance of a call in the APPEAL in relation to the property at Fort Pickering, upon which the Government illegally claims unpaid taxes, levied as "special war taxes" in 1864. John Loague was appointed Chairman, and R. C. Floyd, Secretary.

The Chairman, on taking his seat, briefly explained the object of the meeting.

After some discussion as to the best course to be pursued, Mr. E. J. Comer moved that a committee of five be appointed to memorialize Congress for the relief of the owners of property sold for taxes in 1864.

General Sale spoke at some length in regard to the legality of the assessment and sale of the property, explaining several points of law, and referring to a case decided by Judge Trigg, of the United States District Court, some time since.

The Chairman appointed the following gentlemen as the Committee to draw up the memorial: E. J. Comer, R. Savage, Wm. C. Bliss, Colonel J. E. R. Ray and Colonel McLean.

On motion, Chairman Loague was added to the Committee. They will meet to-day at 3 o'clock at the office of E. J. Comer.

On motion, the Secretary was requested to furnish the daily papers with a copy of these proceedings.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the same place. JOHN LOAGUE, Ch'n.
R. C. FLOYD, Sec'y.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Filomeno concert of last night was not what was deserved. We confess to a great surprise at the paucity of numbers, on a night every way propitious. Filomeno and Salcedo deserved better. We hope it will be made up to them to-morrow night. If it is not, we shall cease to regard Memphis as the musical city it has always hitherto justly laid claim to be. We cannot say that nothing like the artistic work of last night has ever been heard here. One is so apt to forget the past in presence of the present, that it is with difficulty we can institute a comparison which, while it will satisfy, will do justice to those concerned. We thus we reasoned while we listened to Filomeno, and thought of Prume, whose violin playing can never be forgotten in Memphis. When the little prodigy appeared, in obedience to a call for an encore, and played "A Dream," (that was all a dream) we drifted back some months and into the presence of Prume—in memory we revived his divine lullaby, and without disparagement of a great genius, and an immense ability, an ability that satisfied and gratified, we must say the little Filomeno surpassed him. This she did, not so much in method, style or finish as in the selection of a more highly-wrought poetic theme. Her solo from "Lucrezia Borgia" was marked by genuine taste, and was treated most skilfully. "Make me no grand chaplet" will always haunt us. Played as Filomena played it, it was harmony itself. The "Fantasy from Trovatore" was also a remarkable performance, in which she exhibited her artist nature to its fullest extent. Possessed by her theme, she rendered it so as to fill the place of voices in solo and duet, and sealed a verdict already unanimous on the part of the audience that she is indeed a wonder, a prodigy in music. Her piano performance was as perfect and as thorough as that on the violin, and increased the wonder of those present at her surprising facility and skill. Salcedo took the house by storm. Since Konig passed through Memphis with Julian, on his way to New Orleans, we have had no such cornet player here. His command over his instrument, whether by tongue or fingers, is astonishing. In sweetness and pathos he equaled the human voice and almost spoke the passion and sentiment of his author. He was repeatedly encored and each time afforded a new surprise, a fresh delight. Farmer and Meyer acquitted themselves handsomely and were well received. Had we space and time we would like to say all they deserve. They contributed their share to the delights of a delightful evening. They will appear to-morrow evening when an unusual programme may be expected. Every one that heard Prume should hear Filomeno and Salcedo who want to know what the cornet is capable of should hear Salcedo.

NOYES' GREAT CIRCUS.—On Thursday next, Col. Noyes' great Crescent City Circus opens for three days only on the Bluff. This will be perhaps the last chance our little folks will have to see a first-class circus this summer, and we hope that the people will not fail to avail themselves
