FINANCE AND TRADE.

YESTERDAY WAS a quiet day in all branches of trade, but there seemed to be no slackness in the demand for money, and paper ordinarily bankable was offered on the street at an unusual discount. It can be imagined that under such circumstances there should be no movement in stocks or bonds, and very little in scrips, etc., if any at all. We heard of no transactions, and the quotations suggested were nominal, so much so that if put in print they would simply mislead. Eastern exchange was firm at par, but with an increasing supply on account of cotton transactions. In coin there was very little movement outside of $2000 at 115¾, taken at one of the banks when the New York quotation was 116¼; dealers reported only small sums offering, and in no case reported a higher quotation than 115¾, so far as buying is concerned.

NEW YORK reported dullness for spot cotton, also lower prices for futures, but the demand here for the former was such as to sustain prices, notwithstanding increased offerings. The day's business was 500 bales, equally distributed between spinners and exporters, features of which were, good ordinary at 11¾@12c, low middling at 12½c, and middling at 13c. At the close, official rates were as annexed:

Ordinary	11@
Good ordinary	12@
Low middling	12¾@12¾
Middling	13 @—
Good middling	13¾@13¾

Quotations are for round lots, unless otherwise expressed; for feed and produce, lower rates. For small purchases rates are proportionately higher.

BRAN—Wheat bran in store $14@16 per hundred, with consignments at the river about $13@19 per ton. No corn bran of consequence, if any at all, in the market.

BACON—Stock light, and embraces very few clearsides, which are relatively high. Sides in store we quote 13¾@14c for clear, and 12¾@13c for clear rib, with shoulders 9¾@10c, loose and packed. Breakfast bacon, as in quality, 15¾@16c. Sugar-cured shoulders, 10@11c. Good to fancy sugar-cured hams, 14@16c, with inferior nominal.

BALING STUFFS—Bagging, as in weight, quality, etc., 14@15c, with new ties 6½c, and old pieces 8@9c, all in store.

BUTTER—Steady, with western 12½@20c as to quality, but none of the stock is more than "relatively" choice, and the upper price is realized only on selections, and in a small way.

CORN—Old shelled scarce, with sacked 70@75c (nominally) per bushel, but there is a liberal supply of new in the ear, also sacked, for which the market drags at 50c.

CORN MEAL—Kiln dried in store, cash, to the city trade, $3 10@3 20 per barrel, with green nominal. Some kiln dried at the river was placed at $3 10, but it is doubtful that found bids at the best would command $3 on arrival.

COAL—Pittsburgh delivered in the city 40c per bushel, and to steamers 45c per box, with inferior qualities 30@35c per box.

CRANBERRIES—Western sound per crate, $5@7, as to quality, out of season and there is no sale at any price.

CHICKENS—Such stock as arrives now is mostly in poor condition, and comes in coops pellmell with choice meats, so the market is rather slack, with sales, as in size, quality, etc., at $7@8 50 per dozen, the upper price realized only for best old.

COFFEE—Firm, with Rio, inferior to choice, 20@26c, as to quality.

EGGS—Country fresh in small packages sold at 22c, but for western it was rather difficult to realize 20c.

FLOUR—Stock in store ranges $4@5 per bbl for inferior to choice, and there is no activity in any grade, white stock under $5 simply nominal. Country flour is competing with western to such an extent that it is impossible to realize cost of the latter.

FRUIT—Choice apples scarce, and worth $7@8 50 per bbl, but there is a liberal supply of inferior at $3@5, as in quality. No domestic pears or peaches arriving except very common stock, and California pears sell at $5@6 per box. Grapes, imported, $4@5 per box, with Catawba from $2@5 per bbl. Lemons per box $12 50@14. Grapes, as in quality, 8@15c for Catawba, very scarce. Dates, per lb, 10@11c. Figs, as in quality, 10@22c per lb.

HAY—Arkansas prairie, dull, and some of the dealers in it are doubtful; the only sale reported to-day was one carload at $9 per ton. No cut timothy arriving, and the next best, which is very slightly mixed, commands only $23 per ton, lower qualities being nominally $15@20.

HIDES, ETC.—Quiet, at the following rates: Flint hides, 15c; dry salted, 11@12c; green salted, 7@8c; and green, 6@7c, as in weight, quality, etc., with damaged 33½ per cent lower. Deer skins—dry in demand at 35c for choice. Sheep and lamb skins command 75@1 50, as in quality, amount of wool, etc.

LIME—In store, on orders, $1 35 per barrel.

LARD—In store, choice refined, 14¼@14½c in tierces, and 14¾@15c in kegs and buckets, with inferior neglected.

MOLASSES, ETC.—Quiet, with molasses, common to prime, in bbls, 60@75c, and sugar-house syrup, also in bbls, 60@70c, as in quality.

NAILS—In store, $3 25@3 50 rates.

ONIONS—Sales of western, as in quality, at $1 60@1 80 per barrel, to dealers, with inferior very dull, though for choice there was a fair demand.

OATS—Steady, with No. 2 mixed on arrival, 43@45c, but inferior are dull at 40c, and some very poor stock was offered to-day at 35c, all at the river.

PORK—Cheap stock has disappeared, and we hear now of no full weight in market under $22 50 per barrel for mess, some dealers asking $25.

POTATOES—Western per bbl, $1 65@1 80, shipping order, but southern are dull at lower prices, though scarce. Sweet, yellow, sell on arrival at about 60c per bushel, but for red there seems to be no demand.

SALT—Domestic per bbl, $1 75@1 85.

TALLOW—Firm at 8@8½c for country on arrival.

SUGAR—Hogshead sugar nominal, stock being very light. Refined in bbls we quote 8¾@9c for brown and yellow, 11@11½c for white, and 11¾@12½c for hard white, powdered, granulated and crushed.

WOOL—Wool quiet, with washed salable at 30@35c, and unwashed at 15@20c on arrival, as in quality, condition, etc., but such as can be sold higher than 40c is rarely seen in the receipts.

WHEAT—Inferior to choice, 75@$1 25 per bushel, with the latter scarce and in request, while the former is almost wholly neglected, and has generally to be shipped for a market.

Weather and Rivers.

Any change in the weather would be more endurable than what we have had to tackle in the past week, of which yesterday was perhaps the worst of all. The thermometer managed to reach the altitude of 63° during the day, but closed at 56°, and the face of nature bedewed with tears. The condition and changes in the rivers at all points are given below:

ARRIVALS.

Illinois, Vicksburg; Frank Forrest, Ashport; City of Chester, St. Louis.

DEPARTURES.

City of Vicksburg, St. Louis; Phil Allin, Friars Point; Era No. 9, St. Francis river.

IN PORT.

Illinois, City of Chester, Frank Forrest.

LEAVING THIS DAY.

FOR ST. LOUIS—City of Chester, Captain Zeigler, at five p.m.

FOR VICKSBURG — Julia, Captain Blake, at five p.m.

Levee Paragraphs.

We want a new deal on the weather question.

The Hon. Phil Allin left for Friars Point yesterday evening with a fine trip, and Commodore Lee as happy as a big sunflower.

Captain Andrews, of the Joplin upper-bend line, left for Louisville yesterday to look after the new boat soon to be put in that trade.

The Frank Forrest arrived from Ashport yesterday afternoon, with 4 bales cotton, 12 sacks seed-cotton, 22 sacks seed, and a lot of sundries.

The anchor-liners City of Chester, for St. Louis, and Julia, for Vicksburg, are the only packets leaving the elevator to-day, both at five in the evening.

The Osceola will be finished and arrive here in a few days from St. Louis, and will enter the Memphis and St. Francis river trade by the first of October.

The Phil Allin wears the blue streamers up to date, having brought in yesterday morning 136 bales of cotton, 660 sacks cotton-seed, 40 packages of sundries, and a good list of people.

Captain Darragh, of the Belle of Texas, received a telegram from Little Rock yesterday, stating that the river was rising from Fort Smith down, with heavy rains above, and four and a half feet in the channel at Little Rock.

The James D. Parker will be in port to-morrow. She got aground up the Ohio, but Will S. Hays turned his battery loose at her through the columns of the Courier-Journal, and she moved right off that towhead instanter.

The Steamer Indiana, which sunk a few days ago in Choctaw bend, was built in 1864 by Captains Reub and J. Stutt Neal, at Madison, Indiana. She has proved a paying investment, but has had finally to succumb to the fate of misfortune.

The high-headed Illinois will be found at her moorings this morning, with clear decks, ready for the immense trip she ought to receive for her return to Vicksburg Friday evening. Captain Joe Speers gives his personal attention to the interests of shippers, and will see that travelers enjoy themselves during the trip down the river.

We were notified by telegraph yesterday from Mr. J. C. Abbott, her clerk, that the St. Francis Belle would leave Memphis for Helena and St. Francis river Friday evening. The St. Francis Belle is a new boat, built expressly for the St. Francis river trade. Her hull was built at Catlettsburg, Kentucky, and was towed from there to Madison, where she received her cabin and machinery and was fully equipped. She is a neat and trim stern-wheeler, 133 feet long, 26 feet beam, and 4 feet hold. She has two double-flue boilers, 38 inches in diameter and 20 feet long. She has two lever engines, 12½ inches in diameter, with 4 feet stroke. She is owned by Captain W. R. Porter, her commander, and others.

The Cincinnati Times, of the twentieth, has the following items of interest: "There is plenty of tonnage for the upper river, even more than the business will justify. The Mary Miller and Ella Hughes are the only boats loading for southern points, the former for New Orleans, and the latter for Arkansas river. The painters commenced work on the Charles Morgan this morning. The Pauley condensers which Captain Albert Stein is having put on the Morgan, will be in place the latter part of the week. The Florence Lee, an Evansville and Tennessee packet, struck a rock, at the Chain, fifteen miles below Paducah, coming out of Tennessee river, late Saturday evening, and sunk in five minutes, with about six inches of water over her boiler deck. The James Fisk, Jr., with barges and a force of mechanics, went to her assistance, and will probably have her afloat to-day or to-morrow."
