MEMPHIS APPEAL

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 24, 1874.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor,
JAMES D. PORTER, JR.,
Of Henry County.

For Congress, Tenth District,
H. CASEY YOUNG,
Of Shelby County.

SHELBY COUNTY TICKET.
Senators,
JOHN OVERTON, Jr.,
A. R. HAYNES.
Representatives,
GEO. K. PETERS,
GEO. R. POWEL,
HUGH D. GREER,
JOHN A. ROUSH,
GEO. E. WYNN,
J. HARVEY MATHES.
Fiscal Sensor,
PEYTON J. SMITH, of Tipton County.
Fiscal Representative,
JOHN M. GALLOWAY, of Fayette County.

AGAIN AND STILL AGAIN.

EDITORS APPEAL:—To my surprise, on opening this morning's APPEAL I found myself editorially advertised as a candidate for the legislature, which I am not. Decided, as I am, exclusively to private pursuits, I did not merit such notoriety. Though the least in quity would have shown there was not the slightest foundation for such announcement, I am sure the APPEAL and the Ledger mean it in good faith. I have neither time, taste, nor fitness for politics. It is said every man has his hobby. Mine is the manufacturing and mechanical interests of Memphis. They must be fostered, or our city retrograde. There is where I desire to represent our people. Through the Memphis woodworks and box factory, now the most extensive in the south, and if Memphis will give me and our stockholders—Bruce, Porter, Moore, Craig; Jones, Brown & Co.; Mosby; Orgill Bros.; Napoleon Hill; Allison, and others—its hearty support in that direction, I will do my utmost to demonstrate not only that manufactories can be sustained here, but that Memphis can be built up with them. T. J. LATHAM.

It will be seen from the above that Judge Latham repudiates the independent nomination, and will not lend himself to any effort at breaking up the Democratic party or weakening the efforts of those who are struggling for the white as opposed to the black element in politics. Judge Latham, as he says, has too much at stake as the head of one of our leading industries, and as a man feels too deep a sympathy with our people to be led away by any fine pictures of possible success, even when drawn so freely by such competent political artists as Emerson Etheridge. The judge is not prepared to take his place with the Radicals of Shelby; he is not prepared to stand beside Barbour Lewis & Co.; he is a D t, and in full sympathy with his party, and repudiates every and any effort to defeat it. Judge Latham speaks like an honest man, earnestly and to the point, and we look for others named in the third dark-lantern ticket to follow his example and repudiate and condemn a nomination that is in the individual interest of a few who have political enemies to punish, and care no more for the public interests than they do for those of the Fijis. We commend Judge Latham's course to all the others. Our columns are open to them.

THE LAST DARK-LANTERN TICKET.

Even the fourth attempt at the manufacture of a ticket by the dark-lantern committee was not successful. These gentlemen don't seem to have the gamption that ordinarily characterizes politicians. They make up first one, then another ticket, without so much as consulting with the gentlemen whose names they are desirous of using. Yesterday we published their third ticket, only to bring to-day a refusal and denial from Judge Latham, who will not be a party to it, and who wholly repudiates it. To-day we give the following as the published ticket in the Avalanche, which the Ledger is authority for saying is repudiated by Mr. W. W. Coleman, one of the staunchest, truest and best Democrats in Shelby county. This is the fourth ticket:

For senators—William M. Randolph, W. M. Perkins.
For fiscal senator—Emerson Etheridge.
For representatives—William M. Smith, D. R. Molloy, M. T. Williamson, W. T. Lucas, W. W. Coleman, A. Hitzfeld.

Of these, Mr. Coleman declining, we have to remind our readers that Messrs. Randolph, Wm. M. Smith, M. J. Williamson and A. Hitzfeld, are, and have always been, Republicans. Messrs. Perkins and Etheridge it would be hard to place; and of the others—Messrs. Molloy and Lucas—we can only say we know nothing against them politically. It will be seen, then, that this fourth dark-lantern ticket is a "mixtrum-gatherum," and we predict it will be a failure. It is another proof of how desperate are the fortunes of those who disregard party machinery where their own personal prejudices, ideas, conceits, or ambitions lead them to antagonize organization, platform and nominations and principles.

THE value of party machinery was never better exemplified than by a paragraph which we find in the New York World, which shows that up to October 13th the Democratic net majority of the popular vote in the twenty-four States which have held elections since the close of the Presidential contest of 1872 is 983,657. The same States in November, 1872, gave Grant a net majority of 520,999. Thus the net Democratic gain in less than two years has been nearly 900,000, and when the elections take place on the third proximo it will be shown that the gain is as much as 1,250,000. This is the most extraordinary political revolution on record. There has been no such change in public sentiment in so brief a time in our political history. It beats the Harrison upheaval all-hollow. If the elections are any criterion whatever, the Grant administration is supported by but a small minority of the people. A Democratic net gain of a million and a quarter of votes demonstrates that the Radical party has run its race, and that it stands at last beneath the gibbet, upon which an indignant people will strangle it on the third day of November next. We want to see the Democrat hereabouts worthy the name that would mar this glorious record of the party by throwing away his vote on an independent, or non-tax-paying Radical.

SPOT the man who now decries party machinery. Remember that it was by party machinery that the white vote was, in the late county canvass, all over Tennessee concentrated against the miscegenating civil-rights negro Radical party, and that it was by well-organized par machinery, properly controlled and directed, that we were victorious. Party machinery is as essential to success now as then, and we must preserve and strengthen rather than lend ourselves to its disintegration. The executive committee must be sustained until we know its members are lending themselves to individual purposes, and are enemies instead of friends of the party. We must stand by the committee until we know it is false to the trusts reposed in it. Such a thing is next to impossible, and we do not look for nor apprehend it. Therefore, we say again, stand by the party machinery, and make up your mind to vote for the white man's ticket, and against the Radical-negro-Independent ticket.

IT HAS become fashionable with politicians of the Radical stripe, or those who think it the proper thing to antagonize the Democratic party, to cry out about the subsidizing of the press in a generalizing sort of way that carries with it no responsibility. It is a cheap description of thunder that they think will win. Mr. Etheridge indulged in it a night or two since, and, as we think, in a way unworthy of a man of his position and experience; and what he said was echoed by Barbour Lewis, whom we cannot afford to hold responsible for anything he says. It is time such claptrap ceased. It is childish in the absence of proof. Butler, who is a proven thief and scoundrel, indulges in that sort of thing as an offset to the occasional attacks of a press and public justly impatient that he continues in public life. A man as pure in money matters as Emerson Etheridge should be above it, unless he can produce the documentary evidence.

THE Gem of the West, a publication of Chicago, wholly in the interest of our discharged soldiers and volunteers of the Federal armies, in the number for October says, truthfully as forcibly, that:

The blacks of the south have not only disfranchised the whites of the south but they have destroyed their best friends in the north, and, instead of taking counsel from such, they have listened to the only tongue of base scoundrels who have gone among them merely to eat out their vitals. Instead of heeding the warning voice of such men as Horace Greeley and Charles Sumner they sent them to premature graves. Instead of showing a friendly feeling toward those with whom Providence designed they should live as neighbors and friends they have shown a spirit of hatred and revenge unprecedented in the annals of history; and, they have not only done this, but they have heaped upon southern whites such scalawags and louts of carpet rings as Kellogg, Pinchback, spencer and hundreds of others, whose names have brought disgrace upon the nation. We trust a brighter day may soon dawn for the blacks of the south, but a brighter day can never dawn while they ignore the rights of white brothers and claim for themselves, and a horde of carpetbagging thieves, all the places of trust and emolument. We write these lines as an old abolitionist with no interest to subserve but that of justice. As in days gone by, we demanded justice for the blacks, so now we demand justice for the whites.

We would like to have B. Lewis or Em. Etheridge read this extract when next they speak to the people.

THE APPEAL has consistently urged upon the people of Shelby county and west Tennessee that the United States senatorship has nothing whatever to do with the legislature or congressional canvass. We are still strong of that belief, regarding its introduction just now as the most mischievious of the distractions of the independent, dark-lantern Radical committee. The APPEAL is working for the success of the Democratic party, and will not wear nor ask any one else to wear the collar of any man, no matter what his talents, his ability or position. The people before one man say we—their interests are always paramount. We hope the Democrats of Shelby, and of all the counties of Tennessee, will bear this in mind and ignore the United States senatorship until that is a question before the legislature, when it will be in order for every Democrat to labor for his favorite. Until then let it rest.

IN the face of the overwhelming Democratic victories at the north and the west, we have statesmen(?) advising us that, in the face of controversies growing out of personal venom and spite, out of disappointments, out of spleen against men, measures and parties, the preservation of the Democratic party machinery is a secondary question. Thus, formulating this advice, we have it that, notwithstanding the past triumphs of the Tennessee Democracy by party machinery, in order that Hon. Emerson Etheridge and those who belong to his much-abused(?) company shall go to the legislature to attempt impossible and impractical legislation—we are to break up that party machinery as useless and "turn in" and elect Barbour Lewis, Etheridge and all the non-tax-paying and Radical ring.

THE St. Louis Globe's New York correspondent says the Republic is said to have decided to call next December on its stockholders for the two hundred thousand dollars yet unpaid in of its half million capital. Senator Jones, of Nevada, is declared to have one hundred thousand dollars stock in the paper; President Grant, fifty thousand; Drexel, the banker, fifty thousand; George W. Childs, twenty thousand; Levi P. Morton, twenty thousand; and a dozen well-known Republicans, from one to two thousand dollars each." Grant, Drexel, Mortou & Co. will find printers' ink a costly commodity before they get through with it.

THE J. J. Noah, mentioned by Washington dispatches as disputing Ex-Governor Parsons's claims to the Federal judgeship in Alabama, made vacant by Busteed's resignation, was stationed, says the Nashville Union and American, at Columbia for some time after the war as an agent of the internal revenue department, and is a son of Major Mordecai Noah, who figured very prominently as a leader of the New York Democracy twenty-five years ago. He is just the sort of a man Senator Spencer wants for the place.

A NORTHERN gentleman of superior intelligence, and given to close observation and judicious weighing of facts and probabilities, and who has spent several of the past weeks in Alabama, assures the Chattanooga Times that there can be little doubt of Houston's election as governor, by at least ten thousand majority, together with the entire Democratic State ticket, and a gain of two, and perhaps three, congressmen. So much for the party machinery we are asked in Memphis to ignore.

To the Democracy of the State we have to say that they must not listen to the disorganizers who are in company with Hon. Em. Etheridge, the gentlemen who publish themselves the company of that firm, and who claim that it is abused, and who "kick before they are spurred." Who is not for us is against us, and is therefore not worthy of our confidence. Watch these squirming, dark-lantern, secret-conclave, independent-Radical opponents of the Democratic party.

EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON spoke to the people of Brownsville on Thursday, and will address those of Waverly to-day. Wherever he goes he receives the warmest congratulations and a hearty reception. He will speak at Tracy City, Monday, October 26th; Jasper, Tuesday, October 27th; Cleveland, Thursday, October 29th; and at Greenville, Saturday October 31, 1874.

GOVERNOR BROWN, who has been so earnestly and bitterly assailed, and so unjustly, has been invited, and will address the people of Nashville, on Saturday, the thirty-first instant, on questions, State and Federal, which are now engaging the minds of the people. He will speak to the people of Memphis on the twenty-ninth (Thursday), on the same subjects.

OUR advice to the people of Shelby county, those of the Tenth congressional district, and those of the senatorial and floaterial districts, is to vote the Democratic ticket without scratch. Vote for every man on that ticket, always bearing in mind that a single scratch is that much made for the Radicals.

THE Democracy of the First ward will meet to-night to hear the candidates for the legislature on the political issues. Of course there will be a crowd.
