LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

—There was a false alarm of fire last night.

—In the first circuit court, yesterday, Frederick Warner was naturalized, and G. B. Dancer declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

—The memorial address before the order of Knights of Pythias has been postponed, on account of the late illness of Rev. Mr. Lofton, the orator selected for the occasion.

—John Dillon, professing to be a conductor on the Little Rock railroad, had night engaged a negro brakeman, gave him a key to unlock a car, and borrowed his watch and twenty dollars. The key did not fit, and the negro had Dillon arrested for playing the confidence game.

—At a meeting of South Memphis Lodge No. 119, held on Friday night last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. M. Brooks, W. M.; R. F. Haller, S. W.; R. A. Smith, J. W.; M. A. Hess, Treasurer; Ben. K. Pullen, Secretary; H. C. Wilson, S. D.; J. I. Weller, J. D.; W. J. Janatt and W. J. Murray, Stewards.

—Night before last Chief Athy arrested, at the Olympic theater, Washington street, two escaped convicts from the Missouri penitentiary. The names of their mates are James Young and Charles Wilson. Yesterday a dispatch was received from John A. Lehnes, warden of the Missouri penitentiary, stating that the men are named Francis and Coffee, and requesting Chief Athy to hold them until officers from that State could respectfully invite.

—A robust traveler boarded the steamer Tyrone, Friday, and because there was no fire in the stove commenced cursing the first scribe. The result was that the vile visitor scrubbed the cabin floor with his nose, and, with a pair of black eyes as a memento of his intrusion, went head foremost down the stairway, in time to form the acquaintance of two polite policemen, who showed him the way to the station house. His experience was very hard.

—While a Chinaman was getting out some change from his cash-box, in the Jefferson-street laundry, yesterday, Thomas Conling snatched a handful of money from it and fled. An officer pursued the thief, who ran under several houses, from which he was driven by boys, and finally sought refuge in the bathroom of a dwelling on Court street, near Third. The officer followed Conling to his hiding-place in the second story and carried him to the Adams-street station house.

—Yesterday forenoon a horse attached to a rockaway, which was left standing in front of a store on Main street, near Jefferson street, without being hitched, became frightened at some passing object, and started up Main street at a furious rate. While passing in front of Messrs. Bugg & Clarke's grocery store, Mr. John J. Duffy, one of the partners, sprang forward and seized the animal by the bridle-rein. The horse, which was then at a gallop, bore him to the ground, and he had a very narrow escape from being killed. One of the wheels of the vehicle passed over his body, and he was otherwise severely bruised. He was picked up and carried to his room, where he promptly received medical attention. Although his injuries are of a painful character, it is hoped that he will soon be able to attend to business again. The animal was stopped in its mad career by one of the employes in the store, who ran forward to Mr. Duffy's assistance.

—The great business want of Memphis is manufactories. The most spirited man at present engaged in introducing the wanted "institution" is Demar, the cigar-maker, of the Waldran block, on Main street, below Beal. He has won a high reputation for the quality of the Memphis brands, but, as might be expected, as his business increased, "hands" became scarce. Like all men of metal, who are determined in their object, Mr. Demar "knew no such word as fail." He procured the aid of five Chinese, and those men are now working in his manufactory with a degree of steadiness, industry, and skill that wins for them high praise. We have seen them at work, and their quiet, indefatigable attention, and the agility with which their slender fingers perform their task, can be exceeded by no other workmen. They keep a regular account of their work in Chinese characters, and compute what is coming to them by the aid of an abacus, instrument of very ancient use in China, called by them shumpan, but by the Greeks abacus. Mr. Demar says he has yet to catch them in the first error.

—The following is the official mortuary report for the week ending Saturday, December 13th: Thomas Muney, 14, disease of the heart; S. L. Farmer, 46, female, pneumonia; John M. Namara, 18 months, cholera infantum; Martha Sailor, 35, diarrhea; Mary E. Patrick, 11, cerebro spinal feru; Susan Perry, 62, pneumonia; Tom Leightenslingers' child, 6 weeks, sude, marasmus; Hettie Barbrough, 6, meningitis; Annie Thomas, 50, debility; Albert Evans, 52 debility; Pat Schopin, 30, pneumonia; — Horsey, 35, malaspsans; Dan Marsh, 38, phthisis pulmonalis; child of Martin Gibbs, 8 days, female, debility; Harriet Taylor, 4 months, spasms; Ella Smith, 3 months, spasms; Mary Jackson, 2, inflammation bowels; William Berry, 3, billions fever; Andrew Mason, 22, pneumonia; Julia Hall, 1, spasms; Mary Ramsey, 1 week, phthisis; James Cresson, 21, disease neglecting; John Rodgers, 38, disease unknown; Mattie Avent, 21, epilepsy; child of A. Douglass', stillborn; Laura Boyd, 25, consumption; Susan Hines, 40; Michael O. Day, 40; Charley Hobson, 18, phthisis pulmonalis; Ben Furguson, 20. Total, 32; whites, 14; colored, 18; females, 15; males, 17. Colored, 10.

—We have had the pleasure of looking at the annual statement of the Workingman's building and loan association, and are glad to learn from it that it is in a most flourishing condition, and has been the means of great good. From the first Monday in each month, the tenth instant the receipts from dues, bonus, interest on loans, fines, premiums, etc., amount to $2,000 70; the disbursements to $784 25; and the assets are $21,245 46, the gross assets footing up the handsome total of $25,096 06. Considering that for two months, and during the prevalence of the yellow-fever the association was at a stand-still, this is a handsome showing, and one that speaks well for the intelligence and skill with which the association has been managed. On the ninth instant, the annual meeting was held, when the following named gentlemen were elected officers to serve during one year from date: L. LaGrill, president; J. J. Sullivan, vice-president; Charles T. Paterson, secretary; Egbert Wooldridge, treasurer. Directors: W. P. Wilson, R. A. Parker, F. J. Quigley, J. Loccarini and John Willins. These gentlemen are all well known to our people, most of them as among the worthiest and best of our mechanics, and know how to appreciate the advantages of associations like this, formed for the purpose of helping heads of families to secure homes by easy payments, which, with interest added, is but little if any, in advance of annual rent. We indorse the association and wish it well.

LOCKE STILL IN THE FIELD!

I am before the people as a candidate for the office of City Tax-Collector, and shall remain in the field until the polls close on January 1st, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary.

I thank my friends heartily for the encouragement given me, and bespeak from them, and from the public generally, a warm support at the polls.

CHARLES G. LOCKE.

G. H. HURD, dentist, has removed his nitrous-oxide gas business and residence to the building over F. D. Barnum's jewelry store, corner Main and Court street; also, J. J. Rose, operative dentist, and J. W. Dawson, mechanical dentist.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The German Analysis.

EDITORS APPEAL—According to promise I have, after careful and impartial analysis of the political mixture of the so-called German representatives, found the following result: 1-100 shoestring, for pumps as fine as you never did see; 1-100 dip of the colonel's pen; 3-10 of shaving soap, to Humpy Dumpy, or part for cash; 1-10 of a spoke of a furniture wagon; 1 hank of [Welk] hemp, made by Hand; a small decoction of leather finting (Swiss make) stirred up with a plank from an inspected steamboat with a (Nagel) nail in it; 1-10 a rag from a junk shop; 1-10 of a Bell hung very Low in the Mire; the whole Sharp-ly mixed by Putty-go-easy and stirred up with a judicial piece of Hole. Such, Germans, is the dose you have to swallow on the first of next month. You were poisoned in March, 1870. Take warning how you take the dose prescribed for you. Go and read a speech of a German at the Greenlaw Opera-house on the fifth or sixth of March, 1870, where he made his brags that in the death of the night, he sold you to John Longue in order to elect J. Reily county court clerk, when you were pledged to J. P. Strange. You'll find it in the files of the Avalanche of that date. For the present my work is done, unless called upon to continue my investigation. If so, I will give names and dates.
ANOTHER GERMAN.

Captain J. M. Pettigrew, President Board of Aldermen.

DEAR SIR—Having watched, with pleasure, your course as alderman for the past three years, and feeling satisfied that you have endeavored to promote the best interest of the city, laboring at all times for economy and retrenchment, and believing that the present financial condition of our city requires that the general council should be composed of our best and most competent business men, and being satisfied that the interest of the citizens could not be entrusted to one more competent than yourself, we, therefore, ask that you become a candidate for re-election as alderman of the fourth ward, and we promise you our hearty support.
TAX-PAYERS.

To the Citizens of Memphis.

Having been called on by the best people of our city, without regard to nationality, race or color, to become a candidate for the office of mayor of Memphis, and while considering carefully what I would do, I attended what is called a Republican mass-meeting held at the Greenlaw Operahouse on the night of the eighth instant, and to my disgust, saw not a Republican mass-meeting, but a meeting held in the interest of the "Longue party," and seeing that no disposition was shown to give fair-play, but, on the other hand, a "job put up" for the same "ring" to govern our unfortunate, down-trodden city, that has governed it until the last life's blood has nearly been taken from it, I hereby decline to allow my name to be used as a candidate for mayor, and do most respectfully call upon all of my friends and acquaintances, as well as all good citizens, without regard to party, race or color, to support J. J. Busby, a man who is thoroughly identified with the best interests of our butchered city, and for one, I will labor day and night to secure his election. Having "shouted my last shout" for a living "Democrat" I would see a Democrat
